Stories have been circulating over the town the past week of the wonderful things Henry Ford was going to do for the place when he buys the Hayden water power, or the car shops, or the old Heesen foundry. Upon investigation the rumors have sifted down to two letters J. R. Nyland, president of the Commerce Club, understanding that Mr. Ford had engineers all over the country looking for water power, wrote the auto manufacturer, detailing the advantages of Tecumseh and as we had no water power to give him offered in behalf of the Commerce Club the old car shops property. F. J. Temple, a warm personal friend of Alfred Lucking, attorney for Mr. Ford, also wrote Mr. Lucking. As yet these letters are unanswered.

The fourth meeting of the Liberty Bell Bird club was held Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hooten, jr. Three new members were taken into the club and several visitors enjoyed the evening, which was spent in bird story reading and telling by Misses Hazel Beevers Gladys Clark and members. A question box proved to be very interesting part of the evening. Work was outlined for the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Clark. After the meeting was adjourned refreshments were served by the hostess. The evening was finished with amusing games.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brazee arrived home Tuesday from a trip extending over 6,000 miles and taking 18½ months. They visited their children at Hastings and Grand Ledge, Mich., Milwaukee, Wis., Chinook, Mont., and Orifino, Idaho. Both have been well on the whole trip and enjoyed every minute.

New Victor Records for April

A new month's Victor entertainment! Here are popular songs with the swing and sentiment and touches of humor that make them really popular; and catchy dance music that stirs the feet to action.

Delightful new numbers, too, by famous and exclusive Victor artists. Braslau sings a dreamy little plantation melody; Caruso thrills with a great march song of the French soldier; the Flonzaley Quartet plays an exquisite Mozart number. Alma Gluck and Efrem Zimbalist present a tender penitential hymn; Jasha Heifetz contributes a remarkable violin solo, and Schumann-Heink sings an impressive number inspired by army bugle calls.

Below you will find a list of the new Victor Records—and remember, any Victor dealer is willing to play any of them for you.

Supt. Reed to Leave

ACCEPTS POSITION WITH MASON SCHOOLS

Higher Salary Takes Head of Tecumseh Schools — Here Six Years.

Having received a more substantial offer, Prof. W. L. Reed, for the past six years superintendent of Tecumseh schools, relinquishes his position here at the close of the school year, to accept a similar position in Mason.

People of Tecumseh may well regret the loss of Prof. Reed, for he has accomplished many good things for the school. Especially is this noticeable since the new high school building has been completed, where the modern equipment speaks well for him as an efficent school superintendent. The changing to junior high and the addition of the agricultural course are recent advancements for which he deserves credit together with the board of education. His work here has been done in a quiet and unassuming manner and will perhaps be more appreciated in the future.

The board of education invited Prof. Reed to remain, but Mason bid higher. No successor for the vacancy has yet been mentioned.

Patriotic Program

REV. WIDDIFIELD TELLS OF ARMY "Y" WORK.

Monday Club Enjoys Splendid Session at M. E. Church.

The patriotic day program given at the Monday club at the M. E. church this week was one of the best of the year. The front of the room was gay with flags, and the audience filled the room until every seat was taken, showing the interest of our woman kind in things of this nature. Mrs. J. D. Shull was leader and the program showed much thought and work on her part.

Mrs. R. S. Moore led community singing, the songs being "Columbia," "America" and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Rev. Jas. G. Widdifield gave an excellent address, telling of his life over in France while a Y. M. C. A. secretary. Right here let us say that had all "Y" secretaries worked as fearlessly and faithfully as Rev. Widdifield, there would need be no adverse criticism as we now hear against the "Y".

He told of walking each Friday nine miles over the mountain and back at the first canteen for supplies. His work was the most menial at this canteen, mopping out the hut, etc. When his troop was sent to the Soisson front he had to make the trip around through Paris. There they found out he could drive a Ford, so from then on it was "Fording through France." While driving his truck load of supplies to some distant canteen the boys along the way wohld acost him and want to buy gum, chocolate, etc., but he could not sell from his load, so told the officer that a traveling canteen would help out and he was given the first traveling canteen in the service. He said "that Ford was a cross between a mountain sheep and British tank; it would go anywhere." Many companies were stationed up the mountains in the chalk caves and others in the underground dugouts. It was his duty to minister to them. The great drawback was his inability to carry large enough loads. In all his travels all he saw from Michigan was Base Hospital 36, in which was stationed Miss Anna Ferguson. He said the French people look upon the Americans as gods—their Joand'Arc.

Mrs. Harry Barnard of Clinton was introduced and sang charmingly "Home Again." She was accompanied by Miss Eleanor Thomson of Clinton Rev. W. A. Rex made an appeal for the Fifth Liberty loan. He says Germany says she is not defeated and would not have signed the armistice when she did if she had not known of the streams of ammunition, aeroplanes and other war equipment we were sending across. It looks as if she plans for the Bolshevik to come and we are to go in and police her country. The most disastrous thing that can happen to us right now is for us not to be able to pull this loan. The Germans would believe us near the end and certainly would not sign a treaty of peace.

Clare Camburn gave "The Long, Long Trail" as a splendid cornet solo, accompanied by Mrs. F. B. Wood. The ladies then sang the chorus to Mr. Camburn's accompaniment.

Miss Laura Comfort was asked to tell of the refugee work over there and she responded with the story of the Friends' refugee work as she had taken part in it. She says the little people don't know how to play, but responded happily to the advance of the Americans. They love the Indian stories best and appreciated their Christmas gifts as any little people do. The Friends unit entertained between 5,000 and 6,000 children Christmas. The unit fed between March 26 and April 12, 1918, 12,000 refugees.

Harold Lowry sang the beautiful song, "The Rose of No-Man's Land," accompanied by Mrs. Wood and it delighted his audience.

Mss Beth Satterthwaite spoke of the boys who hated to leave their pals back there, of the pathos of the lives of the refugees, and of the great appreciation the French have for our help. Her talk was very interesting, but of necessity short.

At the close of the program Mrs. J. W. Beardsley and committee served ices and dainty cakes with red, white and blue icing and bearing little flags.

NEW COUNCIL

TARVIA TREATMENT OF ROADS DISCUSSED.

Experts Appear Before Village Dads and Explain Methods—Old Council Finished.

Monday the municipal administration changed, the old council with President Fisher and Clerk Service completing their work and the new council stepping in. There were no exauguarl or inaugural adresses.

The old council settled bills, paid their own salaries of $3 per meeting and adjourned.

There was little business for the new council, as appointments will not be made until next Monday evening. L. E. Temple introduced O. C. Hovey and A. R. Megary, representing a tarvia road constructing company.

Mr. Hovey gave the members a good idea of what can be done with our streets. Tarvia, he says, does away with dust, adds to the road and keeps what you have.

On Chicago street he recommended that holes be filled up and tarvia B applied. This would cost about 40c or 50c per square yard. It would make the road water proof and dustless.

Evans he would not tarvia until properly drained.

The members of the council asked a number of questions and were quite interested in the subject.

THEY WANT DUGGUID

High School Students Sign Petition and Make Demonstration.

Because they like O. J. Duguid, principal of Tecumseh High, and he has not been invited to remain for another year, the student body of Tecumseh High school made a public demonstration Tuesday evening by parading the streets, incidentally passing the homes of members of the board of education. They carried banners inscribed with "We want Duguid," gave yells and made themselves heard otherwise.

A petition for Mr. Duguid's retention contained 126 names—approximately the name of every high school student.

THEY DON'T GET DUGUID

The board of education met yesterday afternoon to try for a happy ending of the Duguid matter, but after discussion of ways and means with Mr. Duguid could come to no agreement with him.

It seems they need a science teacher caring for both the chemistry and physics classes and Mr. Duguid is trained as a commercial teacher, so could not do the other work. As they have one commercial teacher, the board does not need him in that capacity. The board decided that they did not need him as an exclusive teacher in athletics, in which he has won the school this last season. They regret exceedingly to have to let him go as he is a fine, clean young man, valuable as a director among the student body.

Rev. W. A. Rex and J. R. Nyland were in Holloway Tuesday evening meeting with the committee for that township on the Victory Loan drive. They went for County Chairman Temple, as he was very busy on the work elsewhere.

Special communication Tecumseh Lodge No. 69 F. & A. M. Friday night. Work in F. C. degree.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

John A. Collins was in Northville Friday.

Robert McCoy is driving a new 1919 Buick, just purchased from the Garlinghouse agency.

New backgrounds are being painted at the Sunbeam studio. Robt. Boyle of St. Louis, Mo., is the artist.

Seymour Babcock has returned from Detroit and is assisting at the Sunbeam studio with the kodak work.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Boyce and Mrs. J. C. VanDoren attended the funeral of Wm. Osgood in Macon yesterday.

Mrs. Norman Taylor received a message from her husband Tuesday that he had arrived at Ft. Monroe from overseas that day.

Mrs. Lena Campbell, nee Lena Ward, and two children, Catherine Jane and Ward, of Detroit are visiting Miss Beth Satterthwaite.

The Garlinghouse agency sold and delivered two more new Buicks Wednesday, one to John Teufel of Macon and the other to Robert McCoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Jones were over from Adrian Sunday, guests at Dr. O. Q. Jones'. Oliver is taking a pre-medical course at Adrian college.

"Lest We Forget," a play in one act, is to be given at the High school auditorium Friday evening. April 18, in the interest of the Victory Loan. Admission free.

Letters from Percy and Glen Bowen, who arrived in the United States with the bunch of boys of the 85th, say they are at Camp Upton awaiting transportation to Custer.

The Royal Neighbors yesterday afternoon made their past oracle, Mrs. Harlow Brownson, a stork shower. A picnic supper was served and Mrs. Brownson received many dainty gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fox have moved from the Poucher farm in Franklin to Mrs. Abram Hunt's house on West Kilbuck street. Mrs. Hunt will occupy the west part of the house.

A meeting of the Commerce club was called for Tuesday evening to consider the proposition of new factories. Only two members appeared, so there was no business transacted.

Mrs. H. E. Anderson returned yesterday from Devil's lake where she has spent most of the winter with her son, Will, and family. Mr. Anderson accompanied her home for a few days' visit.

The Big Chief garage are driving two big four wheel drive trucks for the past week. These come from Clintonville, Wis., and are the same as the overnment gave orders for $65,000,000 last year.

Agent Ziehr tells us of the first drop in war tax. Commenciing April 1st tickets and excess baggage up to and including 42c are exempt from war tax. This includes fare to Adrian and Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Packard, Merlow Packard and three little day and Wednesday, going for the wedding of Seaman Packard and Miss Bernice Beardford, which took place Tuesday afternoon at the bride's home.

Mrs. Nellie Westcott was here from Northville the last of the week, a guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Mulvaney. While here she sold her two-family dwelling on East Chicago street to Mr. and Mrs. John Collins.

The Royal Neighbors are invited to meet with the Clinton Neighbors Saturday night. They will go on the 5:35 train and a truck will bring them home. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock and the Tecumseh team will do the work.

Verl Blessing arrived home Sunday night on sick leave. He has been in the service one year and four months, most of the time in the medical corps of the aviation department. Since his enlistment in Detroit Verl has seen considerable territory. He was first sent to Columbus barracks, Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., then on to SanAntonio. Again across the states to Hazelhurst Field, Mineola, Long Island. In a few weeks he was stationed at Field 2, near Garden City, eight miles away, and has been there a year. This is his first visit home since enlistment.

Justice S. P. Hosmer and Miss Asenath arrived home Tuesday from a trip to Florida, where they have enjoyed the ocean breezes and sand fleas. Both bring back a handsome coat of tan and have been well all winter. They were at Daytona Beach most of the time.

Last night the Hayden young people entertained a bunch of live wires from Ann Arbor. In the group were the Misses Evelyn VanTuyne and Winnifred Hobbs, William Clarkson, Burton Garlinghouse, Joslyn VanTuyne and Gay Wilgus. The whole party attended the dance and had the best of good times.

The friends of Sgt. Earl Rector looked in vain for him to arrive with the 338th, 85th division, and became terribly worried at his not wiring. Monday his mother, Mrs. B. J. Rector, received a letter dated March 21 in which he said he had been operated upon March 15 and the incision was healing nicely although he was yet in bed. All are anxiously awaiting further messages.

Wright Doty, a prominent farmer living near Evans lake, went to Bixby hospital, Adrian, last Sunday for medical treatment. Tuesday afternoon Guy Belding was notified of his death and went to Adrian for the remains. The funeral is held today at his home near the lake. He was 59 years of age and had lived alone some time as he had no family.

It is Easy to Go Wrong on the Furniture Question

And many and many a housekeeper has done it. Most of them do it by means of the mail order catalogue.

In it they see pictures of beautiful furniture along with wonderful stories of cheapness.

And they never stop to reflect that things are so fixed in this world that much cannot be bought for little.

Furniture, of all things in the world, cannot be satisfactorily bought without an examination.

We never tire of explaining all about the goods that we sell. And after you have made a selection you can be assured that what you purchase will "make good" in long service.

Editorial Comment

Michigan is in line for progression. This was manifested by the returns of Monday's election. The people of Michigan spoke loudly. By over 100,000 majority they proclaimed the saloon a back number — a poor business proposition to the people as a whole. They fairly shouted "Pull Michigan out of the mud" with a majority of approximately a quarter of a million ballots.

They want good roads—roads that will help farmers get to market and give business interests more efficient transportation facilities. They voted down the amendment that was camouflaged to allow the increase of salaries of supreme judges mostly because the amendment was camouflaged and misleading.

The women of Michigan did not fail—they helped pile up a big dry majority — they helped pull Michigan out of the mud.

Now there is no doubt about having Chicago street improved, and we are in line to get the fifty-fifty Federal Aid. Fortunate indeed for Tecumseh that Chicago street is a part of a main trunk highway.

With such bright prospects for Chicago street the village can surely afford to pull Evans street out of the mud from depot to depot.

The adoption of the county road system is bound to give Lenawee a system of improved roads that will be of great benefit to the people.

Some people may have an idea that it is not necessary to buy of the Fifth Liberty bonds because the war is over and many of our boys are home and more are on the way. We want to impress upon the minds of those that have such thoughts that the Government needs money now just as badly as at any time. Bills must be paid. Here are a few items that will have to be paid for with real money—items for the sustenance of the overseas forces during the present month:

One million pounds of Sugar.

One hundred twenty-three thousand pounds of Chocolate Candy.

Three hundred five thousand pounds Vanilla Chocolate.

Eighty-five thousand pounds of Coffee.

One hundred eleven thousand pints of ketchup.

Forty-one thousand pounds of Macaroni.

Fifty thousand cans of Pears.

Twenty-four thousand cakes of Shaving Soap.

Forty-nine thousand packages of plain Chocolate.

There are fifty or more specifications like these, running up into the millions of pounds of things that the "boys over there" must have if they are to avoid scurvy, hunger and other disagreeable things.

The money cannot be "printed on the printing press. It must come out of the people's pocket. The soldiers over there are there for the sake of the people; the people sent them; and the people have the bills to pay.

This Victory Liberty Loan is the simple method devised by Congress to pay the bills. The people evidently preferred to lend the money to the Government, rather than to be more heavily taxed. That is why the Victory Liberty Loan is to be offered.

Of course, there are thousands of arguments just as valid as the one set forth above, in defense of the coming Loan. The Loan Worker will do well to give close attention to this one, as a very potent answer of the question "What are you going to do with the money?"

Sabbath Observance

SUBJECT OF COMMUNITY SERVICE SUNDAY NIGHT

Automobile Sanctioned if Used for and Not Against Church—Sunday Picture Shows Denounced.

Sunday evening the Community service at the M. E. church was fairly well attended, the the church being comfortably filled. The other attractions of the town and a slight shower just before church time might account for the smaller attendance. The ministers of the town are making every effort to make these Sunday evening meetings interesting and the villagers have turned out well. Now that warm weather is coming the one hour or a little more spent in God's house won't hlrt any of us.

Among the announcements given was the service nert Sunday night at the Presbyterian church when Capt. J. A. H. MacLean will tell some of his experiences during three years as chaplain with the Canadian forces in France.

Rev. C. M. Thompson made the address of the evening using the text from Mark 2:27 "The Sabbath was made for man." He started out saying he hoped no one would be guilty of criminal logical misrepresentation and repeat after the service things he had not said.

He told the history of the Sabbath, its origin, its necessity to man as a day of rest, a God-given institution and its sanctity commanded by God through the ages. The people who failed to keep it have failed as a nation, as in the instance of France and her fall.

Jesus found the Sabbath much abused, yet the Jews have 613 rules of living and are slaves to law. They found fault with Him because he shelled a few kernels of corn in his hand while passing throught a field. It was here he said the Sabbath was made for man. Yet they were buying and selling in God's temple on the Sabbath day.

He explained how the day came to be the first day of the week instead of the last. The disciples kept the Jewish Sabbath and also the first day honoring Christ's coming from the grave, calling the latter the Lord's Day.

God on the first day brought forth light on the chaos then reigning, then on the first day again the larger light came into the world. The Gentile Christians never kept Saturday. The story that the day was changed by a Romsh pope is false. The day was observed by Christ's own disciples and kept commonly by Christians, and Constantine made it a law.

Man should keep the day in a way that will do him the most good. The day was made for all men, rich and poor, thinkers, students, working men, and best of all, the children. It is about the only day many can give their children. We should make it a delight for them, teaching them of the things of Christ.

He didn't fail to administer a resounding slap at the man who is too lazy to get up Sunday morning and so detains his wife from church. That man is committing a crime against both wife and children.

Rev. Thompson said the message from the pulpit Sunday mornings should be direct from the Bible, a real gospel sermon. We should get the things for our self on Sunday that are good for our soul, our mind. "I do not believe man gets very much for his mind out of Sunday newspaper—not much that will help mind or soul."

Then, too, his body, man has the right to things on God's day that will help his body. "I would use my auto on Sunday if I had one. First, I'd use it to go to church." He was in favor of the organization of an auto club for church attendance. He favors taking the family for a ride in the afternoon after church service, but does not favor the long, all-day jaunts where the hostess at the home visited is kept home from church to cook for the tourists. "As surely as God gave us this holy day, just so surely have we no right to keep our friends from church by visiting all day." Then, too, he is strongly opposed to celebrating holidays on Sunday. That kind of thing is breaking down God's day. The church is commiting suicide by desecrating God's day and neglecting God's house. France in national convention in 1793 decided to observe one day in ten. She went to ruin physically and morally. Napoleon restored the Sunday but this war has driven France to her knees. We are guilty of being pleasure mad. "The Rise and Fall of this Republic" will be written if we don't be careful in our reverence of the Sabbath. There is no loss in giving God his own.

In comments on the Sunday theatre he said, "I would go to a Sunday theatre about as soon as I'd enter the door of perdition. I hope the christian people of Tecumseh will give these picture shows a cold shoulder. Probably the smaller attendance tonight is accounted for by the fact there are two running right close beside us."

In closing he said "The command stands, — 'Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.' "

SMOKING TOBACCO FACTS FROM THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA

The Use of Flavorings Determines Difference In Brands

The Encyclopædia Britannica says about the manufacture of smoking tobacco: "...on the Continent and in America, certain 'sauces' are employed ...the use of the 'sauces' is to improve the flavour and burning qualities of the leaves." Which indicates that a smoker's enjoyment depends as much upon the flavoring used as upon the tobacco.

Your nose is a sure guide in the matter of flavorings. Try this simple test with several tobacco brands, pour some tobacco into your palm, rub briskly, and smell. You will notice a distinct difference in the fragrance of every brand. The tobacco that smells best to you will smoke best in your pipe, you can rest assured

Carefully aged, old Burley tobacco, plus a dash of pure chocolate, gives TUXEDO Tobacco a pure fragrance your nose can quickly distinguish from any other tobacco. Try it and see.

RIDGEWAY VOTES DRY AND FOR GOOD ROADS

Democrats Win on Supervisor, and Highway Commissioner, Republicans Capture Balance of Ticket.

The election Monday brought out a large vote in Ridgeway township and the people seemed to have a decided opinion as to how to vote.

Ridgeway people want good roads so they voted for the bond issue and the county road system. They don't want the saloon and the result of the ballot showed a large majority against the beer and wine amendment.

The vote was as follows:

Bonding amendment — Yes, 247; no, 233.

Beer and wine—Yes, 136; no, 429.

State salary—Yes, 97; no 409.

County road system—Yes, 276; no, 178.

The state ticket went Republican by good majorities.

The vote for township officials follows:

Supervisor—
Grant H. Osterhout	257
Walter L. Exelby	308—51
Clerk—
Owen B. Lenardson	315—62
Myrtle I. Taylor	253
Treasurer—

Leo W. Robison	234
Justice of the Peace—
Charles Spohr	321—85
George H. S. Wood	236
Highway Commissioner—
Albert W. Lee	275
William B. Swick	286—11
Members Board of Review—
Garfield Grey	302—48
Ernest H. Oliver	254
Overseer of Highways—
Lavern J. Lynn	306—53
James T. Adams	253

Constables (first four Republican)—C. H. Beach, 306; John Rickard, 299; Norman McConnell, 305; John Curtis, 292; Leon C. Exelby, 258; Francis W. Yates, 244; Charles Myers, 257.

Preparations are going forward for an Easter service by the Sunday school.

The Willing Workers will meet with Mrs. S. Gould next week, April 17th instead of this week. Don't forget the change of date. It is the annual meeting and all members are requested to be present.

The Friendly class held their meeting Friday with Mrs. Geo. Quick. A potluck dinner was served and the time pleasantly passed in sewing.

Prayer meeting this evening, Thursday. Try and be there.

Christian Church Notes.
Rev. J. C. DeRemer, Pastor.

Regular services next Sunday morning. Morning service begins at 10:30 followed by Sunday school. C. E. meeting at 7:00 o'clock followed by evening service beginning at 8 o'clock. The public will receive a cordial welcome to the services.

The members of the Bible class will meet this afternoon, Thursday, at the parsonage.

Don't forget the Dorcas class supper to be served Thursday evening the 17th on church parlors. Everyone invited.

Geo. Bright, of Morenci, gave an interesting and instructive talk Sunday evening that was much enjoyed by all.

Britton News Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Feldman and family moved Monday in Mrs. T. V. Hoagland's house in the east part of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hause of Clinton spent Sunday with Mrs. Abbie DuBois.

Sullivan Exelby and Mr. McCann of Detroit were guests the latter part of the week of Mr. and Mrs. John Exelby. Mr. McCann is a brother of Mrs. Exelby whom she hasn't seen for 60 years, as he has lived in the northern part of the state until recently when he and his family moved to Detroit. It was a happy reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clement of Adrian spent Sunday with Mrs. H. Martin.

Britton High school boys defeated Saline Friday evening the score being 29 to 13. Saline girls, however, won out over our girls. A fine social time followed.

Edward Gripton is ill with tonsilitis and a hard cold.

Miss Norma Gorham was home Saturday evening and Sunday from Adrian.

Miss Alice Boyd was home for the weekend from Detroit.

RECEPTION

RETURNED SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND NURSES

Welcome Extended Under Auspices of G. A. R. and T. B. A.—Excellent Program.

The reception given Monday night by the G. A. R. and T. B. A. for the returned soldiers, sailors and nurses was an unqualified success. The post rooms were packed with friends wishing to so do honor to the brave young people just home from overseas.

George J. Keyser and H. W. Stevens had charge of the program and that it was heartily enjoyed was evident from the frequent applause. Mr. Keyser presided and introduced the various speakers most happily.

The program began with the singing of "America" and while the audience were yet on their feet Mr. Keyser told of Lincoln's prayers to the Almighty and asked Rev. C. M. Thompson to invoke divine blessing on this patriotic effort also.

The nurses, Misses Satterthwaite and Comfort, who helped in the Friends reconstruction work in France, told of their life there and the work being done for the injured refugees as their training as nurses brought them more into the phase of the work.

Harold Skinner, who came home only last week, asked to have questions put to him as he didn't know what would be most interesting to a home audience. His answers showed he had kept his eyes open and remembered well what he saw. He had been in the engineering corps and his account of the work of this department proved very instructive.

Leon McLachlin told of the life of the sailor, the work on the transports, on which he made the trips across several times, and his well trained mind had been quick to grasp the points most interesting.

Rev. W. R. Curtis took for his theme "Patriotism," lauding the three young ladies who dared so much to go across and work for the benefit of humanity, the boys who fought for Uncle Sam and our standard of patriotism in helping out the other nations. He exhibited a photograph of the "Human Shiedl" taken at Custer while he was attached to the "Y" work there.

Rev. Edw. Escolme, in a few words, paid a charming tribute to the loyalty, bravery and self-forgetfulness of our boys and the nurses.

Delightful musical numbers interspersed throughout the evening's program were vocal solos by Mrs. Eugene Billings and Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans, piano duets by Misses Mildred and Marion Brooks and patriotic songs by the audience.

OUR CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Methodist Episcopal Church.
Rev. C. M. Thompson, Minister.
Sunday, April 13.

9:30 Devotional half hous, led by Comrade Wm. Smith.

10:00 Public worship. Prelude to sermon. The Victory Liberty Loan. Sermon topic. "The Lost Christ." This sermon preached on a week night some time ago is now repeated by request.

Singing by young peoples' chorus choir.

11:30 Sunday school. This is decision day in all Methodist Episcopal Sunday schools.

3:00 Preparatory membership class at the parsonage.

6:30 Epworth League.

7:30 Community service in Presbyterian church.

The special feaures of church life last Sunday were the large number receiving the Holy Communion, eight new members received into church fellowship, five of them young men, and an attendance of 166 in Sunday school.

Remember the Union Lenton services this week and the special Centenary Passion week services next week. These services will have a unique feature each meeting.

The pastor will preach at Springville next Sunday afternoon and at Tipton in the evening.

That was certainly a fine meeting of the Sunday school board with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Linn last Monday evening with an attendance of 60. The supper was extra good and the program very enjoyable. Mr. and Mrs. Linn proved themselves royal entertainers.

St. Peter's Episcopal.

B. Y. P. U. at 6:15.

Union service at the Presbyterian church at 7:30.

Special services each evening of next week except Monday and Saturday in this church.

Notes.

The opening services this month in the Sabbath school are conducted by the men's class. A male quartet will be one of the features.

Pastor Curtis said last Sunday: "We don't need a new religion, but a new application of the old one, and by this application the church will be a power in the days to come in shaping even national affairs."

A number of the Scouts are now past their second test and one has been accepted in New York as a first lass Scout.

A group of Camp Fire girls are forming and will take their hike to the woods next Saturday. Any desiring to go, meet at the home of Mrs. Morse at 10:30. Bring luncheon.

The talk given before the men's class Sunday by Dr. North upon Egypt was very interesting.

Free Entertainment at High School Auditorium, Wednesday, April 23 8:00 P. M.

The fifth number of the High School Lyceum course will be given next Wednesday at the auditorium. This is a complimentary number and is free to all holders of season tickets only.

The number is composed of four young ladies attired in the costumes of the Allies, whence it gets its name, "The Allies."

Singing and speaking will comprise the greater part of the program. We believe that this is going to be a peppy number and at any rate it will cost season ticket holders nothing.

We would like to take this opportunity of expressing our thanks to the community for supporting this undertaking so loyally, and might add that if Tecumseh will continue to support better Lyceums from year to year that we will again have the high class entertainments that Tecumseh has had in years gone by.

SPRING FARM TOOLS

Use Superior Drills for Bigger Crops

Place your seed in the ground at just the right distance apart. Cover it with dirt at just the right depth. Let it germinate, grow and ripen uniformly and you are bound to get bigger yields. To make every seed count—to make every foot of ground produce a maximum yield use

Superior Grain Drills

They distribute the seed like a good watch ticks off the seconds and minutes. There is no irregularity or slip-ups and you get dependable results under all conditions. Made for sowing all large and small grains in 4-6-7 and 8 inch rows in plain grain and fertilizer styles. Strength and simplicity are features of the Superior line and every drill is sold under guaranty.

Constructed for Use With Any Tractor

Special features: Double run positive force grain feeds—two feeds in one. Parallel disc bearings guaranteed for life of drill. Superior telescoping steel conductor tubes—non-breakable; no buckling, kinking, bending or collapsing. Superior patented oscillating drag bars insure 50% more clearance.

A few days ago one of the leading manufacturers wrote us guaranteeing prices for 1920. That does not look much like a drop in price.

You need some farm machinery.
You ought to have it to prevent the possibility of loss from damaged crops.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Floyd Powell and family are recovering from the flu.

Chauncey Vogel, of Raisin is the new owner of the Philip Kehoe homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Graebner were in Toledo Sunday, the latter going for medical treatment.

The annual meeting of Tecumseh O. E. S. No. 51 April 10. Election of officers. Potluck supper at 6 o'clock. April committee will serve coffee sugar and cream all members are urged to come.

Mr. and Mrs. John Goudy returned last week from Fostoria, Ohio, to which place they had been called by the death of a brother of Mr. Goudy.

The Masonic club rooms and dining room are being redecorated. In the club rooms the lights are being rearranged and when finished the apartments will be pretty nifty. Ed Hand is the artist and is doing a pretty fine job.

That the people of this vicinity appreciate the best in automobiles is proven by the number of high grade cars bought this spring. H. S. Temple has just purchased of L. E. Temple & Co. a Willys-Knight Four Sedan, a beauty. It has inside trimmings of sterling silver and equipped complete even to vanity case and cigar holders. E. L. Parker of Clinton also bought of the same firm a Willys-Knight coupe, just as handsomely trimmed. Gordon Bailey drives a Paige and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ahrens enjoy an outing occasionally with a Chummy roadster. Floyd Owens has a new Ford sedan and Glen Kemp a new Ford touring car.

Fleischmanns yeast at Avery's. —adv. 4-17

Rev. Edw. Escolme spent last week with friends at Orange, O.

Mrs. Julia Haas went to Ridgeway Monday to visit at Chas. Dibble's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bachtal and little daughter are visiting his people at Malinta, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Boyce have sold their home on North Pearl street to John T. Boyce to give immediate possession. Lynn Butrick and his sister, Mrs. Ida Spencer, who lived in the north part, have broken up housekeeping and Mr. and Mrs. John Frost have moved into those apartments, leaving vacant their home for the new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Haviland.

Henry Frey Croll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Croll, came home from Camp Custer Friday on a short furlough, returning Sunday. Private Croll was one of 32 of the medical department to pass a recent examination for army seal clerk. Only one other private passed the examination, the others being officers. Mr. Croll does not as yet know to what station he will be assigned.

Forty friends and neighbors very pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kehoe last Fri- home three miles northeast of Tecumseh. The invaders brought with them the makings of an appetizing supper which was thoroughly enjoyed. Cards and games passed the hours quickly and until after midnight hour all enjoyed a good time. Mr. and Mrs. Kehoe were presented with a nice gift of silverware. They moved this week to their home near Bath, Mich.

Mrs. Chas. McDermott of Adrian visited her sister, Mrs. Will Cummings, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Bumpus entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tonnenburger of Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Schreder were in Jackson Sunday, guests of her son, Leland Heidenreich, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Packard and Adelbert Packard visited Mrs. Packard's parents in Manchester Saturday and Sunday.

Clarence Alderdyce moves a load of Andrew Kehoe's belongings to the latter's new home near Bath tomorrow.

A program of music and a short address will accompany the play, "Lest We Forget," at High school auditorium next week Friday night.

Miss Albertine Cardwell of Millington visited her sister, Miss Corinne, from Saturday to Wednesday. Miss Albertine teaches at Romeo.

Last Sunday Clarence Alderdyce drove his truck to Battle Creek, taking a load of household goods for Lynn Alderdyce of Prospect Hill.

Mrs. Foster Johnson and little daughter returned to their home in Cleveland Monday evening. They had been with Tecumseh relatives for a six weeks' visit.

The ladies of the 500 club met with Mrs. E. Kloffenstein Thursday afternoon. After the game refreshments were served. Mrs. F. M. Mulvaney will entertain the ladies next week Thursday.

Mrs. Julia Haas and daughter. Mrs. Norman Gray entertained Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoenes, of Clinton, Horace Dibble and daughter, of Ridgeway, Mr. and Mrs. Newman Gray, of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carson.

Next Monday evening the Adrian chapter of Eastern Star No. 112 celebrate the 25th anniversary of their organization. The Tecumseh chapter assisted in the ceremonies the quarter century ago and now they are invited to be guests at the anniversary, which takes place at Adrian Masonic temple. Supper is to be served at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. R. M. Moiles kept open house for the Westminster Guild Tuesday evening, Mrs. H. W. McClure and Mrs. Chas. Gillen as assistant hostesses. There was a fine turnout of members and many visitors had been invited for the gathering. The scripture lesson from Job was read by Miss Grace Gillespie and the subject, "Does suffering come from sin" discussed. In the study session, the book "The Path of Labor," was resumed and the life of the mountaineers discussed by Mrs. Fred Marsh and others. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The days in "The Couple of Million" adv should read "Thursday and Friday" instead of Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Ives and Miss Edith Smith attended the Pomona Grange at South Dover Thursday.

The children and grandchildren of Dr. John Murphy made him a surprise visit Sunday. They brought a bountiful picnic dinner and made the day pleasant for the father.

Mrs. Martha Boyd returned Friday from Oxbridge, Ont., after a seven weeks' visit.

Their Unfinished Work and Ours

The Victory Liberty Loan is a call to finish this work-- Respond from your heart

THE GREAT PURPOSE WHICH LAY BACK OF THE WAR WAS FAR TOO VAST A TASK FOR ANY ONE BODY OF MEN TO PUT THROUGH TO A FINISH.

OUR SOLDIERS HAVE — ARE DOING — THEIR PART. GOD KNOWS WE NEVER WANTED THEM TO DO MORE.

BUT WHAT OF US?

WINNING THE WAR WAS THE INITIAL STEP TOWARD A WORLD PEACE AND PROSPERITY OF WHICH HITHERTO WE HAD NEVER DARED TO DREAM. BUT IT WAS ONLY A STEP.

THE WORK OF THE MOST GLORIOUS ARMIES OF ALL HISTORY PLACED US ON THE THRESHOLD OF AN OPEN DOOR. -A NEW WORLD OF UNLIMITED POSSIBILITIES LIES BEYOND. THEY COULD NOT BRING IT TO US. THEY COULD ONLY SHOW IT TO US, AND ITS VAST WORTH—AND GIVE THEIR LIVES TO DO IT, IF THAT WERE NEEDED.

IT IS OUR TASK TO FINISH THIS WORK.

THEY SHOWED US THE WAY AND PASSED ON—PERHAPS TO NEW WORLDS TO CONQUER. AND WHETHER WE WILL OR NOT, THE SOLEMN OBLIGATION TO FINISH THEIR WORK HAS FALLEN UPON US.

> "If ye break faith with us who die,
> We shall not sleep—though poppies bloom
> In Flanders fields."

YOUR PATRIOTISM AND MINE WAS NOT BURIED IN THOSE GRAVES IN FLANDERS FIELDS. THERE IS STILL WORK TO DO—FOR OUR COUNTRY, FOR OUR CHILDREN. ELSE THE WAR WILL HAVE FAILED IN ITS PURPOSE—AND MILLIONS OF YOUNG LIVES WILL HAVE GONE OUT ON A VAIN QUEST.

LET'S FINISH THE JOB

Owing to the anticipated short time, the high interest rate, and being the last loan offered, investors and bond companies are prophesying that in a very short time the Fifth Liberty Bonds will be way above par.

AN EXCELLENT WAY TO INVEST.

Say you have $200 in cash to invest and you calculate to buy just as many bonds as you can. Suppose you use that $200 in this manner: Take $2,000 worth of bonds, pay 10%, or the $200 down. Buy on the Government plan of six months and borrow the $1,800 at the bank, using the $2,000 bonds as collateral for the loan. The average cost to you for interest per year will be about $20.

In a short time this bond will be at a premium, or valued much in excess of par.

Ask your township Chairman what your township quota is. Plan to borrow enough money so every township in Lenawee county can be over the top on the first Volunteer day.

For years Old Lenawee has been the first county in the United States in Agriculture. Now let it also be first in Bond Buying. Let Old Lenawee be known from coast to coast as the first county in Agriculture and the first county to go over the top on Volunteer day.

Don't wait. Negotiate the loan now, then tell your neighbor what you have done, and persuade him to do as well or better.

LAST SATURDAY ONE TECUMSEH MAN, AFTER ASKING CHAIRMAN H. S. TEMPLE TECUMSEH'S QUOTA, INFORMED HIM THAT HE WOULD TAKE TEN PER CENT OF TECUMSEH'S ENTIRE ALLOTMENT FOR HIS FIRM. WHAT WILL YOU DO?

SAFE, GENTLE REMEDY BRINGS SURE RELIEF

For 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has enabled suffering humanity to withstand attacks of kidney, liver, bladder and stomach troubles and all diseases connected with the urinary organs and to build up and restore to health organs weakened by disease. These most important organs must be watched, because they filter and purify the blood; unless they do their work you are doomed.

Weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, pains in the loins and lower abdomen, gravel, difficulty when urinating, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago all warn you of trouble with your kidneys. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are the remedy you need. Take three or four every day. The healing oil soaks into the cells and lining of the kidneys and drives out the poisons. New life and health will surely follow. When your normal vigor has been restored continue treatment for a while to keep yourself in condition and prevent a return of the disease.

Don't wait until you are incapable of fighting. Start taking GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules today. Your druggist will cheerfully refund your money if you are not satisfied with results. But be sure to get the original imported GOLD MEDAL and accept no substitutes. In three sizes. Sealed packages. At all drug stores.

NOTICE OF LETTING OF DRAIN CONTRACT

Notice is Hereby Given, that I, Conrad Ottgen, County Drain Commissioner of the County of Lenawee, State of Michigan, will, on the 29th day of April A. D. 1919, at the Drain on the Highway at SE. Cor. SE. ¼ SE. ¼ Section 16 in the Township of Macon in said County of Lenawee, at Ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, proceed to receive bids for the construction of a certain Drain known and designated as "Extension of Watson Drain," located and established in the Township of Macon, in said County of Lenawee, and described as follows, to-wit:

A strip of land 50 feet wide on each side of the center line of the drain will be necessary to hold the excavated earth and for other purposes in the construction of the drain.

Surveyed Dec. 16, 1918.

J. L. Richard,
County Surveyor.

Said job will be let by sections. The section at the outlet of said drain will be let first, and the remaining sections in their order up stream, in accordance with the diagram now on file with the other papers pertaining to said Drain in the office of the County Drain Commissioner of the County of Lenawee, to which reference may be had by all parties interested, and bids will be made and received accordingly. Contracts will be made with the lowest responsible bidder giving adequate security for the performance of the work, in a sum then and there to be fixed by me, reserving the right to reject any and all bids. The date for the completion of such contract, and the terms of payment therefor, shall be announced at the time and place of letting.

Notice is Further Hereby Given, That at the time and place of said letting, or at such other time and place thereafter to which I, the County Drain Commissioner aforesaid, may adjourn the same, the assessments for benefits and the lands comprised within the "Extension of Watson Drain Special Assessment District," and the apportionments thereof will be announced by me and will be subject to review for one day (from nine o'clock in the forenoon until five o'clock in the afternoon).

The following is a description of the several tracts or parcels of land constituting the special assessment district of said Drain, viz: Township of Macon at Large 6 rods each side of the Drain as surveyed across the

Now, therefore, all unknown or non-resident persons, owners and persons interested in the above described lands, and you John Ladd as supervisor of the Township of Macon and you Chas. Hindes as Highway Commissioner of the Township of Macon and you Henry Miller, Smiley Watson, Ray Gilmore, Mrs. John Lieder, F. Totten Jos. W. Osborn, Robert Kerr, B. Bryan, C. Daisher and Nelson Skinner Estate are hereby notified that at the time and place aforesaid, or at such other time and place thereafter to which said hearing may be adjourned, I shall proceed to receive bids for the construction of said "Extension of Watson Drain," in the manner hereinbefore stated; and also that at such time of letting from nine o'clock in the forenoon to five o'clock in the afternoon the assessment for benefits, and the lands comprised within the "Extension of Watson Drain Special Assessment District" will be subject to review. And you, and each of you, owners and persons interested in the aforesaid lands, are hereby cited to appear at the time and place of said letting, as aforesaid, and be heard with respect to such special assessments and your interests in relation thereto, if you so desire.

CONRAD OTTGEN,
County Drain Commissioner of the County of Lenawee.

At a session of said court, held at the Court House in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 8th day of March, A. D. 1919.

Present, Honorable Burton L. Hart, Circuit Judge.

Upon reading and filing the Bill of Complaint in this cause, duly sworn to by the plaintiffs, from which it satisfactorily appears that the defendants hereto have some titles, interests, claims, liens, or possible rights to the premises described in said Bill of Complaint and hereinafter described; and said plaintiffs averring that all the titles, interests, claims, liens, or possible rights of said defendants and each of them are barred by the open, notorious, exclusive, and continuous possession of said plaintiffs, or their grantors, for more than fifteen years last past, and for more than fifteen years since the several rights to the possession thereof accured in said defendants, and that such possession has been during all of said time and still is adverse and hostile to the titles, interests, claims, liens or possible rights of the respective defendants and their predecessors in title; that plaintiffs have not been able to ascertain whether the said above named defendants, excepting Lenawee County Savings Bank and Mrs. Jeanette Cannon, and their several unknown heirs devisees, legatees, and assigns, or any of them, are living or dead, or where they or any of them reside, if living, or whether the title, interest, claim, lien, or possible rights of said parties, or any of them has been by them, or any of them, assigned to any person or persons, or if dead, whether they or any of them have personal representatives or heirs living, or where they, or any of them reside, or whether such title, interest, claim, lien or possible rights, which they or any of them may have has been disposed of by will, although they have made diligent search and inquiry.

On motion of Earl C. Michener, attorney for plaintiffs, it is ordered that the above named defendants, or their several unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, and assigns, cause their several appearances to be entered herein in the manner provided by law, on or before three months from the date hereof.

It is further ordered that this order be published or served as required by law.

Burton L. Hart.
Circuit Judge.

Examined, Countersigned, and entered by me,
Emery B. Root,
Clerk of said Court.
Earl C. Michener, Adrian Michigan, Attorney for plaintiff.

The above entitled suit involves the title to and is brought to quiet and clear the title to land and premises described in said Bill of Complaint, as follows:

Those certain pieces or parcels of land situated in the township of Deerfield, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

The west one-half (½) of the Northeast quarter (¼) of Section Nine (9), and the East one-half (½) of the East one-half (½) of the northwest quarter (¼) of Section Nine (9), in Town Seven (7) south of Range Five (5) east, containing one Hundred and twenty (120) acres of land, more or less, (excepting and reserving a strip of land off of the south side thereof now owned and occupied by the New York Central Railroad Company). 4-27

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage, (whereby the power of sale therein contained has become operative), dated, executed and delivered on the 22nd day of March, A. D, 1915, by Charles W. Stout, and Sara J. his wife, to Robert Orr, and recorded in the office of the REGISTER OF DEEDS in and for the county of Lenawee and state of Michigan on the 25th day of March, A. D. 1915, in Liber 195, of mortgages, on page 58, and there being claimed to be due at the date hereto of the debt secured by said mortgage the sum of One thousand five hundred and forty six dollars and no proceedings at law or any equity having been taken for the collection of said debt, or any part thereof:

Notice is therefore hereby given that, for the purpose of realizing the moneys due and secured by said mortgage, with interest accrued and accruing, and costs of this proceeding (including a lewful attorney fee), I will, on the 21st day of April A. D., 1919 at the east front door of the court house, in the city of Adrian, county of Lenawee and state of Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit Court for said county of Lenawee is holden), at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, that parcel of land in the village of Tecumseh, county of Lenawee and state of Michigan, described as follows: That parcel situate on the Westerly side of Mill street in said Village and bounded as follows: Bounded on the East by said Mill street; on the south by lands formerly owned by David VanTyne and now owned (as is supposed) by Tenny; on the west by land formerly owned by John Usborne and now owned (as is supposed) by Lydia M. Coryell; and on the north by lands formerly owned by Lewis Coller and now owned (as is supposed by Henry Smith Estate,—and which said lot hereby intended is six rods wide from North to South fronting on Mill Street, and twelve rods long from East to West.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

WHEREAS, default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the 15th day of March, A. D., 1915, executed and delivered by Benjamin F. Evilsizer and Josephine Evilsizer, husband and wife, of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, to Veva Hardcastle, of the same place, and which said mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the County of Lenawee, Michigan, in liber 195 of mortgages, on page 64, on the 16th day of March, A. D. 1916, at 8 o'clock A. M., and whereas, the amount claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date of this notice is the sum of Four Hundred Twenty-five (425) Dollars of principal and interest, and the further sum of Eighteen and 75-100 (18.75) Dollars by said mortgagee paid for taxes upon premises hereinafter described, and the further sum of two and 86-100 (2.86) Dollars by said mortgagee paid for insurance of buildings upon premises hereinafter described, making the total amount due on said mortgage, at the date of this notice, the sum of Four Hundred Forty-six and 61-100 (446.61) Dollars; and no suit or proceeding at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt now remaining secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof, whereby the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative:

Now therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of said power of sale, and in pursuance of the statue in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the amount of said principal and interest now due on said mortgage, and interest to accrue thereon, together with said sum so paid for taxes and insurance, and the costs of this foreclosure proceeding (including an attorney fee as provided by law, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the east front door of the Court house, in the City of Adrian, in said County of Lenawee, on the 30th day of June, A. D. 1919, at ten (10) o'clock in the forenoon of that day: which said premises are described in said mortgage as follows, to-wit: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate and being in the Village of Tecumseh, in the County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, and more particularly described as follows: Bounded by beginning in the east line of Pearl street at northwest corner of lot formerly owned by Joseph Wilson, and now as is supposed by Snell, and running thence north about four (4) rods to south line of Bidwell street; thence east about ten (10) rods to west line of L. S. & M. S. depot grounds; thence south in west line of said Depot grounds four (4) rods to said Snell lot; thence west ten (10) rods to place of beginning.

Still, not many presidential booms are likely to originate in the United States senate.

Do YOU want to make $500 grow into $20,000, as many others HAVE done?

HERE is an opportunity for you to make a sound, safe investment in a dividend paying Preferred Stock, yielding eight per cent per year. But WITH the preferred stock goes COMMON stock which means a full share in the PROFITS.

These are the securities of an established, very successful and rapidly growing Motor Truck Company whose sales are expanding every week. Its net earnings for LAST year were very considerably more than the amount of the dividend on the Preferred Stock. The NEW BUSINESS now in hand will earn the Preferred Dividend many times over.

By all the rules which govern sound investments your money is SAFE in the Preferred Stock. The Common Stock may do for you what Billy Grove's common stock did for him.

Billy Grove was a clerk in the Downey House, Lansing, Mich. In 1904 he put $1,000 in the original issue of Reo Motor stock. To-day his fortune is counted at $119,000. There are many like Billy Grove who enjoy incomes of thousands of dollars every year from the COMMON STOCK of automobile concerns which cost them but a few hundred.

A Few Examples.

In eight years the investment of $1,000 in stock of the Chalmers Motor Company grew to $16,666 stock and earned $9,297 cash dividends. In six years $1,000 stock of the Stutz Motor Car Company of Indiana grew to $2,000 stock and earned $21,750 in cash dividends. In the Hudson Motor Car Company $1,000 stock grew to $20,000 stock in FOUR YEARS and in addition the company paid cash dividends which have not been made public. In the Hup Motor Car Company, $1,000 stock grew in seven years to $40,000 stock and earned $48,160 cash dividends.

In the Reo Motor Car Company in thirteen years $1,000 stock grew to $12,000 stock and earned $12,850 cash dividends. In addition the company in 1913 distributed to its stockholders $600,000 stock in the Reo Motor Truck Company, equal to a 30% dividend, and THEN, afterward, paid a 7% cash dividend on the stock of the Truck Company.

Due to the rapid growth of the Motor Industry it has been customary for concerns with large earnings to declare stock dividends to stockholders. Thus a company with 10,000 shares of common stock and net earnings of $3,000,000 for the year would be able to pay a cash dividend of $3,000 to each owner of $1,000 of common stock. But rather than make such an unbalanced payment they would probably—as they frequently do—first increase the capitalization and give each owner of $1,000 of common stock perhaps $10,000 MORE common stock and THEN pay a cash dividend of 25%, giving him $3,000 in cash on the common stock which he then owned. Its MARKET value, or the price a stock paying such dividends should bring in the case the owner wanted to sell it, would probably be about $44,000. One good year with business conditions prosperous has enabled not a few automobile companies to make net earnings of OVER $3,000,000. That is how so many comfortable fortunes have grown from very small investments in the MOTOR Industry. That is why it is entirely possible for YOU to place $500 in the Preferred Stock we offer you, have your money safely and soundly invested with an excellent opportunity to have the COMMON stock which goes with the preferred grow to $20,000 or more in a time not far distant.

Motor Truck Profits.

In the Federal Motor Truck Company $1,000 stock grew in six years to $30,000 stock and earned $12,180 cash dividends. What the automobile concerns did in the way of large earnings the successful Motor Truck Companies are JUST BEGINNING TO DO.

The war has revolutionized the use of Motor Trucks and the movement of freight, raw materials and merchandise. Every one knows that Motor Trucks won the war, that their wonderful mobility, strength, lasting qualities and great carrying capacity enabled us to arm, equip and maintain over three million men with unheard-of speed and that the armies and peoples of all Europe learned the need and value of Motor Trucks just as we learned it. What few of the general public know is that the vast, but exactly tabulated, records of war use show that a horse or mule CONSUMES twenty-five per cent as much as it PRODUCES. A standard Motor Truck consumes LESS than ONE PER CENT as much as it produces, and this consumption includes operation, maintenance, repairs and replacements. Moreover, the life of a Motor Truck working at full capacity every day is twice as long as the life of a horse or mule working at full capacity every day. During the war horses working at maximum capacity for ten consecutive days were often killed by the strain of those ten days.

Now that the war is over the whole world has waked up to the imperative need of Motor Trucks. Europe has never learned quantity production of automobiles or trucks. South America, Africa and Asia are not machinery manufacturing countries. America is the Motor Truck builder for the world.

Unparalleled Demand.

The demand for trucks for commercial use THIS YEAR is greater than ALL the trucks built in this country for private use in the last FOUR YEARS. Just as the freight carrying business of the railroads entirely dwarfed the passenger carrying business, so the demand for the freight carrying motor truck is beginning to RUN AWAY from the passenger carrying automobiles. It is becoming so that a man CAN have a pleasure car if he feels he can afford it, but he MUST have a FLEET of Motor Trucks in his business or he cannot hope to equal the low costs of his competitors.

At the Chicago and New York Motor Truck Shows just concluded the Truck Company whose stock we offer you was besieged by Truck dealers who sought to place orders for more trucks for THIS YEAR than the company has manufactured in the last THREE years, and their output has been large.

You CAN'T turn the clock back ten years and buy the original issue of Reo stock and so run $1,000 into $119,000, like Billy Grove did. But you CAN secure stock in this Motor Truck Company which has the opportunity for growth and earnings in the next three years to a volume which should make pleasure car earnings look SMALL.

Assets.

The Truck Company has a splendid property of 43 acres within 30 miles of New York City. Its fifteen buildings are the last word in modern construction. The assets directly behind the Preferred Stock we offer you are vastly greater than the outstanding preferred. Its facilities, buildings, machinery and equipment are all complete and are ready for an increase of output to FOUR TIMES the present output.

Management.

Its management consists of men prominent in the Motor Industry since its inception, successful in the extreme and known throughout the nation. They are leaders in the industry and are particularly well known to the best dealers throughout the country, whose confidence they possess through many years of fair dealing and mutual profit.

The department heads are men who have spent their lifetimes in quantity production and the workmen are of a grade so superior that it would be difficult to duplicate this organization.

Type of Truck.

The company manufactures a one and one-half ton truck, and records show that 76% of ALL merchant users and 90% of ALL farmers require this type of truck. In addition the company manufactures a powerful, sturdy, short coupled chassis which pulls two-wheeled bodies of three and one-half and five ton capacity. Thus it serves EVERY need of industry, which is why the volume of available orders is so great.

Security.

There are no bonds or other obligations ahead of the stock we offer you. There is directly behind the Preferred Stock assets in property, factory buildings, material, trucks in process of manufacture and completed, shipments on the road to dealers far greater than the total Preferred issued or now offered. That is why you can consider your money to be so safely and soundly invested in this Preferred, which has a record of paying 8% dividends.

Use for the Money.

This offering of Preferred and Common stock is to provide funds to increase production through the purchase of materials. There is a need for OVER a quarter of a million of trucks THIS YEAR in this country and abroad. MANY TIMES more than can possibly be supplied. The orders available to this Truck Company are TWENTY-ONE TIMES its output for last year. If it can supply the needs of the territory served by its BEST dealers it will mean an increase over last year's production of 6,000 trucks and ADDITIONAL earnings of over $1,200,000, to say NOTHING of the demand from many NEW dealers and for export. Its trucks are in use in fifteen foreign countries NOW and repeat orders for export are increasing every week.

It is a big year for earnings on the Common stock. It may be YOUR chance to do what Billy Grove did.

How You Get the Common Stock.

Every purchaser of two shares of Preferred stock which is sold at its par value of $10.00 is entitled to buy one share of Common stock for $1.00.

Thus $63.00 buys six shares of Preferred and three shares of Common.

$105.00 buys ten shares of Preferred and five shares of Common.

You can buy on the Partial Payment Plan if you prefer.

In our opinion there is no security offered in the market to-day which combines to give you the opportunity of sound, sure, safe investment of your money in a high grade 8% Preferred Stock with a record of earnings and dividends behind it, and at the same time the opportunity of making a fortune, as Billy Grove did, from the enormous expansion of an industry due to world changes which never CAN occur again in our lifetime.

You Can Trade In Other Securities.

Torrey & Company are specialists in Automotive Stocks and Bonds, but we handle other securities as well. Our business in the New York and other markets is large and growing. If you have investments in other Preferred Stocks or Bonds which yield less than 8%, or if they do not give you the very great profit which is offered you by the Common Stock of this Truck Corporation, we shall be glad to quote you the market price on your present securities and, if you desire, sell them for you.

CLINTON

The most delightful social gathering the Culture club has enjoyed for some time was the supper given Thursday, March 2, at the club rooms in honor of the Kitchen Band. At 6:30 the guests were seated and a delicious supper served. After supper the club president, Mrs. Olds, introduced Mrs. Starlie McGillen as toastmistress and under her leadership a very pleasant hour was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Semark were entertained at the country home of M. and Mrs. Laurence VanGieson wednesday evening of last week. Thursday morning they went to Detroit.

Saturday evening, March 30, the managers of the Clinton Woolen Mfg. Co. served a wonderful chicken pie banquet at the Textile club rooms for the members of the club to honor the second anniversary of the organization of the club. The menu consisted of the following: Olives, pickles, fruit cocktail, chicken pie, mashed potatoes, succotash, cabbage salad, cottage cheese, doughnuts, coffee, ice cream and cake. After supper there was a dance.

Mrs. Escott and family have moved into their new home recently purchased from Henry Mahrle.

Oley Mahrle took possession of the dray line he has purchasel from J. E. Earl.

Monday evening of last week Miss Eva Paynter and Mr. Gordon Thrasher were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Paynter. They will reside in Detroit.

Church St. is now the busiest street in Clinton. Walter Cotton is tearing down the old Millspaugh house preparing to erect a new bungalow and Clarence Feldkamp has begun work on his new house on the lot purchased from Fred Reiser, jr.

More of Clinton's representatives in the war are returning home. Among them are C. D. Mattoon, Fred White and Berkley Larzalere. All were in service overseas and have now been discharged.

Oscar Halladay has left Clinton for his new home at Waters, Otsego county.

Among the important business changes are the sale of the L. B. Hittle drug store to F. I. Hard, and the McClure bakery and restaurant to J. E. Earl, formerly in the dray business. L. B. Hittle, who is well known over the entire northern end of Lenawee and southern Washtenaw, will be missed from the business street, as he was considered one of the progressives in any town welfare movement. His successor F. I. Hard, is well known to the community as a careful and efficient pharmacist. He will conduct purely a drug business, with cigars, soda fountain and ice cream as side lines. He will contnue to handle the well known Rexall line of goods. Mr. Hard withdraws his interest and severs his connection entirely from the B. O. Randall & Co. firm, and his new business enterprise will be conducted as his own.

OVER THE TOP 12 O'CLOCK MONDAY NOON

THAT'S THE SENTIMENT PREVALENT IN TECUMSEH

Enthusiastic Victory Liberty Loan Meeting at Grange Hall Tuesday Evening—Talk of Private Rottman Gives Finishing Pep Touch.

An unusually enthusiastic meeting followed a seven o'clock supper given at Grange hall Tuesday evening at which were gathered Victory Liberty Loan workers—men and women who are intensely interested in getting Tecumseh over the top first on Monday.

A roast beef supper was served under direction of a committee composed of Lester Rogers, Mrs. Geo. Rathbun and Mrs. R. T. Mead, and after grace by Rev. W. A. Rex the company fell to and enjoyed the appetizing and substantial repast.

The inner man satisfied, Lester Rogers presided as toastmaster, introducing speakers and numbers in a tactful and appropriate manner.

As Mrs. F. B. Wood began to play "America" the company arose and sang two verses. The Temple quartet followed with a pleasing selection and responded to an encore.

Toastmaster Rogers, stating that Tecumseh was fortunate in having a man big enough to be selected as county chairman of the Victory Liberty Loan campaign, introduced H. S. Temple.

Chairman Temple spoke briefly and told of the cheerful news he had received that the quota of Lenawee county has been placed at $1,748,750, against $2,550,000 in the last Liberty Loan campaign He told of Adrian organising strongly in an effort to catch up with Tecumseh. He told Adrian that Tecumseh would be over the top by noon Monday. "Let's go over the top in the morning and celebrate in the afternoon," is the plan he wishes carried out here.

The Temple quartet gave one of their splendid patriotic selections, very appropriate to the times, but as the members were obliged to leave, deaf ears were turned toward the hearty applause.

Rev. C. M. Thompson, after his well known opening pleasantries, talked upon the subject of "Shirkers, Jerkers, Workers." He likened people who shirked their duty to a Methodist horse he once owned—an animal that had all the possibilities, but wouldn't go. These shirkers have various excuses, but any man that claims to be an American should not refuse to invest in Victory bonds. The jerkers, he said, do, well for a time; probably subscribed for first, second, third and even fourth Liberty bond issues, but are falling down on the fifth. In speaking of the workers he complimented the women who have so faithfully worked all though the war. The brave women of this country had as much to do with the saving this world as the men. His appeal to stand by the Victory Loan was a forceful one.

R. A. Heesen was called upon for a few remarks. Mr. Heesen told in a straight forward, forceful manner where he stood as an American citizen. He said: "They say we can't fight, why we gave them their breakfast in '76, their dinner in '61 and we are ready to give them their supper at any time. Had our boys kept at it 65 days longer there would have been no armistice." Mr Heesen urged all to put their shoulders to the wheel and put Tecumseh over the top at 12 o'clock Monday noon.

The most interesting talk was that giving by Pvt. Sam Rottman, who was one of the first to volunteer and saw some real service. He gave a sketch of his experience from this time of his enlistment until the time he was wounded and returned home.

His experiences in the trenches as related were very interesting and his story of going over the top thrilling. On the Alsace Lorraine front the French thought they couldn't trust the Americans alone, so placed two French companies with every American regiment. While in the trenches a corporal saw and shot two Germans. The Frenchmen objected to this; said they waited until the Germans started things before they fired. The corporal told the Frenchmen they came over for business, not to play. Among the other interesting stories was the capture of a camouflaged German machine gun and the capture of Cantigny. They went over the top at 5 o'clock and captured the town at 9, resisting all German counter attacks because it was the first town captured by Americans and they were bound to hold it.

Other stories of battles were equally interesting and thrilling. He told how he, with only $12 per month pay, bought two liberty bonds at $10 per month, leaving him but $2 per month. If Germany should hear that the Victory loan had in truth failed, it would be to them the biggest military victory they have won. In conclusion Private Rottman said: "We went to fight and now we expect you to come across."

Rev. J. G. Widdifield was next called upon and spoke very briefly. He said the only ones having an excuse for laying down on the Victory Liberty Loan were those under the little wooden cross in France. He wondered if the Victory Loan failed, would more crosses rise up.

Rev. W. A. Rex said that after hearing Private Rottman the pep was about taken out of him. He would like to take this real American with him to some of the Yankees in the southern part of the county that have refused to buy bonds. The German is not yet crushed; we should jam the Victory Loan down his throat and choke him.

County Chairman H. S. Temple took occasion to thank the ladies and all who took part in making the meeting such a fine success.

J. H. Smith, president of Tecumseh State bank, asked the amount of the county's and Tecumseh quotas.

Mr. Temple gave the figures for the county as $1,748,750 and for the township $98,000. This is considerably less than the quota on the last loan.

Mr. Smith gave assurance that his bank would stand ready to help the people of Tecumseh put the loan over by 12 o'clock Monday noon. The Lilley State bank gave the same assurance.

Chairman Temple stated that the government did not want the banks to take up the Victory bonds, as the banks would be asked for loans later and they must also keep money on hand to finance farmers and business enterprises and keep commercial activities from becoming stagnant.

Rev. Rex called attention to the patriotic play, "Lest We Forget," given at the school auditorium tonight, free to the public.

W. L. Jones announced the Victory bargain day to be given on Monday, the first Volunteer day, and invited all to come down town, participate in the savings offered and celebrate going over the top on the Victory Loan.

Much credit is due Mrs. Polly Mattis, the caterer, who had exclusive charge of the supper, for the excellent service and success of the banquet. Mrs. Mattis donated her services for the occasion.

JUNIOR PLAY A SUCCESS

FARCE-COMEDY, "A COUPLE OF MILLION"

Greeted by Two Big Houses—Junior Class Clears $175 and Win Much Praise.

The play, "A Couple of Millions," a delightful farce-comedy staged by the junior class of Tecumseh High school at the auditorium Thursday and Friday evenings, was a decided success, and as a result the class earned $175 and gave pleasure to many people.

The story of the play opens in a law office in New York, when the will of Mr. Silas P. Chizzleton is read: The will left to his nephew his millions, with three codicils — first the nephew was to move to a town of less than 5,000 inhabitants to reside for one year; secondly, he must marry within six months, and thirdly, he must while residing in this town accumulate $5,000. Providing these requirements are not met the millions revert to an old friend of deceased, Prof. Noah Jabb, of Opaloopa, Ala. After many ventures against odds, Bemis Bennington, the nephew, would come up smiling with more determination to win, and win he did, both the fortune and the golden-haired blond of Opaloopa.

The cast of chracters was as follows:

Bemis Bennington, who gets the Chizzleton millions — George A. Newsome.

Hon. Jeremy Wise, a New York lawyer—Homer Hanham.

Professor Noah Jabb, a crook right—Gladwin Orr.

Mrs. Clarice Courtenay, a rich widow—Margaret VanWinkle.

Pink, a housemaid—Emily Higgius.

The Juniors can well feel proud of their first venture in theatricals, as every one who witnessed the play will say. Mr. and Mrs. Laidlaw and Miss Donaldson, of the faculty, with their untiring efforts were instrumental in making the play so successful. Music was furnished by P. G. Heidenreich, Miss Edna Taylor and Tom Denniston. Ralph Hodges was the business manager.

Lester Coller took several views after the performance.

The new stage settings were very good, the first scene was a law office, the second an out door scene asd the final was a drawing room. The drop curtain is brown in the center of which is displayed the head of an Indian warrior—Tecumseh's emblem.

TECUMSEH ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS

MAY 17 ANNUAL REUNION SPANISH WAR VETERANS.

Live Meeting of Business Men Monday Night—Arrangements Made for Victory Bargain Day and Entertainment of Soldiers and Sailors.

At a real live, enthusiastic meeting held in the Tecumseh club rooms Monday evening preliminary arrangements were made to entertain the annual reunion of the Spanish War Veterans to be held here on May 17, and in conjunction to entertain all soldiers and sailors of the world war.

The meeting was primarily called to arrange for a Victory bargain day on next Monday, the first Volunteer day of the Victory Liberty Loan campaign. A fine representation of the business interests of Tecumseh was present, and the meeting was one of unusual harmony.

W. L. Jones called to order and stated the object of the meeting. It was proposed to have a Victory bargain day and money was heeded engage the services of a band, purchase material for decorations and advertise. It was the purpose to have band concerts afternoon and evening and have a real live time.

Under the smooth persuasion of Lester Coller, chairman of the committee, money began to flow in immediately and in a few minutes over a hundred dollars were subscribed.

Lester Heesen was appointed committee on decorations, and flags, bunting, etc., were ordered purchased.

Every business man was urged to advertise bargains for the day and the Victory Loan, and to keep their stores open Monday evening.

The High School Cadets have promised to give exhibition drills and a general good time is anticipated.

Bert Gray, one of the Spanish War Veterans, called attention to the annual reunion of those veterans to be held in Tecumseh May 17. He suggested it would be an excellent time to also entertain returned soldiers and sailors of the allied armies, including all who enlisted for the war. He urged that live men of Tecumseh get interested and shove [illegible] good one. The boys have not forgotten the reunion here 11 years ago and are anxious to come here again.

Mr. Gray has been busy on the proposition. Witherell hall has been secured for the occasion and the members of the Ladies' Band have consented to provide the dinner. It is also expected that they will participate as a musical organization. Fraternal and other organizations will be asked to take part in the parade.

W. E. Barrett was elected chairman of a committee on general arrangements.

As it will require from $400 to $600 to properly entertain the soldiers and sailors, and as it is a community affair, it was voted that the township board and the village council be asked to appropriate $200 each to help defray the expense. The township board voted $200 for that purpose at a meeting last evening and it is expected that the village council will take similar action at its meeting Tuesday evening.

It looks like a big time for Tecumseh May 17.

Captain MacLean

TELLS OF THE HORRORS OF THE WAR

Large Congregation at Presbyterian Church Sunday Evening Listen to the Story as Told By One Who Was There.

Again was the Presbyterian church filled Sunday night for the Community Service. During the opening services the Temple quartette sang "The Boys of '76" with vigor. Among the announcements made were meetings at the Methodist, Friends and Baptist churches from Tuesday to Friday evenings this week, honoring Passion Week, and a Good Friday service at the Presbyterian church Friday night. Also on Sunday night next there will be an Easter musical at the Presbyterian church when the offering will go for the charity of the town. Rev. W. A. Rex ten introduced Capt. J. H. A. MacLean of Mason. Born in England, Capt. MacLean had enlisted in a company of volunteers in the Canadian army at the outbreak of the war and had spent three years at the front. One day a shell tore away the rear of a car in which he was riding and for three days he was without speech. It left him with the usual nervous affection of shell shock and he was discharged. It is still very noticeable in is speech.

He told how this war had cemented the friendship between England and America, how when we fought the battles of '76 we were fighting not the English but a German on the English throne who could not speak English and was not loved by the English any more than by the Americans.

His speech was full of the awfulness of the war, many of them his own experiences and those of his friends. Some were to show the American women what their Belgian and French sisters had to stand and what the Americans by the early closing of the war had escaped.

We know "War is hell," the German is taught it is beautiful; any way we've given them more of it than they wanted.

The Captain in his work as chaplain met men of all religions and found as a Roman Catholic priest told him "denominationalism is dead." He one day preached in the pulpit of a Catholic church over there, which too was an unusual experience, demonstrating how the bars of creed have been demolished.

One fact he mentioned as important and showing one of England's future troubles is that there is not a student in Oxford and Cambridge. What is England going to do for a statesman in a few years?

"The spirit of the nations stood together. Now we are one—we are free." But the final work is yet to comt. We are called upon to contribute toward the expense of bringing our brave boys home and helping France and Belgium who stood between us and the enemy. "We must help in this final cost and be one in Liberty."

KERAN-UNDERWOOD

Returned Soldier and Bride Take Honeymoon Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Keran, of Britton were in town yesterday, taking the train for a honeymoon trip to Ohio points. They were married yesterday at 2 p. m. at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Underwood, only the immediate reatives being present. Rev. DeRemer performed the ceremony. Upon their return the young people will reside in Britton.

Mr. Keran has only been home from France, a few weeks, having served across seas nearly 18 months in the coast artillery of the 1st army.

Miss Imo Underwood, the bride is very popular in her home village and has also many Tecumseh friends, whose best wishes are extended to the happy couple.

Editorial Comment

"Tecumseh is going over the top at 12 o'cock Monday noon." That's the sentiment of patriotic Tecumseh. It is the sentiment enthusiastically expressed at the Grange hall Tuesday evening. Yes, we're going over the top and we are going to do it quickly.

Another meeting that was unusually harmonious and full of pep was that of business men Monday evening, when plans for Victory bargain day and the entertaining of soldiers of the war just closed and the Spanish-American war veterans, who meet in annual reunion in Tecumseh May 17. Although all business places were not represented, the attendance was good.

Between one and two thousand editors from the Seventh Federal Reserve district, comprising the states of Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Iowa, attended an inspirational Victory Liberty Loan meeting at Chicago last Friday. It was without doubt one of the most notable gatherings ever entertained in the nation's second largest metropolis.

One of the mosa interesting addresses listened to by the large Michigan delegation was that of our own James Schermerhorn, a Lenawee boy now of the Detroit Times and one of Detroit's most popular editors. Mr. Schermerhorn also presided over the meeting.

Among the points brought out by Mr. Schermerhorn were the following: Urge people strong to borrow and buy bonds. Don't take savings out of the banks: borrow on future savings. Leave money in the banks for business. Farmers and business men must have the aid of banks or business will become stagnant. Be a Volunteer. A patriot should not be obliged to solicit from a patriot. Don't find fault with your government at Washington. It is the best government you have heard of and you wouldn't change it for any other in earth.

In this Victory Liberty Loan we are not asked to pay for the war. You are asked to pay for the guns, ammunition and supplies; you are asked to pay for the guns that have never been fired that saved the lives of thousands of American boys. You are asked to pay for the boys that have been saved, and they are worth many times the price.

Mr. Schermerhorn said God has been good to the world. He gave his only son to save souls and then he gave America to men to save liberty.

We have not only the living to please but also the dead. The dead have paid for the war; the crippled and maimed that will carry their sacrifice until they pass beyond the stars have paid for the war. The people are asked to loan money to the Government to pay for the guns, ammunition and supplies that were rushed across the waters, the large and steady shipments of which overwhelmed the enemy and compelled him to seek peace.

In the afternoon, after an excellent luncheon served in the gold room of the Congress hotel, there was a great gathering at the Auditorium theatre, when the editors were addressed by Major Thompson, Major General Leonard A. Wood, Frank R. Wilson, director of publicity, Gov. J. F. MacDougall of the Federal Reserve Bank and others prominently engaged in the great war work.

The distinguished Major-General Wood received an ovation, the big audience of editors rising and cheering lustily as he appeared upon the stage. His appeal was made in a soldiery way—straightforward and to the point.

There is only one way for Tecumseh or any other township to go over the top. Every one must get behind the loan. Little petty jealousies must be forgotten—all must work together.

There are many sound reasons why people should buy Victory bonds. First, they are the best investment yet offered the people by the Government. They will be the last Liberty bonds offered the people. They bear four and three-quarters percent interest, partially tax exempt, with maturity in four years.

The Government is in debt. Who and what is the Government? Every one of us United States citizens is a part of this Government. That makes it our debt. We must pay our debt.

Talking recently with a returned soldier, an officer by the way, the question was asked: "Wasn't it a mistake to allow Germany to quit; wouldn't it have been better to secure a military victory—to annihilate the German army?" He answered: "Not by any means To continue the war would have cost America hundreds of thousands of men. It would have been horrible, although America would have won in the end."

Every patriotic citizen of Tecumseh township and Lenawee county should take pride enough in their resident township and county to go over the top on the first Volunteer day — Monday, April 21. It can be done if every one gets behind the gun.

COMMMUNICATION

Let's Be First Over the Top. (As Usual.)

To the Editor and Citizens of Tecumseh:—

I heartily appreciate the honor conferred upon me by electing me to the highest office within the gift of the people of the Village of Tecumseh. I have nothing but the best interests of Tecumseh at heart, from a patriotic, business, social and moral standpoint and hope and trust that I may have the co-operation of all of the citizens of Tecumseh. I fully realize in accepting this office, I am assuming a large responsibility. The office is usually termed a thankless job and full of kicks. It is out of the question for anyone to please everybody.

Now if any one knows where gambling is going on and can furnish sufficient evidence to convict, let me know and complaint will be made at once. But do not write me any anonymous letters or hear say stuff, because nothing can be done on that kind of evidence. The same is true in the cases of the so called houses of prostitution.

I have been considerably interested in the community services held in the several churches this winter, especially in the so called Tecumseh Nights. Many good ideas have been brought out as to what should be done but none of the writers have furnished any plans or method whereby they could be accomplished. I have heard it remarked several times in the pulpit by one preacher, what he would do if he were elected President of the village, in regard to Sunday picture shows. I have looked into the matter and find that he doesn't have to be president to stop the picture shows. He has the same right to make complaint as I have, as an individual only. I have taken some pains to investigate ths matter, I have interviewed at least one hundred people and about 25% want shows closed, 25% don't want them closed, about 50% are indifferent and don't care whether they are or not. Complaint must be made through the Prosecuting Attorney of the county. Personally, after my investigations, I do not care to assume responsibility of making complaint, at least not at present.

But above all let us be patriotic. We have been honored by having one of our townsman appointed chairman of the county committee for the Fifth Liberty Loan. Mr. Temple has for the last month or more spent practically all of his time to make this loan a success and it is incumbent on us to put our shoulder to the wheel and assist him in every way possible, and not lose sight of the fact that this money has got to come from some source, as the most of it has already been spent. We must bear in mind that war is not over yet, at least from a financial standpont. Every day some of our boys are coming home and some of them are disabled for life, and it is up to us to show our apprecation by furnishing the means whereby they may be educated in some vocation, so that they may not be dependent on charity the rest of their lives.

As a business propdsition this loan is better than a mortgage on real estate, it sure is better than money in the bank at 3 per cent Most of us at least can raise the initial payment of 10% on a $100 or $200 bond, and the banks will take care of us for the balance. I know that there are today thousands of dollars worth of bonds in homes of the workingmen in Tecumseh, that never before had one dollar ahead. This is a good way to save money. BUY BONDS. You paid for the last one and you can pay for this one. Tecumseh has in nearly if not every loan been the first over the top. Let us finish the job right and keep up our reputation. As President of the village, I urge you to subscribe at once for your bonds on the FIRST volunteer day, April 21, and not wait until the committee call in you as they surely will if the money is not forth-coming.

Sincerely yours,
Geo. B. Hines,
Village President.

MICHIGAN GOING OVER VICTORY LOAN

SENTIMENT AT BIG EDITORS' MEETING, CHICAGO.

Over 350 Michigan Publishers Participate in Victory Loan Meeting—Prominent Speakers.

More than 1500 newspaper publishers fom Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Iowa, the five states comprising the Seventh Federal Reserve District, attended a Victory Loan conference in Chicago last Friday. The newspaper men were guests of the loan leaders of this district.

In the morning meetings were held separately by the states, but after the splendid luncheon in the gold room of the Congress hotel, a mass meeting was held at the Auditorium theatre.

Sixty-eight counties in Michigan were represented by over 350 newspaper men. James Schermerhorn of the Detroit Times gave a splendid address and also presided over the meeting. Addresses were also made Frederick R. Fenton, A. P. Johnson of the Grand Rapids News, Editor Onaway of the Port Huron Times-Herald and Mrs. Mills. The latter has been in Tecumseh meeting with township chairmen and a committee of women loan workers. Edgar Guest of the Detroit Free Press made a hit in reciting some of his famous war poems.

The afternoon meeting was held at the Auditorium theatre at 2:30. Music was furnished by a military band.

The welcome address was made by Major Thompson, who also pledged the support of his office and city officials.

Major-General Leonard A. Wood, U. S. A., received an oration. He said:

"We have had fighting courage; now we must have reason courage. This loan must not be forced upon the banks, for if it is there will follow a tightening of business, an abbreviaton of opportunties of employment which must not happen at this time. Our soldiers must have jobs. Prosperity is certain. There are no more hyphens—they were wiped out in the war. We are one naton united in this fight to preserve what we have won by a more bitter and more costly kind of fighting. There must be no slowing up of business, for this is a dangerous time."

Governor Joseph F. McDougall, of the Federal Reserve Bank, said:

"The patriotic impulse was never more striking in any of the other loans than it is in this one. We must pay now for the vast stores of materials and the trained men the possession of which saved this country from 100,000 to 200,000 of its best boys. Because we spent the money we now must raise, those boys did not have to die or be maimed."

Governor MacDougall urged that the writers and editors understand thoroughly that it was the desire of the government that the loan be as widely distributed as possible and that the people should not rest content in the thought that the banks could and would take it all up.

Other speakers were Benjamin F. McCutcheon, director of publicity; Miss Grace Dixon, of the Woman's division; Arthur Wood, former New York Police commissioner and now representative of Secretary Baker in the soldiers' encampment work; Frederick R. Fenton and Rev. Dr. George C. Stuart who saw oversea service as a chaplain.

He Escaped Influenza.

"Last spring I had a terrible cold and grippe and was afraid I was going to have influenza." writes A. A. McNeese, High Point, Ga. "I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It was a sight to see the phlegm I coughed up. I am convinced Foley's Honey and Tar saved me from influenza." Contains no opiates. Good for children. Sold everywhere in Tecumseh. adv

They Hit the Spot.

D. McMillen, Volunteer Fireman's Home, Hudson, N. Y., writes: "Foley Kidney Pills are like a stream of water played on a fire by firemen. They hit the spot, put out the fire and drown the pain." Band Music Afternoon and Evening

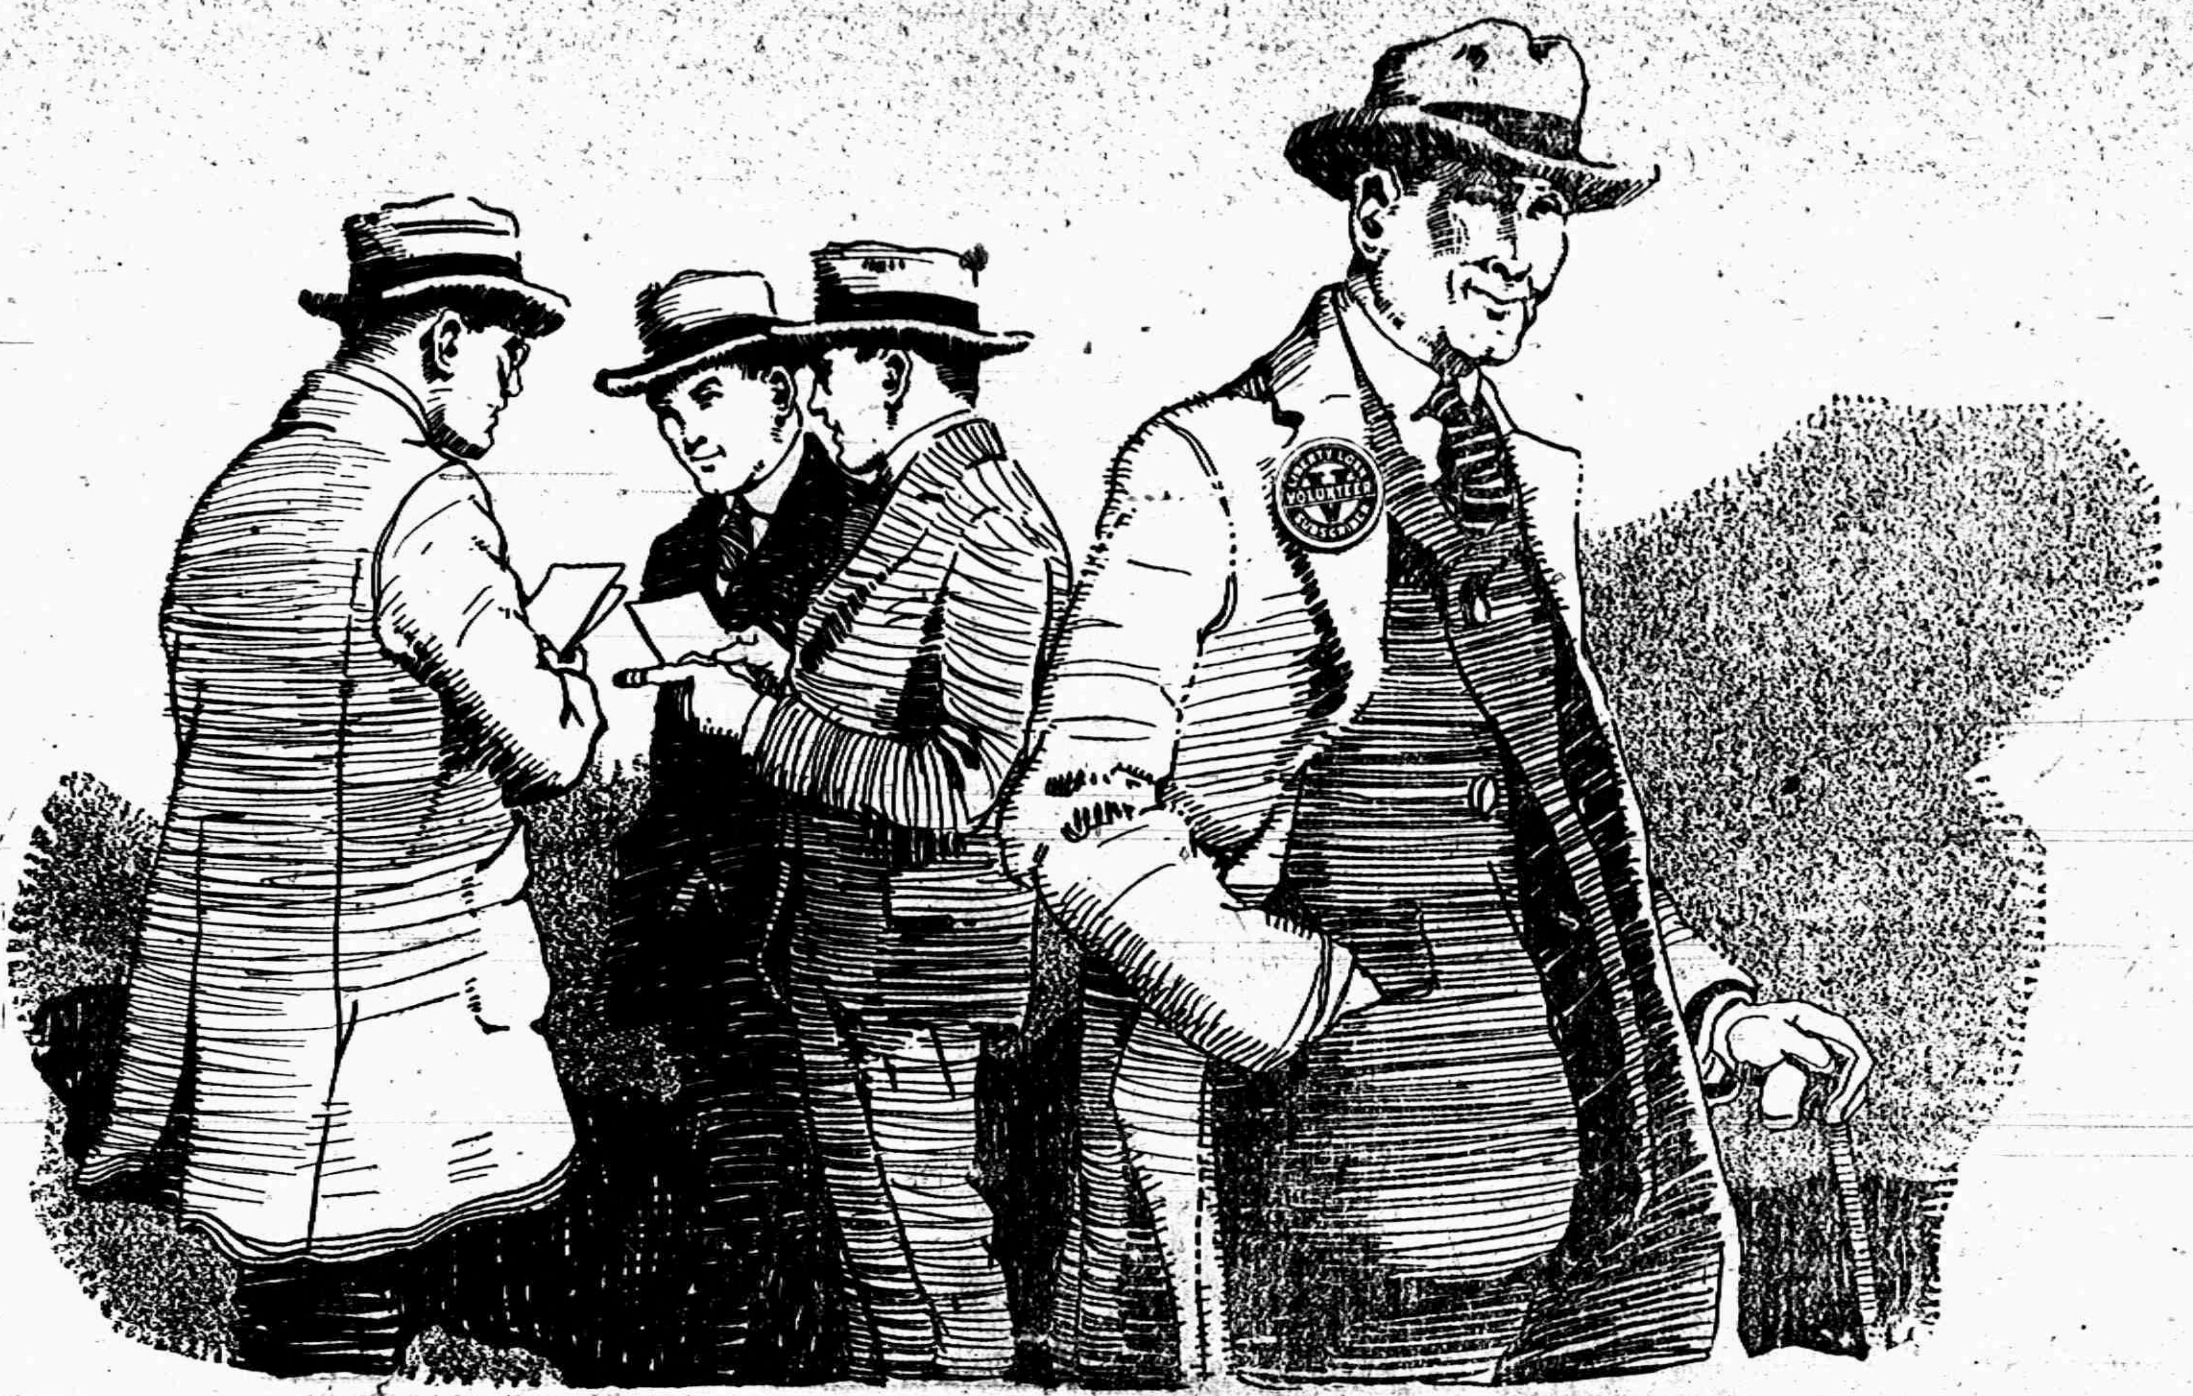
"Let's Go Over" On VOLUNTEER DAY!



Do you remember the time when you said you'd pay the doctor any amount he'd ask if he would only save your child's life? Did you afterwards kick about the bill?

Did you ever hear of a business man who complained about the size of the expense account of the salesman who landed the big order of goods?

Weren't you among the crowd of people who said, "I would give anything to end this war, so that the boys could come home and we could settle down to business again?"

Well, here's the least you can give. You can prepare to subscribe to the Victory Liberty Loan to your limit. This is simply lending your money on the world's best investment. Then, on every occasion, tell your friends and neighbors that Uncle Sam has to foot the bill to bring the boys home from overseas. Tell them that the war is not over, nor is their responsibility ended until all the war debts—their debts—are paid.

The entire state of Michigan will follow the volunteer plan for the Fifth Liberty Loan.

Why should it be necessary for you to spend your valuable time at this time of the year soliciting your friends or they you for bonds? Volunteer and save this time. Volunteer early Monday, the 21st, so old Lenawee can be the first County in the state. to go over the top.

The first Volunteer day, Monday the 21st, go to your bank, pay 10% on what you are going to buy and please remember this is the best way to buy bonds. Say you have $50.00 saved. Use this $50 to make a 10% payment on $500.00. You have about six months free time. Then go to your bank put up your $500.00 bonds as collateral, give your note for $450. When this note becomes due renew it. You have interest to pay on the note; you also have interest coming to you on the bonds. The difference between what you pay and receive will be about $6.00 per year. It is announced these bonds will be four year bonds. In the meantime these bonds, being short time bonds, will increase very much in value; there is no doubt but you will receive much more than you pay, besides you have the satisfaction of assisting the Government $500 instead of $50.00. Also remember you can dispose of these bonds any time you wish.

Have the Volunteer button on your coat lapel, so it will be a known fact, and so your friends can see you have "your discharge," and urge your friends to buy and secure a button so they may have their "discharge."

It will fill your heart with pride when you see the morning paper of the 22nd announcing "LENAWEE COUNTY the first County in the State to go over the top." That is what you will see if you and your friends buy early Monday.

No use finding fault with what has been done or with the administration. In the haste with which we have contributed munitions, money and supplies to defeat the enemy, it was inevitable that some mistakes should have been made and some extravagance creep in. That's history now. It is also history now that "We did it". Your boy is with you now. If we had not done "it" would he be alive now? It is your turn now to help pay.

AMOUNT OF VICTORY OR FIFTH LOAN

Interest Rate 4¾%—Bonds Will Mature in Four Years — Best Yet Offered People.

Secretary Glass has made public the terms of the Victory loan as follows:

Amount $4,500,000,000; oversubscriptions to be rejected.

Interest, four and three-quarters per cent for partially tax exempt notes, convertible into three and three-quarters per cent notes wholly tax exempt.

Maturity, four years, with the treasury reserving the privilege of redeeming the notes in three years.

The three and three-quarters per cent notes, to be issued later, also may be converted subsequently back to four and three-quarters per cent notes.

The four and three-quarters per cent securities are to be exempt from state and local taxation, excepting estate and inheritance taxers and from normal rates of federal income taxes. The three and three-quarters per cent securities are exempt from all federal, state and local taxes except estate and inhertance taxes.

The size of the loan was made smaller than had been anticipated by most financial observers, who looked for an issue of about $6,000,000,000 particularly in view of Secretary Glass's past statements that the loan would be $5,000,000,000 or six billion.

This will be the last Liberty Loan, Secretary Glass explained, although there will be other issues of government securities to finance belated war expenses. These will not be floated by popular campaigns.

None of the past issues of Liberty bonds is conventible into Victory Loan bonds, and there are no specific provisions in the terms of the Victory issue serving directly to maintain market prices of past issues.

Ellwood—Russell

On Frday, April 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cole on west Brown street occurred the marriage of Mrs. Cole's only daughter, Miss Mildred Russell, to Lieutenant Leon W. Ellwood of Chicago.

The bride's pastor, Rev. Edward Escolme officiated, using the beautiful and impressive ring service of the Friends church. Only the immediate relatives of the family were present. A bountiful chicken dinner was served, the bride's table being adorned with English violets. The happy couple left on the afternoon train they will spend a month in the mountains. Lieutenant Ellwood is a young man of sterling integrity, son of Willard Ellwood of Chicago, the well known architect.

The many friends of Mrs. Ellwood wish her prosperity and happiness with the husband of her choice and all unite in hoping that

"Mildred's voyage across life's sea
Be as full of joy as life's voyage can be."

MACON

Obituary—Wm. Osgood.

William Osgood was born in Lodi Seneca Co., N. Y., October 9, 1830; and passed away at the old home April 6, 1919. He was one of a family of six children born to John and Martha Osgood, and was left by death fatherless, when small. After a heroic struggle by the mother to keep her family to-gether, she came to Michigan in 1845 and purchased a farm on the Ridgeroad where they kept together and by sacrifice and hard work made a fine home.

A few years later William went to Tecumseh working for James Cummins at the wagonmaker's trade for 5 years, when he returned to Ridgeway and in May 4, 1859, was united in marriage to Josephine Hand and began pioneer life in Hillsdale Co., but soon returned to Macon and purchased the present farm where he lived nearly fifty years and on which he died.

He early gave his life to Christ and united with the Presbyterian church at Macon of which he was been a faithful member for over 50 years. He loved the church of his choice, was always interested in it and attended services up to his last illness.

He leaves to mourn his loss an aged widow, three children, seven grandchildren. Also one brother, James S. Osgood of St. Johns, two sisters, Mrs. Mary Clarkson Miller of Toledo.

During his last illness, he was ever patient and thoughtful of others and often expressed a wish to go and be at rest. Tho' gone his good influence will live on and be inspiration to those left here.

The funeral servces were held at his late home Wednesday afternoon, the Rev. Rex speaking words of comfort from Psalms 91-16. Burial in Macon cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heart-felt thanks to all our friends and neighbors who assisted in any way during the sickness and death of our husband and father, also to the singers and to Rev. Rex for his comforting words.

Mrs. Josephine Osgood.
Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Osgood.
Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Sage.
Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Morgan.

Those from out of town attending the funeral services of William Osgood were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Osgood and son Will, and James S. Osgood of St. Johns; Mrs. Fred A. Gorton, Ypsilanti; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Osgood, Deerfield; Mr. and Mr. Darwin Osgood and Mr, and Mrs. Bert Osgood, of Morenci; Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. B. H. Miller, Mrs. Tunis H. Miller, Mrs. Mettie Bailey, of Toledo; Mr. Howard Hand, Adrian; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Green and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Green of Raisin; Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Prentice of Clinton.

Church Notes.

Services in the M. E. church Sunday as follows: Sunday school at 2 o'clock, with an Easter sermon following at 3 o'clock. Rev. Combellak, pastor. All are invited.

Services in the Presbyterian church Sunday will include Sunday school at 2 o'clock. Rev. Rex will deliver an Easter sermon at 3 o'clock. All are invited.

DOCTOR SAYS VINOL IS THE BEST TONIC

Honest Opinion Doctor Gave His Patient

Bedford, Ohio.—"I was in a pitiful condition, weak, nervous and run down so I could not do my housework. I had doctored for years and tried everything under the sun. A friend told me about Vinol. I asked my doctor about it, and he replied, 'It certainly is the best medicine that can be had today. I couldn't give you any better.' I took it, and today I am as well and strong as any woman could wish to be, and it was Vinol that saved me."—Mrs. Frank A. Horkey, Ash St., Bedford, Ohio.

Ship tock by Auto Truck

I wish to call the attention of farmers and stock buyers to the fact that my auto truck makes two trips a week to Toledo, each Tuesday and Thursday, and that there are a number of advantages in using the auto truck in shipping your stock to the Toledo market.

By using this method your stock is taken direct to market. There is no side-tracking delay, consequently no feeding expense. You save the shrinkage due to shunting and side-track delay. Farmers and stock buyers are using the auto truck in other places and are pleased with the new method. Try it yourself.

PRETTY WEDDING

Solemnized at the Bradford Home in Jackson.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bradford, 311 Dewey avenue, Jackson, was the scene of an attractive wedding Tuesday, April 8th, when their daughter, Bernice, was united in marriage to Seamon D. Packard of Tecumseh. Rev. G. S. Robinson of the Ida Stiles church read the ceremony, using the ring service. Carrie, the bride's younger sister, and Blendena Cummings played the wedding march at 5:30 in the presence of fifty relatives and friends. Miss Bradford had as her bridesmaid Miss Gladys Watson, while Roy Terry attended the groom as best man.

The bride was attired in a tailored suit of navy blue poplin and wore a corsage of sweat-peas, her attendant also wearing a suit of navy blue. Pink and green were the predominating colors used throughout the house, a large number of pink roses, sweet-peas and daffodils being used for decorations.

Following the ceremony, light refreshments were served and after a shower of rice and a trip in a wheelbarrow, Mr. and Mrs. Packard left for their future home near Tecumseh.

Out of town guests were the bride's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Bradford of Niles, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Packard, parents of the groom, and brother and three little children of Tecumseh; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Losey and son, Reed, of Thompkins, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. P. Pomeroy and Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Pomeroy of Rives Junction, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sherwood of Mason, Mrs. Will Baldwin of Onondaga, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Griffith of Springport, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davenport and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Davenport of Tipton, Mrs. Geo. RETURNED SOLDIER MARRIES "BEST GIRL"

Sgt. Floyd Woodcox, who left here with Co. B and went across with them, returned home Saturday.

He was in the terrible battles of the 32d, with David Underwood and Wilfred Orr when they were killed, gaining two medals, one as an expert sharp shooter and another for valiant service. He was a victim of mustard gas in one battle and hit by a fragment of a high explosive shell in another, so was in a hospital when his regiment went on into Germany.

The ankle did not heal readily, gangrene setting in, but now he walks as good as the next one, the frightful scars being the proof of his suffering.

Through it all he knew the best girl awaited him and on Monday went to Bryan, Ohio, to be married to Miss Nellie Stucker, and they will come to Tecumseh to reside.

MRS. JOSEPHINE DIBBLE

Well Known Ridgeway Lady Passes Away.

Mrs. Josephine Dibble, widow of the late Charles B. Dibble passed away Saturday at 4 a. m. at her home in Ridgeway in the home where she has resided for over 59 years of life. Seventeen years ago she suffered with some throat trouble, a goiter developing a few months ago and eventually causing her death.

She leaves one son, Horace Dibble of Ridgeway, one granddaughter, two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Fred Harrison of Ridgeway, Mrs. Fred Fagan, William and Lavern Barrett of Tecumseh, all being the children Christopher Barrett, long since decased.

The funeral was held from the home in Ridgeway Tuesday afternoon, Rev. J. E. Somers of Dundee officiating, assisted by Rev. Combellack of Ridgeway. The Tecumseh friends attending the service were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fagan, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Barrett, Elmer Linn and family and Mrs. E. A. Linn.

ADOPT WAR ORPHAN

Monday Club Meets for Last Time This Season.

The last session of the Monday club for the season was held this week. During the business session it was decided for the club to adopt a French orphan. Various forms of work for community benefit were discussed and a committee appointed to raise money through the summer months for something in that line next winter. The president, Mrs. J. H. Smith, appointed on this committee Mrs. J. D. Shull. Mrs. F. C. Dickinson and Mrs. R. K. Anderson. It was also voted to donate $10.00 toward the Carleton Memorial fund.

Mrs. R. B. Stuckey acted as leader for the afternoon when the following program was given:

Vocal solo, "On Board"—Mrs. E. C. Heilman.

Paper. "France Bears the Burden"—Mrs. F. S. Turner.

Paper. "Our Debt to France"—Mrs. J. D. Shull.

Vocal solo, "The Americans Come"—Mrs. R. S. Moore.

Miss Veva Hendershott is home from Detroit for the spring vacation.

The twelve pages of this issue of The Herald should contain enough matters of interest to keep readers busy for a few minutes at least. If they want the full benefit they should not fail to read the advertising columns, take advantage of bargains and see who is who on Tecumseh's business streets.

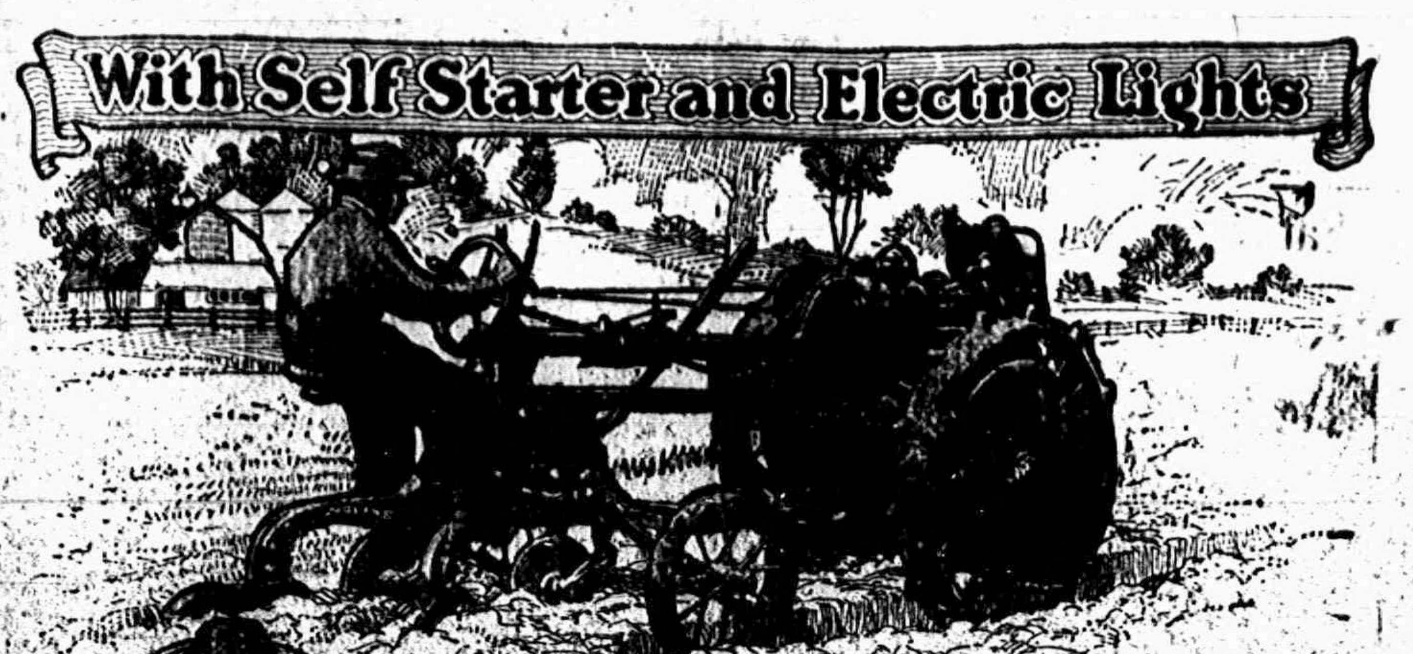
H. S. Temple, County charman of the Victory Liberty Loan campaign, announces that he has secured consent, of the dismission of all county schools on the Monday next, the first volunteer day. No school sessions will be held at the buildings, but the teachers will be at the buildings to take care of all voluntary loan subscriptions.

BRADLEY OPERA HOUSE ATTRACTIONS

Commencing next Saturday night, April 19, the management of the Bradley will offer three big days of feature programs. Saturday night's program is the usual big Saturday night bill with the charming Vivian Martin in her latest success "Viviette" which is claimed to be Miss Martin's best picture to date. "Viviette" is another treat for the followers of this dainty star. Then there is the famous Mack Sennett comedy "East Lynn with Variations" and the way 'cross eyed' Ben Turpin put the 'variations' over would make a sphinx laugh.

On Sunday evening, April 20th, the world's sweetheart, little Mary Pickford, will be at the Bradley in "The Little Princess" one of her new Artcraft pictures and shown in Tecumseh for the first time. The Bradley does not run any second run pictures.

On Monday, April 21st, to help you celebrate the big Victory Loan Day which Tecumseh merchants are arranging with band concerts, etc., we have booked an exceptionally good double program, Douglas Fairbanks in "Knocking Knockers," a clever satire by this famous actor in his inimitable style also the clever actress Constance Talmadge in a sensational comedy "Up the Road with Sallie" a program that will please everyone.



With Self Starter and Electric Lights

ONE-MAN TRACTOR

Here's what one man and a Moline-Universal Tractor can do in a day of 10 hours:

Plow 7 to 9 acres; disc 27 acres with a 7-ft. tandem disc; disc 38 acres with a 10-ft. disc; harrow 76 acres with a 20-ft. peg tooth harrow; plant 22 acres with a two-row planter; plant 43 acres with a four-row planter; cultivate from 14 to 20 acres with a two-row cultivator; drill 35 acres with a 10-ft. grain drill; harvest 25 acres with an 8-ft. grain binder; harvest 10 acres with a corn binder; mow 25 acres with an 8-ft. mower; rake 40 acres with 12-ft. rake; rake 25 acres with an 8-ft. side delivery rake; load 12 acres of hay.

In addition, it can be used on the belt for running threshers up to 24-inch capacity, silo fillers, corn shellers, feed grinders, wood saws, clover hullers, pumps, hay presses, etc.

No end of odd jobs that can be done with the

MOLINE

MOLINE
UNIVERSAL TRACTOR
It Solves The Farm Help Problem

Model D

Because of its ideal design, construction and performance, this new Moline-Universal enables one man to farm more land and produce more food than ever before possible. It is the world's most dependable farm hand.

New features include self-starter; electric lights; electrical governor; perfected overhead-valve, four-cylinder engine that is free from vibration; complete enclosure of all moving parts; differential lock which increases traction.

Drop forgings, heat-treated parts, steel cut gears and unusually large bearings add extra years of endurance.

These new features, together with the well known Moline-Universal type—all the weight on two wheels, one-man control and ability to do all farm work including cultivating—make the Moline-Universal Model D the best tractor money can buy.

Conservatively rated at 9-18, the new Moline-Universal has ample power for heavy belt work, and can plow as much in a day with two plows as the ordinary three-plow tractor, because of its greater speed. Yet it is light enough for such work as cultivating, mowing, etc., which do not require so much power.

We will be glad to tell you all about this wonderful tractor. The next time you are in town call on us.

DOES YOUR BACK ACHE

It's usually a sign of sick kidneys, especially if the kidney action is disordered, passages scanty or too frequent. Don't wait for more serious troubles. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this Tecumseh testimony:

J. B. Smith, E. Chicago St. says: "I was caused a great deal of suffering by pains in the small of my back and when the attacks came on, it was all I could do to attend to my work. When stooping, I was dizzy and spots of fire seemed to flash before my eyes. I did not rest well and mornings when I got up, I was tired and languid. I used different remedies, but got no benefit until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. They made me feel like a different person, completely ridding me of kidney trouble."

OVER FIVE YEARS LATER Mr. Smith said: "I gladly confirm my previous endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. I use them occasionally when I feel in need of a kidney medicine and they never fail to relieve me."

IT'S NOT YOUR HEART
IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. A majority of the ills afflicting people today can be traced back to kidney trouble.

The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filterers, the purifiers, of your blood.

Kidney disease is usually indicated by weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago.

All these derangements are nature's signals to warn you that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammations and destroys the germs which have caused it. Do not wait until tomorrow. Go to your druggist today and insist on GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In twenty-four hours you should feel health and vigor returning and will bless the day you first heard of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil.

After you feel that you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep in first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks.

Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. Three sizes. Money refunded if they do not help you.

Total length of drain 77.00 chains. Diameter of tile noted above.

A strip of land 50 feet wide on each side of the center line of the drain will be necessary to hold the excavated earth and for other purposes in the construction of the drain.

Surveyed Dec. 16, 1918.

J. L. Richard,
County Surveyor.

Said job will be let by sections. The section at the outlet of said drain will be let first, and the remaining sections in their order up stream, in accordance with the diagram now on file with the other papers pertaining to said Drain in the office of the County Drain Commissioner of the County of Lenawee, to which reference may be had by all parties interested, and bids will be made and received accordingly. Contracts will be made with the lowest responsible bidder giving adequate security for the performance of the work, in a sum then and there to be fixed by me, reserving the right to reject any and all bids. The date for the completion of such contract, and the terms of payment therefor, shall be announced at the time and place of letting.

Notice is Further Hereby Given, That at the time and place of said letting or at such other time and place thereafter to which I, the County Drain Commissioner aforesaid, may adjourn the same, the assessments for benefits and the lands comprised within the "Extension of Watson Drain Special Assessment District," and the apportionments thereof will be announced by me and will be subject to review for one day (from nine o'clock in the forenoon until five o'clock in the afternoon).

The following is a description of the several tracts or parcels of land constituting the special assessment district of said Drain, viz: Township of Macon at Large 6 rods each side of the Drain as surveyed across the

CHANCERY NOTICE

STATE OF MICHIGAN. The Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee, in Chancery.

August Van Neste and Florence Van Neste, his wife,
Plaintiffs.

vs.

Stephen Clarke, Mrs. Stephen Clarke, whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs; Moses Yeanero, Mrs. Moses Yeanero whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs; William Cannon, Mrs. William Cannon, whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs; R. S. Cogswell, Mrs. R. S. Cogswell, whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs; James Z. Prentiss, Mrs. James Z. Prentiss, whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs Agnes Paupa, Mary Gephart; President, Directors and Company of the Bank of Michigan, Elihu L. Clark, Samuel Wardwell, Henry L. Stillman, Dycks McLachlin, John Petters, George Bruce, Dykes McLachlin, Russel C. Carter, Henry Sheldon, and Mrs. Henry Sheldon, whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs, Lenawee County Savings Bank, and Mrs. Jeanette Cannon.

Defendants.

At a session of said court, held at the Court House in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 8th day of March, A. D. 1919.

Present, Honorable Burton L. Hart, Circuit Judge.

Upon reading and filing the Bill of Complaint in this cause, duly sworn to by the plaintiffs, from which it satisfactorily appears that the defendants hereto have some titles, interests, claims, liens, or possible rights to the premises described in said Bill of Complaint and hereinafter described; and said plaintiffs averring that all the titles, interests, claims, liens, or possible rights of said defendants and each of them are barred by the open, notorious, exclusive, and continuous possession of said plaintiffs, or their grantors, for more than fifteen years last past, and for more than fifteen years since the several rights to the possession thereof accured in said defendants, and that such possession has been during all of said time and still is adverse and hostile to the titles, interests, claims, liens or possible rights of the respective defendants and their predecessors in title; that plaintiffs have not been able to ascertain whether the said above named defendants, excepting Lenawee County Savings Bank and Mrs. Jeanette Cannon, and their several unknown heirs devisees, legatees, and assigns, or any of them, are living or dead, or where they or any of them reside, if living, or whether the title, interest, claim, lien, or possible rights of said parties, or any of them has been by them, or any of them, assigned to any person or persons, or if dead, whether they or any of them have personal representatives or heirs living, or where they, or any of them reside, or whether such title, interest, claim, lien or possible rights, which they or any of them may have has been disposed of by will, although they have made diligent search and inquiry.

On motion of Earl C. Michener, attorney for plaintiffs, it is ordered that the above named defendants, or their several unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, and assigns, cause their several appearances to be entered herein in the manner provided by law, on or before three months from the date hereof.

It is further ordered that this order be published or served as required by law.

Burton L. Hart.
Circuit Judge.

Examined, Countersigned, and entered by me,
Emery B. Root,
Clerk of said Court.
Earl C. Michener, Adrian Michigan, Attorney for plaintiff.

The above entitled suit involves the title to and is brought to quiet and clear the title to land and premises described in said Bill of Complaint, as follows:

Those certain pieces or parcels of land situated in the township of Deerfield, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

The west one-half (½) of the Northeast quarter (¼) of Section Nine (9), and the East one-half (½) of the East one-half (½) of the northwest quarter (¼) of Section Nine (9), in Town Seven (7) south of Range Five (5) east, containing one Hundred and twenty (120) acres of land, more or less, (excepting and reserving a strip of land off of the south side thereof now owned and occupied by the New York Central Railroad Company). 4-27

Default having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage, (whereby the power of sale therein contained has become operative), dated, executed and delivered on the 22nd day of March, A. D. 1915, by Charles W. LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

From Ernest Church to His Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Church.

Pommern, Germany
February 22, 1919.

My dear Mother:

Just a few lines to let you knw that I am well and getting along fine and dandy. I have been transferred again as you can see, by my address. I hope to have found a company now that I can stay with until I am discharged from the army. The reason why I hope I can stay is, I will have a show in getting my mail. I must have lots of mail somewhere along the line. I haven't had a single letter from any one since the latter part of October, when I was with the 85th Division. I have been going from one outfit to another ever since.

March 2, 1919.

I see by the paper, that the 4th Division is one of the seven divisions to stay on the Rhine, until everything is all settled up. I hope they hurry up and get things settled up soon, but if they don't move any faster than they have,

---

This is a bad rainy day, well in fact every day is cloudy and dark; it never rains very hard or very much at a time, but just enough to keep it nasty. The only good part of it all is that it don't get very cold and I am glad of that. I guess they don't know where they want me, but I could soon tell them where I would like to be transferred to, and that is home.

it probably will be a long time. I guess I can stand it as long as the next one; I have so far at least. They say that the army is a great life if you don't weaken, and I guess none of us are getting very weak.

I have been going to school this last week on the Browning Automatic rifle. It certainly is a wonderful piece of mechanism. I enjoyed the school very much. We took it out on the range yesterday and fired it several times; it was great sport.

March 15, 1919.

Well you can just imagine how glad I am today. I got some mail a few minutes ago. The first mail in four and a half months.

I don't see much difference between the Germans or French; in their way of living. Everywhere it is stone houses, some of the most horrible looking buildings that any one can imagine. It seems like they build their houses anywhere and their streets afterwards. The streets are as crooked as a cork screw. They are like the French for wine, they hardly ever use water for drinking, everything is wine. Some of the larger cities I suppose are nice; they are more modern than the small towns where we are stationed. Coblenz is a nice city. I was up there on a pass one day. I certainly had a nice time. It seemed like being back in civilization again, street cars and automobiles running around.

March 17, 1919.

I feel a great deal better the last few days since I have heard from home.

I worried some of course, because it has been over four months since I had got any mail of any description. With the flu raging in the state, I worried more than ever. So many of my fellow soldiers had got letters from home that their parents or relatives or friends had been victims of that terrible plague. I have been extremely lucky so far, the places I have been, have not been touched with that disease.

I am sorry to hear that the Gove boys were wounded, but I I think they will get along all right; they have got lots of grit. I haven't seen or heard of them since they left the old company about the first of September last. They were transferred out with 150 others.

When any one calls up about me, tell them I am feeling fine, and that I am in Germany, along the Moselle river. The river valley is quite wide and the towns are built right on the river. All we can see each way from us are high hills, but they are higher than hills as we know them back where the good old Raisin flows, so I guess they ought to termed small mountains.

I suppose the country around here will be a great deal prettier this summer, but I don't want to stay around here to see it anyway, but I am afraid of it, because the 4th Division is not slated to go home yet for a long time. I hope they may change it, but things like that are doubtful. This division is picked to stay in the Army of Occupation until everything is settled up.

We have got a nice new Y. M. C. A. building here; it's a portable wooden building, but it's good and large. It accommodates one battalion. They just put it up about two weeks ago and have had two shows already and two dances. It makes a lne place to go; it's a regular meeting place.

Tell Aunt Genie she ought to be over here; she'd get enough walking following me around. And I tell you that was some walk from France to Germany. My feet certainly got awful sore, but I stuck it out every day.

Give my love to father.

Your Loving son,
Ernest.

From Ernest Church to His Aunt Mrs. Eugenia Gordon.

Pommern, Germany.
March 19, 1919.

My Dear Aunt:

With a littl time this morning I thought I would have a little visit with you.

I have received over 15 letters and cards the last few days. I have certainly enjoyed myself reading them, it being so long since I had any mail.

It must be nice to have such a mild winter in Michigan, after such a hard one a year ago. We had a mild winter over here too, very little snow and cold weather. Of course it never gets very cold here in the Moselle valley. We had a snow storm yesterday, but it melted as fast as it fell here in the valley. The high hills on each side of the valley are covered with snow this morning. So you can see that the hills are pretty high around here, to make such a difference in temperature.

I see many strange sights over here; it is quite a rare thing to see horses hitched to wagons; they drive oxen mostly. I don't see how they can ever get anything done for oxen are such a slow traveling animal. They never seem in a hurry around here; any old time for them, the way they act.

They live in stone houses over here, just the same as the French do. You ought to see some of them too; they built them any old way. Of course this is what they call a country town, the larger homes and buildings though. The people over here don't live on farms, like they do in America, they all live in towns and go out and work their farms. Most of their occupation is raising grapes for wine, they certainly like their wine, I don't believe they know what water tastes like.

These country towns over here seem to have plenty of food, they eat three meals a day with a lunch at 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. between their meals, so I guess that's going some, 5 times a day. From what we hear, I guess it is pretty bad in the large cities, people are starving to death, because they have to buy all their food, and there isn't much to buy.

I think they ought to sign peace pretty quick or they will have the same condition as prevails in Russia.

Well I must close for this time, with love to you.

From Earl Coller to His Brothers

Archangel, Russia, Feb. 19, 1919

Dear Brothers and all:

Just a few lines to say that outside of being confined to my bed with a touch of sciatic rheumatism I am O. K.

We should be able to get out soon. You might send a few papers as I would enjoy a little news from the outside world.

There isn't anything I can say of interest to you all except that "Sherman was right." I know exactly how it feels to be blown up against a wall and getting out without a scratch.

These Bolos are tryihg to give us a run for our money, but they are paying for it. I saw on one hill from 500 to 800 dead. Amen.

Well, folks, the mail closes in a half hour so I must hurry. Give my best to all who may be interested and write.

Am hoping to be home this summer "with a whole frame."

As ever your brother

March 15, 1919.

Dear Mother:

I started a letter to you sometime ago, but, as I have been moving around all over France it seems, I lost it and now will start a new one. I guess it is just as well that I do start a new one that one would be quite old now.

We are at one of the largest Camps in France. It will accommodate nearly 150,000 men. There are nearly 100,000 here now. I am now waiing orders to sail for home, but, you can imagine how soon that will be with the bunch that is waiting to come home also.

The camp s made up mostly of tents. I am in one myself. It is not so bad, though, as we have wood floors, stoves and good eats, so, that is the main thing in life.

I get the Herald every once in a while sent by Flo and I see several letters written by boys over here. I notice they write all about their trip in France. Well I have taken enough but if I tell you all about them now I can't talk when I get home. I intend to lay around two or three years telling my stories when I get back.

Well mother I hope to be able to see you in just a short time. Don't figure too short

Take good care of yourself. I suppose you are getting all your winter now. We are having nice Spring weather, mostly rain.

Give my best to all.

Your loving son,
Herman.

Dear Father:

I am well and hope you are the same. We landed in Germany the second and are a little ways back of the Rhine; will be closer to it soon. We have a laundry to set up here and move. Four trailers and a traction engine worked two days on it. Now having a gretty good time and everything is fine here. It is a little colder but not quite so rainy.

Well I will write soon again so good night.

From Sergeant C. E. Thompson to His Parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson.

Sergeant C. E. Thompson of Co. A. 21st Engineers writing to his parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson of Tecumseh, under date of March 20 from Lubry France, speaks as follows:

"Dear Folks—

Just a note, as tonight is our last mail out of this place. We get one more mail in, but this is the last out before we move. We are scheduled to leave here Saturday for LeMons, which is further south and the weather will likely be better there. It is the big mobilizirg and delousing station for both the ports of Brest and St. Nazaire. We will likely be there a month at least, but it is the first step towards home and I am more thankful and hopeful than I was when I wrote my last letter. It will probably be a week before I can write again as the distance to LeMons is a three days trip from here. I will write father a birthday letter after my arrival at LeMons. Let us hope that mother's birthday will see me home.

Lots and lots of love

Earl."

From Howard Hand to His Aunt, Mrs. Ed Hand.

Sable, France.
Feb. 17, 1919.

Dear Aunt Maggie and All:—

Just a few lines to tell you my new address so you can write to me as I am over here for a long time yet and I surely am mail hungry, not a word from any one since Oct. 22 not even my Christmas package from home.

Hope you are all well. I am in the best of health. I was attached to the 85th Camp Custer Division for a couple of weeks at St. Georges. They are due to sail soon. They came thru calling for volunteers who were willing to remain over here for from six to eight months and possibly longer and go on Military Police duty, so I signed up with the rest so I am an M. P. now. It means a raise in rank and more money. I would love to be home and all that but I know the folks will all keep well and be willing I should remain for I will get a lot of good out of it in all ways.

We leave here tomorrow to go on duty at Sable. This is a mounted outfit, horses, bicycles, motorcycles, autos and trucks to a company, carr a colt, 45 automatic now in place of a rifle.

Now please let me hear from you often. I'll send you some post card views soon also a picture of myself. Best to all. Good-bye.

P. S. Feb. 27. Am now on duty at Coulon, France, and rumors have it we are soon going to Italy Best to all. Write often. Goodbye from.

Howard.

PRINCE ALBERT

Copyright 1919 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

NEVER was such right-handed-two-fisted smokejoy as you puff out of a jimmy pipe packed with Prince Albert! That's because P. A. has the quality!

You can't fool your taste apparatus any more than you can get five aces out of a family deck! So, when you hit Prince Albert, coming and going, and get up half an hour earlier just to start stoking your pipe or rolling cigarettes, you know you've got the big prize on the end of your line!

Prince Albert's quality alone puts it in a class of its own, but when you figure that P. A. is made by our exclusive patented process that cuts out bite and parch—well—you feel like getting a flock of dictionaries to find enough words to express your happy days sentiments!

EASTERN STARS CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

MEMBERS OF TECUMSEH CHAPTER ARE GUESTS

Assisted in Organizing Twenty-Five Years Ago, Royally Entertained at Anniversary—Splendid Banquet and Program.

On Tuesday evening the Adrian chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star celebrated the 25th anniversary of the organization of their chapter. As Tecumseh Chapter had assisted in the ceremony they were invited to be guests of the Adrian people Tuesday evening, and in spite of the dismal rainy evening about fifty went over. All the nasty, slipping and sliding along the way was forgotten in the courteous welcome received and the beautiful scene at the end of the journey. The great lodge room was filled with tables, each adorned with immense baskets of pink flowers and their greenery, so the hall looked as though spring had indeed arrived with her beautiful floral message. In the center of the room was a large square table at which were seated the charter members and past matrons of the chapter. On the platform at the front of the room were seated the speakers with the visitors and Adrian members at long tables forming a hollow square around the room. A two-course banquet was served most bountifully, the high school orchestra playing the while.

Miss May Qucik, well known in Tecumseh, is the present worthy matron of Adrian chapter and she called the company to order after supper. The secretary, Miss Zoe Decker, called the roll of charter members, past matrons and past patrons.

The matron then introduced Mrs. Clara Eldredge, who has many friends in Tecumseh, as toastmistress and she in her charming way introduced each speaker with a few loving remarks and stories. Among the speakers were Mrs. Ella Waterman, the first matron, and E. N. Smith, the first patron of the present chapter of Adrian.

Mrs. R. A. Heesen was the secretary of the Tecumseh chapter when the Adrian chapter was organized so Mr. Heesen gave a short address in her stead. As he rose to his feet, G. Roscoe Swift joined by the others sang, "He's a Jolly Good Fellow." The speaker read from the first secretary's report of the Tecumseh chapter and it brought back many faces who have been gathered to the Most Worshipful Master above.

Worthy Grand Matron Eva H. Snow of Ludington and Grand Secretary Eva Goodrich of Ann Arbor, Past Matrons Emma Lyons of Hillsdale and Margaret Moore of Bay City, Worthy Grand Patrons W. F. King and G. Roscoe Swift were each in turn introduced and most cordially received. Mrs. Snow told of the work of the grand chapter, what the Star is doing in Michigan, the room at the Masonic home at Albion, donations for the Salvation Army, and for delicacies for the wounded now at Custer and the new orphanage, "Eastern Star Villa," to be opened soon at Adrian. Mrs. Moore has come from Bay City to have charge of "Villa" and her dear motherly ways make the chapter believe that just the right woman has been sent to them. Five children already await the opening of the home.

W. F. King, although very feeble, made a few remarks, showing he loved the order as well as when he was younger and the faithful worker for the good of Masonry. He has been made patron emreitus of Adrian chapter.

G. Roscoe Swift spoke on "The Future of the Order." He hoped to see the Adrian lodge in their new home before their 50th anniversary. This brought applause and he told his Adrian brothers of they would turn the building of their new temple over to the Eastern Star it would be finished in a year.

The grand officers were presented with tokens of silver articles, bonbon dishes and spoons, as souvenirs of their visit to Adrian and Mrs. Eldredge was presented with a huge basket of most splendid pink roses as an appreciation of her work for the Adrian chapter.

At this point in the program the tables were removed, lodge room rearranged and program continued as follows, with Miss Flora Russell presiding.

Harp solo and readings—Miss Garnsey.

Playette, "How the Story Grew," true to life.

Readings—Mrs. Emma Lyons.

Vocal solo—Mrs. Griffey.

Closing with an entertainment of small boy readings by Miss May Nobel.

Compared with what he has in hand on the other side the settlement of these labor strikes ought to come easy to Mr. Wilson.

Let the Children Grow.

Coughs, colds, "snuffles," that hang on tend to weaken the system and a suffering, neglected child spends so much strength combating a cold that the little one cannot grow as fast and sound in body as when free from affliction. This team had traveled over half a million miles, driven by Mr. Harriott over all the surrounding country and will be missed by him and all who knew old Bill.

Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy is on a speaking tour of Gratiot and Montcalm counties, on behalf of the Victory Loan, under the direction of the State Speakers bureau. She spoke at a mass meeting at Alma on Wednesday and appears at a round up mass meeting at Greenville on Sunday night; making the smaller towns during the week. She left home Wednesday morning, planning to return Monday.

That Tecumseh is some patriotic community is evidenced by the fact that the county chairman, H. S. Temple, and assistant county manager the Rev. W. A. Rex, are both local men. Before the Rev. Rex consented to act as invited by the county committee, he asked the consent of his congregation and it was quickly granted, freeing him from church work until the loan will be put over. However, he will be present at the Good Friday services at this church tomorrow evening and for the Sunday morning service.

Among the Tecumseh boys to arrive in United States from over seas the last of the week were Walter Reed, Roy Smith and Joe Satterthwaite. Telegrams came from each saying they were sent to Camp Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Williamson returned from the trip to Wisconsin. Floyd had taken a course at the F. W. D. truck factory and Monday drove one of the big machines to Grand Rapids for the 11th annual Michigan Road show, representing the Big Chief Garage.

O. J. Marsh drove to Hudson, Friday, delivering a F. W. D. truck. On Saturday he drove a 3½ ton Republic from Detroit to Deerfield, delivering it to a customer.

TECUMSEH IS FIRST OVER TOP

TOTAL QUOTA SUBSCRIBED BEFORE NINE O'CLOCK

Church Bells and Fire Bell Ring to Proclaim Both the Opening of Campaign and Tecumseh's Lead in Going Over.

Tecumseh again holds first place of Lenawee county townships in going over the top in Liberty Loan drives, and Monday, the first Volunteer day of the Victory Loan, saw the breaking of all records.

It was first planned to make the grade at 12 o'clock noon Monday. This time, however, was later advanced to 9:30 a. m., but the people of Tecumseh still did better and shortly after 8:00 a. m. it was announced our quota of $100,000 had been over-subscribed. This news was phoned to Adrian immediately.

Tecumseh takes real pride in her achievement because she went over the top by popular subscription, the banks taking over no bonds until after the quota had been raised. There were, of course, substantial subscriptions by business firms, but the individual subscriptions were sufficiently great to credit Tecumseh with an unusual loyalty spirit.

The banks opened their doors at 7:00 a. m. Monday, ready for business, and ladies occupied four booths placed in front of the banks, where they took care of all applicants. It was a busy time inside and outside, but applications were handled so efficiently that the top was reached within the hour.

Some subscriptions were received Friday and Saturday made by people who wished to avoid the rush.

By 3 o'clock, closing time for the banks, nearly $160,000 had been subscribed to Tecumseh township's credit, besides several thousand dollars worth to the credit of adjoining townships.

It was due to good loyal work by men and women that made it possible to make the record-breaking speed, and the loyalty and home pride spirit of the citizens.

The tolling of church and fire bells announced the opening of the campaign and also the going over the top an hour later.

The following telegram is evidence of Tecumseh loyalty:

"Detroit Mich., April 19, 8:15 p. m.

"Herbert S. Temple:

"Here's hoping Tecumseh beats all Lenawee over the top and here's the subscription of Michigan Mutual Liability company through the Lilley State bank for five thousand dollars of Fifth Liberty Loan to help do it. Charge my personal account with initial payment. Company's check will follow for balance.

"P. W. A. Fitsimmons."

Seneca township was a close second to Tecumseh as were also Cambridge, Raisin and Ridgeway.

Adrian city, although well organized did not raise half her quota on the first day.

Detroit was the first large city in the United States to announce her successful campaign.

The Celebration.

Although farmers were taking advantage of the first fine day after the continued rain, there was a good crowd in town Monday afternoon, and especially in the evening to celebrate Tecumseh's Victory.

The business district was handsomely decorated with flags and bunting by Boy Scouts under the direction of Lester Heesen.

A good sized band under the leadership of Clare Camburn furnished good music both afternoon and evening and the old town was a live one until late in the evening.

Merchants and theatres report good business and many people report satisfaction at the bargains obtained on that day.

Altogether, it was a successful day-very successful.

Royally Entertained at Manchester.

Tecumseh Lodge R. & S. M. were handsomely entertained at Manchester Friday evening by the lodge of that place. About fifty went and speak delightedly of the splendid banquet served at the Arbeiter hall. Some 134 were at the table. Following the feast came a program of speeches, the local lodge being represented by Joseph H. Smith and G. A. Rathbun. Later the Tecumseh men conferred the super-excellent degree on 48 candidates, coming from Chelsea, Brooklyn, Manchester and Tecumseh, the Tecumseh candidates being John McIntyre and John H. Smith.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartiest thanks to the minister and singers, friends and relatives, for their kindness and sympathy and the floral offerings during our recent sadness.

FATAL TRACTOR ACCIDENT

MILO SELLS, HIGHLY RESPECTED YOUNG FARMER

Crushed to Death Under Fordson Tractor Tuesday While Endeavoring to Bring it Out of the Mire.

Milo Sells, a highly respected young farmer living about three miles northwest of town, met a terrible death Tuesday afternoon. He was plowing with a Fordson tractor in a field belonging to Gatos Smith, adjoining his own farm. As he reached the end of the furrow the great wheels sank into the soft wet earth. Mr. Sells' brother, John, with his team, was near, and he brought planks to pry the machine from the mire. As the wheels came around the lugs caught the planks and the tractor went over backward, pinning Mr. Sells onto the plow.

He gasped "Pull it off me" and John hitched his team to the machine, but it weighs a ton, andimbedded as it was, the horses could not move it.

Howard Wheadon was plowing with his team not far away and heard John call. He brought his horses and the two teams brought out the tractor, but the sufferings of the pinioned man were over.

The body was taken into Mr. Wheadon's home and Dr. Beardsley called, coming in a very few minutes, but could do nothing, as life was extinct.

Milo and John Sells came here from Blissfield some ten years ago. After a while they bought the Myron Mudgett farm and have been hard working and energetic young fellows, which has brought them success.

Milo married Miss Harriett Allison, a Tecumseh young lady, and with her is left a baby daughter, Normeda. Surviving also are his mother, Mrs. Lauer of Blissfield and three brothers.

The funeral is to be held from the home this afternoon at 2 p. m. with burial at Brookside.

New School Superintendent

PROF. E. E. CRAMPTON OF EATON RAPIDS

Succeeds Prof. W. L. Reed as Superintendent of Tecumseh Schools.

A meeting of the board of education was held Tuesday for the purpose of reaching a decision on superintendent of schools for the ensuing year.

From the list of over thirty applicants, Prof. E. E. Crampton, superintendent of schools at Eaton Rapids, was elected.

Prof. Crampton come well recommended and has had several years' experience as a successful educator.

The board has also engaged Mr. Price of Grass Lake to teach chemistry and physics, and he is also to act as coach of athletics next year. Mr. Duguid has had some splendid offers, but as yet has made no decision.

CARD OF APPRECIATION

From H. S. Temple, County Chairman Victory Loan Campaign.

April 23, 1919

Editor of Herald,

I desire to take this opportunity of thanking you for the publicity you have given the Victory Loan through the columns of your good paper.

I also wish to thank the Village President for his kindly letter in behalf of the Loan; the ladies for their fine work before and during the Volunteer day. The banks and bankers for their splendid spirit in opening up early Monday morning so that Tecumseh might be the first "Over the Top." The ladies and others who put the play "Lest We Forget" on both here and at Tipton in such shape.

In fact Tecumseh's record is so fine that I feel every citizen of Tecumseh Township is entitled to a little credit. Tecumseh has not only once again proven themselves 100% American but at the present time are about 140% according to the records of the banks.

Last, but not least, I want to thank the girls in the Telephone office who have been and are giving me such splendid service on long distance calls.

Yours for the Victory Loan,
H. S. Temple,
County Chairman.

P. S. The School Board and Prof. W. L. Reed are entitled to special mentnoi in closing the schools on Monday. The Boy Scouts and students certainly helped to make Monday April 21 one long to be remembered in Tecumseh.

Easter Services In Tecumseh

Methodist Church.

Easter celebration began with a sunrise prayer meeting and breakfast. The other young people's organizations had been invited and the meeting was a beautiful beginning of a glorious day. Following came a picnic breakfast immensely enjoyed.

The church was about the most beautifully decorated in its history for its Easter celebration. An immense cross, gleaming white, and bearing strands of myrtle was the feature with draperies of white and more greenery, further beautifying the altar and choir loft. The classes of Rev. Thompson and Mrs. E. M. Lewis had charge of the decorations.

A missionary centenary program was given under the auspices of the Sunday-school centenary committee, led by Mrs. G. R. Newsom and Mrs. Geo. S. Field.

In one exercise by the primary class the cross was decorated with Easter lillies. Other exercises were given by the senior classes and the Easter story read by Mrs. Andrew Taylor. The program was announced by Superintendent Wendell Willett.

At this service Rev. Thompson baptized two young ladies and received seven young people into church fellowship.

At the Baptist Church

The church was beautifully decorated with lillies, cut flowers and potted plants, with a splendid white cross in the foreground. This portion of the celebration of the Holy Day was in charge of Miss Bessie VanAntwerp and the work was very effective.

At the morning service the choir gave special Easter music and Rev. W. R. Curtis gave an Easter sermon from the following text:

"But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the first fruits of them that are asleep" 1 Cor. 15-20. Easter means more to us now than ever in the history of the world. Not a home hardly but has its sorrow from the loss of some dear one. Thousands of little wooden crosses in Europe mark the last resting place of our boys who gave the extreme sacrifice for their country. The death angel has more than usually come into our midst during the past year. A risen Lord is the first fruit, comforting us that these also we shall meet, and they still live in the eternities. Easter brings a feeling of comfort to those who seem to be so near eternity. Easter also brings comfort and joy to the one who desires the presence of the living Christ with them, "Lo, I will be with you always." We are glad the seal of Caesar was placed on the tomb. We are glad the Roman soldiers were placed there to guard. But they could not hold our Lord. Nor should we be held by the power of any sin.

During the opening exercises at the Sunday school, there were several Easter songs and a few exercises.

St. Peter's Church.

At St. Peter's church the usual Easter ceremonies were observed, with the exception of the sunrise service, and this the Rev. J. G. Widdifield held in Clinton. At 11:15 the service began, with special Easter music and sermon, followed with Holy Communion.

In the afternoon was held a children's service at which time Rev. Widdifield talked to the little folks.

The church was daintily decorated with white and the lillies, cut flowers and greenery lent it the Easter glory.

Presbyterian Church.

At the Sunday school session, Easter was observed with a delightful program, "Life Abounding." The decorations simple but effective, were the work of Miss Kyle's class. The motto "Christ is Risen," was suspended above a white cross. Cut flowers, Easter lillies and potted plants were used in profusion, making banks on either side of the altar.

The primary department had a number of exercises and received well earned applause. Many little people recited and sang and Rev. W. A. Rex gave a short address, illustrated, showing how Christs' arising from the tomb relieved us of the shackles of sin.

The Sunday school are having an aeroplane race which is bringing much interest and both sides went several thousand miles last Sunday. At the morning service folowing several were received into church membership and the served. rites of Holy Communion ob-

Friends Church

The Easter services were very simple. The front of the church was beautiful with flowers and plants. Many Easter songs were sung and Rev. Edw. Escolme preached an inspiring Easter sermon.

"The Heart of Humanity."

In bringing the mammoth screen production "The Heart of Humanity" to the Bradley Opera House next Sunday and Monday April 27 and 28, Manager Marks is bringing what dramatic critics claim to be the greatest picture produced in the past 10 years to the patrons of his house, and at prices within the reach of everyone.

"The Heart of Humanity" was produced by Allan Holubar and starring Miss Dorothy Phillips but as this is Miss Phillips' first appearance in Tecumseh people will not know, until they see this wonderful production, what a really wonderful actress she is.

"The Heart of Humanty" is a picture that you will never forget. The biggest guarantee that you can have on any picture is when men from other film companies who have nothing to with this picture either in the booking of it or interested in it financially tell you to book it and if you have it booked for one day extend the engagement to two days or more. That is exactly what a dozen or more film men have told Mr. Mark and he is bringing "The Heart of Humanity" to the Bradley for two days so that all may have the chance to see this wonderful production.

The picture you will never forget—stupendous in theme, a veritable revelation of unending wonders. A Romance of the great war, but not a real war story, a story of the love that passeth all understanding. In order that the proper music will be rendered with "The Heart of Humanity" Mr. Mark has secured Mr. Willett and his orchestra from Adrian to furnish the music. As they have already played the picture for several performances at Adrian they will be qualified to handle the music here. Remember the dates, Sunday and Monday April 27-28 at the Bradley Opera House, Tecumseh. Adv.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Florence Bryan is seriously ill with typhoid fever at the home of her brother, Floyd, and family. She came here from Lansing to spend her spring vacation and was too ill to return to her school. Mrs. Rose Corwin of Onsted is caring for her.

Gerald Kent gave his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kent, a happy surprise Tuesday evening by coming home unexpectedly for a few days' furlough. He is in the regular army with the coast artillery and came from Fort Wadsworth, N. Y., for the furlough. He has just returned from 14 months' spent in France. His time with the regulars will expire next December.

But four ladies braved the storm yesterday afternoon and attended the exhibition of the domestic art and science classes at our school. The 9th grade girls had finished some dainty gingham dresses, the 7th grade some princess slips and in all it was a very pretty display. The Senior girls baked rolls of all sorts, so the ladies not there seem to have missed a real treat.

EASTER GATHERING

Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, 91 Years of Age, Enjoys Company of Relatives.

Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Wilson gathered his brothers and sisters to spend Easter with their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson. In spite of her 91 years the lady enjoyed the event immensely and all did justice to a splendid chicken dinner.

The guests were Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brooks and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilson of Detroit, Mrs. Helen Lanning, Mrs. Joe Wilson and daughter, Miss Nellie, Wilbur Wilson, Mrs. Leland Russell and baby, 18 being in the company.

"LEST WE FORGET"

Patriotic Play Presented in Tipton by Tecumseh Cast.

The cast which put on "Lest We Forget" in Tecumseh last week, took their little show to Tipton Tuesday evening and found a full house awaiting them. Their efforts to please were appreciated by their Tipton friends and the whole party think it a pretty fine place to go.

The Tipton band, with Will Coller assisting, played the opening number and following the play the returned soldiers in the audience were invited to the platform. Seven responded and Sam Rottman, the Tecumseh boy who tells a real story, gave an address. He had his audience with him from the start and one could have heard a pin drop when he told of the capture of Cantigny and some of his other experiences. His plea for the buying of bonds was terse and to the point—"I'm a cripple for life for Uncle Sam, what are you doing?"

Rev. W. A. Rex followed with one of his inspirational talks, full of pep and hitting the nail on the head. Leon Temple also gave a short talk on the plans for buying bonds and with this, his maiden speech, made some hit.

The band played a final number and in the visiting time after, the persons in charge of the sale of bonds received voluntary subscriptions to the tune of $7,150.

The Tecumseh people and some of the Tiptonites enjoyed a little spread before the visitors started home, and in all it was a very happy evening.

Most of the Tecumseh party made the trip in a Liberty U. S. Army truck, driven by Pvt. Joe Heese of Earling, Iowa.

Quite a number of Tecumseh people besides those taking part went up for the entertainment, many having to stand through the entire meeting, as the seating capacity of the Grange hall was taxed to the utmost.

Editorial Comment

Tecumseh went over the top in the Victory Loan drive ahead of schedule time and beat every other township to it hands down. It was an example of splendid loyality and home pride spirit that made it possible to go over the top before the regular opening hours of the banks of the county.

Adrian couldn't or wouldn't believe it when the news was phoned to the county daily, hence Tecumseh did not get the credit it should have had in the printed report. People here were somewhat peeved because of this and there was considerable disatisfaction expressed at the attitude of the daily newspaper, especially when it was remembered that Tecumseh enterprise in former Liberty Loan drives received the same scanty attention.

It was indeed surprising, however, upon receipt of Tuesday's daily to note what a wonderful vision developed in the brain of the managing editor of the daily after a telephonic interview not of his seeking with Mr. Guy Nemire of the Tecumseh State Savings bank. Mr. Nemire was a little hot under the collar and mentioned things altogether different than expressed in the alleged interview published. The daily editor after listening to Mr. Nemire certainly found his polish and soft soap and we must give him credit for a superb, elastic imagination.

The news of Tecumseh's glorious achievement was phoned to the daily before 8:30 o'clock Monday morning, but the message seemed to be incomprehensible to the fellow on the Adrian end of the line.

Lenawee county is getting in line for systemic and scientific road building, a belated movement that all good road advocates will be pleased to see become active. As a starter the board of supervisors appointed three county commissioners last week as follows: Herbert Hodges of Ogden, Geo. Taylor, of Franklin township and John P. Rorick of Seneca townships.

In this end of the county Britton and Tipton have suffered most severely from impassable roads and many an auto was pulled out of the mud in the past few weeks. Merchants in Britton informed the writer last Saturday that the village had been practically mud-bound, that it was next to impossible for weeks for machines to reach or leave town without the danger of getting stuck in the mud. The people of these two towns should hail with delight the construction this summer of the Monroe turnpike as a state trunk line. The people of Ridgeway and Franklin township were wise to vote for the good roads proposition at the spring election.

At the meeting of the village council Tuesday evening that body voted unanimously to appropriate $200 for the entertainment of our soldiers and sailors on May 17, when the annual reunion of the 31st regiment of Spanish War Veterans will be held in Tecumseh. The township board, at a meeting last week voted a like sum, and business men have also contributed liberall·· for the success of the event.

It will be a big day in Tecumseh May 17, when the town will put on her gala attire and honor her soldier boys. Old Tecumseh never did things by halves, and in this instance she will go one better than in any previous attempt.

The 31st regiment of the Spanish War included the famous Co. C. of Tecumseh, some of the boys of which are sleeping in Cuba, some in the United States, but the remaining members of the regiment will be in Tecumseh on May 17 for their annual reunion.

In addition we will pay tribute and honor to the boys of '61 and all the boys of Northern Lenawee who served in any capacity in the war against autocracy. It is mighty little tribute we can pay these soldiers of the three wars, but Tecumseh will do her best.

Plans for the different entertainments are under way, and among them is the biggest parade Tecumseh ever saw—to make it so magnificent that the visitors will talk about it when they return home.

Every business firm, manufacturer, lodge, Grange or other organization is urged to begin preparations now for floats, as there remain less than four weeks before the event. We can make this event the biggest ever, we have the pep and get-to-gether spirit and will do it. Let's uphold our reputation as the "biggest little town on earth."

Through the courtesy of R. A. Heesen, we had the privilege of looking over a copy of the Paris edition of a Chicago paper, claiming title to the greatest newspaper on earth. Comparatively innocent German papers in the United States were obliged to suspend publication during the war, yet this great publication has been and is allowed to sow its seed of discontent among citizenship and soldiery. Michigan also seems to have a sheet that encourages disloyalty and bolshivism and the people seem to stand for it.

The Paris edition of the Chicago paper contained a long tale of woe because soldiers were not sent home more speedily and cast slurs upon members of the peace conference because they were not in the trenches with the boys.

"LEST WE FORGET"

Successfully Presented by Good Cast at Newburg School.

The Victory Loan playette, "Lest We Forget," was given at the Newburg school Saturday evening, Mrs. Paul Bowen assisted by Miss Ila Eggleston having charge. The building was well filled and the entertainment was much enjoyed. The cast, a good one, was as follows:

Peter Gregg, the uncle—Neil Rentschler.

Mrs. Barnard, chairman Woman's Loan committee—Miss Nellie Fielder.

Emily, the daughter — Miss Genevieve Dawson.

Billy, the son—Dale Bowen.

Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Todd, neighbors—Miss Vera Sisson, Miss Methia Allison.

Sarah, the servant—Miss Mabel Allison.

Rose Marion, returned Red Cross nurse—Miss Eggleston.

Preceding the play the scholars gave a song and Ernest Harris followed the play with a couple of vocal solos.

Pvt. Sam Rottman appeared with his story of the soldier life "over there," and took the crowd by storm.

The program closed with the school and guests singing "The Star Spangled Banner." Horace Lamkin had charge of the program and announced the numbers.

Let the Children Grow.

Coughs, colds, "snuffles," that hang on tend to weaken the system and a suffering, neglected child spends so much strength combating a cold that the little one cannot grow as fast and sound in body as when free from affliction. Foley's Honey and Tar is splendid for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough. Sold everywhere in Tecumseh.

The Pain of Corns and Bunions

Is quickly relieved by shaking into the shoes some Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder. Try it. No more tired, aching, swollen, tender feet if you use this standard remedy. Sold everywhere.—adv 4-24

SEAMON PACKARD

Death Follows in the Wake of Wedding.

Seamon Packard, of whose wedding we mentioned last week, died at Sunday morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Packard, south of town. He had been sick but a week, pneumonia developing a few days before death.

Mr. Packard was born in Britton 29 years ago, but has made his home in and around Tecumseh nearly all his life. He had been in the army five months, when last December he received his honorable discharge.

On April 8th he was united in marriage to Miss Bernice Bradford of Jackson, and they had come to Tecumseh to reside. Beside the wife and parents, he leaves one brother Murlow.

The funeral was conducted from the Packard home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. C. M. Thompson officiating. Appropriate hymns were sung by Mrs. R. T. Meade and Mrs. Ella Hodges. The bearers were Bernard Bradford, Roy Terry, David Adams, Chas. Green, Thomas Jas. Rixom and Clarence Adams. The house was filled with friends, many coming from away. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bradford, Mrs. Blanche Murphy, Miss Marguerite Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wilcox and son, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Green, Miss Gladys Watson and Roy Terry of Jackson; B. H. Bradford of Niles, F. S. Packard of Detroit, Bert Packard of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Adams of Sand Creek, Mrs. John Rixom, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rixom, Mrs. Wm. Lockwood of Britton, John, Robert, Mamie and Marjorie Biggins of Monroe, Mrs. Luella Cook of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Whelan of Tipton, Mrs. George Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aten of Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Whelan of Wampler's lake.

VILLAGE COUNCIL VOTES $200

FOR ENTERTAINMENT OF SODIERS MAY 17.

Street Commissioner's Salary Raised to $75 per Month—Geo. S. Field Appointed Assessor to Fill Vacancy.

The village council met Tuesday evening, with all members present, at least a portion of the session.

President Hines presided and the routine business was gone over with dispatch and in a businesslike manner. Roll call was made, minutes read and approved and bills alowed after proper scrutiny by the finance committee.

Trustee McCoy reported for the committee on buildings and grounds that application had been made by Supt. Reed for the privilege of placing a tennis court in Monument park, and that desired permission had been granted, providing trees, etc., in the park are not subjected to damage.

Trustee Pulver of the lighting committee reported that the clock installed by the Tecumseh Electric Co. failed to turn off the ornamental street lights at the stipulated hour for several nights. It developed that Mr. Hastings, in charge of the clock, was out of town over Sunday and took the key with him. As the lights are kept burning later on Saturday night than other nights the matter was explained.

Trustee Hendershot, health committee, reported that the public health was "tolerably good."

Trustee Pulver from the street committee, reported that, after due investigation, the committee recommended that the Tipton Telephone Co. be granted the privilege of extending their line to the store of the Tecumseh Cooperative Co.

Mr. Pulver also reported that the street commissioner had applied for an increase in salary from $60 to $75 per month. After some discussion Trustee Barrett offered a motion granting the raise. Trustee Hendershot offered an amendment that the amount be fixed at $70. The amendment received no support and the original motion was carried, Trustee Hendershot voting against it.

The wage question was discussed to some extent, and it seems the council is willing to pay men what they are worth, or earn.

It was mentioned that several citizens of VanBuren street had applied for city water service, in a block where there are no mains. After some discussion it was the opinion of the trustees that taxpayers should have equal privileges when possible.

President Hines read the resignation of Sam'l Steele, who was elected village assessor at the recent election. On motion of Trustee Barrett Geo. S. Field was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Trustee Pulver called the attention of the council to the fact that quite a few sidewalks in the village need repairing. Clerk Coller was instructed to look after the matter and report all defective walks to the council.

Lester Coller appeared before the council as a committee appointed at a recent meeting of business men, in regard to raising funds to entertain our soldiers on May 17. He informed the council that the township board appropriated $200 for this purpose at a recent meeting and that a like amount was asked from the village council. Mr. Coller explained that a big day was planned on the 17th, when the annual reunion of the 31st regiment Spanish War Veterans is scheduled to take place here. It is the purpose to combine this reunion with the entertainment of the G. A. R. boys as well as all the boys of Northern Lenawee who enlisted for the war just closed.

Trustee Hendershot questioned the fairness to village taxpayers by asking an amount equal to that appropriated by the township. He said two-thirds of the township tax is paid by the village, thus taxing village taxpayers double.

President Hines asked if the village did not receive the greater benefit, and other trustees expressed the opinion that the boys are entitled to all honor we can give them.

Trustee Barrett moved that the council appropriate $200 toward entertaining the soldiers on May 17. The motion carried without a protesting vote.

President Hines called attention to a matter that he said should receive attention at once—the proper looking after of the fire truck. As it is now the engine house is open and any one can enter and manipulate the machine. He suggested as the only safe way to hire a man to stay on the job, to keep the machine in condition and limbered up for business. "Some day," he said, "we may have a fire that will make us weep."

The matter was left with the fire committee to investigate and report at next meeting.

Attention was called to the Brownville water shut-off, which on acount of being level with the ground is difficult to find, especially when the ground is covered with snow.

Council adjourned.

EASTER SONG SERVICE

JOYFUL MUSIC BY COMBINED CHOIRS

At Presbyterian Church Gives Pleasure to Large Congregation—Robert R. Dieterle and Burton Garlinghouse of Ann Arbor Assist.

Seldom if ever before has a Tecumseh audience listened to such exquisitely beautiful music as at the Vesper musical given by the combined choirs of the town at the Presbyterian church Easter afternoon.

Picture the scene: The ladies all in white formed row upon row from the pulpit to the choir loft where the soloists and men had their stations. At either side were banks of lillies, cut flowers, potted plants and ferns with a white cross in the fore ground at the east. Over all through the colored windows came the beams of the glorious sunset.

Each choir leader, Mrs. R. S. Moore, Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, Mrs. Ella Hodges and Miss Camilla Hayden, had charge of one anthem and all were equally splendid, leading up to the grand "Hallelujah" chorus from Hanzel's "Messiah."

Robert R. Dieterle and Burton Garlinghouse of Ann Arbor came to assist on this program. Mr. Dieterle is a baritone of years of training and the Tecumseh people appreciate his kindness in taking this trouble for them. He sang Granier's "Hosanna," most delightfully, the tones seeming to flow from his throat with no effort. He is certainly a young man with a future.

Our own soloists were at their best and the solos on cornet and violin as given by Clare Camburn and Duaine Service were such as we might imagine the angel's harps in heaven to bring forth. "The Holy City," brought out by the clear notes from Mr. Camburn's cornet was as beautiful a hymn as we ever hope to hear and "Meditation" by Mr. Service proved again as never before that we have an artist, among the best, on our business street every day.

Rev. Escolme of the Friends church gave the Invocation, read the scripture lesson and the benediction.

Before the offertory, which by the way was played by Burton Garlinghouse and charmed his auditors who are always glad to welcome him home, the Rev. W. A. Rex announced that the funds received would go toward home charities and asked for $50 which would make up a note borrowed for the purpose of helping out certain calls in this line recently. That collection amounted to $49.51.

MRS. CATHERINE CONRAD

Mother of Mrs. C. M. Gilbert Passes to the Beyond.

Mrs. Catherine Conrad passed away Sunday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Gilbert, after an illness extending over several years. She had been confined to her bed since last November. She had made her home with the daughter for over three years.

Catherine Snyder was born in Morrow Co., Ohio, April 12th, 1847, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Gilbert, at Tecumseh, Mich., April 20, 1919.

The spring of 1866 she, with her parents, Abraham and Elizabeth, moved to Gorham township, Fulton Co., and settled on a farm northeast of Fayette. She was united in marriage to J. H. Conrad March 24th, 1868, to which union were born three children, Alby C., Ida May and Charles F., Alby C. dying in infancy.

Ida May and Charles F. still survive. Her early married life was spent near Fayette, Ohio.

About fifteen years ago she moved to Tecumseh, Mich., where she died. She united with the Methodist church at Fayette, O., in 1884, being a member of that church until she moved to Tecumseh. On her removal from Fayette she was presented with a letter of good standing which was presented to the Methodist church of this place, of which she has been a faithful and devoted member.

She is survived by the husband two sisters, Mrs. D. A. Baker of Butler Indiana, Anna Snyder of Tecumseh one daughter and one son, Mrs. C. M. Gilbert of Tecumseh and Charles F. Conrad of Grand Rapids; two grand daughters, Vera and Gladys Gilbert, and many friends.

"Sweet be thy rest
And peaceful thy sleeping:
God's way is best
Thou art in his keeping."

The funeral was held at Fayette, Ohio, yesterday afternoon, a prayer being held at the Gilbert home. Rev. C. M. Thompson conducted the services. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conrad of Grand Rapids and Miss Vera Gilbert of Lansing came for the funeral.

"BOUND IN MOROCCO" SNAPPY PHOTOPLAY

Scenes of New Fairbanks Picture Laid in Sahara Desert.

The scenes of "Bound in Morocco" are laid in Algiers and it is a snappy twentieth century photoplay filled with the comedy which travels at high speed throughout. The picturesque country of Algiers, which has been the scene of numerous great paintings, novels and photoplays, is the home of Douglas Fairbanks latest picture produced under Artcraft auspices. The action has to do with Arabians, beauties of the harem, fights with bandits, etc. in which Mr. Fairbanks portrays a character quite different from any he has hitherto as sayed.

In addition to the features named, great traveling caravans, with their tawdry camels, goats and other animals are shown. There are battles and chases on the Arabian desert, in which hundreds take part in which Mr. Fairbanks does his customary daredevil stunts, one of these being a dive Mr. Fairbanks makes from the top of a high sand-dune upon the neck of an Arabian rider, who is passing by on a swiftly speeding horse beneath. This is followed by an exciting hand to hand fight, in which, of course, Mr. Fairbanks emerges as the victor.

There are numerous situations in this story, in addition to the Fairbanksen methods, which makes this story unusually interesting.

"Bound in Morocco" will be presented at the Bradley Opera House, next Saturday evening, April 26, the usual big two reel comedy will also be on the program. This week's comedy "The Fatal Marriage."

MATTHEW L. ROOT

Former Prominent Tecumseh Business Man Died in Detroit Sunday.

Matthew L. Root passed away at the Samaritan Hospital, Detroit, Sunday aged 59 years. He had been in poor health for some time, but about two months ago, while standing on the street in Detroit, he backed up to allow a pedestrian to pass and tripped on the curb. His back seemed paralized by the fall and as he gradually grew worse he was taken to the hospital. Uremic poisoning attributed to the illness and death resulted.

After services in Detroit the remains were brought here for burial in the family lot and short services were held at the grave. Accompanying the remains to Tecumseh were Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Root and Capt E. D. Chilson of Painsville and Charles Tear of Wyandotte.

Mr. Root was born at Fairport, N. Y., the son of Jeremiah and Anna Tear Root. With the parents, brother Harry and sister, Jennie, later Mrs. J. Q. Look, the deceased came to Tecumseh fifty years ago and now all are gone except the nephew, Lyman Root, now in overseas service. Mr. Root was for years active in the business of the town, being connected with James Boyd in the flouring business at the Quaker mill. Later he traveled for the Wm. Hayden Milling Co. the Jackson Milling Co. and Swift & Co. He represented these firms all over the United States, in England and South Africa. Mr. Root had many friends here who sorrow at his death and the passing of one of the most prominent familie of the town.

Miss Mildred VanWinkle went to Three Rivers yesterday to visit relatives for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Waldron spent last week with their son Harry and wife at Howell.

Brink Streniham, for a week a guest of Dr. and Mrs. O. Q. Jones returned to his home in Brooklyn Monday.

Miss Mozella Galloway, a student of Ypsilanti Normal was an Easter guest of Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson.

Miss Mildred Marsh, who has a position in Flint, has been spending a few days with her father, Harry Marsh and family.

After visiting her aunt Mrs. C. A. Wright for some ten days, Mrs. J. P. Junkin left yesterday for her home in Milwaukee.

The little son of Buryl Bumpus and wife of Tipton has been very ill with pneumonia at the home of R. S. Bumpus, but is now better.

Orris Bumpus, was home from the Custer hospital over Sunday on a furlough. He is to have an operation on his throat in a few days.

Leon Temple has had a Liberty U. S. A. truck on exhibition this week. Pvt. Jos. Heese of Earling, Iowa, is driving and demonstrating.

A picture in McCann & Bowen's window shows part of Reg. 340, at Long Island. In the group are Percy and Glen Bowen and Barney McCaughn.

At the meeting of Beers Post, G. A. R., Monday night, Rev. C. M. Thompson, was unanimously invited to give the memorial address on Decoration Day.

The B. Y. P. U. will give a backward, topsy-turvy socia. at the Baptist pastor's home tomorrow evening at 7:30. Wear your clothes wrong side out, your hats upside down.

Albert Schreder of Detroit was home over Sunday called by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Willis Schreder, who as we go to press seems to be gradually failing.

Mrs. Will Smith, of Macon, and Mrs. Mary Cook, of North Franklin, have been assisting in the care of their sister. Mrs. W. G. Schreder, who has been very ill with pneumonia and is far from being out of danger now.

Hascall Biggins, reported as missing a few months ago, was then in a French hospital, having been shot across the back of the head. He was with the 26th Engineers, has now returned to his home in Monroe, honorably discharged.

The T. B. A. and other friends to the number of forty ladies helped Miss Lydia McNeil celebrate her 76 birthday Tuesday by a surprise visit. A picnic supper was the feature of the party Miss McNeil received many pretty and useful gifts.

Rev. Edgar Wollam, a former pastor of the local Friend's church, will be here Sunday, preaching at both the morning service and the Community service at night. Rev. Wollam is now executive secretary of the Cleveland Bible Institute.

Archie Boyd, coming across from France with his company of the 85th, was taken ill the last day on the boat. He was sent to a hospital at Camp Upton and has only just been discharged, but not in time to come on to Custer with the others.

A Victory Loan meeting was held in the Green district, Raisin Monday evening at the school. Leon McLachlin gave a talk, telling of his life in the Navy. The children gave many recitations and songs and Arthur Green sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning." Many volunteered to buy bonds.

Quite a bunch of home boys arrived in the old town yesterday from over seas service. Among them were Percy and Glenn Bowen, Jack Smith, Lavern Lowry and James McCook. They had been with the 85th and were discharged at Camp Custer Tuesday.

Keeps Your Stove Shining Bright

Gives a brilliant glossy shine that does not rub off or dust off—that anneals to the iron—that lasts four times as long as any other.

Black Silk Stove Polish

is in a class by itself. It's more carefully made and made from better materials.

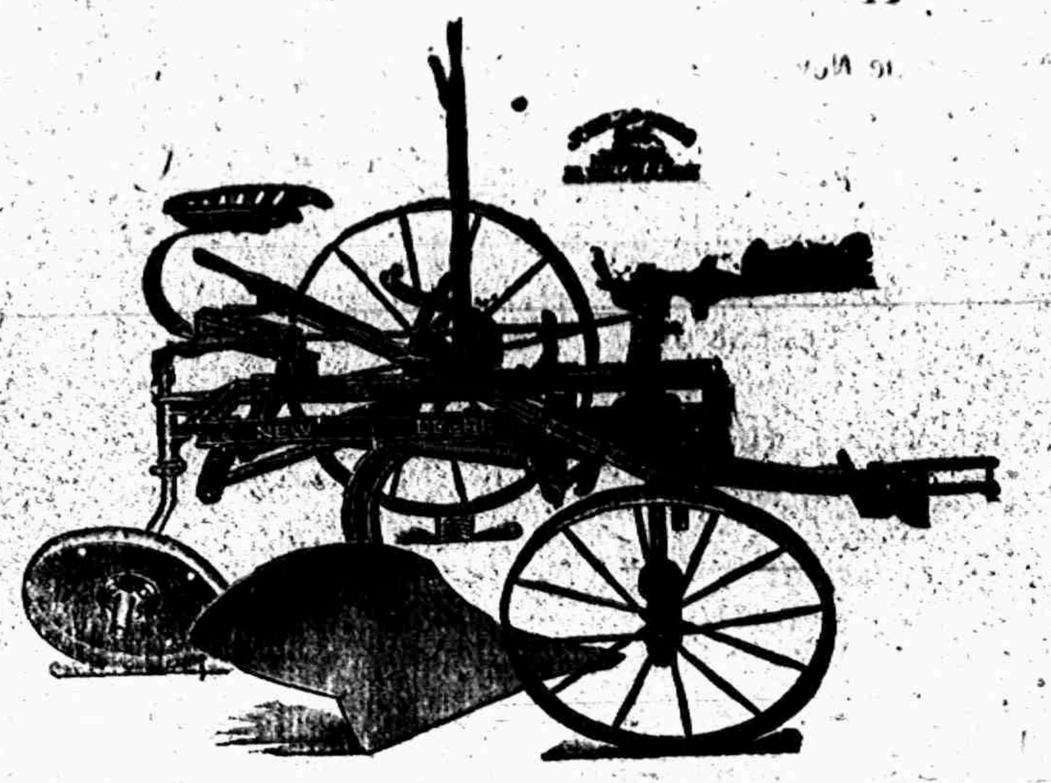
Try it on your parlor stove, your cook stove or your gas range. If you don't find it the best polish you ever used, your hardware or grocery dealer is authorized to refund your money.

There's "A Shine in Every Drop"

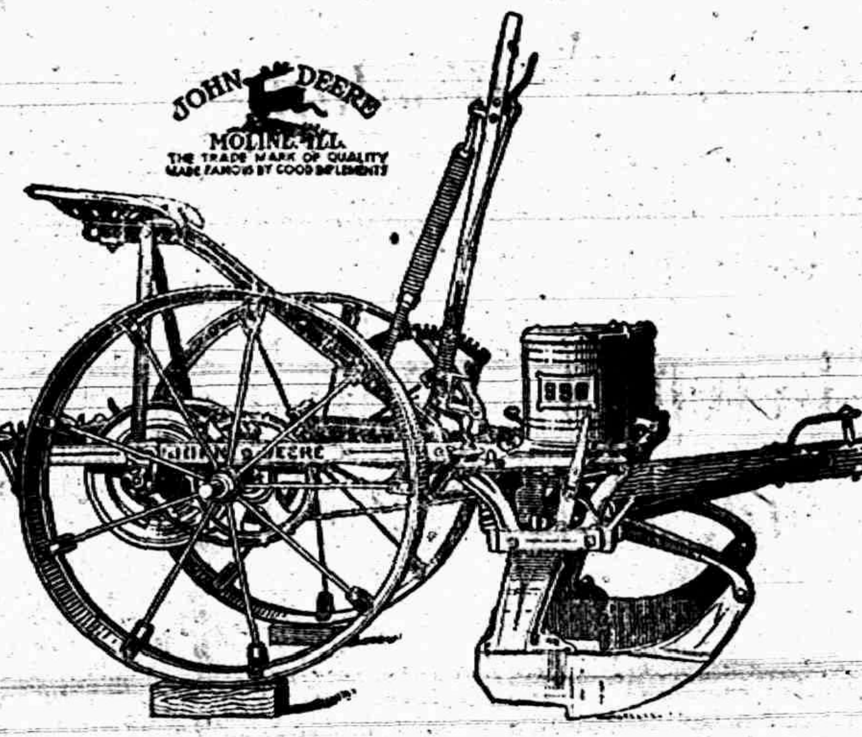
Get a Can TODAY

Don't Wait



The season is late. You want to make every day count. It's best to prepare for the very best corn crop. We know you did not intend to buy a new plow, but will it pay to use the old one?

We have the
JOHN DEERE STAG AND GANG,
MOLINE GOOD ENOUGH SULKY AND GANG,
DEERE, MOLINE, BURCH AND GALE HAND PLOWS.



CORN PLANTER

This is where we shine. We have the two best planters money will buy—the two planters that are absolutely guaranteed to drop the corn the way you want it. These are the John Deere No. 999 and Sure Drop.

These planters have all the latest improvements. They are not old planters, but the very latest, with automatic marker, 2-3-4 change device. Change from hill to drill in a moment, and do it so easily that any boy could make the change.

HARD COAL

The price will be higher May 1st. This month we are receiving both egg and stove sizes of that old Plymouth which is so hard to obtain, and we will not be able to get all we want or need, and for that reason we urge you. Have it put in now, when we can get it.

We will be able to get hard coal later, but not this old grade of Plymouth, which you know is very low in ash, practically no clinkers, and no hard coal gives out so much heat.

Underwood-Keran Wedding.

Wednesday, April 16, at 1:30 in the afternoon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Underwood, a pretty wedding was solemnized when their daughter, Miss Imo, became the bride of Harlan Keran, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Keran.

At the appointed time Miss Grace Underwood, sister of the bride, played the wedding march, when in the presence of the immediate relatives the bridal party, unattended, took their places in the corner of the parlor, which had been made very pretty with a background of potted plants and where the beautiful ring service was read by Rev. J. C. DeRemer.

The bride was charming in a handsome gown of white crepe de chene, while her traveling suit was of blue, with hat to match.

The house decorations were bouquets of sweet peas. After congratulations a three course dinner was served by Miss Alice Roscoe, an intimate friend.

The bride has lived here all her life, is one of our most popular young ladies, a graduate of our school and an active church worker and leader in many social functions. The groom, a prosperous young farmer, is also a graduate of our school and active in church work. He has just nicely returned from overseas, where he spent several months, enlisting soon after war was declared. Both young people have many friends who extend congratulations. After a wedding trip and visit with relatives in Indiana and Illinois they will be at home on the farm east of town.

Christian Church Notes.

Rev. J. C. DeRemer, Minister.

In spite of the rain Sunday morning there were one hundred and twenty-six present at the services. Three children were consecrated in baptism and five members were received into the church.

A full house enjoyed the Easter program in the evening.

The Dorcas class will serve supper to the public Thursday evening in the church dining room at the supper hour.

Mr. S. A. Dean of the Anti-Saloon League will speak Sunday morning.

M. E. Church Notes.

The Easter services Sunday morning given by the Sunday school were well attended and very enjoyable. Two children received the rite of baptism.

Regular services next Sunday morning.

Mr. S. A. Dean of the Anti-Saloon League will speak in the evening, following the C. E. meeting that begins at 7 o'clock.

At the W. F. M. S. meeting being held here this week we note the following speakers: Rev. C. Heininger, Dr. Frances F. Tucker, medical missionary of China, Mrs. H. L. Feeman, Mrs. Soule, Mrs. Hathaway and Mrs. J. R. Richardson.

KIDNEYS WEAKENING? LOOK OUT!

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow slowly but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1696 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

WHEREAS, default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the 15th day of March, A. D., 1915, executed and delivered by Benjamin F. Evilsizer and Josephine Evilsizer, husband and wife, of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, to Veva Hardcastle, of the same place, and which said mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the County of Lenawee, Michigan, in liber 195 of mortgages, on page 64, on the 16th day of March, A. D. 1916, at 8 o'clock A. M., and whereas, the amount claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date of this notice is the sum of Four Hundred Twenty-five (425) Dollars of principal and interest, and the further sum of Eighteen and 75-100 (18.75) Dollars by said mortgagee paid for taxes upon premises hereinafter described, and the further sum of two and 86-100 (2.86) Dollars by said mortgagee paid for insurance of buildings upon premises hereinafter described, making the total amount due on said mortgage, at the date of this notice, the sum of Four Hundred Forty-six and 61-100 (446.61) Dollars; and no suit or proceeding at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt now remaining secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof, whereby the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative:

Now therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of said power of sale, and in pursuance of the statue in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the amount of said principal and interest now due on said mortgage, and interest to accrue thereon, together with said sum so paid for taxes and insurance, and the costs of this foreclosure proceeding (including an attorney fee as provided by law, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the east front door of the Court house, in the City of Adrian, in said County of Lenawee, on the 30th day of June, A. D. 1919, at ten (10) o'clock in the forenoon of that day: which said premises are described in said mortgage as follows, to-wit: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate and being in the Village of Tecumseh, in the County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, and more particularly described as follows: Bounded by beginning in the east line of Pearl street at northwest corner of lot formerly owned by Joseph Wilson, and now as is supposed by Snell, and running thence north about four (4) rods to south line of Bidwell street; thence east about ten (10) rods to west line of L. S. & M. S. depot grounds; thence south in west line of said Depot grounds four (4) rods to said Snell lot; thence west ten (10) rods to place of beginning.

CHANCERY NOTICE

STATE OF MICHIGAN. The Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee, in Chancery.

August Van Neste and Florence Van Neste, his wife,
Plaintiffs.
vs.

Stephen Clarke, Mrs. Stephen Clarke, whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs; Moses Yeanero, Mrs. Moses Yeanero whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs; William Cannon, Mrs. William Cannon, whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs; R. S. Cogswell, Mrs. R. S. Cogswell, whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs; James Z. Prentiss, Mrs. James Z. Prentiss, whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs Agnes Paupa, Mary Gephart; President, Directors and Company of the Bank of Michigan, Elihu L. Clark, Samuel Wardwell, Henry L. Stillman, Dycks McLachlin, John Peters, George Bruce, Dykes McLachlin, Russel C. Carter, Henry Sheldon, and Mrs. Henry Sheldon, whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs, Lenawee County Savings Bank, and Mrs. Jeanette Cannon.

Defendants.

At a session of said court, held at the Court House in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 8th day of March, A. D. 1919.

Present, Honorable Burton L. Hart, Circuit Judge.

Upon reading and filing the Bill of Complaint in this cause, duly sworn to by the plaintiffs, from which it satisfactorily appears that the defendants hereto have some titles, interests, claims, liens, or possible rights to the premises described in said Bill of Complaint and hereinafter described; and said plaintiffs averring that all the titles, interests, claims, liens, or possible rights of said defendants and each of them are barred by the open, notorious, exclusive, and continuous possession of said plaintiffs, or their grantors, for more than fifteen years last past, and for more than fifteen years since the several rights to the possession thereof accured in said defendants, and that such possession has been during all of said time and still is adverse and hostile to the titles, interests, claims, liens or possible rights of the respective defendants and their predecessors in title; that plaintiffs have not been able to ascertain whether the said above named defendants, excepting Lenawee County Savings Bank and Mrs. Jeanette Cannon, and their several unknown heirs devisees, legatees, and assigns, or any of them, are living or dead, or where they or any of them reside, if living, or whether the title, interest, claim, lien, or possible rights of said parties, or any of them has been by them, or any of them, assigned to any person or persons, or if dead, whether they or any of them have personal representatives or heirs living, or where they, or any of them reside, or whether such title, interest, claim, lien or possible rights, which they or any of them may have has been disposed of by will, although they have made diligent search and inquiry.

On motion of Earl C. Michener, attorney for plaintiffs, it is ordered that the above named defendants, or their several unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, and assigns, cause their several appearances to be entered herein in the manner provided by law, on or before three months from the date hereof.

It is further ordered that this order be published or served as required by law.

Burton L. Hart.
Circuit Judge.

Examined, Countersigned, and entered by me,
Emery B. Root.
Clerk of said Court.
Earl C. Michener, Adrian Michigan, Attorney for plaintiff.

The above entitled suit involves the title to and is brought to quiet and clear the title to land and premises described in said Bill of Complaint, as follows:

Those certain pieces or parcels of land situated in the township of Deerfield, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, bounded and described as follows, to-wit: The west one-half (½) of the Northeast quarter (¼) of Section Nine (9), and the East one-half (½) of the East one-half (½) of the northwest quarter (¼) of Section Nine (9), in Town Seven (7) south of Range Five (5) east, containing one Hundred and twenty (120) acres of land, more or less, (excepting and reserving a strip of land off of the south side thereof now owned and occupied by the New York Central Railroad Company). 4-27

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thompkins entertained friends on Easter Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Whelan and Mrs. E. J. Whelan visited at LeClare Whelan's Sunday.

The epidemic of colds which swept through here recently, sparing few, seems to have subsided.

Donald Whelan re-entered school Monday after an absence of several weeks on account of illness.

Fay Whelan of Tecumseh spent Saturday with his grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Whelan. He rode up on his pony.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Whelan, Mrs. E. J. Whelan and Euzell Whelan spent Easter Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. LeClare Whelan.

Mrs. Mary Whelan of Tipton reports that her brother, Wilber Deming, our former fellow townsman, has sold his farm in Gladwin county.

Mr. and Mrs. Kester Morey are keeping house at the home of the late Wright Doty, where they will remain until after the auction takes place.

Mrs. David Tripp has returned to Battle Creek with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vickery, who motored from that city Saturday, returning the following day.

Little Laura Wisner has received a dress from her aunt, Mrs. John Eckert, of Oakley. The material was furnished Mrs. Eckert some time since, to which she has added yards and yards of crochet lace to the sheer white material. The dress is a beautiful dream and we do not believe that any French modiste could surpass it. In the parcel received was also the daintiest crocheted bonnet for little Marion Whelan of Tecumseh.

Carl Wisner, lawyer of Chicago, who has just returned from a trip from Florida, Mississippi and Louisiana, writes under date of April 19th: "The whole South has had an almost daily rainfall for months past. Indeed, it seems that our Illinois and Indiana farmers are as far along with their crops as the farmers in the South. I never saw crop conditions so favorable at this time of year in the North as at the present time. The trip through Illinois and Indiana going by daylight showed the largest proportion of wheat I ever saw, and I did not see one poor piece in the entire area."

MACON

Macon Ladies' Banquet.

The ladies' banquet which was held last Friday evening, April 18, at the Macon Methodist church was a decided success. The basement of the church was filled with ladies, who were present to enjoy the feast.

The tables were prettily decorated with plants and flowers and presented a very neat appearance. The menu, which was most excellent, was prepared by the ladies of both Methodist and Presbyterian churches, and was most admirably served by the young men of the community, who also furnished the ice cream. The menu consisted of the following: Chicken patties, escalloped potatoes, rolls, pineapple salad, pickles devils' food cake, coffee, and ice cream.

The music for the occasion was furnished by the Tecumseh orchestra and every number was enjoyed by all and received a hearty applause.

Mrs. Everett Collins acted as toastmistress for the occasion in a very pleasing manner.

The following program was rendered:

Music—Orchestra.
Reading—Mrs. Allen Montgomery.
Instrumental solo—Miss Schumaker.
Solo—Miss Ailene Biddle.
Reading—Miss Anna Higgins.
Address—Miss Alice B. Angell.
Solo—Mrs. Ivan Spitler.
Address—Mrs. McIntyre, Lansing.

The proceeds of the evening after deducting expenses are about $62.00.

Miss Beth Satterthwaite of Tecumseh is caring for Mrs. Ellsworth Collins, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Koebbe have returned from Eustis, Fla., where they have been spending the winter.

The many friends of Ivan Spitler, who is home from overseas, are greeting him with gladness and congratulating him on his safe return.

Byron Paschal, who is home from overseas, autoed over from Blissfield Monday bringing back with him Mrs. Paschal, who had been home for the Easter holidays.

The high school pupils deserve much credit for the manner in which they rendered the play "Lest We Forget," last Monday evening at the M. E. church in the interest of the Victory Loan drive. The house was well filled and the address by Sam Rottman of Tecumseh, a returned soldier, who also spoke in the interest of the Victory Loan, was full of interest and was listened to with close attention.

TECUMSEH OVER TWICE

SUBSCRIBES DOUBLE HER VICTORY LOAN QUOTA.

Tecumseh First Township, Detroit First Large City and Michigan First State Over the Top—Adrian and Lenawee Have Not Yet Reached Quota.

Tecumseh was not only the first township to go over the top by popular Victory Loan subscription, but she also has the distinction of doubling her quota, the amount subscribed going over the $200,000 mark.

While Adrian and Lenawee county have not yet reached their quota, County Chairman H. S. Temple informs us that the grade will surely be made.

Of the eight townships of Lenawee to subscribe their quota of bonds, Tecumseh was the first to make it by popular subscription.

Detroit was the first large city to reach the top and Michigan the first state in the union.

MISS MARSHALL BECOMES BRIDE OF H. E. WELLS

Pretty Event Is Solemnized by Rev. Bastian Smits.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Monday afternoon when Miss Ola G. Marshall and Mr. Harry E. Wells, both of Jackson, were united in marriage at the home of the bride, in the Hobart apartments, West Main street. Few guests were present, only the immediate families of the bride and groom, and one or two intimate friends being present. A bank of ferns, palms and pink carnations formed a background for the bridal party during the ceremony. Miss Marshall was exquisitely gowned in old blue georgette over gold satin, and her corsage was of cream colored roses. The couple were unattended and Rev. Bastian Smits read the marriage service. After the ceremony there was an informal reception and dainty recreshments were served. For the wedding trip, which includes New York and Boston, the bride wore a navy blue tailored suit and smart black fox fur with small blue hat to match, and corsage of pink rosebuds, candytuft and maidenhair. Mr. and Mrs. Wells will be at home after May 12, at 245 West Main street.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Morlock of Hillsdale, parents of the bride, Mrs. John Wells of Tecumseh, mother of the groom; Hazel and George and Harold Morlock, sister and brothers of the bride; Luella Harrington and Louis Friedt, all of Jackson.

Many dinners have been given for the bride, among those entertaining in her honor being Mrs. Charles Fisk, Mrs. Ferdinand Gratz, Mrs. Ellis Russell, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas C. Kellogg.

We clip the foregoing from Tuesday's Jackson News. It is especially interesting to Tecumseh people as Harry Wells is one of our young men. The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wells, he has lived here all his life until some four years ago he secured an excellent position with the Michigan Central and has since made Jackson his headquarters. Harry has hosts of friends in this vicinity who extend their heartiest congratulations and best wishes for the boy from the old town and his bride.

One little incident at the wedding would please Harry's friends The ceremony took place in the flat which will be the home of the couple in their return. It seems there is only one outer door and through a clever ruse both the bride and groom stepped into the hall while serving their guests and quick as a flash Harry turned the key from the outside, locking the whole company in the rooms. Away they went to the home of a nearby friend where they had previously secreted their luggage and off for the train. But Harry had reckoned without counting on the keen wits of the ladies. They hustled a great file and screw driver and got busy on that door. First the lock, but that couldn't budge, then at the hinges, and by prying through a tiny crack at the back they managed to raise the pins from the hinges and opened that door from the back and off they went each with a package of rice. They rushed the gatekeeper at the depot and corralled that bridal pair just as they boarded the train and sure did surprise

The schedule for athletic events of Tecumseh High school during May is as follows:

Base ball—May 2, Manchester at Tecumseh; May 10, Addison at Tecumseh; May 14, Tecumseh at Clinton; May 16, Tecumseh at Manchester.

Tennis, boys' and girls' teams—May 7, Hudson at Tecumseh; May 14, Tecumseh at Addison; May 21, Blissfield at Tecumseh.

Girls' basket ball—May 3, Tecumseh at Blissfield; May 10, Addison at Tecumseh; May 17, Deerfield at Tecumseh.

In the event of the local teams winning the three contests they will be eligible as contenders for the trophies that will be awarded at the county field meet at Blissfield May 23.

Mrs. John Wells returned Tuesday from Jackson, where she attended the wedding of her son, Harry Wells.

TECUMSEH MAN SEES WAR EXPERIENCES

Will Fitzsimmons in Home Town for a Few Days After Absence of 25 Years.

Will Fitzsimmons, brother of P. W. A. Fitzsimmons, has been for the last week reviewing the scenes of his youth, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Shull and other relatives after an absence of 25 years. All are enjoying his visit immensely.

Will is remembered well as a real live wire as a boy and his recent experiences while attached to Royal Engineers of the British army were, undoubtedly, relished by him. One of the most exciting was the torpedoing of the boat H. S. 4 which was towing a refrigerator barge. They were in the Bisco Bay, 190 miles from land, headed for the Persian Gulf. Both the H. S. 4 and barge were sunk. The crew were captured and taken aboard the submarine, then set adrift in small boats with but scant rations. A Portuguese schooner rescued the boat on which was Mr. Fitzsimmons and after more trouble they were towed into Paimpoi, a small fishing station on the French coast.

Will was made pilot and spent a year carrying supplies on coastwise and channel boats.

He is now on a 28 days' furlough, and will receive his discharge at Vancouver, B. C., May 10th.

While abroad he received word of the death of his wife, leaving two little daughters awaiting his return home. He has now placed them in a girls' school.

INFORMAL MUSICALE HONORING MR. HOWES

And Soloists of Cast That Presented "Queen Esther" in Tecumseh.

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by the members of the cast of the recent "Queen Esther" production at the home of L. D. Kenyon on Monday evening of this week.

The occasion was arranged as an informal musicale in honor of Mr. George L. Howes, the director of "Queen Esther," and the solo members of that work.

Mr. Howes recently finished the work in Albion and the local papers spoke of the brilliant success of the affair and the beauty and power of the cantata which was such a success in Tecumseh.

On leaving Tecumseh, Mr. Howes found that a considerable number of the singers were interested in vocal work and promised to return for the summer months.

A much needed rest from his cantata work [illegible] consequently brought him back to Tecumseh about two months earlier than he had planned. Until the first of September he will be at the service of those interested in vocal development and community musical interest.

The musical program of the evening was given in the charmingly decorated rooms and consisted of a few choice records, first, then Mrs. Robert Moore sang very effectively and rendered very uniquely several recitations with musical setting played by Mrs. Ella Hodges. Mr. Howes sang several selections including one of his own compositions and Miss Edna Taylor also contributed several vocal numbers.

Miss Bess Yutzey was responsible for the serving of much appreciated refreshments and so the evening was most enjoyably spent by those present.

MAY 17 THE BIG DAY

Plans for Entertaining Soldiers and Sailors Progressing.

Extensive plans are under way for the big day Saturday, May 17th, the annual reunion of the veterans of the Spanish war. Also are we to entertain on that day the boys of the Civil War and the boys of Northern Lenawee who have returned from the present world war and those enlisting for the same. There will attend representatives from nearly every state in the union, including the officers, etc.

Tecumseh sent old Co. C to the Spanish war and this is their annual reunion date, so Tecumseh is going one better than ever before along the lines of entertainment, with a banquet, speakers, bands galore, and then a parade is planned which will beat all preceding features of the like. Floats representing the various establishments of the town are already being planned, and all merchants, manufacturers, lodges, etc., are urged to get into line.

Showing the strength of the ties binding soldiers together Capt. T. R. Kyle, captain commanding Co. C, 31st Michigan, in the Spanish-American war, writes Major Henry L. Hunt from LosAngeles, Cal., that he will meet him at Tecumseh May 17th at the annual reunion of the regiment there. The 31st is one of the few regiments of that war that has held an annual reunion since being mustered out of the service twenty years ago at Savannah. The captain underscores, "Fail me not."—Jackson News. Yes, and maybe the biggest little town on earth won't be happy to welcome our big Captain Kyle. That will be one of the best features of the reunion.

Mrs. E. D. Brown has returned from a short visit with her brother at Syracuse, N. Y.

Mrs. R. K. Anderson received a message from her husband, Lieut. R. K. Anderson, saying he had arrived in Newport News safely.

STREET SPRINKLING

EXECUTIVE BOARD, OF COMMERCE CLUB

To Take Matter up With Village Council—Railway Freight Service Discussed.

At a meeting of the executive board of the Commerce club, held Monday evening J. R. Nyland, the chairman, was directed to interview the village council in regard to street sprinkling. He is to suggest an assessment basis, a percentage to be placed against the business men and the remainder levied on the village at large.

The subject of handling freight was also discussed. It had been reported to the Commerce club frequently that it takes 36 hours to get freight to Dundee and other nearby points, that all freight has to be taken to the north depot, not shipped directly from the south depot, and that many take advantage of auto truck transportation to Toledo and Detroit in preference to waiting the convenience of the N. Y. Central freights.

The secretary of the club was requested to write the officials of the road to see if the present state of affairs could not be remedied.

MRS. WILLIS G. SCHREDER

Tecumseh Lady, Victim of Pneumonia, Passes Away Saturday.

Mrs. Willis G. Schreder passed away Saturday at 2 a. m. after but a ten days' illness with pneumonia. Seriously ill from first had she been, but her friends did not believe the disease had reached its climax when the word went out that this good woman, beloved by so many friends, was with us no more.

Mary Melvina Patterson, oldest child of James and Rachel Patterson, was born at LaGrange, Ind., Feb. 3, 1862. With her people she came to Ridgeway when but a child and has since made this vicinty her home. She was united in marriage to Willis G. Schreder Feb. 28, 1883, and to mourn with him are left three children: Mrs. Ethel Steele, of Britton; Albert Schreder, of Detroit, and Leon Schreder of Tecumseh. Also surviving are one sister Mrs. Mina Smith, of Britton, and three brothers, Clarence Patterson, of Britton, Robert of British Columbia, and Irving, of Portland, Oregon. One sister, Mrs. Agnes Phillips, died a few years ago in California and the remains were brought back to the home cemetery to be laid at rest.

Upon their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Schreder always lived in Tecumseh township, purchasing the farm northeast of town, which was their home until they moved into the village some four years ago.

A member of the Presbyterian church since girlhood, first of the DeSpelder church, and later of the local organization, her interest next to her home and family, was centered in the church societies and always was the thoughtful, kindly spirit evident and to know her was to admire and respect her sincerely. To her friends always loyal, never an unkind word about any one, few of us can have the loving tributes paid us which the memory of Mrs. Schreder receives. She was also a member of the Order of Eastern Star.

The funeral was held from the home Monday afternoon, and the house was filled with friends to to thus honor the memory of one who had so many times lent a helping hend to many in trouble. Mrs. R. T. Meade and Mrs. Ella Hodges sang two appropriate hymns, the Rev. C. L. Hawkins of Lansing read the scripture lesson and offered prayer and Rev. W.A. Rex gave the address. He spoke feelingly of the member of his congregation gone before and left many thoughts of consolation for the sorrowing friends whom, as he said, comprise the town.

The remains were laid to rest in Brookside, to old neighbors being given the honor of being bearers: Fred Goheen, John Sisson, John T. Boyce, Al Whitmore, Wm. Gibson and Dr. John Murphy.

Coming for the funeral were Mr. andMrs. Albert Schreder, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Steele and son, Britton; Bert Schreder, of Stroh, Ind.; Mrs. Tillie Spirell, Monga, Ind; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Visher, Toledo; Mrs. Harvey Galloway, Raisin Center; Mrs. and Mrs. George Gillespie, Mason; Mr. and Mrs. Ganoung and daughter Elsie, Wellsville; Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. VanDusen, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Gillespie, Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Patterson and two children, Mrs. Mina Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Squires, Roscoe Smith, Macon; Mrs. Mary Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Goldsmith and two children of North Franklin, and Ira Webster, of Adrian.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thus thank the many friends for their kindness during the illness of our wife and mother and the many courtesies extended afterwards, for the beautiful floral remembrances, the autos and those taking part in the services.

Willis G. Schreder.
Mr. and Mrs. Ira Steele,
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schreder,
Mr. and Mrs. Leon Schreder. 5-1

Guy Belton, who lived with Frank Davidson and family many years ago, passed away in Detroit Monday. The funeral is to be held in that city today. The following Tecumseh relatives attending: Mrs. Eliza Sanford, Mrs. Justin Camp, Mr. and Mrs. George Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Will Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fagan entertained at dinner Sunday for their son, Leon, who has just returned from nine months' overseas service. Guests present were Corp. and Mrs. Leon H. Fagan, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Harrison and son, Chauncey, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Barrett and daughters, Mary and Beatrice.

John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Deming, has been treating with a Toledo physician for several weeks. The latter part of the week he suffered an operation for the removal of his tonsils and adenoids. The treatment received for his eyes has also been very beneficial and his sight has materially improved.

In the party of Tecumseh ladies to attend the County Federation of Women's clubs in Hudson yesterday were Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mrs. J. D. Shull, Mrs. C. N. Graebner, Mrs. F. S. Turner, Mrs. W. G. Waldron, Mrs. John McIntyre, Mrs. H. S. Waring, Mrs. Andrew Taylor and Mrs. F. C. Gallup.

As Thursday was Mrs. Frank Fuller's birthday and also the anniversary of their wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller were surprised completely when at supper time in came a great party of neighbors and they brought along a fine supper, too. Everybody had a splendid time, not the least behind being the host and hostess.

Joseph Satterthwaite returned the last of the week from overseas service, having been discharged at Custer. Joe graduated in June, 1918, enlisted the next month at Camp Custer, after being turned down at Detroit, and in August went across with the 85th. He was just one day from the trenches when the armistice was signed. He was in 330 Field Artillery, Battery C.

Mr. Pierce of the Royal theatre has been in Detroit this week buying a new picture machine. The old machine went wrong during the first week the new management had control, then they put in two to save waits, but the booth was too small to operate them. Now they are enlarging the booth and with a new machine are promising their patrons fine service.

Albert VanDoren will be ready the first of the week to take care of any line of auto repairing. He is getting settled in his new location in the Bidwell garage just north of the old Coller house. 5-1

TROOP NO. 1 BOY SCOUTS ENJOY CAMPFIRE MEETING

Hold Session at Standish Pond Monday Evening—Boys Manifest Continued Interest.

Troop No. 1 of the Boy Scouts of America held their meeting on Monday evening about a campfire at the Standish dam. After the regular business session stalking games were engaged in, in which the Beaver and Stag patrols succeeded in getting two Scouts through the line of outposts of the Owl and Bob White patrol, although losing a large number of prisoners to the latter. A wener roast topped off the meeting.

At the meeting next Monday evening there will be the investiture of Scouts with second class rank. Assembly at 7:15 o'clock; if weather permits meeting will be in the open.

The troop desires to express its thanks to Dr. Conklin for the time he is giving in first aid instruction, and to Dr. Beardsley for his help in taking the Scouts' examinations in the same subject.

The troop committeemen have also been very loyal in their efforts.

Weather permitting there will be a hike on Saturday with Ass't. Scout Master Hayden commanding.

There are two ways to invest one's saving.

In securities promising comparatively large returns where there is, of course, some element of risk.

Or in the good old fashioned Savings Bank way wherein a vastly greater number of people have paved the way to real success.

We have hundreds of depositors making steady gains in our savings department. Are you one of them?

Editorial Comment

Now that Tecumseh has made such a splendid record in the Victory Loan campaign, out-distancing in speed probably every community in the States in getting over the top in popular subscriptions, let's get together on the job of solving the dust problem in Tecumseh.

It is of vital importance to the public of Tecumseh that this question should be solved soon. A few weeks ago, before the continued rain that so sadly interferred with farm work, one of our physicians was asked in regard to the public health. He replied that considerable throat trouble was prevalent at that time. When asked if the floating dust was not responsible for a great deal of that trouble he replied in the affirmative—that most of the trouble could be traced to dust infection. When one stops to consider the filth that is ground into the dust, and that this dust floats into markets, stores and homes—that we breathe it into our lungs and get it into our systems with food and drink—one is likely to pause and reflect with apprehension.

That the people of Tecumseh have not yet been able to get together on the method of laying the dust was evident from the result of a canvass recently of the business district, when merchants were solicited to contribute toward sprinkling the business district with water. Some business houses would subscribe nothing toward water sprinkling; others placed their signatures on the paper under protest, giving the oiling method their preference. The canvass did not solve the problem, because the amount pledged was insufficient to hire man and team to do the work.

The matter has been discussed by the village council and the application of tarvia has been given consideration. But here again we are up against a proposition. Chicago street is a portion of the Monroe urnpike, and constitutes part of a state trunk highway that will undoubtedly come up for improvement this season. Will the work advance far enough to include Chicago street through our village? If so, there will be some opposition to applying tarvia this year because of the expense. Watering has its opposition and oiling its enemies. Shall we allow such differences to endanger the public health, or shall we get together for the great good of the community?

Some people believe it should be the duty of the village council to protect our stores and markets from dust—that this be done at the expense of the village. They claim it would be a protection for the general public. There is some truth in this, but the storekeepers also derive a benefit. It looks more like a fifty-fifty proposition and on such a basis we believe the desired end could be accomplished.

Last Saturday the wind blew dust about the stores fiercely and it was simply impossible to keep it from sifting through crevices. Shall we continue to take the risk?

Residence districts should be looked after by the property owners. Here oil would prove the most economic and satisfactory. If resident property owners would petition the village council for street oiling, their problem would soon be solved.

As for Evans street, the village should waste no more money on temporary or make-shift repairs. There is no money in hauling on gravel one season and taking it off the next. The street should be properly drained and built up to withstand the increasing traffic it will be subjected to. This improvement should be made from depot to depot.

All resident streets used by autoists in passing through town should be oiled or surfaced with tarvia. The summer dust raised by the constant passing of automobiles is dangerous, and the public health would be improved if the nuisance is abated. Let's get together and cut down Tecumseh's death rate.

Both Tecumseh and Clinton township would save money if the main highway connecting the two towns were oiled or surfaced with tarvia. While this road has been one of the best in this section of Michigan the traffic is going to be heavier than ever before. Immense trucks, heavily laden, are passing over this highway daily and the expense of up-keep will grow greater each year unless an effort is made to keep on what is put on. Oil or tarvia will waterproof the road, lay the dust and keep it intact.

The High school students are preparing to publish a High school annual—a book that will prove greatly interesting if plans are carried out. The book will be devoted to the work and success of our school. In addition it will contain many features of community interest. Illustrations of our High school building, outer and interior views; also views of our city—street scenes, factories, portraits, etc.

Merchants are being solicited to take advertising space to help defray the expense of publication, which will not be small. The Herald is one of the first business institutions to speak for a page. Others are falling in line and it looks as though the venture will prove successful.

Before turning down the solicitors, we would ask the merchants to pause and think. Don't refuse because you may think that you will not get direct returns. You should not look for such a result. You should consider that Tecumseh is your town and that the new high school building belongs to you. This book will advertise the town. It will bring results to Tecumseh business interests collectively, while it may fail to accomplish this individually. If you believe in your town, if you want to keep the town progressive and a live one you must do your share towards advertising it. Don't take the selfish way and leave it for your competitors to advertise the town for you. Get into the game and do your share. Advertising is an investment, not an expense. To advertise a town efficiently every business house should get behind the wheel and push. Don't remain in the old rut. Don't think that you are donating something, but get lined up to put the thing across successfully.

Every business and professional man should take advantage of every opportunity to advertise their business, their town, and their school. We have a magnificent school. This we know and this we should proclaim as often as possible to induce foreign pupils to finish their High school education here.

The city of Adrian has on numerous occasions been fortunate in receiving gifts from loyal, benevolent citizens. The latest gift comes from Dr. A. M. Stephenson, a few years ago one of the best known and most efficient physicians and surgeons in Adrian and whose services were sought in every corner of Lenawee county. His gift is the old Stephenson homestead, a valuable property located on the corner of Main and Toledo streets.

The only restrictions placed upon the gift it that the homestead be used exclusively and always for civic or charitable purposes. Dr. Stephenson now resides in Kansas City, Mo.

In Tecumseh is an excellent opportunity for some loyal Tecumsehite to exercise his or her benevolent spirit. We need a community house and a hospital. Who will be the first to erect a monument that will be utilized to public good and everlastingly enshrine the memory of the donor?

Only two short weeks before Tecumseh will do honor to the soldiers and sailors, G. A. R. and Spanish War Veterans. Begin to think it and talk it—May 17, the big day.

Next Sunday is Victory Loan Sunday, so designated by the National Treasury Department. On this day it is requested that prayer should be offered in every church and school house for the Victory Loan campaign, and patriotic services held.

While some townships in Lenawee made splendid records, going over the top on Volunteer days, there are others that lag behind and show very little interest in the Victory Loan. The city of Adrian, notwithstanding the splendid record made by the boys of old Co. B, has failed to reach the top. And it is the best bond ever offered a people, too.

Tomorrow, May 2, is Arbor day, and it is suggested by our governor that in every city, village and township a Victory Elm should be planted to commemorate the great triumph of Freedom and Democracy.

It does not take a very large piece of land to produce all the food for a human being, and there is still enough idle land in and around cities and towns to grow all the vegetables of certain kinds required by the people of these towns.

If you think the home garden doesn't pay, just try going to market with less than $5 in your pocket.

There are plenty of garden seeds, but the supply of extra good ones is always small. Order early and get the best.

Why not shade your back porch with a screen of lima beans? The crop may surprise you.

Don't be a quitter, but plant a garden again this year.

A Dutch visitor said he found Wilhelm with one ear bandaged. Why only one? Civilization boxed both of them soundly.

Macon News Notes

James Chambers returned to stay with his daughter, Mrs. Rose Day.

Mrs. Earl Payne is a guest in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Slaight.

Mr. and Mrs. Mort. Spittler recently purchased a house and lot in Tecumseh.

Mrs. Fanny O'Reilley of Chicago was a guest of Mrs. Anna O'Reilley for a few days last week.

Miss Susie Camburn returned Sunday, after a week's visit in Saline with her sister, Mrs. Earl Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker left last Saturday for Ann Arbor after spending a few days in their home in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Collins are living in Detroit now. They left here Saturday for their new home in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eggert entertained Mrs. Wm. Boyce and two daughters, Effie and Amura, of Albion, N. Y., last Wednesday.

Mrs. Wilma Briggs and little son, who now live in Ypsilanti, are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Camburn.

Several of Mrs. Rena Morden's friends gave her a surprise last Friday afternoon. A pot luck supper and a fine social time was enjoyed by all.

Jas. McCook, jr., and Laverne Lowry of Tecumseh, who recently returned from overseas, were guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eggert and family.

Mills Hatch motored over to Detroit Saturday and brought back with him Mr. and Mrs. Leland Hatch, who will remain with their parents for a few days.

Mr. Geo. Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Betzer drove over to Ann Arbor Sunday to call on Mrs. Geo. Collins, who underwent an operation there Saturday in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Collins entertained Monday, April 21, in honor of their little son, Charles' first birthday anniversary. The guests of honor were ten other babies, all younger than Charles, accompanied by their mothers. The youngest guest was Joyce M. Vealey, aged 1 month.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Coller gave their daughter, Lillian, a surprise last Wednesday, April 23, the occasion being Lillian's 10th birthday anniversary. Mr. Coller, with his automobile, met the guests, Mrs. Marion Spitler, teacher, and twelve little girl friends at the school house immediately after school and took them to his home. That good ride, the good time, the goodies to eat and the gifts and the games will be remembered by those girls for a good long time.

The Evening Line-Up

Both children and grown-ups, with coughs and colds, are all the better for a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar at bed time. It wards off croup, stops tickling throat, and hacking coughs, and makes an otherwise feverish, sleepless night of coughing and distress, a quiet and restful one.

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS, Mr. Chas. Baker, writes: "My wife would not think of using any other cough medicine, as Foley's Honey and Tar is certain to bring quick relief. It is especially effective in cases of bad coughs, and we give it to our children and recommend it always as a safe remedy, for it contains no opiates."

Partial Shade for Berries.

Currants and gooseberries commonly do better, especially in the southern limits of their range, if grown where there is partial shade. This sometimes can be provided by planting them between fruit trees. Raspberries and blackberries are sometimes planted between trees, but the practice is not advisable unless the soil is naturally moist and fertile.

OBITUARY

Milo Edson Sell.

Milo Edson Sell was born in Ogden Township, September 27, 1889 and died April 22, 1919. He was the son of Henry and Lena Sell, and the oldest of four boys. His father died when he was seven years old. He lived where he was born until about nine years ago, when he came to reside near Tecumseh. Later with his brother John, he purchased the farm three miles northwest of Tecumseh where he was living at the time of his tragic death.

In June 1917, he married Miss Hattie Allison of Tecumseh. He is survived by the wife and baby daughter, his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Loar, three brothers, Stanley, Worthy and John Sell, and two half-brothers, Raymond, and Clayton Loar, who with a large number of friends and relatives are left to mourn their loss.

He was a loving son and brother, a devoted husband and father and a faithful friend. In every relation of life he did his duty well and nobly. What higher praise can be given?

"Well done thou good and faithful servant."

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the minister and singers and to the friends who gave us their sympathy and help also for the beautiful floral offerings, and the watchful kindness of the telephone operators, at the time of our great sorrow.

CLINTON

Functions Honoring Departing Pastor and Family.

A large number of members of the Congregational church met in the church parlors honoring Rev. and Mrs. J. K. Kirker, who are leaving for North Dakota to make their future home. A pot luck supper was served and the orchestra gave several selections which were enjoyed by all present.

C. M. Halladay, with a few well chosen remarks, announced that Mrs. John T. Clark wished to say a few words. Mrs. Clark, in her usual pleasing manner presented Mrs. Kirker with a set of silver spoons, a gift from the ladies of the church.

W. S. Kimball then presented Rev. Kirker with a purse of money from the men of the church. Two of Mrs. Kirker's brothers were present.

Monday evening Mr. Kirker was with the Boy Scouts for the last time. To this organization Mr. Kirker has been a faithful Scoutmaster during his stay in Clinton. The boys gave him a gold knife and chain as a token of their appreciation of his work.

Tuesday evening the Christian Endeavor gave an Easter supper at which Rev. and Mrs. Kirker were guests of honor. Lieut. John Clark and Sergeant Bert Clark gave very interesting talks about their experiences and observations over in France.

The members of the society gave Mr. Kirker a five dollar gold piece as a parting remembrance.

Clinton News Notes.

Willis Green has purchased the Fred Martiny home.

Mrs. K. E. Kehoe, who has been confined to the house with heart trouble for some time, remains about the same.

Walter Cotton, who purchased the Millspaugh property on Church street, has had the old house razed and will build a modern home on the site.

Lawrence VanGieson and Chalmers Campbell have installed Hinman milking machines. Mr. VanGieson also has a new Moline tractor.

The funeral of Mrs. Hattie Johnson, who died of heart trouble Tuesday, was held at the home Thursday afternoon. Rev. Johnson of Manchester and Rev. Purdy of Clinton officiated. Burial at Riverside cemetery.

Miss Kitty Ebbitt, a former resident of Clinton, died at the home of her sister at Wyandotte Monday. The remains were brought to Clinton for burial, the funeral being conducted from St. Dominic church Thursday morning.

Mrs. Ann Campbell, who had undergone an operation for goiter at West Penn hospital, Pittsburg, Pa., passed away Friday. The funeral was held from the home in Clinton Monday afternoon, Rev J. K. Kirker officiating. Deceased leaves four children, Miss Eleanor of Pittsburg, Anna Lou, Chalmers and Robert at [illegible]

Word has been received that Oley Blanchard and Harold Davis, who served in France with Base Hospital 36, have arrived in the states and are expected home soon. Since Harold's enlistment his parents have moved to Detroit.

The Smith-Richmond State bank have adopted new banking hours that will be of much benefit to the public. The hours are from 8:30 to 3:30 daily and from 7:00 to 8:30 Saturday evenings. BACHACHE IS DISCOURAGING

But Not So Bad If You Know How to Reach the Cause.

Nothing more discouraging than a constant backache. Lame when you awaken, pains pierce you when you bend or lift. It's hard to work or to rest. Backache often indicates bad kidneys. Tecumseh people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this case:

Wm. Martin, Logan St., Tecumseh, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had dull backaches and tired easily. I had soreness and lameness across my back and my kidneys acted irregularly. The kidney secretions were unnatural, too. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Wright & Son's Drug store, and they strengthened my back and put my kidneys in good order."

Program—Mrs. Mabel Dove.
Music—Mrs. Bert Claus.
Flower—Mrs. S. N. Oliver.

M. E. Church Notes.

Morning worship 10:30. Next Sunday the preparatory class will be received into the church in full connection. Sunday school at 11:30. Come hear the missionary program and enlist as it is enlistment Sunday.

The Be Square class met at the home of Arthur Muck last Friday evening, about 30 being present. Among the number were two members who had recently returned from overseas service. The evening was spent in games and light refreshments were served. A most enjoyable evening was spent by all.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet Wednesday afternoon, May 7th, with Mrs. Dorr Burcroff.

Tipton News Notes.

Mrs. Strack of Ida is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Wyman visited in Fairfield Sunday and Monday.

Jas. Linton and family of Jackson spent Sunday at the home of Irving Luce.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorr Burcroff, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mack spent Sunday in Toledo.

Miss Phylis Voorheis was in Adrian last week taking the teachers' examination.

Earl Burtless, wife and family of Jackson spent Sunday at the home of W. A. Beebe.

Mrs. Adeline Holdridge of Tecumseh was a guest of her sister, Mrs. A. P. Wyman, Saturday.

Word has been received that Lynn Bunting arrived from overseas last Friday and has been sent to Camp Upton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kempton of North Adams were over Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morseman.

Mrs. Eliza Daniels and Mrs. Grant Ogden went to Webberville last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Daniels' brother-in-law.

D. J. VanValkenburg, wife and family and Hazel Preston were callers Sunday afternoon at the home of H. R. Ladd at North Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker entertained Sunday his father, brothers and sisters of Ridgeway and Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Baker and son, James.

Mrs. G. W. Allen took off a fine hatch of chickens Saturday. Out of 500 eggs brought 50 tested out at the first testing, but she took off 421 chickens. Mrs. Allen sure knows how to hatch chickens.

Saturday evening was the last number of the lecture course, the entertainment being given by the Hawaiian Quintet. The Grange hall was packed to greet them and all were well repaid for coming, as these natives of Hawaii surely could make music.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bunting motored to Jackson Sunday and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bunting returned home with them for a week's visit. Robert arrived at Camp Custer Wednesday and has received his discharge.

Many bed-ridden sufferers from backache and rheumatic pains owe their condition to the fact that they neglected the first warning of kidney trouble.

Prompt action at the first sign of disordered kidneys will prevent much suffering. Keep the blood stream pure by keeping the kidneys healthy and the poisonous waste matter that causes pain and misery will be eliminated from the system.

Foley Kidney Pills

have brought relief to thousands of suffering men and women who were afflicted with backache, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, sore muscles, dizziness, puffiness under eyes, floating specks, biliousness, bladder weakness, loss of appetite or other symptoms of kidney trouble.

Mrs. Sam C. Small, Clayton, N. M., writes: "In January I was taken bad with my kidneys and bladder. I had been in bed two months, but kept getting worse. Then I got so bad something had to be done. We noticed an advertisement in the Clayton News for Foley Kidney Pills and we sent for some. They have done me more good than all the medicine I have taken."

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Choir rehearsal Wednesday evening at 8:30.

Church Notes.

Much interest was shown last Sunday in the sermon to children and many requests came in that it might become a permanent feature. So at the beginning of each Sunday morning service a short sermon will be given to the children. All children are invited to be present.

A pastor's council was organized at the church Monday evening comprising the two boards and heads of all departments. This organization will meet once each month and give reports of the past months' service as well as bring in suggestions for the coming month.

Something special in the Sunday school next Sunday.

Methodist Episcopal Church.

Rev. C. M. Thompson, Minister.

Sunday, May 4.

Young People's Day.

9:30 Devotional half hour.

10:00 Public Worship. Sermon topic. "Above the Average." This is an inspirational sermon especially addressed to young people. The pastor urges all the young people of the church and their friends to be present. The young people's chorus choir will sing. Young men will act as ushers and young and old are most cordially invited. It will be a great service. There will be attractive decorations.

11:30 Sunday school. Our school is growing and its regular sessions are always attractive and well worth while. Come next Sunday and prove it.

6:30 Epworth League Anniversary. Special program of music and other exercises. Every Epworthian is expected to be present and bring a friend.

Rally throughout this day O ye young people! Make it a great day in church life.

7:30 Community service in Baptist church.

The pastor greatly enjoyed exchanging Sunday school class work with the Baptist pastor last Sunday.

We had a great official board meeting in the interest of the Centenary last Monday evening. A strong committee to carry forward centenary interests was appointed. Centenary work goes well in Tecumseh Methodist church. We are going to win.

The B. Y. P. U. topsy-turvy social Friday night was a jolly affair. The party gathered at the Baptist parsonage, exhibited some wonderful costumes and repaired to Miss Lillian Cole's home. There they played a few games and started out new worlds to conquer. They paraded through Jay Morse's home from back door to front, then on to the church, where more games and the serving of refreshments completed a happy evening.

BRADLEY OPERA HOUSE ATTRACTIONS

"Mickey."

You have undoubtedly heard people from some of the near by cities or perhaps some of our own people who have happened to be in Detroit, Toledo or Jackson and happened to be fortunate enough to have seen "Mickey" speak about this wonderful picture, telling you how good it is and not to miss it. "Mickey" will be presented at the Bradley Opera House, Tecumseh for two big nights, Sunday and Monday, May 4-5.

"Mickey" starring Mabel Normand is a super-picture that comes once in a life time. "Mickey" is a blending of every human emotion. Yet the story with its comedy, its romance, its pathos and its wonderful thrills, is of the simplest sort; and simplicity is always greatness especially if it has so many enjoyable things about it.

"Mickey" is a lovable, harumscarum little tom boy, who is always getting into all sorts of scrapes that make you laugh and cry—whether up in the mountains with old Joe or in the city home of her aunt.

No photo play has yet been produced so filled with adventure and thrills as "Mickey." The novelty and intensity of the thrills are indeed remarkable. There is thrill upon thrill, and each thrill in these suspense-exciting incidents is just a little bit better than the last, until at the climax the audience is fairly brought to their feet out of sheer enthusiasm and excitement.

"Mickey" has been in such great demand that in many localities, theatres which have not been able to secure this great production have advertised it as coming to their theatre with the hopes of later securing it and keeping people from attending the theatres where it is booked. We do not wish to misrepresent anything to our patrons but wish to say that the management of the Bradley has a signed contract with Mr. Horwitz, who owns "Mickey" in the state of Michigan, giving the Bradley the exclusive showing for Tecumseh and Clinton territory. Don't let any one or any thing prevent your seeing this comedy masterpiece at the Bradley, Tecumseh, next Sunday and Monday.

"The Million Dollar Doll."

Mr. Harvey D. Orr, the big producer of high class musical comedies, has established a reputation for himself throughout the entire country by the "classy" shows that he always presents under his name. Mr. Orr has had several high class productions in the Bradley, the latest probably more firmly establishing his reputation than any of the others, was "Miss Blue Eyes," which was presented at the Bradley early in April.

About two years ago Mr. Orr gave Tecumseh theatre goers their first chance to see any of his productions when he presented the "Million Dollar Doll" here for the first time. One thing especially making a big hit with Tecumseh theatre goers was the big electrically illuminated runway built out over the heads of the audience for the chorus in certain of the big musical numbers. On Friday, May 9th, Mr. Orr will present the new edition of the "Million Dollar Doll" for your approval. The piece has been entirely re-written, new numbers introduced but the big runway is still featured with the production.

"The Million Dollar Doll" is a big show in every way, carrying nearly 40 people and a car load of special scenery. After the class of productions Mr. Orr has sent to Tecumseh there cannot be a question as to the high calliber and "class" of any of his shows. The scenic production for "Miss Blue Eyes" was one of the best ever brought into Tecumseh, the production for "The Million Dollar Doll" will be equally as magnificent.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Rev. Edgar Wollam Gives Address at Friends Church.

The Community service Sunday night at the Friends church was a season of uplift in things religious. There was a fair turnout in spite of the rain and all enjoyed once again listening to Rev. Edgar Wollam, a former pastor of that church.

Rev. W. R. Curtis read the scripture lesson and Rev. C. M. Thompson invoked the Divine blessing.

Rev. Wollam took for his theme "Godliness is profitable for all things," showing how Godliness profits both in this life and the life that is to come. He proved that the God-like is practicable in this life and we are better off here to live right and sure of our credit in the life hereafter. He made a strong plea for the higher life. He proved that it was not "God-like" in our life which brings trouble on us, but our sin.

A song service preceded the meeting.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to acknowledge with deepest appreciation the many expressions of sympathy and kindness shown us by our friends and neighbors; the L. O. T. M., Seniors of Tecumseh High School, Circle No. 4 and Sunday school class of M. E. church, also Rev. Thompson.

MRS. CHARLES F. SIZER

Prominent Church Worker Dies in Adrian.

Mrs. Chas. F. Sizer, a Tecumseh resident for the past 14 years and prominent in the work of the Methodist church, passed away Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Westerman, in Adrian.

On Thanksgiving day Mrs. Sizer and her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Harding, with whom she resided, went over to Adrian to visit relatives and Mrs. Sizer remained with the Westermans for a few months. Her health, in spite of her 86 years, has been excellent, only a cold coming on two weeks ago, but apparently she had recovered, and was preparing to return to Tecumseh, when on Friday last she seemed to collapse, caused from a general breaking down of the forces of the body. She suffered no pain and was conscious to nearly the end, joking with her people as she ate her dinner Sunday noon. Truly a beautiful ending to a beautiful life.

Samantha Jane Bowker was born in Vestal, N. Y., July 24, 1833. With her husband she came to Adrian in 1858 and lived in the house in which she died. Fourteen years ago she and Mr. Sizer moved here to be near their daughter, Mrs. Harding, and since the death of Mr. Sizer, nine years ago, she has resided at the Harding home, going to Adrian for frequent visits.

She was one of the pioneer members of the Adrian Methodist church and both here and at Adrian always took an active part in all lines of Methodist work. The temperance question, too, was a vital one with her and she was one of the crusaders and made the first prayer in a saloon in Adrian. She told often of her experience as locked up by a saloon keeper, she and a party of ladies were compelled to spend the night in his saloon.

With an unusually keen mind, Mrs. Sizer always kept abreast of the times, politically as well as of the things of her church. She was immensely pleased when woman came into her own with equal rights and through her illness her lament was that she was unable to get back home and cast her maiden vote.

Mr. and Mrs. Sizer had five children, but only the two daughters remain.

The funeral was held at the Westerman home Tuesday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. C. M. Thompson of Tecumse[illegible] Rev. G. W. Olmstead of Adrian, the former giving the sermon. The bearers were grandsons. The Tecumseh people attending were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Belding, Mrs. Alva Waring, Mrs. A. J. Bigelow, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mominee and daughter, Frances.

Honoring the birthday of Miss Lelia Waters of Onsted, Mrs. Leslie Bower on Friday evening entertained three young lady friends of her guest, Mrs. Albert Anderson, Misses Ella Clapp and Lula Stahler.

BEAVER BOARD

Why Live with Cracked Walls and Ceilings When They're Easily Covered Up

Beaver Board will cover them up for all time and you'll never have the job to do again. While Beaver Board is doing away with the danger of falling plaster it is covering up old dingy wall paper on walls and ceilings and giving you an ideal surface for painting and decorating.

Many an old homestead has been revived with this knotless, crackless manufactured lumber. Room after room has been made over—one at a time if you please—without muss or litter.

Beaver Board is real lumber. It is built up into large panels from the strong, pure fibres of the spruce tree. Each panel is treated with the patented Sealtite process which prevents warping. If you need to build or re-build, restore or enlarge ask us how you will profit by using Beaver Board.

ANNUAL MEETING OF MICHIGAN BRANCH W. F. M. S.

Excellent Talks, Good Reports, Enthusiastic Sessions.

The annual meeting of the Michigan branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Protestant church was held here Wednesday and Thursday. There was not as large an attendance of the auxiliaries as was expected owing to the unfavorable weatehr, but the enthusiasm was great, especially when it was announced by the corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. L. Feeman, that a large majority of the auxiliaries had gone "over the top" on the fortieth anniversary drive. The auxiliary, Dimondale, carried off the pennant amidst much applause.

Dr. Frances V. Tucker, medical missionary from China, gave the address Wednesday evening, and all were helped to know and appreciate the greatness and importance of the missionary work of China.

The music throughout was fine and much appreciated, especially the solos and orchestra numbers.

Much important work was accomplished and new work planned for the coming year. There were a number of helpful papers given and two impersonations were fine. A pantomime, "Rock of Ages," was given Wednesday evening by Miss Mary Adams, which was beautiful; also a pageant, illustrative of experiences in China, was given by three Adrian college girls and Master Wm. Soule.

The treasurer, Mrs. Jennings, although unable to be present on account of the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Obee, a former teacher in our schools, reported $2,309.00 received from the 26 societies during the year. This was $800 more than had been asked for.

The committee on credentials reported 19 voting delegates present, besides the president, Mrs. Gray, and a large number of visiting delegates.

Mrs. Alice Gould of Britton and Mrs. Sandersfield of Clio were elected as alternates to the executive board meeting to be held in Pittsburg, Pa., in May.

A memorial service for departed members was conducted by Mrs. C. B. Exelby and all hearts were deeply stirred.

At the eletion of officers Mrs. J. W. Gray was unaninmously re-elected as president for the 20th time. Mrs. F. A. Perry was elected vice-president, Mrs. Frank Totten second vice and Mrs. Willis Lathrop third vice; Mrs. H. H. Eddy, recording secretary; Mrs. B. J. Jennings, treasurer; Mrs. H. L. NEWLY HATCHED CHICKS NEEDS LITTLE FOOD Nourishment for First 60 to 72 Hours Provided by Nature, Says M. A. C.

East Lansing, Mich. — Newly hatched chicks need little or no food for the first two days, according to the poultry department at M. A. C. Just before emerging from the shell, chicks absorb the yolk of the eggs into their bodies and then use it for nourishment during their first 60 to 72 hours.

Retarded or limited feeding should be practiced during this period, the following method being advised: First day, leave chicks in incubator for 24 hours, supplying air by slight opening of the incubator door. Second day, provide plenty of sour milk in shallow pans for drinking purposes. It helps prevent contagious white diarrhea and stimulates growth. (Provide chick grit also). Third day, give first solid food. For each 100 chicks give a mash of, one raw egg, three small handfuls of rolled oats and three small handfuls of bran. This mash should be thoroughly mixed by rubbing and fed every three hours for four feedings.

From the fourth to the fourteenth day, two feeds of commercial chick feed, two feeds of egg, oat and bran mixture, and one of green food should be given daily. After the second week the ration can be cheapened and simplified, the size of the grain feed increasing as the chick grows older.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We beg to announce that we have re-appointed Mr. Alva Spayde of Tecumseh, Michigan, as our representative for Lenawee County.

Mr. Spayde has represented us in Tecumseh and vicinity for the past four and one-half years and has also dealt extensively in Detroit real estate himself.

I believe anyone wishing to make a remunerative investment in Detroit, will do well to consult with Mr. Spayde as he has successfully represented several clients in that district and is thoroughly competent to handle any real estate transactions which may be intrusted to him. We will continue to give Mr. Spayde and his clients the same service and co-operation in the future as in the past and will guarantee all investments to be as represented.

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the weaknesses and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil is inclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 5 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a small swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. Go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

From Clarence Chase to His Father, Fred Chase, Sr.

Gladbach, Germany
March 27, 1919.

Dear Father:—

Just received your letter of March 11th and was sure glad to hear from you and that you are well. I am feeling fine.

You spoke about me driving your car. I can drive one good, but I don't know just what I will do until I have had a good long rest, so don't depend upon me. But after I get ready to go to work I will talk it over with you.

I understand that we are to sail for the good old U. S. A. the first week in May. "Hurrah for us!"

Just got a letter from Aunt Ida and Frank, so I am going to answer all three of them now. I got a letter from Fred the other day and he is feeling fine. I am going to try to get a pass to go and see him before I leave this country. Oh, gee! couldn't we have a good visit!

You people must have had an easy winter, with only one snow storm. We have had a real nice winter over here, but give me the good old U. S. A.

Frank has got moved and he says he likes his new place real well. I hope he does.

I hope you have good luck with your rods this year; I know you always have had good luck.

Well, if you see any of my old pals give them my best regards and tell them I am feeling fine and that I hope for an early return to the U. S. A.

Your loving son,
Cook Clarence E. Chase,
Supply Co. 126th Inf. American E. Forces France, A. P. O. 734.

From Howard Hand to His Little Son, Donald.

Balee France.
Sunday, March 23, 1919.

My Dear Donald:

Hello Honey boy! How are you coming these days. I hope you are all well and enjoying life. Papa is fine and dandy and having the best times. It is trying to rain again today and spit snow once this a. m. We got up four or five mornings ago and the ground was almost covered with snow, but it didn't last long. Take it as a whole we have had about a week or more of pretty nice weather; not much rain. Have been fishing down to the river three times, but have not caught any so far; still there are a few there. Went down to the bath house and had a dandy bath yesterday. Chow call blew right here so I went to dinner. Just started a little fire in the fire place; it is a little chilly. I'll bet you would all laugh when I tell you how they handle their wood. Same as we handle hay in the states, with a pitch fork. You see the fields are smaller than back home and in places of fences there is generally dirt two or three feet hogh and on this grows berry bushes, brush, vines, etc., and that is cut once a year clean to the ground and straightened all out nice and tied into bundles with a twig, bundles about a foot or one and one-half feet thick and of course there are so many briers they can't handle them; it is very rough on their hands sa they use forks. It seems so funny to see them drive along a hedge and pitch the bundles on with forks. You see on account of the big fire places they can't burn everything but they are real saving of it as fuel is scarce over here; very little timber.

Gee, papa will be glad when he gets his first letter from home written to my new address so I will know how you all are and what you are doing and what you think of me joining the M. P.'s and remaining over here some time longer, but when I do get home, boy, I'll make up for lost time believe me. In a way it is hard for me to stay away longer and I know it's hard for all of you, but it's all for our own good. Then I know as long as the war is over and you know I am enjoying myself and will be back some day you won't worry like you did when the war was on. Papa will write as often as possible and send you all a nice lot of cards from time to time.

We are pretty busy studying and will be for a while until we get on to the ropes, then we will have more time. You see the work is new to us and there is so much to learn and so many things to learn by heart. There is a great deal more to M. P. work now then in the past. I just love the work myself.

Well, Donald, kiss and hug all for me and tell 'em papa says hello and tell 'em all to be sure and write often to papa because you can imagine what our mail means to us so many thousand miles from home and you can imagine how we feel when we are handed a letter or letters from home, how happy it makes us. So be sure and tell all to write and remember, honey boy, you have not written to papa in a long long time. Best to all, Good-bye from

Papa

NORTH ADRIAN

Church Notes.

About thirty from North Adrian gave Rev. C. Powell and family a surprise at their home last Friday evening. A short program was listened to and all enjoyed a social time, after which L. C. Dible presented Rev. Powell, in behalf of his friends from North Adrian, with a purse of $75. Mr. and Mrs. Powell thanked their friends very kindly for their gift.

VINOL MAKES GOOD BLOOD

Positive—Convincing Proof

Many so-called remedies for anaemia are only so in name. Their makers are afraid to prove their claims by telling what their medicines contain. The only way to be honest with the people is to let them know what they are paying for. Here is the Vinol formula. When the doctor knows what a medicine contains, it ceases to be a "patent" medicine.

℞ Cod Liver and Beef Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates, Iron and Ammonium Citrate, Lime and Soda Glycerophosphates, Cascarin.

Any doctor will tell you that the ingredients of Vinol, as named above, will enrich the blood and banish anaemia and create strength. When the blood is pure and rich and red, the body is strong and robust.

You can prove this at our expense because your money will be returned if Vinol does not improve your health. C. A. Wright & Son, Druggists, and Druggists everywhere.

Hon. Chas. Evans and Mrs. Evans and granddaughter, Ruth, of Tipton were shaking hands with friends in Tecumseh Monday, having just arrived from Lansing.

Carl Wisner writes from Chicago: "I am proud of the old state of Michigan in the last election in not going back to the old scheme. The overwhelming defeat of the wine and beer amendment was a wonderful thing."

The last number on the lecture course was given at Grange hall, Tipton, Saturday night to a large and appreciative audience. The entertainers were our native Hawaiians, two of each sex, and the entertainment was both educational and amusing.

Among those in Adrian Saturday from Franklin were Mr. and Mrs. Alton Whelan, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Wisner and Mrs. A. B. Wisner and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hunt, Milburn Pawson and Charley Boomer, who have lately arrived from overseas, were also in Adrian.

Mrs. Loren Daniels of Pentecost and Mrs. Grant Ogden of Tipton attended the funeral of their brother-in-law and uncle Thomas Fear, of Webberville at Fowlerville last Thursday. On account of the weather they took the steam cars Wednesday p. m., stopped over night in Jackson and returned home Friday.

Mrs. Blain and her son John of Adrian were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bancroft Easter Sunday. Mr. Blain enlisted in July last and was mustered out at Camp Custer in February, having been very ill with pneumonia while at the camp. Mr. Bancroft's sister, Miss Bancroft, of Hillsdale, a former nurse, has also been a guest of the family.

RIDGEWAY

Missionary Meeting.

The Home Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. W. L. Jones last Wednesday. The regular business meeting was held in the afternoon, after which Mrs Hodge of Detroit gave a short talk At six o'clock a good pot luck supper was served to the ladies and their husbands and families. The remainder of the evening was spent in visiting and a short program and another talk by Mrs. Hodge. The decorations were in the spirit of Easter, being small chickens, ducks, rabbits and baskets of rabbits' eggs.

Sunday School Social.

Last Friday night the Sunday school held a maple syrup social in the church. During the evening a program of music was given, and after the supper Clyde Drewyor gave a very interesting talk on his experiences in France. About twenty dollars were cleared.

Easter Exercises.

The Easter exercises held at the church Sunday evening were carried out along the centenary line. Considering the small amount of time they had for practice, the program was very good.

PRINCE ALBERT
the national joy smoke
Copyright 1919 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.
PRINCE ALBERT
CRIMP CUT
LONG BURNING PIPE AND CIGARETTE TOBACCO

Toppy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors—and—that classy, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition.

PUT a pipe in your face that's filled cheerily brimful of Prince Albert, if you're on the trail of smoke peace! For, P. A. will sing you a song of tobacco joy that will make you wish your life job was to see how much of the national joy smoke you could get away with every twenty-four hours!

You can "carry on" with Prince Albert through thick and thin. You'll be after laying down a smoke barrage that'll make the boys think of the old front line in France!

P. A. never tires your taste because it has the quality! And, let it slip into your think-tank that P. A. is made by our exclusive patented process that cuts out bite and parch—assurance that you can hit smoke-record-high-spots seven days out of every week without any comeback but real smoke joy!

CUSTER BAND MAY 17TH

BIG MILITARY MUSICAL ORGANIZATION FEATURE

Tecumseh Getting Ready to Entertain Soldiers of Three War Periods—All Soldiers and Sailors of Northern Lenawee County Invited—You are Welcome, the Latch String is Out—Come!

That Saturday, May 17, will be the biggest day Tecumseh has yet seen, is evident from the reports from the various committees in charge of the arrangements for entertaining the annual reunion of the 31st Regiment Spanish War Veterans, the G. A. R. and the returned soldiers and sailors of Northern Lenawee who participated in any way in the World War. On this day Tecumseh entertains surviving soldiers and sailors of three war periods.

We take pleasure in announcing that the committee on bands has been successful in securing the big military band of Camp Custer—an organization comprising 45 members. This alone will be a feature that will attract many people. The band will arrive Friday afternoon and have promised one of their splendid open air concerts for Friday evening. Don't miss it.

The committee on decorations reports that business places and residents are going to out do themselves in making their places appropriately attractive.

The parade is going to be one of the big features, for the committee reports that work on floats has already started and that everybody is going to do it. The lodges and Grange will participate.

The committee on refreshments have changed their plans somewhat because of the large number of guests to be taken care of. Eats will be free to soldiers. Hot doughnuts and coffee will be served in the Anderson store, the dinner will be a community affair, into which the ladies of the township are entering with the right kind of spirit. A banquet in the evening in Witherell hall will be another enjoyable feature.

The entertainment committee wish it to be distinctly understood that all soldiers and sailors of the last great war, whether in active service or not, are especially invited. All northern Lenawee is included in this. Others will also be welcome.

Don't let a drive of 15 to 50 miles keep you from Tecumseh Saturday, May 17.

WAS IT BEEBE?

LOUIS KOZEL CLAIMS SAW MISSING MAN

At Boody House, Toledo, April Firts—Investigation Fails to Substantiate Claims or Bring Light Upon Mysterious Disappearance.

A report was current the last of the week that Louis Kozel saw Channing Beebe, who has been missing since Feb. 18th, in Toledo at the Boody house April 1st and visited with him. Not hearing of Mr. Beebe's disappearance until one day last week Mr. Kozel did not speak of his visit with him to anyone, but failing to see him around the Co-operative store, he inquired and was told.

Mrs. Segar, a sister of Mr. Beebe, heard the rumor and came from Lansing. The family interviewed Louis but he remained firm in his story. Then Mrs. Segar went to Toledo and questioned both the management and day and night clerks of the Boody house. Mr. Beebe was well known by these men, he having stopped there often, but none remembered having seen him, neither could the name be found on the register, or any hand writing within the past three months which could in any way be taken for his. So the matery still remains as dense as ever.

AN APPRECIATION

To show their appreciation for his sacrifice for Uncle Sam and his loyal work during the Victory Loan drive, a party of Pvt. Sam'l Rottman's friends among the business men of the place presented him on Monday evening with a handsome gold watch. Sam was very proud of his gift and found it hard to express his thanks so asks us to do so through our columns.

Pvt. Rottman went to Big Rapids Tuesday to take a course at the Ferris Institute. The lad has had no common school education, only having attended night school in Chicago a few weeks, so is self taught and as such his language and bearing are remarkable.

Sam found a friend in the star-spangled uncle for whom he was named, and for whom as a mere boy, he fought when Uncle Sam himself needed friends as he never needed them before.

Sam came out of the service unfitted for manual labor but Uncle Sam assures him he need not worry but sends him on to the Ferris institute to learn some occupation which he can take up. He will later take a commercial course.

This vocational training idea is one of the fine things our soldiers are receiving and we are glad to see our bright Tecumseh boy get the advantage.

RANSOM MILLS

Ransom Mills passed away this morning at 1 o'clock after an illness extending over the whole spring, coming from a general breaking down. Mr. Mills, who was 75 years of age, lived until about four years ago in Franklin township, many years on the home farm near Evans Lake. He was a civil war veteran and his meetings with his comrades of the Post was one of his greatest pleasures. He was a member of the Tipton Methodist church and was always faithful to his church duties. As a friend always loyal, and co[illegible] those friends as very many he will be missed greatly.

He leaves to mourn two sons Philo Mills, of Toledo, and John of Detroit, and one daughter Mrs. Mertie Campbell, who has faithfully cared for him since the death of Mrs. Mills two years ago. A sister, Mrs. Jennie Camburn, of Tecumseh, also survives.

The funeral will be held Saturday, with a short service at the home at 1 p. m. and services at the Tipton Methodist church with burial in the family lot at Tipton cemetery.

MAJOR GENERAL WM. S. McNAIR

FORMER TECUMSEH MAN WINS HONORS AS SOLDIER

Arrives in New York Friday—Brief Sketch of Lad who Entered West Point at 16.

Among the casuals to arrive in New York Friday was Major-General Wm. S. McNair. The major, whom the villagers remember so well as a boy about town, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David McNair, and from one of the then most prominent families of the village, went over as a brigadier-general in command of the 151st artillery brigade of the 77th Division and was promoted last August to chief of artillery of the 1st army.

Soon after the World War broke out, as Gen. McNair was returning from France on the transport Antilles, the boat was torpedoed off the French coast and he was rescued after being in the water three hours. He was sent to the States to recuperate, but before long was in the thick of the fray again. He was in the terrible Argonne and other engagements.

Major McNair went to West Point when but 16 years of age, graduating as lieutenant of artillery. When the Spanish-American war broke out he was promoted to captain, through distinguished service in the Philippines. He was in Gen. Baldwin's command in the Islands and in talking with a Tecumseh friend, the latter paid Major McNair this tribute. "He is the most disgustingly cool man under fire I ever saw."

One incident told of his service by Gen. Baldwin comes in pat here. They were having a little difficulty with the Insurrectos and Capt. McNair came running up and said "General, they have killed one of my mules."

The general said, "Well, be calm." Again came McNair with "But, General, they've killed one of my men." The general said "Well, let them have it" and he said he never saw such action of arms and legs as there was for a few minutes. McNair certainly did "let them have it" and it finished that scrap.

MIKE MELONAKOS MARRIED

Mike Melonakos, our popular Candy Kitchen proprietor, returned from Brooklyn, N. Y., Tuesday night, bringing with him a wife. April 24th he had married Miss Christina Diamond, the ceremony being performed at the bride's home in Brooklyn by Rev. Kalunuhos, of the Orthodox Greek church. The best men and matrons of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Askoonis of Erie, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Vlahakes, of Butler, Pa. The wedding was quite a large affair, there being 75 present. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vagakos, Mr. Melonakos' sister and husband, were among the guests.

After a few days in Brooklyn, the bridal couple started for Tecumseh, visiting at Erie, Pa., and Toledo, Ohio, enroute.

The groom had a flat nicely furnished for the new home in the Mark block and is now receiving the congratulations of his many friends.

PETER MORTON

Peter Morton passed away Sunday, May 4th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Andrew McHenney. For several years he has been in poor health brought on by rheumatism and Bright's disease. For the past fifteen months he has been nearly helpless.

Mr. Morton was born in the County of Dory, Ireland, 77 years ago coming to Tecumseh in 1866 and here he resided several years In 1871 he married Miss Nancy Boyd of Raisin. He then bought a farm north of Pennington's Corners in Saline township, where they resided until Mrs. Morton's death in 1911. He has since made his home with his youngest daughter and family in Detroit. He leaves to mourn his death one son Samuel P. Morton and two daughters, Mrs. McHenney and Mrs. Joseph Kerr, all of Detroit, besides four grandchildren, Mrs. Albert Stanley, Mrs. Chas. Hook, Mrs. Edward Banks and Melvin L. Kerr, and four great grandchildren.

The funeral services were held in Detroit with burial here in the family lot. Rev. W. A. Rex held short services at the grave. Several relatives and friends accompanied the remains from Detroit.

BUSINESS MEN JOIN IN METHODIST DRIVE

Many Give Up Commercial Activities to Assist Centenary Campaign.

One hundred thousand minute men of the Methodist church have awakened America to the knowledge that the Methodist Centenary is the greatest church movement the world has ever known. They have talked before millions of people during the past four months telling of the magnitude of the program the church has outlined in its movement for a religion of service.

Thousands of the country's most famous business men have temporarily abandoned their commercial activities to take up this work of reconstruction facing the church. They are traveling the country day and night telling of the plans which have been formulated for the expenditure of the $105,000,000 Centenary fund to be raised the week of May 18.

The Detroit business man has been one of the leaders of this army. A. L. Parker has set aside his business interests to become a dollar-a-year man with the church. He accepted the position as national secretary of the Minute Men movement and for the past six months he has been spending every minute traveling from coast to coast cementing this organization together.

Editorial Comment

"Build now; thrift turns savings into a home." That's the slogan adopted by the United States Department of Labor in a nation wide campaign to promote building activities and keep money and labor busy during the reconstruction period and the return of our soldiers from abroad.

It is of utmost importance that every industry of the nation is kept active, and along this line the building of homes will work wonders if the people of the nation take hold of it. Home building will create a demand for lumber, stone, bricks, hardware, cement, paint, etc. It will give those lines an impetus that will be stimulating to no small degree. A lively building campaign will keep money circulating and almost everybody will get a piece of it directly or indirectly.

Tecumseh is in need of homes. It needs new homes and houses repaired to make them habitable. The lively scramble the past few weeks among people wishing to locate in Tecumseh to secure a place to live in conclusive evidence that we need more homes.

The United States Department of Labor urges working men to own their homes. They are urged to save, build or buy. Our deales in building supplies are ready to help them not only in planning a suitable home, but, also, we are informed, financially. Our banks will probably do the same and there may be people with idle capital who could be interested.

Help the government keep labor and capital busy. Help improve Tecumseh.

The dust problem in Tecumseh still remains unsolved as far as the village council, Commerce club and business men are concerned. At least such is the situation as it stood when the village council adjourned Monday evening. This does no mean that no effort has been made to solve the problem. A canvass has been made of the business district, but the solicitors so far have been unable to raise a sufficient amount to warrant hiring man and team to trundle the water sprinkler up and down our main business street seven days a week.

Any other method than water sprinkling with its attending nuisance of weekly or perhaps monthly collections to pay the shot, the early spring and fall and winter dust, seems to have been given no serious consideration. It seems that oil, successfully used in many towns, is not wanted here because of the lavish experience of a few years ago. Others are afraid the oil will injure automobile tires, and thus the most economical and better way of laying the dust the year around does not meet with popular approval because some of our village officials and business men do not seem to have faith that the work can be done satisfactorily in Tecumseh.

Applying a coating of tarvia on the road would no doubt be the most satisfactory all around method if it wasn't for the cost, which is estimated at about $100 per 50-foot frontage. Some business men have offered to contribute as low as 25c per week, while one professional man, it was stated at the council meeting refused to contribute anything—the dust doesn't bother him.

It isn't at all likely that Tecumseh is going to "lay down" on the dust problem, even if things do look discouraging just now. The Herald is very much surprised, however, that the people of Tecumseh themselves do not take a hand in the matter. The council is elected to serve the community and the people can have what they wish in the matter of community benefit, even to oiling or sprinkling the entire village. Why don't they wake up to the situation and ask for what they want?

We are pleased to learn that individual business enterprises are taking a broad view of the efforts of our High school pupils in issuing a school book. It is reported to us that over a dozen full page advertisements have been contracted for, and the prospects for a successful publication look good. That's one way to advertise Tecumseh as a live one. It pays to talk about our advantages, especially along educational lines.

We are very much pleased to vote the excellent progress being made in the preparations for entertaining the Spanish War Veterans, G. A. R. and soldiers and sailors of the European war. Indications are that it will be the biggest day in the history of our own. Get spruced up for the occasion.

SOMEWHERE IN THE HEART OF EVERY MAN IS THE DESIRE TO BE INDEPENDENT. INDEPENDENCE IS THE MEASURE OF ONE'S STANDING IN THE COMMUNITY.

THE FIRST STEP ALONG THE ROAD TO INDEPENDENCE IS TO OWN ONE'S HOME. THE MAN WHO OWNS HIS OWN HOME IS THE RESPECTED, THE TRUSTED MAN IN EVERY COMMUNITY.

ONE OF THE LARGEST EMPLOYERS OF LABOR IN THE COUNTRY ORDERED A CANVASS OF HIS FACTORIES TO DETERMINE WHAT PERCENTAGE OF HIS EMPLOYEES OWNED THEIR HOMES. AT THE SAME TIME HE URGED ALL EMPLOYEES IN THE ESTABLISHMENT TO BECOME HOME OWNERS OR HOME BUYERS.

SOUND LOGIC PROMPTED THIS ACTION. THE RESPONSIBLE MAN IS THE VALUABLE EMPLOYEE. THE HOME OWNER HAS A DEEPER SENSE OF CIVIC PRIDE. HE IS ESTABLISHED; HE IS RESPONSIBLE; HE IS INTERESTED IN EVERYTHING THAT TENDS TOWARD THE PEACE AND SECURITY AND UPBUILDING OF THE COMMUNITY.

THE EXAMPLE SET BY ONE MANUFACTURER WILL BE FOLLOWED BY OTHERS. IT WILL DAILY BECOME MORE REQUISITE TO A MAN'S SECURING RESPONSIBILE EMPLOYMENT THAT HE OWNS HIS OWN HOME.

THERE IS LITTLE EXCUSE FOR A MAN NOT OWNING HIS OWN HOME. THE GREAT LIBERTY LOANS HAVE INSTILLED INTO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE LESSONS OF THRIFT THAT WILL ENDURE THROUGH THE COMING DAYS OF PEACE. EVERY MAN CAN AND SHOULD OWN HIS OWN HOME.

THERE IS NO APPEAL FROM THE MAN WHO SEEKS A POSITION THAT IS TREATED SO LIGHTLY, BY PRIVATE AND PUBLIC EMPLOYER ALIKE, AS THE APPEAL WHICH COMES FROM THE MAN WHO HAS EVERYTHING TO GAIN AND NOTHING TO LOSE.

THE INDEPENDENT MAN ALWAYS OWNS HIS OWN HOME—BUILD YOURS NOW.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We beg to announce that we have re-appointed Mr. Alva Spayde of Tecumseh, Michigan, as our representative for Lenawee County.

Mr. Spayde has represented us in Tecumseh and vicinity for the past four and one-half years and has also dealt extensively in Detroit real estate himself.

I believe anyone wishing to make a remunerative investment in Detroit, will do well to consult with Mr. Spayde as he has successfully represented several clients in that district and is thoroughly competent to handle any real estate transactions which may be intrusted to him. We will continue to give Mr. Spayde and his clients the same service and co-operation in the future as in the past and will guarantee all investments to be as represented.

There's a big difference between—

Having to unscrew a light bulb every time you want to attach an electrical appliance—and—Having your home provided with convenient Outlets—placed in the floor, baseboard or wall—where in a jiffy, within arm's reach, you can attach your cleaner, iron, fan, sewing machine motor and so on.

We can easily and cheaply install these Outlets in your home without disfiguring the woodwork or plaster.

All that will be visible when we get through will be a neat plate in the wall or floor.

The advantage of Electrical Appliances depends greatly upon the convenience with which they can be used. These Outlets will give you the most service possible from all your appliances.

Let us show you how great the return from such a small outlay.

Do You Always Buy Safe?

MICHAELS—STERN
VALUE-FIRST CLOTHES

In buying Clothing the two main elements you want is good wearing qualities and a stylish appearance. Some articles are bought for one of these alone and some for both. For instance, an Overall is wanted for hard wear while a necktie for the appearance it will make.

This store aims to give you what you expect in any purchase you may make whether it is a suit of clothes or a cuff button, and any time after the purchase will "make good" to you if it doesn't come up to your expectations.

A Friendly Tip to BRIDEGROOMS

Insure the success of the New Home by equipping the Kitchen with a

MONARCH MALLEABLE RANGE

When you come to selecting the furnishings for that new home don't economize on the Kitchen Range.

Nothing in the home, aside from yourself will have so much to do with the success of your new venture as the kitchen range.

With a MONARCH your meals will be well cooked—your wife will have time for the pleasures that keep a woman cheerful—she will be freed from the two most disagreeable kitchen tasks:—

STOVE BLACKING,
SCOURING SOOTY POTS AND KETTLES

And listen, lest she thinks you are extravagant in buying the best range made, explain to her that though a MONARCH costs a little more at first it promptly pays back this difference and soon saves its whole cost by its saving of fuel and repair bills.

MONARCH Ranges are insured against damage from Rust by Vitreous Enameled Flue Linings.

Come in and see them.

Letter From Soldiers

From "Chic" Coller to his Father Jesse Coller.

Archangel, Russia.
March 14, 1919.

My Dear Father,

Still in the hospital, but am getting along pretty good, but not as good as I should so the doctor is going to have me moved to another ward soon and try a different treatment. I went out for a little walk yesterday and had to have a little help to get back to the ship. This English ship which is being used for a hospital is very well equipped, will hold 800 patients, but is far from being half full.

Lt. Mead was reported wounded, but I heard tonight that he had died. Archie, the tall slim cook, is seriously wounded, so I hear. We lost several of the boys that you know. Such is war.

We haven't had any mail since Christmas but we hear that an icebreaker is due this Saturday with about 175 bags of mail. How I wish that each bag has one letter in for me! If wa could get mail regular, it would help our troubles. Even those papers were a God send. I read even the ads. We don't see very many papers. So if they are two or three months old, they are interesting.

Am anxious to know what you are doing and where you are. I suppose this coming mail will clear up a lot of questions in my mind.

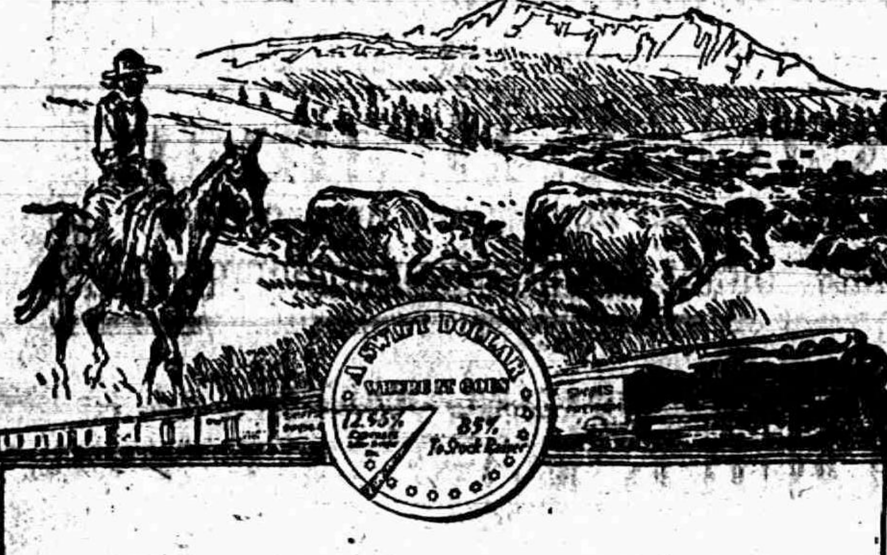
I feel tonight as if I could eat a good mess of American food. For four weeks all I have had to eat has been fish, bread, boiled rice and tea, and a change I think would do me good,

My love to all. I think of you all and wonder at times if I will soon be among you.

I know now why that song was written—"My Country 'Tis of Thee."

My love to all and keep writing as the ice will soon be out and mail will reach us in better time than heretofore.

Be good. Your son,
Earl Coller,
Co. H 339th Inf., Archangel
Russia.



The Flow of Meat

Two-thirds of the live stock in the United States has to be raised in the West.

One-half of the consumers of meat live in the East.

In other words, most of the live stock is one or two thousand miles distant from most of the people who need it in the form of food.

Fifty years ago, when live stock was raised close to every consuming center, the country butcher could handle the job after a fashion.

But the job got too big.

Now millions of animals have to be moved hundreds of miles to millions of people. Somewhere on the way they have to be turned into meat.

The packers solved the problem. They set up plants where the "live haul" and the "meat haul" were in the right balance. They built up distributing systems—refrigerator cars, refrigerating plants, branch houses. They saved time, money and meat everywhere. The stockraiser benefited in better markets and higher prices; the consumer, in better meat and lower prices.

As the country grew, the packers had to grow, or break down. Because of its present size and efficiency, Swift & Company is able to perform its part in this service at a fraction of a cent per pound profit.

NORTH ADRIAN

Frank Wright and family are riding in a new car.

H. O. Benedict is getting ready to build a new house.

Miss Leota Slater entertained a lady friend at the home of Mrs. Emma Osborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jay of Toledo visited his brother, Wm. Jay, and family a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Ladd attended the funeral of his brother, Marvin, in Adrian last week Thursday.

The Ladies' Aid society met at the church last Wednesday for an all day meeting. The ladies improved the time by cleaning the church, and the men came and worked in the cemetery, taking down the old fence a[illegible] [illegible] the yard, cutting down a few trees and reduced them to wood for church use. At noon a pot luck dinner was served to all. On Thursday Frank Treat, Arthur Bailey and E. H. Brown went to Adrian and brought home the new cemetery fence. Monday a good number of men put up the fence, which adds greatly to the appearance of the North Adrian cemetery.

VINOL MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG

Positive—Convincing Proof

We publish the formula of Vinol to prove convincingly that it has the power to create strength.

℞ Cod Liver and Beef Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates, Iron and Ammonium Citrate, Lime and Soda Glycerophosphates, Cascarin.

Any woman who buys a bottle of Vinol for a weak, run-down, nervous condition and finds after giving it a fair trial it did not help her, will have her money returned.

You see, there is no guess work about Vinol. Its formula proves there is nothing like it for all weak, run-down, overworked, nervous men and women and for feeble old people and delicate children. Try it once and be convinced.

IN MEMORIAM.

The following appeared in The Bilchaco News, the little monthly paper issued by the Billings-Chapin Co., of Cleveland:

"When the epidemic of inbuenza was at its worst, it seemed to lay but a light hand upon us here; but as time went on it invaded both factory and office and on the 19th of January claimed as one of its victims Mr. F. T. Johnston, known to many of us as 'Doc,' who died at 10:15 a. m. 'Doc' was a willing worker, always cheerful, and endeared himself to all in the more than six years he was with us. He will be missed for a long time to come."

Mr. Johnston was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnston and the funeral was held at Tecumseh, where the family have hosts of friends.

SIXTY-NINTH YEAR NO. 31. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, MAY 15, 1919. Published Every Thursday.

READY FOR SOLDIERS AND THE BIG DAY

TECUMSEH PREPARED TO ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS OF THREE WARS.

Mammoth Street Parade, Big Custer Military Band, Reunion of Soldiers, Banquet, and Dancing Main Features — Large Crowd of Visitors Expected.

Arrangements for Tecumseh's big soldier and sailor day, Saturday, May 17, when the 31st Regiment Spanish War Veterans, meet in annual reunion, are about completed, and the boys of the three war periods are assured a welcome such as the people of Tecumseh know so well to extend.

Capt. T. R. Kyle, the beloved commander of the old Co. C, is already on the ground, and has assurance of the presence of three superior officers—Col. Fred Schubel of Lansing, Gen. John P. Kirke of Ypsilanti and Major Henry L. Hunt of Jackson.

It is planned to have these distinguished officers lead the big parade, Captian Kyle, who knows the old home town so well, to act in the capacity of marshall of the day.

The big parade will form at 1:30 p. m. along West Chicago street and proceed from VanBuren street east to Maumee, thence south to Kilbuck, west to Ottawa, north to Chicago and west to Pearl and there disband.

The big Camp Custer band will be in the procession, and the balance of the parade will consist of the Tecumseh band, soldiers and sailors of the three war periods — '61, '98 and 1917-18 — High school cadets, Boy Scouts, school children, bands, fire department, and handsomely decorated floats of our enterprising business concerns. The parade will be long and full of interest.

The Custer Military band of 45 pieces will arrive at 3 o'clock Friday and will give an open air concert that will be a treat to all that come to town that night.

Lunch, free to all soldiers and sailors, will be served in the store room east of the Webster Anderson Co. dry goods store. The big banquet will be served at 4 o'clock in the Garlinghouse garage, where there will be room for all guests.

The Spanish War Veterans will hold their business meeting at Odd Fellow hall at 11 o'clock a. m.

The G. A. R. boys will meet at the rooms of Beers Post.

The boys of 1917-18 will have the use of Grange hall for their headquarters.

Soldiers and sailors of the World war are earnestly requested to wear uniforms and be sure to register. The uniform will serve to give the boys free admission to all entertainment without question or red tape.

Every community is expected to send a good bunch of delegates. They are wanted in Tecumseh, May 17.

Chicago street from Pearl to Ottawa, will be closed to parking of automobiles and other vehicles. On Chicago street west to Pearl and east to Ottawa streets owners of cars are requested to park backed up to the curb, with tops down. Occupants as well as pedestrians, can then see the big parade.

Sailors are requested to wear blue dress uniform and flat hat.

Both city parks can be utilized for automobile parking.

All trains will be met by a reception committee and the hand of welcome will be extended to all comers.

Banquet and Program

As mentioned above the banquet will be held in the Garlinghouse garage at 4 o'clock. The boys will be served a good menu.

Bert Gray, local member of the 31st, will be master of ceremonies and Capt. T. R. Kyle toastmaster. The program follows:

Music—Tecumseh band.
Invocation—Rev. J. G. Widdifield.

SPRINKLING BUSINESS STREET

WAGON MAKES FIRST TRIP OF SEASON WEDNESDAY

Business Men Get Together Tuesday Evening to Settle the Dust.

The whirling dust of the first three days of the week was evidently too much for the majority of our business men, and as a result a meeting of the merchants was called Tuesday evening at the council room.

A good attendance was present and it didn't take long to get the sprinkling matter settled.

J. R. Nyland, president of the Commerce club, presided as chairman of the meeting and explained the situation as it stood—not enough money subscribed to warrant the hiring of man and team.

After some discussion and the reading of the names and amounts of the various subscribers, individuals increased their amounts so the total would warrant the hiring of man and team and a collector.

E. C. Heilman made a motion that the chair appoint a committee of three to take charge of the matter. The motion was carried.

Mr. Nyland appointed F. D. Avery Thomas McCann and Leon Rosacrans.

As a result L. W. Swift was given the contract for seven days a week sprinkling, the compensation being $28 per week, rain or shine, and the work was started early the next morning.

There were plenty of men present who, rather than have the dust, were willing to double their subscription, but it was the consensus of opinion that all affected should do their proper share.

MOTHERS' DAY

COMMUNITY SERVICE SUNDAY EVENING

Honored American Motherhood—Service Held at Friends Church

Sunday was Mother's Day and in the evening the Community service at the Friends church was conducted in honor of "The Mothers." The G. A. R. and T. B. A. attended and the service was held under their auspices. After several songs by the audience the Friends choir gave a beautiful song, Rev. W. A. Rex read the Scripture lesson and Rev. W. R. Curtis gave the invocation. The Misses Naomi VanWinkle and Mabel Lockwood sang, "Tell Mother I'll be There."

Rev. Edw. Escolme took his theme "Behold thy Mother" from John 19:25-27. "The day should make us thank God for every mother." He spoke feelingly of the sacredness of motherhood. His own mother having passed to the Great Beyond before was old enough to remember her, he is very appreciative of the great love he has missed but so grateful for the kindness shown him through his boyhood by other mothers. He spoke of Christ's chosing to come to earth as a poor little babe instead of coming as a powerful prince.

"Children obey your parents for this is right." There is something wrong with a home where the parents are not honored. After the obedience to the parents' will is thrown one side, it is so easy to cast aside any law of man or God and the young person is lost. The opportunity and responsibility of motherhood are immeasurable and she needs the Divine grace to help her sacrifice and endure. Let us look always on our mother, even as Jesus did in his awful agony when his thought for his mother's welfare was supreme.

Rev. Rex announced the next Sunday night service would be "Farmers Night," another of his Tecumseh Nights which have become so popular this winter.

METHODIST CENTENARY

S. S. Kresge Exhorts Pastor-Financial Drive May 18 to 25.

My dear Pastor:

I am delighted to hear of the wonderful progress being made over the Area in preparation for our big Centenary finance drive, May 18 to 25.

The splendid leadership of our pastors in a rallying the laymen to the support of the Centenary will, to my mind, be one of the greatest achievements in recent church history.

The work done by the minute men has been tremendous in its scope, and now the further carrying of responsibility by laymen in the big finance drive organization will make possible even greater advancement in the future.

The campaign organization suggested in the Manual sent you, outlines in a very business-like way the procedure for a successful campaign. May I urge each church to follow very earnestly and definitely the various steps that are essential to the largest success?

The slogan adopted for the Detroit area is a good one, "Every church in the Area Over the Top" and by May 25, let us hope for such a great victory that it will be the beginning of a new era in the promotion of world wide Christianity.

Appreciating the privilege of serving with you in this great work, I am

Very sincerely yours,
S. S. Kresge.

Accidental Shooting

BERNIE PATE RECEIVES INJURY WHEN GUN BACKFIRES

Bernie Pate was shot in the face yesterday afternoon at his home in Brownville. He had been shooting sparrows with a shotgun but when he rammed in a 44, the gun back-fired, filling his face with powder and splinters.

Neighbors heard him scream and ran to his assistance. They found him bleeding terribly so rushed him into a passing auto and took him to Dr. Hardy's office. Dr. and Mrs. Hardy dressed the injuries taking out the pieces of shot and sewing up the wounds Fortunately the eyes are uninjured.

ORVILLE KEMP

Death of Well Known Resident—Former Franklin Farmer.

Orville Kemp passed away Thursday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph G. Hanford, after a long illness. He had long been a sufferer with the ills incident to old age and for several weeks back had been very sick.

He was born June 25, 1838, on the home farm in Franklin, now owned by Ray Kemp and Orman Lamkin, one of twelve children born to Mr. and Mrs. Elias Kemp.

His memory was keen up to the last of the long life and his friends always enjoyed the storis of the pioneer boy's life.

After reaching man's estate he married Miss Henrietta Larzelere, of Manchester. They lived on their farm just west of Tipton until 34 years ago when they moved to this village. The family were always active in the work of the M. E. church, both Mr. and Mrs. Kemp attending divine service as long as their health permitted.

Several years before the death of Mrs. Kemp the older people lived with the Hanford family. Mrs. Kemp died six years ago.

Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Kemp. One son Ernest, a young man, died some twenty years ago, but the three daughters still survive. Mrs. Eva Cooley of Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. Hanford and Mrs. S. C. Cutting of Tecumseh. A sister, the last of the family, Mrs. Mary Kempton, of North Adams, also is left.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. A. Rex Sunday afternoon from the Hanford home. The bearers were Ervin DeLapp, Joseph Hanford, Leigh Beach, John T. Boyce, Charles Kemp and S. C. Cutting. Present from out of town for the funeral were Mrs. Mary Kempton, Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kempton, of North Adams; Ervin DeLapp, Auburn, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Beach and daughter, of Dexter; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, of Madison; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kaynor, Mr. and Mrs. James Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butrick, Mr. and Mrs. John Butrick, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kemp, Miss Mertie Kemp, of Adrian; Miss Zulah Butrick, Blissfield; beside a large number of relatives and old friends from Franklin.

Of a quiet, unassuming disposition, Mr. Kemp had hosts of loyal friends who will sincerely miss his kind word and cordal hand clasp and sympathize sincerely with the family in this loss of their loved one.

TECUMSEH MAN SHOT BY STATE POLICE

GEORGE CHURCH, MANAGER TECUMSEH ELECTRIC CO.

Attacked By State Constabular Force—Police Said to Have Fired Before Calling Halt—Mr. Church Received Bullet in Leg.

George Church, manager of the Tecumseh Electric Co., was shot by members of the state constabulary Tuesday night and is now confined to his bed.

Needing supplies in fixtures for the stock at the office and Don H. Smith having to buy a new belt for the handle factory, the two men were in Toledo Tuesday afternoon. In the evening while enroute home, when about three miles south of Petersburg they were attacked by four state police under Lieut. Wateman, stationed at Dundee. The police, without first calling the machine to halt, began shooting as it approached them. One shot tore off the radiator cap, glanced off the hood and lodged in the side lamp, one shot passed through the front of the body of the car and right through the thick part of Mr. Church's leg lodging in the cushion. Another shot passed through one of the tires and still another coming through the wind shield went so close to Don's head that he felt to see if he had been hit.

About this time our men stopped their car and were right in the midst of the police, not twenty paces from the police car. George says he might have stopped a few paces sooner but the action of the police was some surprise and it was a second or two before he could grab the clutch.

Mr. Church makes this statement, "I think the state should furnish competent police for this work, not a lot of crazy nuts like the ones at Dundee.

I also think any person owning a car and paying for a license is entitled to some consideration on the road. Several times I have been stopped and commanded to get out of my own car as one would speak to a dog and naturally I resent such treatment."

FORTY GALLONS BOOZE CAPTURED

COUNTY SHERIFF GETS TIP AND ACTS

Cambridge Junction Scene of Hold-Up [illegible] Score—One of Two Cars Escape Although Fired Upon.

Acting upon a tip that several cars of booze were coming into Michigan from Chicago, Sheriff Nutten called to his aid six of his deputies Thursday evening and made a trip to Cambridge Junction to capture the bootleggers and confiscate the liquor carried through in automobiles.

Deputy J. Smith of Tecumseh was among the deputies and he describes the affair as a rather thrilling episode.

The officers lay in wait all night and it was not until about three o'clock in the morning when the big headlights were seen coming up the pike. The officers then prepared to stop the big automobiles, but the first one shot by them in a great burst of speed, which seventeen shots from the officers' guns failed to make an impression upon.

The driver of the second car, hearing the fusilade of gun shots, halted and the officers arrested him. In his car were found forty gallons of liquor. This driver gave his name Thomas Partridge, and claimed Chicago as his residence. He said that the firing of the officers sounded too much like a battle in France for him to take a chance to speed through. He was arraigned in Adrian and his hearing set for tomorrow.

METHODIST ADOPT FRENCH VILLAGES

Will Send Relief Ship With Supplies For Reconstructing Twelve Ruined Towns.

Dr. Ernest W. Bysshe for ten years superintendent of Methodist Episcopal missions in France, announced that twelve villages on the battlefield of Chateau-Thierry where the American marines and soldiers stopped the German drive on Paris last summer, have been adopted for reconstruction work by the American Methodist Episcopal church. The work will include courses in English, a gymnasium, a clinic and dispensory, moving pictures, reading rooms and a cafeteria. We are sending our own supplies from the U. S. in the Methodist relief ship which will sail soon. It will bear essential articles for certain districts in France, Italy and the Balkans. For the Chateau-Thierry the relief ship will carry clothing, kitchen utensils, plows, harrows, horse rakes and other farm machinery, seeds and small tractors and a few choice cattle to help restock the region, which is destitute of live stock.

A Bank's Strength

After all, the strength of any bank depends upon the way its deposits (your dollars) are loaned.

It is because of that very fact that this bank has become known as a strong bank.

Not a dollar is loaned carelessly or recklessly. Each loan is made with its ultimate payment in mind.

Savings deposits are invested largely in bonds and mortgages.

These facts should have your consideration when you are selecting a bank for your dollars.

Editorial Comment

The final arrangements for the soldiers' welcoming event Saturday are about concluded and the outlook for the biggest day Tecumseh has yet seen is good, especially if the weather man is on our side and withholds his tears and wrath.

Many of the boys who have been discharged from service have discarded their uniforms, which have become to them irksome. A few have expressed themselves as not willing to appear in their discarded uniforms again. We wish to appeal to these and inform them that their Tecumseh friends have not seen them in uniform enmasse and are most desirous to have them appear as soldiers or sailors on that day. We believe when the boys understand this they will be pleased to accommodate them. Another thing, the uniform will give the boys all the free privileges planned for returned soldiers, and they are not few. Wear the uniform, boys, and appear as soldiers at least this once for the home people who stood back of you every minute, during the game.

While the auto traffic through Tecumseh last Sunday was not at its height, the street dust was circulating merrily through the air, into the lungs of pedestrians and through crevices of store buildings and residences on the main thoroughfares.

As far as the business district is concerned the dust problem has been settled and the street was sprinkled for the first time this season yesterday morning. Business men got together at a meeting Tuesday evening when enough money in subscriptions was raised to warrant the hiring of man and team to do the work. But the residence districts are as bad off as ever.

Many people have expressed to The Herald their aversion to the dust and their desire to have the nuisance abated for good. While these people are willing to co-operate in any way with others to lay the dust, they prefer oil or tarvia, the majority seeming to favor the latter. They feel that this improvement should be made immediately upon the main thoroughfares used so much by automobilists passing through town.

Chicago street especially is in fine condition for the application of tarvia and such treatment would not only lay the dust but practically make a pavement through town at a comparatively small expense.

There is no question as to the wishes of the people as far as the dust is concerned. Nobody wants it. The only thing needed now is somebody with a little nerve to start proceedings. Every movement for improvement needs a leader. We have plenty of men and women capable of taking the lead to rid Tecumseh of an unwholesome, unhealthy nuisance before the auto season is at its height.

Old Lenawee finally went over the top in the Victory Loan subscription by about $40,000. It is a fine achievenment, especially so when it is considered that some townships in the county made scarcely any effort to raise their quotas and failed deplorably. Even the people of the county seat did not respond as readily as they should, considering the important part company B took in the world war. But the city went over.

The success of the campaign is acredit to the county chairman, Herbert S. Temple of Tecumseh, all the more so because of his location out of the center of the territory. A great deal of credit is also due the Rev W. A. Rex of Tecumseh Presbyterian church, who acted as Mr. Temple's assistant. A more loyal and energetic war worker than Rev. Rex would be difficult to find, and his work in this campaign was a great help. Mr. Temple gave practically all his time to the work and Tecumseh is proud of his success and that of his assistant, Rev. W. A. Rex, in the county at large.

WIT AND WISDOM ANNUAL BANQUET

AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH FRIDAY EVENING

Last Meeting of Year Proves Enjoyable Social Event—Excellent Program.

The Wit and Wisdom club held their annual banquet, their final meeting of the year, at the Presbyterian church last Friday evening. The tables were beautiful bouquets of violets and cowslips. The violet and gold color scheme being used on candle shades as well. A delicious menu was served by the Senior class in domestic science, directed by their teacher, Mrs. Laidlaw.

The menu consisted of fruit cocktail, wafers, roast beef, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, creamed asparagus in timbales, head lettuce salad, thousand Island dressing, ripe and green olives, radishes, clover leaf rolls, coffee, ice cream, angel food, gold cake, nuts and candy. Every item was prepared by the girls and they also served. Everything moved like clock work and Mrs. Laidlaw is still receiving compliments on success of the banquet.

Afterward Mrs. J. D. Service presided as toastmistress with "Peace" the evening's subject, the program of toasts following the letters:

P—Peace—Joseph Eaton.

E—Ease, Ears, Eaton, Evergreen, Epigrams—Rev. Thompson.

A—Aye, Ancient, Albert, Afterwards, Angleworm—Mrs. F. D. Rector.

C—Club, Cabbage, Calvin, Cider, Cradle—Dr. L. G. North.

E—Everlasting, Eyes, Ethel, Eggs, Enlist—Albert Howard.

Interspersed through the program were selections on the graphonola, kindly loaned by B. J. Pulver.

The very pleasant entertainment was closed by a rising vote of thanks to Mrs. Laidlaw and her class.

The club will hold their annual picnic July 4th and the usual committees were appointed.

Death of John Pattison.

John Pattison, one of Ridgeway's oldest residents, passed away at his home last Friday.

He was born in England December 14, 1834. He came to this country in June 1857, and the following year in June he was united in marriage to Mary Jane Dyer. He joined the M. E. church in 1858 and has been a faithful member.

He is survived by his wife, and four children, Mrs. Henry Curtis of Britton, Mrs. Harry Wood and Mrs. Vern Hathaway of Ridgeway, and Marvin of California. Also ten grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The funeral services were held at the church, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Somers, a former pastor, assisted by Rev. Combelleck, officiated.

Appropriate selections were given by Mrs. Etta Palmer and Mrs. Marion Stone. Chas. C. Smith, Chas. Dibble, James Baker, Ed Harrison, D. W. Curtis, and C. J. Underwood were bearers.

Friends and relatives were present from Britton, Holloway, Adrian, Port Huron, and Tecumseh.

Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson arrived home Tuesday from a few days spent at Midland and Saginaw.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W, Hendryx of Tipton, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Snow Sunday.

Word comes from Herbert Henderson that he has re-enlisted in the reconstruction work in France.

Miss Pearl Pocklington, in the employ of the Michigan Central at Jackson, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pocklington.

W. D. Perkins and O. J. Marsh drove to Toledo Sunday with a truck and brought Mr. Perkins house hold goods. He will reside on Rainbow Row.

Quite a party of his Methodist friends called on Rev. J. P. Varner Sunday. He had come from his home in Colorado to visit his friends in the east.

Mrs. C.N. Graebner is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Fulton, at Montpelier, O. They celebrate their 69th wedding anniversary next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Taylor were in Clinton Sunday, called by the death of her father, Robert Redick. The family attended the funeral yesterday.

The citizens are asked to decorate their homes and stores for Saturday, also all churches, and lodges are asked to display their service flags and other flags preferably across the streets.

Lyman Curtiss arrived home Friday from overseas, joinin his wife and the new daughter at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Owen. Mr. Curtiss went over with the 85th in the Engineering Corps.

Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Hoag of Providence, R. I., announce the birth of a little daughter, Elizabeth Ruth, who arrived May 13th. Mrs. Hoag was formerly Miss Wylma Wood of Ridgeway and both young people are very well known here.

Mrs. Fred Poucher received word yesterday that her son, Claire Dickinson, has arrived from overseas. Mr. Dickinson is with Company B, 32nd division, which is bringing so many of our Michigan boys home. He expects to be at Camp Custer in a few days and then home.

Many will attend the May Festival from here, among them are Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Conklin, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wood, Mrs. B. Hurry, Mrs. F. S. Turner, Mrs. R. S. Moore Mrs. Ella Hodges, Mrs. R. T. Meade, and the Misses Camilla Hayden and Edna Taylor. Miss Hayden went over yesterday planning to remain over Sunday.

Mrs. A. S. Titus most delightfully entertained Saturday afternoon a company of the T. B. A. ladies, honoring the birthday of her mother, Mrs. L. B. Thompson. Covers were laid for eleven and a most delicious supper was served at 5:30. A profusion of flowers and other gifts were left in remembrance of the day and all departed wishing. Mrs. Thompson many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Faling, Mrs. Nettie Bills, daughter Marion and grandson Philip Bills Rose of Jackson have come to Tecumseh to take up their residence at the old Bills homestead on East Kilbuck street. The home, which was purchased by the late Perley Bills 71 years ago last Fourth of July, has been closed for a number of years. The many friends of the family are pleased to welcome them back.

It has just developed that Miss Edith Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Warner, on May 1st married Walter Leut of Blissfield, the ceremony being performed in Adrian. The young couple are living in Lansing where the groom has a fine position. The bride has lived here all her life and has many friends. The groom is also quite well known and respected. The best wishes of the townspeople are theirs.

The Misses Geraldine and Frances Gillespie entertained their Sunday school class, Miss Grace Gillespie, teacher. Friday evening. There were eighteen present and all seemed to have a fine time. Contests and music whiled away the hours. In one contest the ads were cut from the last Herald with no signatures and the girls guessed the advertisers. Miss Marion Williamson won the first prize while Miss Josephine Saums was consoled. Light refreshments were served.

After the regular business meeting of the Pythian Sisters last evening the members enjoyed a very pleasant social evening. First a program of which Mrs. Ethel Mathias was chairman. was given the numbers being: Song. Mary Waring and Rena Marsh; recitation. Rena Marsh; duet, Misses Higgins and Mattis, accompanied by Miss Mathias; song Mary Barrett, accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Barrett on piano and Beatrice Barrett on violin; selection, Tecumseh ladies band No. 2, Ed Leighton director, Roy Mark, pianist. Next came a reception honoring the 54th wedding anniversary of two of the charter members of the local temple, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sweet. John Mahaney in behalf of the remainder of the charter members presented the bride and groom of long ago with a handsome basket of carnations. Mr. Sweet responded with a pleasing speech. Then a nice purse was presented with which to buy some remembrance of the evening, as a token of appreciation and love of the members. A supper was served by the April committee, Mrs. Ida Freeman chairman. A bride's table held a lovely bride's cake, a gift to Mrs. Sweet.

MAJOR HAMMEL

WELCOMED HOME FROM OVERSEAS SERVICE

Climbs the Ranks From First Lieutenant to Major — Now Ready to Take up Practice.

Among the boys to receive the glad welcome home the past week was Major Harry H. Hammel, who, with his wife, is back to make his home once more and open up his practice. For a time Dr. and Mrs. Hammel will have apartments in Mrs. Channing Beebe's home and later occupy the house now the home of Supt. and Mrs. W. L. Reed.

The doctor's military record is an enviable one. While at school in Ann Arbor, for three years he was in the National Guard, taking part in quelling the strike riots in 1913 at Calumet. When he came to Tecumseh he was in the Medical Corps and when the border trouble came he was called to service August 2, 1916, joining Troop K. 6th U. S. Cavalry. He returned to Tecumseh March 24, 1917. Then things began to look black for us in the present war and May 27, 1917 he went to Ft. Benjamin Harrison. Uncle Sam asked the British how he could help them best and word came "Send medical officers." Dr. Hammel as a first lieutenant went to France in the first bunch of 28 arriving July 22. He was assigned to the British 74th Field Ambulance, 24th Division in Belgium near Ypres, where a nearly continuous battle raged until September 16th. In Cambrai he was in the awful battle of Nov. 20, 1917. Jan. 7, 1918 he was commissioned captain, and assigned medical officer to the 1st Royal Fusilers, which was organized as a battalion in 1636. The Fusilers held three-quarters of a mile front through another terrific fight. The doctor was gassed after the first four days and sent to a hospital at Rouen. After his convalescence he was made the medical officer to the Post of Dunkirk. Through all fighting up to this time our brave doctor had been working in first aid camps, right up in the first line trenches, seeing his best friends shot down around him in the awfulness of it all. He was at Dunkirk five months then transferred to No. 6 Gen. Hospital, Rouen where he was promoted to Major last February. He remained at Rouen until April 6th when he started for America. The doctor's experiences over there beat any fiction and are exceedingly interesting when told in his quick terse sentences but he caps it all in this sentence: "I wouldn't have missed it all for worlds, but wouldn't go through it again for a million dollars."

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Nora Colvin went to Detroit Tuesday.

Harold Halladay has joined the force at L. E. Temple & Co's.

Mrs. Abram Hunt has returned from an extended visit in California.

Valder VanDyke was home from Camp Custer the last of the week on a furlough.

Special patriotic services at Presbyterian church Sunday morning for returned soldiers.

Robert Eagan has left the Garlinghouse garage to take charge of the repair room at the Big Chief.

Mrs. McLaughlin and little son went to Jackson Tuesday. They will go on to Garrett, Ind., to visit relatives.

Mrs. George Sanford, Mrs. T. R. Mills and Lieut Wilfred Mills were guests of Mrs. Adelbert Mills in Ypsilanti Friday.

Mr and Mrs. Arthur Brazee expect their son Ray of Hastings and Bert of Grand Ledge with their wives for the reunion on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kent have purchased the Snow property just outside of the corporation on West Chicago street and plan to move there this week.

Mrs. Lizzie Cheever has moved back from Ridgeway to apartments in James Mitchell's house. Her son, Leland, is working at the condensery in Adrian.

Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church, Rev. W. A. Rex will hold a special patriotic service for the returned soldiers. Every man who has been in the service is invited to attend.

Mrs. Mertie Campbell and son, Roy, with their guests Mr. and Mrs. Philo Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Spires, of Toledo, Mrs. Sarah Gray, of Onsted, and Edward Bunting, of Owosso, drove to Ann Arbor Sunday for the funeral of a relative, Mrs. Rose Gray.

J. H. Norris received a cablegram from his son, Walter E. Norris, St. Nazaire, France, stating that he had recently been promoted to the rank of Major. Maj. Norris spent a two weeks' furlough in March, traveling through the south of France and over some of the devastated regions. Nothing definite is known of his return to the U. S.

Paul Stevens, after many years as section man for the N. Y. Central, D. T. & M. branch, through its many changes, has been retired. Paul does not consider himself too old to work by any means so went over to Ann Arbor and found a good job. The family will not move at once, although Mrs. Stevens goes to keep house for him.

At the meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star Thursday evening Mrs. J. O. Aldrich and Miss Bernice Blythe were initiated into the chapter. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Boyd, Mrs. Robt. Crosby, Miss Linden and Harry Goodsell of Clinton were present, also Miss Nellie Mingay Taylor of Sault Ste Marie. Supper followed the lodge session, Mrs. Taylor charmingly read "When Melinda Sings."

The K. of P. lodge held an unusually interesting session Thursday evening. The third degree was conferred on Karl Schneider and Lynn Harris and the first degree on Gordon Bailey. Dr. Harry H. Hammel, who had that day arrived in town after nearly two years over seas, gave a vivid description of some of his experiences in France and Belgium with the British forces. Several of the others talked and later a banquet and smoker finished the evening.

Lawrence Derby and family, Mrs. Franc Gillespie, and Miss Ellen Mohr were in Tipton Saturday night, attending a party given in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Geraldine Derby. The affair was given at the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Derby, and was a complete surprise to Miss Geraldine. About fifty Tipton friends attended, taking a picnic supper. A program of music and readings was followed by a short speech by Rev. Oliver who presented Miss Derby with some beautiful silverware as a token of the love and good wishes of her friends.

The display at K. A. Braman's jewelry store has attracted great interest. Exhibited is a fine collection of foreign money, French, Holland, Italian, Belgian and German coins and paper money. Some of the French bills of small denomination are only good in the state or province in which they are issued and the purchasing value of all of it is small. Beside the money are other souvenirs which Mr. Braman brought home from over seas. A German newspaper, some high explosive, part of an aeroplane wing, a croix de guerre and a bracelet bearing the names of the greatest battles of the war, are a few of the souvenirs.

BRITTON

George Fliehman.

George Fliehman, who had been ill the past year, passed away Thursday, May 1st, at his home in Milan. The funeral was held Saturday at the house at 2 p. m.. Interment in Mooreville cemetery. He leaves to mourn a wife, two sons, his father, George Fliehman of Albion, four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Will King of York, Mrs. Clara Davenport of Mooreville, Mrs. Martha Stott of Jackson, Miss Lydia Fliehman of Saline township and Louis Fliehman of Detroit.

Mrs. Archie Hintz.

Mrs. Archie Hintz passed away at three o'clock Saturday morning, May 3, at the home of her parents north of town, death resulting from complications arising from influenza. Mrs. Hintz was formerly Miss Bertha Cook, the third daughter of Nathaniel and Martha Cook, and was born Dec. 23, 1895, in Putman County, Ohio, thus making her age only 23 years 4 months 9 days old, just in early life.

On April 13, 1918, she was united in marriage to Archie Hintz, who survives and is expected home any day from France. And this is the sad part of her thus passing away, as she hoped she might live to see him. Their little son, Donald Wayne, lived but a short time and since that time she has been in poor health, but always cheerful, looking for better days and a happy reunion with her loved one. She is also survived by her parents, five brothers, John, Raymond, Leroy, Dallas and Earl and four sisters, May, Ina, Anna and Pearl. She was a devoted member of the church of God uniting with that church in Hamler, O., February 9, 1913.

The funeral services were held Sunday at one o'clock at the home of her parents and were private, perhaps the more so as other members of the family are ill with influenza. Rev. Samuel Tamblyn officiated. Burial was in Lake Ridge cemetery.

Red Cross Notes.

The last quota of knitting is in and the following articles have been sent to Adrian: 17 sweaters, 23 pairs socks and 2 shawls. As this completes the Red Cross work the chairman, Mrs. C. J. Smith, wishes to thank all who have worked so faithfully and so willingly; also the ones who loaned articles to work with such as machines, chairs, tables, irons, and Mrs. Eldred for coal. The quota as sent to Britton were all accepted and finished on or before the time specified for them to be returned to Adrian.

Christian Church Notes.

The Mothers' Day service last Sunday was well attended and very impressive. A solo, rendered by Mrs. Tillyer and special music by the orchestra, added much to the spirit of the occasion.

Mrs. Geo. Taylor's class of boys met Tuesday evening for their social time at the home of George Hayward.

Next Sunday morning the pastor will speak on the American Christian convention, which he recently attended.

The chairman of the local committee, Mrs. C. J. Smith, has secured Lieut. C. A. Miller of the Salvation Army to speak in behalf of the drive for that organization. She will speak at our church Sunday evening. A returned soldier will accompany her. Some of our boys will also have something to say.

M. P. Church Notes.

Rev. Sam'l Tamblyn, pastor.

Impressive services appropriate to Mothers' Day were held Sunday morning. The music and sermon were enjoyed by all. A glowing tribute was paid to the mothers who have passed through this great conflict.

Please bear in mind the Loyal Lifters class meeting Friday evening at the church. Every member is requested to be present.

Regular services Sunday, both morning and evening, to which all are invited. The members of the C. E. society are requested to be prompt.

Britton News Notes.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bachman was the scene of a family gathering Thursday evening, May 1, when a company of relatives met with them to help celebrate his 60th birthday. A fine supper was served and the evening spent in a good social time. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bachman, of Adrian, Mrs. Emma Miller, of Rea, and Mrs. Bert Bachman of Dundee were the out of town guests.

School closes June 6th. The Senior class this year consists of eleven members namely, Elizabeth Smith, Edna Miller, Myrtaline Watson, Lilah Preston, Leland Palmer, Wilber Clark, Harold Miller, Reuben Young, Harry Allen, Glen Gripton and Clifford Frayer.

Thos. Rixom came near breaking his arm Saturday when the thing "kicked" as he was cranking his car. He received quite an injury as it was.

Mrs. W. W. Exelby is recovering from an attack of tonsilitis.

Mrs. Gertrude Nevison of Tecumseh spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Underwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Pilbeam and Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Exelby and Joseph and Mr. and Mrs. Royal McElroy and baby were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Elkington in Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moreland and Maxine spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Burcroff in Seneca.

Clean-up days are being observed, judging by the junk placed out in front ready to be taken away. And we wonder where does it all come from.

Mrs. Chas. Craig is spending a few days at the home of her son, Chas. Craig, here.

The county field meet, in which the high schools of the county will complete for athletic honors, will be held in Blissfield May 23. Britton expects to turn her share of contestants over and therefore expects her share of honors. Do not forget the date and plan to attend.

Mrs. C. L. Lowe and children, Helen and Jay, were in Detroit visiting over Sunday.

Lawrence Miller spent Sunday with Miss Sadie Covell in Northville.

Frank Miller has purchased a new Overland car.

Geo. Houseman spent Friday in Detroit.

The Senior and Junior classes were in Toledo Friday for a chemistry lesson. Mr. Gausfield accompanied them and they enjoyed the day immensely.

Supt. Putnam was out of school part of last week on account of sickness.

Jas. Taylor was home for the week end from Detroit.

Edward Palmer of Port Huron was an over Sunday guest of his brother, Ernest Palmer, and family.

Mrs. Geo. Exelby of Detroit spent Sunday at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Suydam and Roy and Mrs. Lewis Miller spent Saturday in Tecumseh. Mrs. Miller visited her sister, Mrs. VanAntwerp.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Daykin have a fine little girl that they have named Willoween.

Mrs. C. M. Tucker visited relatives in Tiledo last week.

Mrs. Fay VanNest and daughters, Myrna and Florence, were in Toledo, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beasley from Thursday until Sunday. Fay, accompanied by his niece, Miss Leola VanNest, went down after them Sunday.

Mrs. H. A. Friedlander went to Detroit Thursday for a few days stay with Mr. Friedlander, who is employed there.

Miss Ethel Bloomer had her right arm broken Sunday in the elbow. She and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Covell, were spending the day with his people in Tecumseh. In the afternoon the younger members of the family started down the hill towards the river, May-flowering. Ethel was riding in an express wagon which overturned, catching her arm, not only breaking it, but tearing the ligaments loose as well. Dr. P. B. Hardy made her as comfortable as possible and she was brought home Monday.

Geo. Rollin, after an absence of five years, has returned from Iowa and is a guest at Leonard Beasley's.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Miller were in Indiana over Sunday.

Frank Miller, we understand, has purchased a home in Adrian and expects soon to move there, consequently we will need a new hotel man.

Only four more weeks of school.

The graduating class this year is composed of the following: Lillah Preston, Elizabeth Smith, Myrtalena Watson, Edna Miller, Harry Allen, Wilber Clark, Glen Gripton, Leland Palmer, Irving Young and Clifford Frayer.

Miss Florence Voorhees came home a few days ago from Bixby hospital, Adrian. On Monday she and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Voorhees, went over for the day.

C. F. Smith was in Toledo Monday and H. E. Gill was there Tuesday.

W. H. Croll and family spent Sunday at Wm. Jewell's in Toledo.

Mrs. F. E. Morrell is expected home from Louann, Ark., the latter part of next week.

Friends here will be pleased to learn that Mrs. L. S. Palmer has so far recovered from her recent operation as to make her trip home from California, and is due to arrive here tomorrow, Friday.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. Chas. Obee, formerly Miss Lillian Jennings, for two years a teacher in our schools, was received here Friday. Mrs. Obee has been sick for several weeks with cancer, from which she suffered intense agony. She is survived by her husband, a professor in Adrian college, and two little sons, aged six and four. The funeral services were held Saturday at the home of her parents in Clio, where she had been for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Klann and Albert Dettman left Tuesday for a week's visit with relatives in Capac. They also attended the wedding of his sister, Miss Josephine Klann, to Albert Stein, on Wednesday.

Ralph Oliver was not hurt so badly Sunday in the automobile accident as was first reported, yet he is suite lame. The machine is up for repairs.

Friends here are alarmed over the continued illness of both Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Camburn of Tecumseh. We hope for their speedy recovery.

Paul Clement was in Belleville on business Monday.

Mrs. Lucian Bannister was very sick again Sunday and today (Thursday) went to the U. of M. hospital where she will be operated upon for the removal of gall stones. Friends hope for the best.

Mrs. C. B. Exelby has been confined to the house for the past few days with heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. F. V .Lenardson were very much surprised Sunday when a company of relatives came down for the day. The party consisted of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Beebe. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greenwald and daugh-

ANNOUNCEMENT

We beg to announce that we have re-appointed Mr. Alva Spayde of Tecumseh, Michigan, as our representative for Lenawee County.

Mr. Spayde has represented us in Tecumseh and vicinity for the past four and one-half years and has also dealt extensively in Detroit real estate himself.

I believe anyone wishing to make a remunerative investment in Detroit, will do well to consult with Mr. Spayde as he has successfully represented several clients in that district and is thoroughly competent to handle any real estate transactions which may be intrusted to him. We will continue to give Mr. Spayde and his clients the same service and co-operation in the future as in the past and will guarantee all investments to be as represented.

Indigestion

DO YOU KNOW that indigestion can be cured, permanently cured, so that you can eat any kind of food that you crave? It has been done not only once, but in almost every case when Chamberlain's Tablets are used. An instance: Mr. J. Pominville, Stillwater, Minn., who had spent over $2,000.00 for medicine and treatment was permanently cured by these tablets.

Chamberlain's Tablets

There's a big difference between—

Having to unscrew a light bulb every time you want to attach an electrical appliance—and—Having your home provided with convenient Outlets—placed in the floor, baseboard or wall—where in a jiffy, within arm's reach, you can attach your cleaner, iron, fan, sewing machine motor and so on.

We can easily and cheaply install these Outlets in your home without disfiguring the woodwork or plaster.

All that will be visible when we get through will be a neat plate in the wall or floor.

The advantage of Electrical Appliances depends greatly upon the convenience with which they can be used. These Outlets will give you the most service possible from all your appliances.

Let us show you how great the return from such a small outlay.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

From Private Will Jewell to L. E. Temple.

LeHavre, France, April 19, 1919.
Dear Temp:

Just received your letter and was sure a pleased boy. Hope you have received all the mail I have sent you since I've been here—cards, views, letters, although I wouldn't say they had all gotten by the censor.

Lately, however, it has taken an unusual amount of ambition to write, that is, to start. But once started it is easy enough, as there are any number of things to write about. One of the best over here is the weather. For the last few days we have been having just the kind of weather that makes one want to get out in the country, somewhere near a river and fish, or loaf; though for myself I'd like nothing better than a few days of loafing. It would not do much good to want to fish for there isn't much here but salt water fish and, after having tried one, that is, eating one French fried, never again for me. They taste fierce, though it may not be the fish that are to blame. But I'm getting away from the weather. It hasn't rained for several days now and although it could be a little warmer we are enjoying it very much. Of course, it is dusty and the least bit of wind stirs up a cloud of dust, but it is lots better than mud, for every time it rains the roads are awful. The The sight of a truck or auto sends the people crowding into doorways and alleys to avoid being splashed, every time it rains.

I was out in the country the other day for a hike all by my lonesome and landed in a big woods. I guess all the trees were set out by hand the same as an orchard, only the trees were much closer together, nice big tall ones long enough for a ship mast and straight, too. I guess that is what they are used for at that, for I remember seeing a big pile on the dock in Rouen last spring, a year ago. I loafed around in the woods for four or five hours and came in only because it was time for me to go to work. I had dinner in a little cafe out there and luckily the lady could understand some English and with what little froggy language I have gotten acquainted with, I got a pretty good dinner, steak, eggs, French fried potatoes, and peas with beer and wine to chase it down.

Am still located in LeHavre and except for a few months have been here all the time I've been in France. I did a few months' time in Rouen and a week or so in another port. We are daily expecting orders to return home, but know nothing definite. Am O. K. and hope you all are the same. Best regards to Mrs. T. and the boys. Also the boys around the business. As ever,

Pvt. Wm. Jewell

May be home before a return letter can reach me so will let you know when to write next. Bill

STATE OF MICHIGAN, the Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee, in Chancery.
Nellie McDonald, Plaintiff,
vs.

Nelson Dewey, as administrator of the Estate of Lorenzo D. Dewey, deceased, Nelson Dewey as an individual, Nellie M. Marvin, as defendant and cross-plaintiff, Thomas Beaty, Mrs. Thomas Beaty, whose christian name is unknown to cross-plaintiff, Andrew Coats, Mrs. Andrew Coats, whose christian name is unknown to cross-plaintiff, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns.

Defendants.

Suit pending in the Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee, in chancery, at the City of Adrian on the 10th day of May A. D., 1919.

In this cause, it appearing from affidavit on file that Thomas Beaty and Mrs. Thomas Beaty, Andrew Coats and Mrs. Andrew Coats, are not residents of the State of Michigan, and that said affiant has made diligent search and inquiry to learn the place of residence of each and all of the last named defendants, and has been unable to ascertain the same and it can not be ascertained in what state or county said defendants and each of them reside; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that said last named known defendants are proper parties to this suit; and it further appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, and assigns of the last named known defendants, (named in the caption hereof) are proper parties to this suit; and it further appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the unknown grantees and encumbrancers of said last named known defendants (named in the caption hereof) are proper parties to this suit;

On motion of Theodore M. Joslin, attorney for said cross-plaintiff, Nellie May Marvin, It is ordered, that the appearance of said known defendants, Thomas Beaty, Mrs. Thomas Beaty, Andrew Coats, Mrs. Andrew Coats, be entered herein on or before three (3) months from the date of this Order; that said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of said last named known defendants be made parties defendant hereto, and that the appearance of said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of the aforesaid last named known defendants, be entered herein on or before three (3) months from the date of this Order; and that the said unknown grantees and encumbrancers be made parties defendant hereto, and that the appearance of said unknown grantees and encumbrancers of the aforesaid last named known defendants be entered herein on or before three (3) months from the date of this Order; all in accordance with the statutes of the State of Michigan, in such cases made and provided; that in the case of the appearance of any such defendants, that he cause his answer to the cross-bill of complaint to be filed and a copy thereof to be served on cross-plaintiff's attorney within twenty (20) days after service on him of a copy of said cross-bill of complaint and notice of this order; and in default thereof, said cross-bill will be taken as confessed, by said non-resident defendants and by said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, and by said unknown grantees and encumbrancers.

And it is further ordered, that within twenty (20) days the cross-plaintiff cause a notice of this order to be published in the Tecumseh Herald, of Tecumseh, Michigan, a newspaper printed, published and circulated in said County of Lenawee, and that said publication be continued therein once in each week for six (6) weeks in succession, or that she cause a copy of this order to be personally served on said non-resident defendants, and on said unkown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, and on said unknown grantees and encumbrancers, the defendants herein, at least twenty (20) days before the day of above prescribed for their appearance.

Burton L. Hart.
Circuit Judge
Theodore M. Joslin,
Attorney for Cross-plaintiff.

Underwriting: A personal decree is sought against the defendants to Quiet Title to the following described lands, to-wit: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate and being in the Village of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee, State of Michigan, and particularly described as follows: Commencing at the Southeast corner of Block Seven (7) of Henry L. 'THE MILLION DOLLAR DOLL'

Charming Musical Comedy Pleases Large Audience at the Bradley Friday Evening.

The big audience that gathered Friday evening at the Bradley opera house was not disappointed in the presentation of Harvey D. Orr's big musical comedy, "The Million Dollar Doll."

Many who had seen the big attraction here before were pleasantly surprised to fine the show much better than on its former visit.

The illuminated runway, while not a new feature, made a hit when soloist and chorus went out over the heads of the audience to perform.

The solo work was good, backed by an excellent chorus. The male quartet was a combination of musical harmony that was pleasing.

Kenneth Christy as Jasper Jackson, kept the audience in good humor with his new black face comedy stuff.

There was dancing, both male and female, and the two combined, that was attractive. The chorus was composed of attractive girls, fairly good singers and graceful deportment.

The attraction gave universal satisfaction.

OBITUARY

Charles Campbell.

Charles Campbell of near Rollin, who departed this life Saturday, May 3, at the age of 64 years was laid to rest in the Hudson cemetery Tuesday, May 6. He leaves a loving companion, five children and 23 grandchildren. He formerly, for a few years, made his home in Tecumseh and was loved by all who knew him for his Christian character and loving kindness.

Six of his grandsons, Walter and Elmer Harper, Clarence Poling, Ralph, Dale and Charley Campbell, acted as pallbearers.

He has gone to heaven and left us
And his loss we deeply feel,
But it is God who bereft us,
And He alone our sorrow can heal.

BRADLEY OPERA HOUSE ATTRACTIONS

Fairbanks and Arbuckle Big Double Bill at the Bradley, Saturday.

Last Saturday night a record crowd was in attendance at the Bradley to see "Fatty" Arbuckle and in fact the whole of the big Saturday night program. The big theatre was packed to capacity all evening, both first floor and balcony and the lobby jammed with people waiting for each performance. Next Saturday, May 17th (Tecumseh's big gala day) the management will offer a bill that few theatres could duplicate anywhere at these admissions, the two greatest stars on the screen. Mr. Douglas Fairbanks in a picture that every man, woman and child will be delighted with entitled "Mr. Fix It" and right here we want to tell you that Doug. is the best little fixer in the world, you'll say so too after you see this picture and the other big star, "Fatty Arbuckle" in a whale of a comedy "Fatty Disturbs the Peace." It is a scream from start to finish. In fact both of the pictures are right on the comedy order all the way through.

On Saturday afternoon and evening the management will admit free all returned soldiers and sailors in uniform also all members of the 31st Michigan. Come and be our guests and enjoy this great bill, you are welcome.

Norma Talmadge, Sunday Evening.

There is always a big show at the Bradley on Sunday evening but this coming Sunday, May 18th, an exceptionally good bill will be the offering. Miss Norma Talmadge, Constance Talmadge's captivating sister will be seen in the big eight act mystery play "De Luxe Annie" from the stage play of the same name and claimed by many who have seen it to be better than "Within the Law", it is something of the same class of a play. Owing to the management playing the big Arbuckle film on Saturday night, "Reilly's Wash Day" the Mack Sennett which should have been shown on Saturday will be added to the Sunday evenings bill which will give you a big ten act program and at no added expense to you. "Reilly's Wash Day" features Chas. Murray, beautiful Marie Prevost and the Mack Sennett dog "Teddy", you will find the comedy alone, Sunday evening, is worth the price charged for admission say nothing about the big eight reel super-feature.

Lyman H. Howe, Tuesday Night.

Of Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival, now on its 49th consecutive semi-annual tour, which comes to the Bradley opera house next Tuesday evening on May 20th, a young woman commented recently as follows:

"I am always glad when the Lyman H. Howe pictures come to town. They are the one thing my husband and I agree about. He always goes to a minstrel show whenever one comes, and I always go to any musical, but both of us always go to the Howe pictures." This no doubt reflects the esteem in which the Lyman H. Howe Travel Festival is held wherever it goes. It is probably the only production extant that is capable of entertaining every member of the family, from grandfather down to the tiniest tot.

The new Howe program is said to be remarkable for its diversity. In it followers of this resourceful globe-trotter are wafted as if by magic to many climes. The pictures carry the spectators from a hunting and fishing trip in the wilds of Canada to a perilous expedition in the South seas, where monster sea-elephants, sharks and swordfish are captured.

HELD FOR PROBATE COURT

John Dibble Discharged From Ann Arbor Hospital—No Help For Him There.

Supervisor Schreder received a message from Ann Arbor Saturday from the hospital authorities that they were discharging John Dibble as they could do nothing for him. Sunday Mr. Schreder and Bert Mominee drove to Ann Arbor for him, but he had eluded the officers and they could not [illegible] him. They heard reports, however, of the famous good time Dibble had had in the city Saturday, no damage done to any one, only he had made himself generally known about the city, in his jolly way.

Our officers had no more than arrived home when the Ann Arbor sheriff phoned to come back as he had their man, having picked him up in Ypsilanti, where he was trying to crank an auto. So again did Schreder and Mominee make the trip. They took Mr. Dibble to Adrian, and there he is in the county jail awaiting the verdict of the probate judge.

Later — Supervisor Schreder takes Dibble to Kalamazoo today.

Centenary Rally Sunday

Every member and friend of the church within a radius of five miles should be present at the 10 o'clock service. "Everybody at church" is our slogan. The pastor has a special message that all will want to hear. Tecumseh is going over the top again next week. Adrian went over in fine shape last Sunday. Tecumseh will be next.

It is enlistment day in the Sunday school. Let us have a record breaking attendance and full enlistment. We will win.

The Epworth League will have installation of officers and other interesting features. Every Epworthian will, of course, be present.

STREET OILING GIVEN IMPETUS

WEST CHICAGO STREET RESIDENTS PETITION COUNCIL

Ask Village to Apply Dust-Laying Fluid, the Residents to Pay for Oil According to Street Frontage.

Street oiling, the modern method of keeping down the dust of streets and highways, was given an impetus when a petition signed by nearly all the West Chicago street residents was presented the village council Monday evening at the regular session of the board.

Quite a number of visitors, including ladies, were present at the council meeting, and President Hines, seeing something special was wanted, suspended the the general order of business to allow the visitors an early opportunity to address the council.

Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy addressed the president and trustees, presenting a petition signed by 36 property owners on West Chicago street praying for the oiling of that street. The petition provided that the petitioners pay for the oil used according to frontage, the council to apply the fluid. Mrs. Hardy urged the council to take favorable action, stating that residents along that thoroughfare found the dust intolable, even during this wet season. Autoists, she said, judged a town by the condition of its streets, and it was for the good fame of Tecumseh that the dust should be laid. She also stated that more residents had expressed their willingness to sign the petition.

Oscar Blum of the Standard Oil Co. was called upon for information and suggestions. Mr. Blum said other towns were using oil to solve the dust problem most successfully. He used Clinton as an illustration, stating that the year our neighboring village used oil lawns and trees looked fresh and green, while in Tecumseh everything was covered with dust, makig quite a contrast in the appearance of the towns. Clinton, he stated. had ordered 18,000 gallons of oil for street of sprinkling this year, and he thought Tecumseh would run no risk in ordering a car of 8.000 gallons. Clinton has engaged the Adrian outfit for spreading the oil, and Mr. Blum advised that the oil be ordered and the spreader at once, as after the first of June the spreader would be in demand in Adrian.

A question was raised as to the intersecting streets, who would pay for oil? F. A. Heesen advised that the entire distance be measured and the property owners would take care of the cost of the oil.

Dr. Hendershot made a motion that the petition of the West Chicago street residents be granted and that others be given the same privilege. The motion carried [illegible] gallons for West Chicago street, and residents of streets that wish the dust laid on their streets for a year, are advised to get busy at once, secure signatures to their petition and present it to the council at its next session—the first Monday in June.

John Welch of South Adrian street asked for water service. The matter was referred to the water works committee.

Trustee McCoy from the water works committee reported that the employees at the plant asked for increase of salary.

President Hines appointed GALLEY SEVENTEEN—Wesley Keyser and John McIntyre as members of the board of review. The appointments were confirmed by the board.

An invitation to participate in the Memorial day parade was accepted.

Trustee Kempf recommended the establishment of a safety zone at the school house property. This suggestion found favor and the clerk was authorized to provide signs.

Council adjourned.

Junior Reception

SENIORS AND FACULTY DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED

High School Gymnasium the Scene of Pretty Banquet—Excellent Program of Toasts.

The Juniors gave a most delightful reception last evening for the Seniors and faculty The party was held in the high school gymnasium which was decorated with boughs of lilacs. In the center was the orchestra platform, a bower of greenery.

The banquet was served at small tables by girls from the Sophomore class, places being provided for 68.

After the banquet was over George Newsom, president of the Juniors, introduced Ralph Hodges as toastmaster and he filled the position to the queen's taste. The following toasts were given:

"Soup"—Harold Sisson, '20.
"Fish"—Eulah Schwartz, '19.
Dinner Course—Blanche Colson, '20.
"Salad"—Harley VanVleet, '19.
"Dessert—Supt. W. L. Reed.

Victrola selections were given through the program and later the hours were spent in dancing, the orchestra being Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Coller and Archie Boyd.

TECUMSEH'S BIG CELEBRATION A GREAT SUCCESS

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS OF THREE WAR PERIODS WELCOMED

Veterans Enjoy Hospitality of Tecumseh — Parade and Banquet the Big Events — Large Crowd Participates in Celebration.

Tecumseh's welcome and entertainment of the soldiers and sailors of the three war periods—the Civil, Spanish-American and World wars—proved a glorious achievement in giving our defenders a most hearty reception. Everybody was made to feel at home and the day was devoted entirely to the entertainment of the soldiers and sailors.

Friday, the day before the celebration, rain fell in torrents and prospects for Saturday were anything but bright. Although the weather still continued threatening on the morning of the big reunion of soldiers and sailors, the decorating committee in charge of Lester Heesen and including the High School Cadets went on with their work. The street was bright with pennants, strung across, spelling "Welcome" with Victory pennants in the center. The business places caught the spirit and scarcely a store but had a brave display of bunting and flags in front. In many windows were exhibits of souvenirs brought from over seas; in the Lilley Bank was a handsome picture of the late Will Hayden, the beloved captain of old Co. C. other windows containing pictures of old Co. C, and relics of the wars.

By noon the sun shone brightly, the roads began to fill with cars Tecumseh bound, and by the hour of the parade, 2 p. m., Chicago street was packed.

The visitors began to arrive Friday, and the band from Camp Custer gave a concert that evening, calling the people down town. Here was the first part of the reunion when the visiting men began to meet the home folks. The concert was short, but the visiting on the streets lasted all the evening.

The business session of the 31st [illegible] James F. Smith of Tecumseh was president of the reunion, George Rubadou, local secretary and treasurer and Harry Davis regimental secretary.

Letters of regret were read from Col. Cornelius Gardner of Portland, Ore., and Major John Kirk of Ypsilanti.

A delegation from the G. A. R. visited this meeting and welcomed the reunion to the town. This touched the boys of the 31st deeply and the welcome was responded to feelingly by Lt. Col. Fred Shubel.

The old soldiers were given a rousing three cheers and proved they were still able to return the compliment.

The next reunion will be held at Mason, Mich.

The parade was the big event for the townspeople, F. G. Heesen arranging the order of the parade which was as follows:

The Big Parade.

The parade was headed by an auto containing Capt. T. R. Kyle, marshal of the day, and officers of the 31st, followed by the Custer military band.

Next in line were officers of the 31st and the Veterans of the Spanish American war, 141 in line, under command of Captain John Broderick of Detroit. A handsomely decorated Buick from the Garlinghouse garage conveyed the nurses recently returned from overseas service. The commissioned officers just home from service, some 80 soldiers of the World war led by Capt. Larson, sailors, Civil war veterans in a gaily decorated Republic truck and several autos, High School Cadets, Troop No. 1 Boy Scouts of America, with Scout Master J. G. Widdifield, school boys, Uncle Sam in the person of little Demetrus Clark, school girls, Troop No. 2 Boy Scouts of America with Scout Master W. R. Curtis, Tecumseh band, fire truck looking spick and span, one each of Temple's Willeys-Knight and Overlands, carrying the city dads, Then came the floats, all novel, many beautiful.

The Webster Anderson Co.'s was the most elaborate. Flowers were used freely and some pretty girls sat in the midst of the flowers with birds floating about. A great seal was on the rear of the machine which was banked all round in white.

Braman's jewelry store was represented by an enormous clock's face on each side the car, which by the way was driven by Percy Heidenreich, all hidden by draperies of bunting. The Rosacrans car followed, all gay with the colors. It was driven by Miss Marion Rosacrans and her little fairies who were in "The Doll Shop."

Clark's market float created much favorable comment. The auto was covered in white, the occupants, a bevy of girls in white and wearing picture hats.

Gaston & Son was represented by a group of boys bearing banners "Buy that Watch at Gaston's" and others.

Nevison's float was well decorated and from it were thrown armloads of rulers, advertising Nevison's bread.

Then came the three small sons of W. L. Coller beating drums preceded by another boy carrying a banner with the legend "Beat your way to W. L. Coller's."

The Wm. Hayden Milling Co.'s great white truck carried the domestic science girls, in cooking aprons and caps, throwing miniature loaves of bread to the crowd.

Brown & Company's wagon, filled to the top on one end with wool, and at the other with coal, bore these words, "The wool that kept the soldiers warm, the red hot coal keeps us warm."

On the truck belonging to the Tecumseh Co-Operative Ass'n. was worked an interesting tableau. Miss Hazel Stahler, in kitchen apron and cap sat knitting and rocking away while John Boyce did the washing with one of the power washers sold by the association.

The Tecumseh Butter Co. followed with a group of milk maids. On their return trip they gave ice cream cones to the crowd. Miss Vesta Wilson was in charge.

Lester Coller came along with a float, bearing a camera, victrola and swing machine, then at the rear "The old way and the new" Messrs. Yenor and Anderson, with the old cradle and rake were followed by Leslie Fisher driving a Moline tractor and working a grain harvester.

Most of the banners were the work of W. L. Coller and he must have worked early and late for a week to complete the beauties.

The parade counter-marched back on Chicago street, this time with Capt. Kyle and other officers in the receiving stand.

The Banquet.

At 4 p. m. the veterans from the three wars were ushered into the banquet hall to music by the Tecumseh band. The Garlinghouse garage was converted into a beautiful place. Strands of bunting from the ceiling to the supporting columns, the latter wound in more bunting with seals along the sides, with the immense tables spread so prettily made of the garage an attractive place. Grace was said by Rev. J. G. Widdifield and over [illegible] were [illegible] the waiters being in charge of Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw.

The excellent menu consisted of roast beef, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, rolls, onions, radishes, fruit jello, pie, cake, coffee and smokes.

The master of ceremonies, Sergt. Bert E. Gray, then introduced as toastmaster Capt. T. R. Kyle who had come clear from California to again mingle with his boys of old Co. C and the 31st and his opening remarks indicated his pleasure at being back in the home town. He royally welcomed to the reunion of the 31st the Civil war veterans and the boys who took part in the World war introducing as first on the program of toasts Capt. Phelps of Detroit, a man who served in both the Spanish-American and World war. His incidents were thrilling and he spoke heartily of his pleasure in such a reunion where the veterans of three wars could mingle.

Hon. J. D. Shull came next, following a selection by the Temple Quartette. He told some Civil War experiences, how the battles of Antietam and Harper's Ferry were fought near his grandfather's farm. He was especially grateful for the kindly reception accorded the G. A. R.'s. "All honor to all who went to quell the insurrection over there and equal honor to all who were willing to go."

Major Henry L. Hunt of Jackson, was introduced. He said in part, "I'm glad to be heir to all the honors America has received, and say, 'Hats off to America's response in the last war, the spirit of the women, old men and boys who helped.' "

Again the Temple Quartette sang, this time "When the Boys Come Home."

Col. Albert S. Cummins was the next speaker. He appreciated the pleasure of being present with so many old and new veterans, never having had an opportunity of meeting with his regiment of the Spanish American war. His incidents related in a humorous vein of his experiences at San Juan Hill delighted his audience. He told of his work recently at Puget Sound, training the forces in heavy artillery. He has a high opinion of the World war, Spanish-American war and Civil war veterans. "As long as our country has such men to call upon, she will be safe."

The toastmaster next called on Lt. Col. Fred Shubel of Lansing who said the 31st reunion can only be held here every twelve years and he would be here as color keeper in 1931, '43, '55. After all are gone the colors are to be turned over to the heirs of Col. Gardner. Like the Greek boy who first fought on the French front then the Italian, and wrote home "I've seen the whole world, but had rather live in the United States than in any other land.' "

Tecumseh's gritty little doctor, Major H. H. Hammel was happily greeted. He was with the British while in the service, and he has their speech and mannerisms down pat. He told of the questions they asked him, of the cabin he had built from the trees the Germans had felled out of pure meanness up on the front line. This cabin he named "Tecumseh cabin" and its fame was general as it was placed on the British war map. He said there was quite a little interest in "Tecumseh" after he struck the company.

Mrs. Will Hanna of Adrian sang charmingly, accompanied by Mrs. Roy VanAntwerp of Adrian.

Lieut. Perry Satterthwaite had the next place on the program but a message from him was read instead, "Saturday, Camp Upton. Home again. Expect to leave for Custer Sunday. Glad to leave out on speech." He was substituted by Lieut. Lavern Rogers, better known in Tecumseh as "Stub." Although wearing the distinguished service cross, and the only one in the room he had but little to say for himself. He was with the 26th New England Division part of the time while across, then placed in the 32nd. The next morning they started on their long walk into Germany. The 32nd and 42nd went the farthest into Germany, the only divisions in the army of Occupation. "There is no more glory in modern warfare. All the glory is swallowed up in death, disease and dirt. We salute the veterans of '61 to '65 because they relit the torch of freedom, the Spanish War veterans who extended the torch of freedom outside of the United States and we extended the same to the whole world."

The Tecumseh band gave a selection at this time and Lieut. R. K. Anderson followed with a toast on "Food." He told of the hard tack of the Civil war and the canned goods of the World war. He is not fond of tomatoes and we must have had a large crop in 1916-1917 by the amount sent over there. The cooks put tomatoes in everything. Our army had the most to eat of any of the Allies. "We are told we look well. Our thanks are due the people who saved that we might eat and be armed."

Lieut John R. Clark of Clinton was next called. He said he was with the American Division who served with the British army and backed Major Hammel in all he said of the English. He told of the English [illegible] who said "You've got to [illegible] side [illegible] licked [illegible] no Irish [illegible] won [illegible] the American army [illegible] on the finishing touches. Supported as they were at home, they absolutely could not fall down."

Capt. Kyle had just seen Mr. and Mrs. P. W. A. Fitzsimmons of Detroit enter the hall, so presuming upon their long friendship called upon Mr. Fitzsimmons to speak. Mr. Fitzsimmons said he was of the Fourth army who were compelled to remain at home so the fighters could be in the trenches. "In behalf of my father (Col, Fitzsimmons) I greet the veterans of the Civil war and of my brother (Will Fitzsimmons) I greet the boys of the present war, and for myself, I greet the Spanish war veterans. He closed with the poem, "Be humble, Oh America!"

Maj. Van Evans of the 31st, though not on the program, was introduced and told a couple of jolly little stories which added zest to the affair.

After another selection by the Tecumseh band, Lieut. Wilfred Mills, of a family of soldiers, responded. He spoke shortly telling "I'm doubly proud I'm one of them, although I was stalled behind the lines doing nothing but teaching school through all the war". He holds the "Golden 32d" in the highest esteem, the one division that never lost a foot of ground. He paid a great tribute to Lieut. Rogers saying the people there say the croix de guerre is passed out with the rations, but he knew the distinguished service cross was won only by a superman.

Again did Toastmaster Kyle assume on his friendship with an old friend when he asked H. W. Stevens to speak. He laughingly commented on Captain Kyle's "nerve," but said it was such a real pleasure to meet with all the comrades. "Tecumseh always holds her door open and here you'll always find a glad welcome."

Rev. W. A. Rex, always interested in all things patriotic was present and when singled out for a speech said "I don't belong on this program, but to my shame must admit I was in that Fourth army. You veterans of three wars honor the town by your presence here. Tecumseh has been loyal in all the trouble and if ever again boys have to go you'll find Tecumseh boys among the first."

Another selection by the band, Rev. J. G. Widdifield pronounced the benediction and the reunion and banquet of the soldiers and sailors of three war periods was over.

Notes of the Big Celebration

One incident of the parade proves what a plucky girl is Miss Hazel Stahler. As the parade started, she set going the power washer in the Co-operative exhibit and in just a second one of her fingers was caught between the rolls of the wringer. She had presence of mind to turn off the power and grittily stayed on the truck until the close of the parade. By the glad smile she gave the crowd no one would have dreamed she was suffering, but afterward she found a physician to dress the crushed and bleeding digit.

The weather man was not as kind as he might have been, but it was indeed fortunate that he took pity on us and shed his tears the day before. Everything was smiles the latter part of the day.

The Red Cross Canteen at the Anderson store was an attractive place. Here the soldiers were treated to coffee, doughnuts, pork and bean sandwiches, cigars and cigarettes. Mrs. Paul Bowen, chairman of the home service department of the Red Cross was at the head of the committee with Mr. and Mrs. Will Eccles in charge of the canteen. Many were the expressions of pleasure at the fine treatment received here by the soldiers.

Mrs. E. E. Hendershott was in charge of the historical work, that of getting the record of Lenawee county's men during the World war.

It will be hard for anyone to convince those members of the old 31st who attended the reunion of the regiment at Tecumseh last Saturday that any town in the state can beat that place for unbounded hospitality — Jackson Daily News.

Editorial Comment

After everything else has been said in regard to Saturday's big event, we must say that Tecumseh was greatly honored to have the first privilege of any community in the state of entertaining soldiers and sailors of three historic war periods. This honor may never again be given Tecumseh, for the veterans of the Spanish war have a fixed rule to meet in reunion only once in twelve years in any one town. Another twelve years will see the ranks of the G. A. R. boys thinned to almost nothing and many a community will have given up its last hero of the Civil war. Again we say Tecumseh was honored and she responded to this great privilege by doing her best in the entertaining line.

Street oiling in Tecumseh will get a try out this season and residents on West Chicago street will have the privilege of enjoying a dustless summer as far as that thoroughfare is concerned. We understand it was some of our good housewives that started the movement into real activity, securing the signature of nearly every property owner on the street to a petition presented to and acted upon by the village council Monday evening. The oil has been ordered—a car load of 8,000 gallons—and residents in Brownville, East Chicago and perhaps other streets can get relief from dust if the residents take immediate action and petition the council to do the work. After the first of June the apparatus to spread the oil will be busy in Adrian and there will be no way of properly applying the oil.

Clinton will again oil her streets, the village having ordered 18,000 gallons of the fluid. Clinton's experience has evidently been satisfactory, for over double the amount of oil used the last time has been ordered.

Detroit, yes all Michigan, welcomed home Monday morning the 32nd division—the Red Arrow boys that knew not how to retreat and lost not a foot of ground in any Hun attack—with a mammoth demonstration in the city. It was a great day for the Red Arrow boys, for the citizens of Michigan and Detroit.

Tecumseh and Lenawee county people are much interested in the return of this heroic division, for with them are our own heroic soldiers, glad to get home and receive the loving welcome of relatives and friends.

A plan is on foot in Lenawee to give a county welcoming demonstration to all the men enlisted for service in the World war in the near future. While Tecumseh has already extended a welcome to her boys and those of northern Lenawee, she is ready and eager to participate in a county wide demonstration. We can not do too much in recognition of the great service rendered by our soldiers.

As several men were standing in conversation near the Tecumseh candy kitchen Tuesday evening an incident occurred that brought vividly to mind the complaint of a farmer's wife in a letter read at the Sunday night community service in regard to men smoking on the streets during the Wednesday night entertainments, annoying the ladies with the smoke. A sailor lad and young woman emerged from the store and entered a large auto. The lady lighted a cigarette and calmly puffed away as the machine started on its way.

There is now in process of formation a permanent organization of men who wore the uniform of the United States army, navy and marine corps. The organization is named the American Legion, is intended primarily for enlisted men, is non-partisan, non-political and a truly representative organization of all service men. A prime factor of the organization is the determination to perpetuate the principles of right and justice for which the men fought. The Legion also stands for law and order, decent living and thinking and true Americanism. The temporary officers are Lt. Col. Theodore Roosevelt, jr., New York, chairman; Lt. Col Bennett Clark, Missouri, vice-chairman; Lt. Col. Erie Fisher Wood, Pennsylvania, secretary. It is the desire of the national committee that all men who have served in the army or navy to join the organization. Information can be obtained by writing the Michigan secretary, Charles T. Loos, 203 Breitmeyer building, Detroit.

For several years the University of Michigan Y. M. C. A. have been sending out bright young students to various Michigan communities to give addresses on current topics. These men have appeared in various communities in Lenawee County at religious meetings or other public gatherings and their freshness of spirit has proven exhilerating. We would suggest that the pastors of Tecumseh secure a group of these young men for one of the community servics.

TECUMSEH BIG CELEBRATION A GREAT SUCCESS

"Don't fail to mention emphatically that the 31st regiment Spanish War Veterans were more than pleased over the cordial reception extended them by the citizens of Tecumseh, and especially commend them for the splendid service at the banquet. It was remarkable to be enabled to seat so many people at banquet tables at one time, to say nothing of the splendid menu served in such an efficient manner."

Thus expressed himself Major Henry L. Hunt of Jackson, while in conversation with the writer Saturday after the banquet at Garlinghouse garage. The same sentiment was expressed by other officers, members of the 31st, and visiting soldiers and sailors.

Well, it was a great achievement over which Tecumseh can feel proud. W. E. Barrett, who had general charge of the arrangements for the big affair, handled the situation well. His appointments of the various committees were well selected and all seemed to work in harmony to make the day one big success. Otto L. Garlinghouse, owner of the big garage, has the thanks of the people of the community for the use of his mammoth building which was given free for the cause. Without the use of this garage the banquet would have failed to be the success it was, for it was the only available place in town that would have seated all the guests at one time.

The ladies of the town, all those who contributed so willingly, and those who assisted in preparing and serving the banquet, are deserving of unstinted praise.

Merchants, manufacturers, soldiers, sailors, High School Cadets, school children and all who helped to make the parade such a magnificent success, the merchants who took pains with their window displays and all who decorated stores and residences for the occasion deserve credit for their loyalty and co-operation.

Many compliments were paid the Boy Scouts during the day Saturday for their excellent work throughout the big celebration. The boys not only made a splendid appearance in the parade, but they kept busy from early morning until late at night. Some acted as traffic regulators, kept autos going right and saw to it that all parked properly. Others made themselves useful in the checking room at the Coller property, in the banquet hall and in every place where their services were required. Tecumseh people, especially the parents, should feel proud of these boys.

Capt. Tom R. Kyle probably enjoyed the reunion and celebration as much if not more than any one person. His popularity was attested by the constant demand of recognition from friends, not only old Tecumseh friends, but of the many fellows who served in the Spanish war with him. Tom seemed to be happy every minute of the time spent in Tecumseh, and would have enjoyed remaining for a longer period. He left Sunday to attend a convention for his firm at St. Louis before returning to his San Francisco home.

Visitors were very much interested in the splendid window displays of our stores, especially where war relics were shown. The windows attracted a great deal of attention.

Nearly everybody was disappointed in the size of the military band from Camp Custer, but no derogatory remarks as to quality of music were expressed. People expected to see a large band of 45 pieces as advertised, but the organization had dwindled down to 18 members, many of the bunch being recently mustered out of the service. The band is the oldest one in the United States, its original organization dating back to 1812, we are informed. Of course none of the original members were with the organization Saturday, but the quality of the music was excellent. Harry Pattison, formerly a printer in The Herald office, now in Y. M. C. A. work, accompanied the band from Camp Custer.

Many farmers were disappointed in not arriving in time to hear the band concert Friday evening. The concert was put on just a little too early for the convenience of the farmers.

Tecumseh had a good band for the celebration and appreciation of their good music was manifested in applause both during the parade and at the banquet.

The small boy was much in evidence during the day with his automatic, repeating cap-pistol, and many an imaginary enemy was made to "bite the dust."

Friends took a great deal of pride in Drum Major W. E. Barrett, who headed the Tecumseh band in the parade. Some old timers in band circles remarked that in uniform Bill Barrett might even arouse the envious admiration of the old time band major, Bill Ross.

FARMERS' VIEWS OF TECUMSEH

SIXTEEN ANSWER TO FOUR QUESTIONS PUT

Community House, Rest Room, Community Market, Pavements Among Improvements Favored —Interesting Community Service Sunday Night.

Sunday evening's Community service was another of the Tecumseh nights which have attracted such large crowds to the Presbyterian church this winter and spring. For this service the Rev. W. A, Rex had invited the farmers of the locality to write him letters answering the following questions

1. Wherein is Tecumseh above the average of towns of the same class?
2. What particular worthy things in this town deserve special mention?
3. Wherein is Tcumseh below the average of towns of the same class?
4. What improvements should be made and how?

He wrote to about six farmers of each of the four churches and six of whom he thought were non-church men. Out of the letters he received but sixteen replies and in one the wife joined her contribution and her ideas were novel. This lady thinks the greatest evil in our town is tobacco, many men seeming to have gone tobacco mad. They carry their little ones in their arms during Wednesday night shows and the men blow their tobacco smoke into the little helpless babies' faces as well as that of any woman who may stand near.

Every letter spoke of Tecumseh as a town above the average and nearly every one commended the good work of our churches and the Red Cross.

Some spoke of our well kept streets, and in the next paragraph told of that block on Evans street between Chicago and Logan which they say they avoid whenever possible, that it was not as good as the overage country road. In nearly all was mentioned and sometimes rather forcibly our need of paving.

Several wrote of the friendly attitude of our business men, and one suggested that the same spirit of friendliness might be brought in our churches and social circles with benefit. That it is the people who make the community. Another spoke of the lack of snobbishness. Our patriotism was repeatedly commended. One said we were superior intellectually, but too well satisfied with ourselves. Again was our spirit of friendliness mentioned by a man who has travelled much. He wrote that he had not seen Tecumseh excelled in the greeting and welcoming of strangers.

Repeatedly was the need of a rest room for the farmer and his family told. One man puts it: "There should be a room where the farmer can rest while the wife does the shopping." Another suggested the Coller house as a good rest room and community house.

Several kicked on high prices demanded here. then the next letters praised the fair deal given by our local merchants. Some said we needed a community market, others that our merchants are always ready to buy all produce brought in. One said we have too many stores of one kind, that our merchants seem to have a good understanding of prices so there is no competition among them. Our early closing hours don't seem to find favor with the farmer folk. Several spoke of the trouble. one man affirming that he must stop work in the middle of the afternoon if he wishes to do any trading here, or else work until night and after supper write a letter to a mail order house. He suggests team work among the merchants in this matter. That Adrian saw her mistake and remedied it.

To go back to the community house or rest room. We need a place for the foreign pupils to eat their dinner. the soldiers and others to rest and as a substitute for the old saloon, for many of the farmers themselves. That if we had such we wouldn't be so troubled about pool rooms. Then, too, these same pool rooms should not be allowed to run all night.

Some lamented that we needed more enforcement of the law. One put up the idea that police women would be a good thing. The curfew law was again advised and that girls under 18 should not be allowed to attend dances without their parents or guardian.

Among the variety of things suggested were a community market slaughter house, swimming pool at the gymnasium, a village hospital. the library to be open on Sundays and later at night, that the church sheds be used as a community hitching place, that the junk dealers to ordered to dispose of their heaps of rubbish, a union depot, that these community services be held both morning and evening. One says to go after these improvements as we did the Victory Loan.

One inquires why gasoline is 29c here and 23c in Detroit. Another scored the concert given by the Custer band Friday night; that they hustled through their work and reached town as the concert finished at 8 o'clock.

In one letter was this assertion "Three-fourths of the work of the Tecumseh churches is the making of money (excepting the Friends). It is no help to the spiritual uplift...The way money is raised by the church is an insult to God....The upholding of the high standard of morals is better for the church than money raising."

The retired farmer came in for his in this: "The retired farmer is harmless. With a little brushing up he might become a fairly good citizen."

As a summary, Six letters asked for paved streets, five for a community house and rest room, five for a community market, three for supervised play grounds, and two for more factories.

The last Tecumseh night will be held some time in June when the Rev. Rex will give his view of the town in a sermon "The Soul of Tecumseh."

The music for the evening was good. One selection was given by Mrs. R. S. Moore and the Temple Quartet and another number was a duet by Mrs. Eugene Billings and Fred Dickinson.

The drive being put on by the Salvation Army this week was commended by the speaker as was the noble work done by that organization on both sides of the water.

Among the announcements made at the meeting is that next Sunday night Rev. W. R. Curtis gives the Memorial address at the Baptist church, at the request of the members of Beers Post, G. A. R.

LENAWEE COUNTY WILL CELEBRATE

HONORING RETURNED SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Day and Place to be Decided Upon by Committee—Meeting of Patriotic League, County Chairmen, Mayors and Village Presidents.

At a meeting in Adrian last week of the Lenawee County Patriotic League, mayors and presidents of cities and villages in the county, it was decided to hold one mammoth county welcoming celebration for returned soldiers.

The place and date of this county welcoming event was not decided at the Adrian meeting, but July, 4 seemed to meet with the most popular favor. Devil's lake and the Lenawee fair grounds were suggested as places, but definite arrangements will be left for a committee to decide.

METHODISTS OVER THE TOP

OVER NINE THOUSAND DOLLARS PLEDGED IN CENTENARY DRIVE.

A Three Days' Record That Tecumseh People, as Well as Methodists, Are Proud of — Quota Here Eight Thousand Dollars.

The Methodists of Tecumseh, under the leadership of the pastor, the Rev. C. M. Thompson, have achieved a splendid victory in their drive of three days for their Centenary quota. Any one passing the Methodist church on Tuesday evening at about 9:30 might have heard the congregation of workers heartily singing the doxology, which was followed by a fervent prayer of thanksgiving offered by the pastor. These were followed by ice cream and cake. It surely was a happy, triumphant company.

As most people know, the Methodist Eiscopal church in the United States has undertaken the mighty task of raising $105,000,000 for a great advance movement in spreading the gospel of Christ in this momentous time in the world's history. Much reconstruction work is also to be undertaken in the devastated countries of Europe.

The quota of the Tecumseh Methodist church was nearly $8,000, to be raised in pledges covering a period of five years. Much preliminary work had been done by unit leaders in securing tithers and members of the "Covenant of Intercession." Minute men had also helped nobly in giving information for weeks past in five minute speaches in the public congregation and Sunday school.

A committee appointed by the official board, consisting of C. E. Williamson, Dr. H. R. Conklin, John S. Temple, J. O. Eaton, Fred Rosacrans, Mrs. Snell and Mrs. Virginia Conklin, ably assisted the pastor in planning the financial drive.

Ten teams of two persons each, were chosen as canvassers for pledges. Each team had their quota of names to solicit and they began their work Sunday afternoon in both town and country. Sunday evening they reported over $6,000 pledged and Tuesday night the total had swelled to the full $8,000. Then the pastor announced a bequest to the board of Foreign Missions, voluntarily made by a Tecumseh Methodist lady, which could be credited to the Centenary fund, bringing the grand total to over $9,000.00. Little wonder the Methodists were happy. Tecumseh had gone over the top again with her accustomed promptness and enthusiasm. All the town will rejoice with the Methodist in this splendid achievement.

The canvassing team who contributed so largely to the success of this campaign are, C. E. Williamson and John S. Temple; Joseph O. Eaton and Jacob Colson, W. D. Willett and O. V. Schneerer, Wilfred Waldron and Earl Updyke, Dr. E. D. Brown and W. L. Reed, Adrew Taylor and Elmer Linn, Mrs. G. R. Newsom and Mrs. E. M. Lewis, A. B. Harding and Verne Austin, Miss Vie Snedicor and Miss Igerna Croll, Miss Bertha LaPointe and Miss Hazel Miller, all of whom made fine records as canvassers and are deserving of high praise. The pastor also assisted in the canvass, doing some personal soliciting and giving general oversight to the work. Tecumseh is one of the few places in Lenawee County to go over the top early. Many others will reach the goal by next Sunday, the limit of the time allotted for the completion of the drive.

HONORING MISS ELLA CLAPP

Miss Lulu Stahler Entertains a Party of Ladies.

Miss Lulu Stahler entertained on Tuesday evening a party of young ladies honoring Miss Ella Clapp, who leaves the village the first of next week to reside in Adrian.

The group had worked together in Red Cross work and had been close friends. At six o'clock the guests were ushered to the dining room, where the table was handsomely decorated. From a huge bouquet of phlox and trilliums as a center piece trailed white ribbons to each place, there fastened to bouquets of violets and lillies of the valley. On the place cards were little couplets, a take-off on each guest, the work of Miss Lillian Cole. The supper was a picnic affair and plentifully served.

After the food was cleared away the guest of honor was invited to investigate the large bouquet and in its midst she discovered some pieces of silverware, the gift of the guests.

The following menu is to be served at the birthday supper at the Presbyterian church tonight: Baked ham, mashed potatoes, brown gravy, escalloped corn, salad, rolls, brown bread, coffee, sunshine sherbet, individual birthday cakes.—Adv. 5-22

Prof. Wallace desires that all those holding tickets for treatment will please get them in before June 15, as he has so much work ahead in Adrian that it will be impossible for him to visit Tecumseh after June 15.—adv

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. R. A. Boyd was over from Adrian Saturday.

Glenn Wyrill of Toledo visited his parents from Saturday until Monday.

Harold McClure was home from Detroit over Sunday and Monday.

Miss Marjory Taylor was with Ann Arbor friends the first of the week.

Earl Taylor of Britton has purchased a new Buick of the Garlinghouse garage.

John Kratzer was down from Jackson, a Sunday guest of his brother, Joseph and wife.

Mrs. Alfred Graves and little baby of Manchester are guests of her aunt, Mrs. Floyd Freeman.

Among the former Tecumseh boys here for the reunion of the 31st was Will Osborn of Jackson.

Miss Mildred Heesen of Toledo and Howard Davis of Detroit were Sunday guests at John Heesen's.

Mrs. C. A. Slayton has returned from Adrian to remain through the summer at her Tecumseh home on South Maiden Lane.

Mrs. A. S. Titus and Ella Titus are spending the week in Toledo and Monroe, guests of Mrs. Glenn Judson and Mrs. C. D. Klappick.

Mrs. Lawrence Ketchum and little daughter returned Monday to Toledo after a visit with her brother, F. B. Wood, and family and many other friends.

Mrs. S. C. Taylor started Monday on her return trip to her home at the "Soo". She had visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Mingay, for several weeks.

A letter from Charles Hanna written May 2nd, said he had been in a hospital at Savenay, France, since April 1st, but was about well and hoped to be home soon.

Mrs. Leigh Beach and little daughter returned the last of the week to their home near Dexter. Mrs. Beach's mother, Mrs. J. G. Hanford, accompanied them for a visit.

J. H. Smith left Monday morning for Grand Rapids to attend the Grand Council, R. & S. M., and Grand Chapter, R. A. M. in session the first of the week in that city.

Ed Gray and brother, Leon, were among the old Tecumseh boys here for the 31st reunion Saturday. The former is located on a farm at Buck Creek near Lafayette, Ind., while Leon still resides in Angola.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Broas of Albion were among the visitors who came for the big celebration Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Broas remained over Sunday as guests of Elmer Blesing, returning home Monday evening.

George Hawkes was in Detroit Monday for the big reception tendered the 32d. and to visit with comrades of his son, the late Capt. Milburn Hawkes. Out of the original company of 250 men only 47 returned to Detroit.

Farmers are taking advantage of the Alderdyce truck line by shipping stock via the overland route. Tuesday Mr. Alderdyce hauled 25 sheep to Toledo and today he took a bunch of hogs over for Leon VanValkenburg.

Mrs. Wm. Ladd returned Sunday from a visit with her daughters at Adrian and Morenci. Her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Ferguson of Adrian accompanied her and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Hay.

John Wyrill and family were guests at a dinner party given by Mrs. Wyrill's brother at Lake Ridge, honoring several birthdays that occur in the family in May. Guests were present from Petersburg, Macon and Tecumseh. Covers were laid for 20.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ahrens have removed from North Pearl street and are now located in the Keyser house on Evans street, recently purchased by them. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Derby have moved into the Davis house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Ahrens.

The fire truck was called out by an alarm Tuesday forenoon to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scofield on South Pearl street. No traces of fire except in the furnace were found, neighbors evidently mistaking smoke issuing from the chimney as coming from the roof.

Regular meeting of the I. O. O. F. Tuesday night, May 27th. Work in 3rd degree. There will be a pie supper at the close of the meeting. Each brother is requested to bring a pie. Visiting brothers welcome. Eugene Service, Noble Grand; A. S. Titus, Recording Secretary.

Circle No. 5 of the Methodist church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Reed on Pottawatamie street, Thursday afternoon, May 29th. All members are requested to be present, it also being a farewell party for Mrs. Reed. A pot luck supper will be served. Mrs. J. A. Collins, Sec.

A quiet wedding took place last Saturday evening at the Baptist parsonage when Miss Helen Hoagland and Mr. Marlse Drury were united in marriage by the Rev. W. R. Curtis. They are both popular and highly respected young people of Britton, the bride being a successful school teacher and the groom a successful farmer. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

No message came from Sgt. Earl Rector from March 21st until last Friday. His many friends had begun to fear the worst, as when he wrote on March 21st he was in a hospital, just been operated upon for an internal abscess. Friday's letter to his sister, Mrs. Guy Nemire, gave him still unable to sit up but improving, so the terrible worry is over and all are planning for his return home soon.

Notice — Anyone having bills against the reunion Saturday are to leave same with J. Lester Coller.

THE MAY PARTY

A Pleasing Social Function—Net Proceeds Given Salvation Army.

The May party given Tuesday evening by the younger society ladies of the village was a very pretty affair. The decorations of Witherell hall were simple but very attractive. Miss Marian Rosocrans was in charge of this feature of the entertainment and her exquisite taste was evident. Great boughs of lilacs hung from the ceiling and nearly covered the side walls, and from these floated gaily colored butterflies.

The orchestra, composed of Mrs. Geysel and Mrs. Cassidy of Toledo and W. L. Coller, was hidden behind more branches of lilacs.

Refreshments were served and in all the one hundred attending voted it a charming evening.

Quite a few of the men just out of service were in attendance and their presence made it still more delightful for the home folks.

Among the out of town people present were Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Smith, Misses Edell Shields and Gertrude Heinzman of Adrian, R. J. Bidwell of San Francisco, Mr. McLaughlin of Toledo, Linton Diamond of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Faunt Lenardson of Britton.

A neat sum of money remains after all debts are paid and this goes to the Salvation Army fund.

Church Notes.

A surprise was given Pastor Curtis Sunday morning when a delegation from the Manitou Beach Baptist church, of which he was formerly pastor, came in with their troop of boys. All remained through Sunday school. Then the pastor and family were told to get in with them and were taken to the river bank, where all enjoyed the contents of well filled boxes.

About 40 young people were at Fred Sheldon's Friday evening at a box social. Plenty of automobiles were provided for the transportation of all. We had a host of fun, as well as making a good sum for the treasury.

The missionary meeting at Mrs. Ella Sheldon's was well attended and good interest taken.

Friends Church.

Rev. Edward Escolme, Minister.

10:00. Divine worship. Sermon topic, "Well Done." This is the pastor's final word in the present Centenary campaign. He is desirous that all members and friends of the church should hear it.

11:30. Sunday school. A great session is assured.

6:30. Epworth League.

7:30. Community service in the Baptist church, with Memorial day sermon by Pastor Curtis.

We are justly proud of our success in the Centenary drive. We sure went over the top in fine shape in three days, when we might have taken eight. Our teams worked well in soliciting and our people responded nobly in giving. Our people not only "die well" as the great Wesley, our illustrious founder, once said, but they also live and work well.

MEETING FOR TRUNK ROADS

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER FRANK ROGERS

To Be in Tecumseh Saturday to Discuss Imrovement of Monroe Turnpike—Plan to Build From Britton West to Jackson County Line

All persons interested in the improvement of Monroe turnpike, are urged to meet at Hotel Barrett, Tecumseh, Saturday at 1:30 p. m. State Highway Commissioner Frank Rogers will be here to discuss the building project with all interested parties.

Hon. Charles A. Evans, state representative from this district, was in Tecumseh Tuesday and requested that The Herald ask interested parties to meet as mentioned above. A hall to accommodate all will probably be procured for a meeting.

It is proposed to construct a state highway from Britton west to the Jackson county line, thus making connection with other improved roads that will be of invaluable benefit to all who need access to market centers the year around.

Mr. Evans stated that in all probability the federal and state aid will take care of 75% per cent of the cost of construction of this road, leaving 25% to be spread on assessment.

A telephone from County Road Commissioner Taylor of Tipton yesterday urges a good attendance at the meeting.

No More Shooting

SAYS COMMANDING OFFICER OF STATE POLICE

Col. Roy C. Vandercook Visits George Church in Regard to Recent Shooting Affair.

Col. R. C. Vandercook, commander of the Michigan state police patrolling border counties for bootleggers, paid a visit this morning to G. H. Church and Don F. Smith, who on May 14 were shot at by the state police near Petersburg on their return home from Toledo. Mr. Church was shot through the leg and gun powder lodging in his face from another shot.

Mr. Church informs us that Col. Vandercook stated that he was very sorry the incident happened and that there would be no more shotting by the state police.

The state police were organized first to guard railroad stations, bridges and grain elevators during the war and later on were drawn on to help enforce the liquor law and to prevent liquor from being brought into Michigan. Mr. Vandercook also stated, Mr. Church says, that he was obliged to accept men unfit for war and that he was as fast as possible replacing these men with a more reliable class.

Knights of Pythias

TO ENTERTAIN RETURNED SOLDIERS OF WORLD WAR

Banquet and Program Six O'clock May 30—Judge B. L. Hart Speaker of Evening.

Tecumseh Knights of Pythias will entertain returned soldiers of the World war at their lodge rooms Friday evening, May 30, the festivities to begin with a six o'clock banquet, followed by a good program.

Circuit Judge B. L. Hart of Adrian, himself a loyal Pythian, has been secured as speaker of the evening.

All boys that were in the service are cordially invited to attend.

Tecumseh Pythians have had this entertainment in mind for some time, but postponed the welcoming event to await the arrival of more service men.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Williamson were in Detroit Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Jane Lochner of Adrian was a Sunday guest of Miss Anna Schreder.

Mrs. A. E. Reason and children of London, Ont., are guests of her father, J. J. Freeman.

Walter Dole arrived in Ypsilanti yesterday with the 107th field signal battalion. He enlisted two years ago this month and was sent overseas in January, 1918. He has relatives here and at Adrian.

At a meeting of the Royal Neighbors last evening Mrs. Chas. Hooten, jr., was initiated into the order. Four Clinton Neighbors were present and extended an invitation for the Tecumseh ladies to be their guests Saturday evening. They are to go to Clinton on the 5:35.

Donald Stiltz, a lad living near Saline, while hunting eggs in the hay loft of his father's barn Wednesday evening, fell through to the floor beneath. He cut his head badly and tore the scalp loose from the skull. He was hustled to a Saline doctor and the injury dressed. He was feeling fine this morning and in Tecumseh with his father.

Donald, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Goldsmith died Thursday after an illness of several weeks' duration, following an attack of influenza. Beside the parents, surviving are one brother, two sisters and the grandmother, Mrs. Mary Cook. The funeral was held from the home in North Franklin Sunday, Rev. J. G. Widdifield officiating. Mrs. John Clark of Clinton sang a couple of beautiful solos. The burial was in Brookside. Many Tecumseh relatives attended the funeral.

Memorial Day Observance.

Decoration day services will be held Friday, May 30th, 1919, at 1:30 o'clock at the M. E. church in Ridgeway. A fine program has been prepared and all are especially urged to be present and with hearts filled with gratitude pay due homage to our honored dead. The school children are invited to participate in these services and special seats will be reserved for them. Chas. Foote has been chosen president of the day and will announce the following program:

Music, National Hymn—Ladies' chorus.
Prayer—Rev. J. C. DeRemer.
Music—Orchestra.
Solo—Mrs. O. R. Tillyer.
Recitation — Miss Gertrude Baker.
Music—Boys' chorus.
Reading—Miss Doris Pilbeam.
Solo—Mrs. Francis Stone.
Remarks—Rev. Combellack.
Address—Att'y Clarke E. Baldwin.
Song—"America."
Benediction—Rev. Samuel Tamblyn.

After these services a procession will be formed to the cemetery where the graves of the departed heros will be decorated.

Let us make this a day long to be remembered, full of thought, thanksgiving and rejoicing to God.

Junior Reception.

Thursday evening, May 16th, the Juniors of the Britton High school entertained the Seniors and faculty at the home of Miss Clara Smith. The tables were placed in the form of an L and covers were laid for thirty-six.

The tables decorations were long stemmed roses and the class colors of the Seniors and Juniors, used in many ways. The rooms were profusely trimmed with apple blossoms and the class colors. The three course supper was served under the efficient management of Mrs. Arthur Underwood, assisted by four boys of the Sophomore class as waiters and was a success in every detail. At the close of the banquet Miss Clara Smith passed around the table, carrying a basket of roses, giving a cream and a red rose to each guest, gifts from the Juniors. Following this came the program, as given below:

Toastmaster — Mr. R. I. Ganfield.
Welcome—Elmer Eberhart.
Response—Reuben Young.
Solo—Mrs. O. R. Tillyer.
The Seniors—Clara Smith.
The Juniors—Lilah Preston.
Piano duet—Florence Beal, Lucile Lowe.
The Faculty—Mary Adams.
Britton school—Miss Rose Gibson.

A social hour followed, after which came the "home going," each guest declaring they had enjoyed "the best time ever."

Mrs. L. S. Palmer Passes Away in California.

Ervin Palmer received a telegram Monday from California, stating that his mother, Mrs. L. S. Palmer, had passed away the evening before. Her sudden death came as a great shock to the people in this vicinity where she had lived so many years. She underwent a serious operation for the removal of gall stones a few weeks ago but had recovered from that sufficiently so that she had expected to start home the day the telegram was received telling of her death.

She is survived by her three sons, Arthur and Cyrus of California and Erom, who lives south of town, four grandchildren, besides many relatives and friends.

Arrangements for the funeral await the arrival of the remains before being completed. Obituary later.

Death of Wm. Underwood.

Wm. Underwood, aged 76, one of our highly respected citizens, passed away Monday evening at 6:15, death resulting from kidney trouble. He had been ailing for several weeks and for the past few days failed rapidly. He is survived by his wife, five sons—Arthur, John, Clayborne, Amos, and Clarence; four daughters—Mrs. Addie Main of Lansing, Mrs. Phena Exelby, Mrs. Lavie Zeluff, Mrs. Fern Smith, Mrs. Kate Curry; one step-daughter, Mrs. Libbie Bachman of Adrian; one step-son, Glen Underwood of Detroit; twenty-three grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren and one brother, G. W. Underwood.

The funeral services were held Wednesday at 1 o'clock at the house, with burial in Ridgeway. Full account next week.

Death of Charles VanCise.

Friends here have received word of the death of Chas. VanCise, which occurred last Tuesday of blood poisoning, at his home in Toledo. He and his family were former residents of this place, going to their new home in Toledo only in a few months ago. He leaves to mourn his departure his wife, one son, Jesse, one daughter Ruth and one little grandchild. The funeral services were held Thursday with burial at that place.

Christian Church Notes.

The services next Sunday morning will be the nature of a Memorial service.

Sunday evening Mr. Harlan Keran will show a number of views of France. This will be a service of special interest to both old and young.

M. P. Church Notes.

Sunday morning the pastor will hold a patriotic service in memory of our departed heroes. Special program is being arranged to which all are invited.

The "Poverty social" that has been planned will be held this (Thursday) evening in the high school gym. All are invited; wear your old togs, or else be fined. A cafeteria lunch will be served.

Don't forget Sunday school and C. E. meeting at regular time.

Britton News Notes.

Mrs. Jas. Craig, who recently underwent an operation for cancer, is getting along fine. Her family were over to Ann Arbor Wednesday to see her.

Miss Pearl Linton is home from Detroit for a few days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Linton.

Miss Lillian Russell is home for the week end from Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bortel and children visited relatives in Grand Rapids, O., Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Oliver were in Detroit Monday and witnessed the big parade.

The Misses Edna Curry, Helen Hoagland, Julia Craig and Doris Pilbeam are home enjoying a vacation, as their schools have closed.

Mrs. S. S. Main of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bachman of Adrian and Mrs. Ray Smith of Detroit were called here the last of the week by the illness of their father, Wm. Underwood.

Geo. Lee and family of Detroit were guests the first of the week of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lee.

Rural School Grounds Will be Beautified.

East Lansing, Mich.—As a step in furthering the state-wide movement to improve and beautify the rural school grounds, a bulletin giving plans and rules for planting trees, shrubs and plants, together with a complete list of varieties which are adapted for the purpose, has just been published by the department of horticulture at M. A. C. The use of native plants is urged, and directions for digging and transferring to the school grounds are given. The work should be done as early in the spring as possible.

The planting of home grounds is considered in other bulletins, which may be obtained from the Director of the Experiment Station, East Lansing.

GOOD JOBS FOR DISABLED YANKS

Physical Requirements to be Waived by Civil Service Commission in Favor of Men Injured in Military or Naval Service.

Washington, D. C., May 21, 1919.—An executive order recently issued by the President and received by cable amends the Federal civil service rules so as to permit the U. S. Civil Service Commission to waive the physical requirements under certain conditions in favor of men who were injured in the military or naval service.

The civil service regulations specify certain physical defects which debar from all examinations and other defects which will debar from certain examinations. These regulations are based upon the requirements of the service as established by the several department heads.

Upon the recommendation of the Commission, after consultation with the Federal Board for Vocational Education and the U. S. Employees' Compensation Commission, the President issued an Executive Order, as follows:

"Provided, that the Commission may, in its discretion, exempt from the physical requirements established for any position as disabled and honorably discharged soldier, sailor, or marine upon the certification of the Federal Board for Vocational Education that he has been specially trained for and has passed a practical test demonstrating his physical ability to perform the duties of the class of positions in which employment is sought."

In submitting its recommendation to the President the Civil Service Commission says: "Where it is apparent to this Commission that his (the disabled soldier's, sailor's, or marine's) physical condition is such that he would not ordinarily be accepted, the case will be referred to the Federal Board for Vocational Education. That board will then decide whether it is practicable to educate him for the position sought. If considered practicable, the rehabilitation and education will be given and when completed certification of that fact will be made to this Commission. Where the Board does not consider it desirable to attempt the education for the position sought other positions will be considered and suggested to him, but he will not be admitted to the one for which his physical condition constitutes an irremediable bar."

Vigor

SUCCESS IS ACHIEVED by vigorous men and women. When one is lacking in strength and endurance, when good health is wanting, when physical power is at low ebb, it is impossible to accomplish one's work.

One of the causes of ill health and low vitality is the improper functioning of the kidneys. Trouble results when they fail to eliminate waste and poisonous matter from the system, and rheumatic pains, backache, stiff joints, sore muscles, and other symptoms quickly follow.

Foley Kidney Pills

banish effects of kidney and bladder trouble by removing the cause. They are healing and curative. They tone up and strengthen the weakened or diseased organs.

Not a Strike, But A Lockout

Toledo, Ohio, Wednesday, May 21, 1919.

Editor Tecumseh Herald:—

Believing that an erroneous impression has been created by certain reports circulated in regards to the Willys-Overland and Auto-lite Labor trouble, it is no more than right that a few of the facts be given the readers of The Herald.

In the first place there was no strike at either of the plants mentioned above. It was a lock-out ordered by the officials of the companies because employees refused to work three additional hours a week without overtime, and because the companies refused to recognize other working conditions, among them better wages, asked by the locked out men.

The locked out men have the sympathy of every labor organization in the city of Toledo. These organisations have studied the conditions relative to the trouble and are with the locked out men and backing them morally and financially. They recognize that the trouble seems to be the result of a plot by the Merchants and Manufacturers to lower wages and lengthen hours at the expense of the laboring classes.

IT'S NOT YOUR HEART
IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. A majority of the ills afflicting people today can be traced back to kidney trouble.

The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filterers, the purifiers, of your blood.

Kidney disease is usually indicated by weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago.

All these derangements are nature's signals to warn you that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammations and destroys the germs which have caused it. Do not wait until tomorrow. Go to your druggist today and insist on GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In twenty-four hours you should feel health and vigor returning and will bless the day you first heard of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil.

After you feel that you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep in first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks.

Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. Three sizes. Money refunded if they do not help you.

OBITUARY

Ransom W. Mills.

Ransom W. Mills was born June 24, 1844, on the home farm in Franklin, now owned by Linus Fridd. He was the son of Ebenezer and Anne Mills, pioneers from England. When only 19 years of age, the Civil War broke out and he enlisted together with that noble band of Franklin boys on July 30, 1862, in Co. E, 18th Michigan. He was in the service the full three years, being mustered out June 26, 1865 in Nashville, Tenn. Returning to his home in Franklin he on February 13, 1866, married Miss Louisa M. Bunting and they purchased the farm near Evans Lake which was their home for many years. There the children were born and grew to manhood and woman hood. After the young people had left home, it was too lonely so the couple bought a cozy little home in Tipton and moved from the farm. Here the good wife died and a couple of years after Mr. Mills married Mrs. Betsey McNeil of Tecumseh, March 21, 1907. Wishing to be near Mrs. Mills' daughter, Mrs. George McNeil, who was an invalid, the older couple moved to Tecumseh about four years ago. Mrs. Mills passed away a little over a year ago and Mr. Mills daughter, Mrs. Mertie Campbell, has since kept house for him and cared for him lovingly. Death came Thursday morning, quietly as he had lived. Some years ago he suffered a slight stroke and has never been well since, but this spring came a gradual giving-out of the forces of the body. He suffered but little pain but so often spoke of being tired. He was only confined to his bed a few days and the end came so peacefully, truly a beautiful ending to a clean life.

In 1868 he united with the Tipton M. E. church and he attended that church both in Tipton and Tecumseh faithfully. An honorable, upright man, a loyal friend, a loving husband and father, he is greatly missed by a large circle of friends, including the comrades of Beers Post, but it is in the little home the loss is most keenly felt.

He leaves to mourn beside the one daughter, two sons, Philo, of Toledo, and John of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. Mason Camburn of Tecumseh and Mrs. James Cottrell of Adrian.

WHEREAS, default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the 15th day of March, A. D., 1915, executed and delivered by Benjamin F. Evilsizer and Josephine Evilsizer, husband and wife, of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, to Veva Hardcastle, of the same place, and which said mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the County of Lenawee, Michigan, in liber 195 of mortgages, on page 64, on the 16th day of March, A. D. 1916, at 8 o'clock A. M., and whereas, the amount claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date of this notice is the sum of Four Hundred Twenty-five (425) Dollars of principal and interest, and the further sum of Eighteen and 75-100 (18.75) Dollars by said mortgagee paid for taxes upon premises hereinafter described, and the further sum of two and 86-100 (2.86) Dollars by said mortgagee paid for insurance of buildings upon premises hereinafter described, making the total amount due on said mortgage, at the date of this notice, the sum of Four Hundred Forty-six and 61-100 (446.61) Dollars; and no suit or proceeding at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt now remaining secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof, whereby the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative:

Now therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of said power of sale, and in pursuance of the statue in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the amount of said principal and interest now due on said mortgage, and interest to accrue thereon, together with said sum so paid for taxes and insurance, and the costs of this foreclosure proceeding (including an attorney fee as provided by law, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the east front door of the Court house, in the City of Adrian, in said County of Lenawee, on the 30th day of June, A. D. 1919, at ten (10) o'clock in the forenoon of that day: which said premises are described in said mortgage as follows, to-wit: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate and being in the Village of Tecumseh, in the County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, and more particularly described as follows: Bounded by beginning in the east line of Pearl street at northwest corner of lot formerly owned by Joseph Wilson, and now as is supposed by Snell, and running thence north about four (4) rods to south line of Bidwell street; thence east about ten (10) rods to west line of L. S. & M. S. depot grounds; thence south in west line of said Depot grounds four (4) rods to said Snell lot; thence west ten (10) rods to place of beginning.

In recognition of the noble work done by the Salvation Army in the World war and as their treasury is now depleted, a drive is on this week over the state for this splendid organization. Tecumseh's quota is $500, of which much more than one-half is raised and it is planned to go "over the top" by Saturday night. Many soldiers have helped most liberally, saying they more than got it all back while in France. At both banks have been collectors and they will be at their stations the remainder of the week.

David C. Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Watson, who enlisted in the service in February, 1917, has received his honorable discharge and arrived home Tuesday. He was sent from Panama Canal to Camp Custer to be mustered out of service, leaving Panama May 2d. He has been in the signal corps since his enlistment and since being in the Panama his work has been much with carrier pigeons. He says the heat is now 104 in the shade down there. This terrific heat has been his worst trouble and especially do the boys suffer on their hikes. Then they have nothing to drink but the water from the jungle and that brings on malaria. His arrival home is especially fortunate at this time on account of the ill health of his mother. His many friends are glad to welcome him home.

Charles Ruthruff and family of Jackson were guests of Miss Bessie Pulver, Mrs. Ruthruff's sister, Sunday.

The annual Memorial sermon for the G. A. R. will be delivered by Rev. W. R. Curtis at the Community service in the Baptist church Sunday evening. The Ladies' band will furnish music—the first appearance in public as a musical organization. All soldiers, old and young, and their friends are cordially invited to attend the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Waring arrived in Tecumseh Wednesday from Washington, where Roger has been attached to the construction division in the heating system for quite a little over a year. Enroute they visited Philadelphia, Atlantic City, New York and Niagara Falls, coming to Detroit from the Falls by boat. They plan to return to Washington about June 15.

ENDS LIFE BY SHOOTING

THOMAS BOYD CARRIES OUT SUICIDE PLAN

Shoots Self in Head and Above Heart—Leaves Letter to Coroner Stating Inquest Not Necessary.

Thomas Boyd, a well-to-do resident of Tecumseh, terminated his life Monday morning by shooting himself with a revolver.

Mrs. Boyd had been over to see her sister, Mrs. Robt. Owens, who lives just around the corner and recently broke her arm. Returning before 11 o'clock Mrs. Boyd busied herself starting dinner. Seeing Mr. Boyd sitting quietly in his chair she supposed him asleep and did not disturb him. After a few moments she passed in front of him and saw the ghastly mark on his temple where a bullet had entered—and in his hand tightly clutched was his revolver. She screamed and nearby neighbors ran to her aid. Dr. H. H. Hammel was called but found life was extinct. He also found that another shot had entered just above the heart.

Mrs. Boyd collapsed and has been in a serious condition.

That Mr. Boyd had planned carefully the deed was evident. On a bed was found clothing all laid out for the burial. A new suit of clothes and other garments had been recently purchased and not worn. A letter addressed to the coroner, dated May 1st, was found sticking in the door to the sideboard. It said an inquest was unnecessary as he planned to do the deed.

The only reason imagined is that he was growing feeble with the ills which come with age as he was 78 years old, and for several years his eyes had troubled him. He had a constant fear of blindness and had told his neighbor, Mr. Cutting, who is absolutely blind, that he simply could not stand it to be blind and would never live that long.

Mr. Boyd was a machinist at Peoria, Ill., before coming to Tecumseh which he and Mrs. Boyd did about twenty years ago.

Mr. Boyd has a sister living in Ireland.

The funeral of Mr. Boyd was held from the home yesterday afternoon, the Rev. W. A. Rex officiating. The Masonic burial service was given at the grave in Brookside. The bearers were Alva Spayde, James Lowry, Will Schreder, Will Gibson, Wesley Keyser and G. B. Garlinghouse.

STREET OIL ALL SPOKEN FOR

L. E. Temple Purchases Balance Left From West Chicago Street.

Some of the residents of West Chicago street will be relieved to learn that they will not be held responsible for the entire car load of oil ordered for oiling purposes.

The original order was for a car of 8,000 gallons, but Tecumseh had to be satisfied with a smaller car, containing 6,500 gallons.

Leon Temple, of the L. E. Temple & Co., has spoken for all the oil left after the application on West Chicago street, which will be used to lay the dust on the streets near the property of Mr. Temple and the company, and the plan includes oiling Mill street from the intersection of the Evans street railroad crossing north past the property of St. Peter's church.

So far no other petitions have been offered the council residents of other streets will either have to put up with dust, or use the garden hose.

There may be an opportunity to secure the Adrian oil wagon about the middle of July and when the people feel satisfied with results obtained from the first oiling more petitions may be presented the council.

If the work is properly done it will only be a question of time when all streets of the town will be oiled. Chuck holes should be carefully filled with good gravel some time before the oil is applied to get the best results.

MISS MARGARET BAKER BECOMES SOLDIER'S BRIDE

Left Tecumseh to Visit Mother in Old Kentucky Home.

The many friends of Miss Margaret Baker, who for several months has made her home at the Presbyterian manse, were astonished to receive the last of the week cards announcing her marriage at Elliston, Ky., to a Mr. Wheeler, a childhood friend.

Miss Baker had only a little over a week before left Tecumseh to visit her mother and the mountain home in Kentucky after being in Michigan some half dozen years. She had never spoken of having a lover in the Blue Grass state, so her friends here are the more surprised.

She writes that her husband has just returned from service in France with a bad scar across his forehead as a souvenir of one of the fearful engagements which the southern troops fought.

The friends of Miss Baker extend best wishes for her happiness in this new life and hope the home which she now has "for her own" for which she so often expressed a wish may be a happy one.

CONGRESSMAN MICHENER IN PARIS

BELIEVES AMERICA HAS NO BUSINESS IN THE FUTURE QUARRELS OF EUROPE

"There is No Soldier Like the American Soldier," Writes Our Congressman — Our Soldiers Should be Returned at Earlist Possible Moment, He States.

The following letter was written by Congressman Earl C. Michener from Paris to Bert Gray in explanation of his inability to appear in Tecumseh as a speaker at the annual reunion of the 31st Michigan May 17.

Congressman Michener went to Europe some time ago to get personal insight into conditions over there to enable him to act intelligently on questions that may arise in his official duties at Washington.

The letter is as follows:

"Hotel Madison, Paris,
May 2, 1919.

Mr. Gray, Tecumseh, Mich.
Dear Sir and Comrade:

Some time ago you spoke to me about my speaking at our annual reunion. I told you that I would surely be present unless I was in Europe at the time. I have been over here for some time and the way it looks now I will not be able to return home before the last of the month, therefore I cannot be present on May 17th. I regret this exceedingly.

However, my visit here is giving me an insight into conditions generally, and I will be better prepared for my work in the coming Congress. As I see the American soldiers here in France and Germany I am reminded of our days in Cuba. There is no soldier like the American soldier. One needs to come over here in order to appreciate home. Our boys have done their duty well and I believe that they should be returned home at the earliest possible moment. The more I see here the more I am convinced that America has no business in the future quarrels of Europe.

I would ask that you remember me to the boys and hoping that you will have a splendid meeting, I am,

Sincerely and fraternally yours
Earl C. Michener.

ENJOY BIRTHDAY PARTY

Clerks of he Webster Anderson Co. Celebrate Anniversary of One of the Force.

Monday night the clerks from The Webster Anderson Co's. store spent a very happy evening with one of their number, Mrs. May Mobbs. The party was held honoring the birthday of Homer Hanham. A picnic supper was no small part of the fun and a great birthday cake graced the center of the table. Then came races and stunts. That those clerks can move some was proven in one race led by Lester Heesen, which resulted disastrously. Lester came around the house pell mell and as he made a dive over Mrs. Mobb's flower garden, the Puffer dog, not understanding the rules of the game, grabbed him. Those dandy new trousers were sadly torn and Lester backed out of the party.

In spite of the accident Lester joins the rest in reporting one splendid time. Those present were Mrs. J. F. DeSnelder and little daughter, of Columbus, Mrs. R. W. Puffer and two sons, Mrs. Eleanor Hardenburgh. Mrs. Clement Hardenburgh, Mrs. Albert Anderson and son Erwin. Misses Lizzie Beamish, Alice Hardenburgh, and Josephine Saums. Lester Heesen and Homer Hanham.

MOSES COMFORT

Well Known Resident of Raisin Township Died Monday.

Moses Comfort, one of the old residents of Raisin Valley and relative to many Tecumseh people, passed away Monday morning at his home near the Raisin Valley seminary. Death resulted from the ills which come with age, he being 83 years old.

Mr. Comfort was born in Brooks county, Pa., and came here in 1840 with his parents. His father built the house on the corner beyond the Sutton farm, known more recently as the Cutting farm. Here the family were brought up and when grown to manhood and married he bought what is known as the Thos. Mosher farm about half way between Tecumseh and Adrian. This was his home until failing health forced him to sell the larger farm and then he bought the place on which he spent his declining years. He is the last of his family but leaves three sons to carry on the record of this exemplary gentleman—Charles whose home is in Raisin Valley, Edgar now living in Saginaw and Alfred of Wilmington, Maryland.

Thus we record the passing of one of the older generations of the Friends, one who helped make this society so prominent in the country.

The funeral was held from the home yesterday afternoon with the burial at the Raisin Valley cemetery where lay so many of this prominent family.

I am paying the highest prices for eggs and poultry at my store. 216 Chicago street. John Oneil. Adv 5-29

Decoration Day

EXERCISES AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Rev. C. M. Thompson Delivers Memorial Address — Ladies' Band Furnishes Music.

The annual Decoration Day program will be given at the high school auditorium tomorrow at 2 o'clock. J. D. Shull is to be president of the day and the following program is planned:

Selection—Ladies' Band.
Invocation—Rev. J. G. Widdifield.
Vocal solo—Harold Lowry.
Lincoln's Gettysburg address—Maj. H. H. Hammel.
Oration, "War Clouds and the Silver Lining" — Rev. C. M. Thompson.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Stella Brush Billings.
Cornet solo—Lester J. Coller.
Benediction.

The line will then form for the march to the cemetery.

Line of March.

The following formation for the march to the cemetery has been arranged by the marshal of the day, A. B. Harding:

Marshal and aids.
Ladies' Band.
Returned soldiers and sailors of the World war, High School Cadets, Boy Scouts, floral car, president and speaker of the day, Sons of Veterans—all acting acting as escort to the Grand Army of the Republic. Followed by the T. B. A. and members of the village council.

Citizens are requested to fall in line and join the parade.

Croix de Guerre

FRENCH BRAVERY EMBLEM FOR WILFRED ORR

To be Given to Miss Hessie Orr, Sister of Tecumseh Boy Making Supreme Sacrifice.

Miss Hessie Orr has received a copy of the recommendation from the commanding officer of Co. B. to the commanding general of the 32d Division, asking that the croix de guerre be sent to her as next of kin to her brother, Wilfred A. Orr.

The time and place of the brave boy's death was Aug. 29, 1918, at 5 a. m., in a field between Valprez Farm and Juvign, near the railroad. The attack was supporting tanks of the 10th French Army by volunteers from the 1st Bn., 126th Inf., to displace machine gun nests. The tanks advanced over a front of 200 yards under heavy machine gun and artillery fire, followed in support by the volunteer infantry. Wilfred, together with seven other men volunteered to follow a tank in an attack on strong machine gune nests and fought fiercely, causing great losses to the enemy until finally killed by the enemy machine gun fire.

These facts were obtained from statements by 1st Lieut. Leland E. Wheeler, in charge of the operation.

And so does recognition come of the bravery of one of our lads who lay down his life freely for his country and loved ones. Yet coming as it does upon the arrival of Co. B. home again, is a sad co-incidence.

LENAWEE COUNTY FIELD MEET

Large Tecumseh Delegation Attends.

Over fifty of the Tecumseh high school were in Blissfield Saturday for the 15th annual Field Day of Lenawee County. The stunts were given at the Ellis playgrounds, with O. W. Laidlaw of Tecumseh referee. For all we sent to Blissfield such a large, enthusiastic delegation, the local contestants were not as successful in the stunts as some of them from the smaller schools. Britton's young folks walked off with many trophies, her "Polly" Clark being an excellent all-round athlete. Homer Hanham won third in the pole vault, Glen Crittenden third in the ball throwing. Robert Moore brought home the cup in tennis singles and the girls basket ball team also were given a cup. There appeared no team to play against them so they organized another team among the Tecumseh girls and gave an exhibition game.

If the Tecumseh youngsters were not so successful in the contests, they had the best kind of a time and will be ready always to go to Blissfield.

GENTLEMEN GIVE DANCE

In Return for May Party Given by Ladies Last Week.

The return dance given last evening by the gentlemen was a very pleasant affair. Witherell hall was gracefully decorated with maple boughs and great armsloads of lilacs which cast their perfume deliciously. The wall and ceiling were draped with boughs and an arbor formed the entrance to the hall. The orchestra platform was a rustic bower made of logs, with boughs and flowers, and butterflies floating between. These decorations were the work of a party of cadets led by Robert Moore, Jr.

A dainty lunch of sandwiches, cake and coffee was served in the dining room, Mrs. Mattis catering. A great basket of flowers formed the center piece at the table.

The music was furnished by Mesdames Cassidy and Geisel of Toledo assisted by Will Coller.

PAVED HIGHWAY FOR TURNPIKE

NOTHING ELSE SHOULD BE CONSIDERED FOR NEW ROAD

Opinion of State Highway Commissioner Rogers and Men at Enthusiastic Meeting Saturday —Tecumseh and Britton to Have Choice of Pavement Through Villages.

A paved highway for Monroe turnpike from the Jackson county line to the center of Britton village is the plan for the improvement that will meet with the hearty approval of every individual interested in the good roads movement. As this means a pavement through the heart of Tecumseh, and such a pavement as the people of our village wish to choose, Tecumseh will hail the improvement with delight, especially as 75% of the cost will be taken care of by federal aid and the state.

Saturday's Big Road Meeting.

Grange hall was nearly filled Saturday afternoon with men, mostly farmers of Tecumseh, Clinton, Ridgeway and Franklin townships interested in the good roads movement, to meet with State Highway Commissioner Frank Rogers, Representative Charles A. Evans and County Road Commissioners Taylor, Hodges and Rorick.

State Highway Commissioner Frank Rogers opened the meeting about two o'clock, remarking that he was pleasantly surprised to meet so many men, that he only expected to meet the members of the four township boards interested in the improvement of Monroe turnpike—Tecumseh, Ridgeway, Franklin and Cambridge.

Nearly two years ago proceedings were started to improve Monroe turnpike, the first meeting was held, but our country entering the war prevented going ahead with the work. Since that time there has been passed legislation so favorable to road building that puts an entirely different complexion on road construction. This spring the state of Michigan has available seven millions of dollars of federal money that must be met dollar for dollar by the state. We have reached a point where we must proceed. It is proposed to improve Monroe turnpike from the center of Britton village west to the Jackson county line. [illegible] plans ready [illegible] and to build [illegible] must decide [illegible] proceed under the Covert act and the federal aid law combined. If we proceed under the combined acts the federal government pays one-half of the cost, the state one-fourth, leaving only one-fourth of the cost to be taken care of by the county and townships inerested. In that case we should not temporize with anything short of pavement on this road. This trunk line cannot be extended further into the county. Chicago turnpike is a separate trunk line and must be taken up separately.

If we wish to proceed under the combined Covert and federal aid acts we will have to wait until about the middle of August. We can go through the preliminaries, get out the petition, advertise the road, etc., and push the work through in 1920. The Covert act is so elastic that the villages of Britton and Tecumseh could get wider pavement. In Farmington, explained Mr. Rogers, a 50-ft pavement was built through the business blocks, 30-foot pavement through the village and then cut down to the 18-foot pavement. He advised an 18-foot pavement for the Monroe turnpike.

Mr. Rogers called upon Representative Charles A. Evans, of the state roads and bridges committee. Mr. Evans stated it his belief that road improvement is of most vital importance to Lenawee county. There were 82 other counties in the state clamoring for recognition and he considered Mr. Rogers' coming to Lenawee a great favor to the county.

The present legislature has passed more good legislation than any previous legislature. He believed we should get all we can while the getting is good. "It is up to you men to get into the game and get all the mileage you can, for it is uncertain what the next legislature or federal government will do. I believe every farming community, village or city that is not now alert to road improvement will be at a great disadvantage in the near future. Motor truck transportation is now only in its fancy and yet 800 tons of freight pass out of Detroit daily now. The farmer's transportation platform will be at his own door in the near future." Mr. Evans further stated that he believed we should take up petitions where they were left off when war was declared. He congratulated Lenawee county upon its road commissioners.

Mr. Rogers informed the Clinton delegation, of whom there was a good representation present, that the old Chicago turnpike is an interstate highway and they could get that through any time they are ready for it. "Now is your time," he said. Mr. Rogers invited any present to ask questions. A few were asked, one in regard to date of petitions, which he said could not be dated before August 15, and the petitions west are addressed to the state highway commissioner and must go to the county road commissioners. He called upon the county road commissioners for remarks, first upon Chairman Taylor, then Commissioners Rorick and Hodges. Each responded and expressed

BIRTHDAY SUPPER

Enjoyable and Successful Event a Credit to Westminster Guild.

The Westminster Guild put on a very pretty supper Thursday. It was their annual birthday party and was as popular as before. Small tables represented the months in their decorations, that of January, the centerpiece a large cake of ice surrounded in snowy cotton with dolls sliding down hill. February's table was trimmed in hearts, March's held a golden harp (in honor of St. Patrick) and much shamrock. April's trim was of violets and other spring flowers, May's centerpiece was a May-pole with dolls holding the ribbons. In June were the roses, a great bunch being the centerpiece. On July's table was a miniature cannon and flags. For August was a mirrored lake, pile of sand as a bank, and the swimmers. September's table was gay with autumn leaves. October's bore a great basket of fruit, November a pumpkin and gay candles and the December table with a Christmas tree.

The guests were to eat at their birthday table and this broke up the stiffness on first entering so every one had a very happy evening. Many over 100 were served.

Editorial Comment

Tomorrow, Memorial day, the gray and dwindling ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic will again make its annual pilgrimage to the cities of the dead, to place flowers on the graves in memory of their departed comrades—men who died that the nation might live.

The day of marching for these grand old soldiers is past, and instead of the proud step to beating drums of a few years ago the few remaining boys in blue are now content to ride in automobiles to the resting place of their former comrades in the great conflict they won for the preservation of the Union.

Memorial day this year should be observed with greater interest and devotion than ever before, not only to honor the memory of departed heroes of the Civil war, but also in honor of the few that still live to place flowers on the graves of their former associates.

This year there is also a new significance to the day. When we reflect that only a short year ago the war monster of the world all but had the war won in his favor; the tide had not yet turned and the future of the world safety was in grave doubt. With this memory fresh in our minds we as individuals and a nation cannot review the dark prospects of a year ago without a feeling of greatest thankfulness and gratitude that the tide was turned and that the greatest of all wars terminated in a victory for the cause of humanity and democracy.

Many little wooden crosses near the battle fields of France are mute testimonials that the nation should be thankful for its latest defenders, and many a prayer of thankfulness will be offered for those that made the supreme sacrifice and their living comrades who fought so valiantly to thwart the power-craving, war-mad beast of Berlin.

Memorial day this year calls for a solemn, thoughtful and thankful observance, and such it should receive.

In a proclamation published in this issue President Wilson, recognizing the great service rendered during the war by the Boy Scouts of America, recommends the observance of Boy Scout week during the period beginning Sunday, June 8, to and including Flag day, June 14.

The people of Tecumseh are just beginning to appreciate the results of a Boy Scout organization. They saw the valuable assistance rendered on the day of the soldiers' reunion May 17 by the members of our recently organized Boy Scout troops. Mothers and fathers will and are noticing a development of character in their boys that denotes healthy growth to manhood.

This nation-wide campaign will be the first public appeal for the support of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, and the first objective is to secure one million associate members as an assurance of enlarged usefulness. This associate membership is offered mothers and fathers of American boys and other adult American citizens upon the payment of $1.00 or more as membership dues.

W. G. McAdoo, chairman of the citizens' national committee, is making an appeal to American citzens to support this most worthy movement. It is requested that a local citizens' committee be organized for the observance of the week. It is suggested that special Scout services be arranged in every church for Sunday, June 8, or a combined Sunday afternoon service, preferably in the open, with a suitable program for the occasion.

On Monday, June 9, a popular mass meeting is suggested to take steps to extend the facilities of the Boy Scout program in meeting local boyhood problems. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday will be devoted to an intensive membership campaign. Saturday, June 14, Flag day, should be devoted to a public demonstration in the way of parades, feast, music, speeches and Boy Scout demonstrations.

Tecumseh people should help in this nationwide observance in honor of American boyhood.

A paved highway sounds mighty good to The Herald, because its publisher is one who thoroughly believes in permanent construction—to build right and save costs in repairs and maintenance of cheap or makeshift construction.

That the good road movement has thoroughly interested the people of the northern townships in Lenawee county was quite evident by the unusually large attendance at the meeting at Grange hall Saturday. A number of farmers left their work, so important at this season, to listen to the road improvement plans. They realize the importance of good highways more than ever, since the continued wet spring weather that made many roads almost impassable. They realize that quick access to market centers means dollars saved in time, horse flesh and auto repairs. Consequently they are more than ready to co-operate in the good roads movement.

Northern Lenawee was greatly favored by the coming to Tecumseh of State Highway Commissioner Rogers. The people owe him a debt of gratitude, and they will owe him a deeper debt of gratitude if at the end of 1920 we see completed from the Jackson county line to the center of Britton a modern paved highway along the old Monroe turnpike route.

The people of Lenawee can well feel proud of Representative Charles A Evans, who is working hard for his county. We are indebted to him for his service beyond the nominal price of his salary. He has been busy for us at all times, during the discharge of his official duties and also during spare moments.

Mr. Evans' advice for Lenawee county to get all the mileage possible while the getting is good is sound business. The legislation for road building will never be better and we don't know how soon many privileges and inducements will be withdrawn. Now is Lenawee's opportunity when she has the help of a Lenawee state highway commissioner and a representative on the state roads and bridges committee.

The new road is going to be of great benefit, not only to northern Lenawee, but to the territory south. It means a complete improved highway from Jackson through Tecumseh to Monroe and Detroit. It means an improved highway into Adrian and Toledo. It will mean regular truck transportation and safe travel the year around. Every business that is dependent upon transportation will receive benefit.

The new highway will be of inestimable benefit to Tecumseh. The village will be beautified by a pavement passing through its center. It will give Tecumseh one of the finest business districts of any town in the state. It will do away with the bumpy crosswalks that annoy automobilists and will allow visitors to alight from vehicles without stepping into mud and filth. It's going to be a fine thing for Tecumseh, and no one would allow it taken away, after once enjoyed, for a hundred times its cost.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Miss Ethel May Kenyon and Mr. George Leonard Howes at Birthday Supper.

At the birthday supper given by the Westminster Guild at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening Miss Ethel May Kenyon and Mr. George Leonard Howes announced their engagement. Asking for a table with covers laid for ten, one was arranged in Miss Kyle's class room.

A great basket of violets and lillies of the valley bearing an immense purple moline bow adorned the center of the table and smaller baskets were at the four corners. Tiny bouquets of violets were at each plate. Each guest wore a buttoneire of a closed tulip and lillies of the valley. As the supper ended Miss Kenyon invited the guests to investigate the contents of the tulips and in each was a tiny slip if paper with the two names written thereon.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, the Misses Kenyon, Yutsey, Donaldson and Miller, Frank Miller, L. D. Kenyon and Mr. Howes.

The wedding will be held in a few weeks and the couple go to the groom's old home at Long Beach, Cal., on a honeymoon.

G. A. R. MEMORIAL SERVICE

TRIBUTE TO LIVING AND DEAD HEROES

Baptist Church Filled to Overflowing Sunday Evening—Sermon by Rev. W. R. Curtis, Splendid Music by Ladies' Band and Choir.

Honoring the annual Memorial service for the living and dead heroes of the Civil war and all soldiers of the late wars, the Baptist church of Tecumseh presented a handsome appearance with its decorations of flags and beautiful flowers, a handsome speciman of Old Glory covering the altar, altogether making a most appropriate spectacle for the occasion.

The ranks of the G. A. R. are rapidly thinning and this service saw less than a score of the Civil war veterans in attendance.

The service opened with a selection by the Tecumseh Ladies' band, and for a new organization we must say the ladies are to be congratulated for the fine progress made. After invocation by Rev. C. M. Thompson, "America" was sung by the congregation and the Ladies' band played another selection, which received applause, an unusual demonstration in church service.

Rev. W. A. Rex read the scripture lesson from Hebrew 11:24-40, the choir sang a beautiful selection and the announcements were made. Rev. Thompson stated that for the community service at the Methodist church next Sunday evening he had secured three young men from the University of Michigan, word coming over the telephone that morning of their acceptance of the invitation. These young men are representative students of the University and also Y. M. C. A. men.

Rev. W. A. Rex called attention to Friday, Memorial day, stating that this year the day is of more than ordinary significance. Friday next is a holy day as well as a holiday and we should observe it. He endorsed the U. of M. boys and asked for a good attendance. He also called attention to the fact that Tecumseh lacked $60 of its Salvation Army quota of $500, stating that any one wishing to contribute that evening could hand their stipend to one of the pastors.

Rev. Curtis made an appeal for contributions of flowers, especially geraniums, for Decoration day. Conmrade H. W. Stevens supplemented the appeal, stating "the soldiers only had one day a year for decorating, leaving 364 days to you."

Mrs. R. S. Moore sang charmingly for an offertory solo an appropriate patriotic selection that won the [illegible] approval of the veterans, as well as the audience.

After reading a passage from I Chron. 12:30, Rev. W. R. Curtis welcomed the remaining members of the Grand Army of the Republic and paid a tribute to this and kindred organizations, the soldiers of the Spanish-American and the World war, the members of the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., K. of C., all welfare organizations, subscribers to war funds and those taking Liberty bonds.

A new meaning has come to Memorial day; a new consciousness has stolen over our minds as a people of a great country. The American people are not a war loving peole. We have loved peace and good will to men. For a while we heard the saying "peace at any cost," which turned to be spoken "peace at every cost." Our soldiers went across to secure peace.

The pastor then took for his topic, "American spirit," and the discourse brought out numerous illustrations showing the kind of spirit that characterized our boys in the World war. Our soldiers seemed to possess the confidence that he would win. He possessed a liberal supply of bull-doggedness that would not run, and with a joke on his lips he goes over the top in the very face of a shower of lead and steel. With a laugh, or what might be termed cuss words among ecclesiastical circles he has run into the very thickest of the fight and returned with not only one but several of the enemy, any one of them larger than himself. The same American spirit exists in the business world.

The demand upon the country in the civil war for men was felt even keener than it has been through the World war. From the North alone the high figure reached was 1,060,962 men.

Comparing the percentage of casualties the speaker gave the following: The American casualties at Argonne-Meuse were 18% of those engaged; at Gettysburg they were 20%; at Murphysboro, 23%; at Shilo, 24%; at Chicamauga 28%. But we are appalled at the great figures that we learn of the great war just passed. Two-thirds of the human race were involved; over forty-two million were under arms, at the close of 1917 more than six million had been killed in action; one million men, women ad children had been brutally massacred; three million have died of starvation; six million have been lying wounded in hospitals and six million in prison camps.

The war is won. France and Italy have brought Alsace and Trent back to their aching flags; Albert the Great is king again in little Belgium; Serbia, the giant killer, has again wrenched her hills from the Austrian ogre. Poland is no longer Cinderella in the House of Tyranny; Roumania has cast the Prussian yoke; Czech and Jugo-Slav sit in the Council of Nations; Frederick the False cowers in hiding; the sacred dome of St. Sofia is shadowed with Constantine's returning cross; the Hapsburgs are finished; God and Democracy have baffled Wilhelm of Hohenzollern and defeat has ended his line.

Rev. Curtis also pointed to spirit of loyalty to Christ possessed by boys across and in the cantonments here. The bravest men are those that love home most. Germany trusted in her well trained armies and classed our boys as "tin soldiers." But one of our regiments just landed in New York has the reputation that they never went backward an inch for the enemy.

We were troubled for a while about dye stuffs, but it was soon discovered that America had three colors that won't run—red, white and blue.

The speaker quoted from a speech of Secretary Baker: "No civilization is worth fighting for that has not its foundation laid in Jesus Christ." We believe that the foundation of our nation was laid in Jesus Christ. We have won a great victory in fighting to make the world safe for the people. We must win the greater victory of making the people safe for the world, through the salvation of Jesus Christ. Now is the time to ask for forgiveness; now is the time to give gratitude to our boys in blue, the mothers and wives and the boys who saved democracy to the world.

Here's to the Red of it—
There's not a thread of it,
No, nor a shred of it
In all the spread of it
From foot to head,
But heroes bled for it,
Faced steel and lead for it,
Precious blood shed for it,
Bathing it red.

Here's to the white of it—
Thrilled by the sight of it,
Who knows the right of it
But feels the might of it
Through day and night;
Womanhood's care for it
Made Manhood dare for it;
Purity's prayer for it
Kept it so white.

Here's to the Blue of it—
Heavenly view of it;
Star-spangled hue of it,
Honesty's hue of it,
Constant and true.
Here's to the whole of it,
Stars, stripes, and pole of it
Here's to the soul of it
Red, White and Blue.

After a beautiful prayer by Rev. Rex and a song by the congregation, the large audience was dismissed by "taps" sounded by Claire Camburn, instructor of the Ladies' band.

Many people were unable to gain admittance to the church, even standing room being unavailable.

Great Community service in the Methodist church next Sunday evening. Three fine speakers from the State University will give the addresses.—Adv

BRADLEY OPERA HOUSE ATTRACTIONS

Doug. Fairbanks, Decoration Day.

The management of the Bradley opera house is offering three days of exceptionally fine photoplays for the patrons of this popular theatre commencing tomorrow (Friday) Decoration day when the greatest of all screen stars, Douglas Fairbanks, will be the main attraction in his great western play "Headin' South."

From the sun-beaten desert of Arizona to the snow capped mountains of Truckee, Cal., is the contrast in scenery furnished in "Headin' South." Those who believe in 'seeing America first' will be more than satisfied with the scenery which makes this film the most distinctive of the year. And then friend Doug. in the role of a real live western cow-boy who takes part in troubles on the Mexican border, leaves nothing to be desired. You know what Doug. can do to a crowd of our friends from "over the Rio Grande." Doug. takes to greasers like a duck to water.

A screaming two reel comedy "The Diver's Last Kiss" completes the big double bill which will be presented both afternoon and evening.

Constance Talmadge in "A Pair of Silk Stockings" Saturday Evening.

Saturday evening, May 31, captivating Constance Talmadge in "A pair of Silk Stockings" taken from the stage play by Cyril Harcourt. They said of the play "A Hit in England, A Riot Here!" Perfect upon the screen was afterwards added after critics saw Miss Talmadge in the picture. Most any screen fan can imagine what a hit Miss Talmadge would make in the picture after reading the title. A new Mack Sennett comedy will be on the same bill. Saturday night's program is really a program that is worth any effort to see.

"The Spoilers."

Sunday evening, June 1, Rex Beach's great study of Alaska, "The Spoilers" will be the attraction. The charming screen star, Kathlyn Williams and big 'Bill' Farnum are features in this new edition of the famous Beach play. The play is in ten big acts and deals with Yukon country where men live hard and fight hard. The big fight scene in "The Spoilers" is the greatest ever staged and has caused people to come back time and time again to see this big production. Film fans who love an out of doors picture, who like lots of action and stories of real men and real women should not miss the opportunity of seeing "The Spoilers."

DROWNED IN TOLEDO

JAMES CURRY, FORMER BRITTON RESIDENT

Falls From Bridge Into Swan Creek — Was in Company of Two Macon Men.

(From Britton Correspondent.)

James Curry, aged 60, formerly of this place, was drowned Friday night at 11 o'clock, in some mysterious manner, when he fell into Swan Creek from the bridge at St. Clair street, in Toledo, O., where he, in company with Mills Hatch and Wesley Pennington, both of Macon, had been since Friday morning. Nothing was heard of the occurance until some one in Tecumseh read an account of it in a Toledo paper and his daughter, Mrs. Mary Oliver, who was in Tecumseh in the afternoon, over heard people talking about the accident and immediately started an inquiry. She and her husband came home, when Mr. Oliver, in company with a son, Wm. Curry, Earl Taylor and C. D. Zeluff went to Toledo to investigate and identified the body which had been taken out of the water by the police about three o'clock, they having been notified of the drowning by Mr. Hatch.

It is not known how the accident occurred. Mr. Hatch who was with Mr. Curry at the time is reported as saying that they were walking along the street near the bridge together. He spoke to his companion and as he received no answer, turned, and finding him missing looked over the railing and saw his hat lying in the water He notified the police and they removed the body from the water and summoned the coroner. Undertaker DuBois went to Toledo Sunday and brought the remains to the home of his son, Wm. Curry, in this place where the funeral services were held Monday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. Sam'l Tamblyn officiating.

NORTH ADRIAN

Rev. Davis and family of Adrian attended church at this place last Sunday.

H. O. Benedict and wife visited his brother, Albert Benedict, at Tecumseh last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harris and son, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris were callers at E. T. Harris' last Sunday afternoon.

Wm. Jay, wife and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Gygi and daughter attended Memorial services at Tipton last Sunday.

Mrs. Celia Kamp, who has been spending the winter with her parents, went to her home at Freemont, Ohio, last Saturday. Her father, E. T. Harris, and brother, Eugene Harris, accompanied her.

Leslie Rehklan, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rehklan, who just returned from war, was united in marriage to Miss Edna Dean of New Jersey at the home of his parents last Wednesday at 5:00 p. m. In the evening a reception was given by his parents at the Grange hall, when they received many nice presents. Ice cream and cake were served and all enjoyed a nice time.

Decoration Day exercises will be held at this place next Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. at the North Adrian church. A good program will be prepared. Rev. R. C. Powell will give the address, after which further exercises will be held at the cemetery which will be in charge of Tecumseh G. A. R. All are invited to attend.

There will be a meeting of Pomona Grange at Tipton next week Thursday, June 5th. The Tipton Grange ladies will serve dinner. The state superintendant of public instruction will give an address on "The Centralization of the Rural Schools."

Mrs. Margaret Houseman and Jay Osgood of Toledo were married Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's father, Geo. Mead. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. N. Clark in the presence of a few friends and relatives. We clip the above from the Petersburg correspondence of Friday's Adrian Telegram. The bride will be remembered as a partner in the jewelry business here with E. J. Peters a few years ago.

The ladies Guild of St. Peter's church will meet at the Parish house Tuesday afternoon, June 3. It is requested that all the ladies of the parish attend as this is an important meeting.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A rare treat is in store for all who attend the Community service next Sunday evening in the Methodist church. Three university students will speak.

Miss Nettie Pierec is visiting Mrs. Jay Morse and other friends this week. She has until recently been teaching at the Industrial school at Adrian, since selling her millinery business here.

Rev. W. A. Rex gave the graduating address at the Macon commencement exercises last Thursday night. He speaks at the Memorial services at Fairfield on Friday and at Macon Sunday.

The L. A. S. of the Methodist church will meet in the church parlors for their regular monthly meeting Thursday, June 5th, at 2:30 o'clock. This is the last meeting of the year. All mambers are requested to be present.

Mrs. T. C. Harris of Ann Arbor has been in town this week, arranging the shipment of the balance of their household goods to that city. Mrs. Harris still speaks of Tecumseh as home, and and here's hoping it may be "home" in reality to the family again.

Twenty-seven members of the Tecumseh Royal Neighbors lodge visited the Clinton Neighbors Saturday evening at their invitation. The guests were first served to a bountiful supper, then the Tecumseh ladies were asked to conduct the lodge session and initiate a class of seven. The Tecumseh ladies report a most delightful evening and the Clinton ladies the best hosts ever.

Willard Fox passed away Sunday at 4 a. m. at the Hotel Barrett after an illness of some time with heart trouble. He was the father of Mrs. James Murray, coming here from Detroit with Mr. and Mrs. Murrey when they purchased the hotel recently. He was 76 years of age. The funeral was held from the hotel Monday afternoon the Rev. W. R. Curtis officiating, with burial in Brookside.

The minister of the Presbyterian church paid a very fine compliment to the Methodist's Centenary success in his sermon of last Sunday, and the following in the church calendar: "The biggest and finest thing that has been done by any of the churches of Tecumseh in recent years, if not the greatest ever done, was done last Sunday and Monday by the local Methodist church. $9,000 or $1,800 a year for five years for benevolent work by the church of 250 members is a great achievement. Before this canvass 120 had signed prayer cards and 65 had promised to tithe their income; perhaps this was the secret of their success. Will we do as well when we attack the new Era apportionment of $2,450 per year for our church?"

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Vogt and daughter, Miss Huldah, were over from Manchester yesterday afternoon.

A great deal of interest and enthusiasm has been created in the Presbyterian Sunday-school by an aeroplane race around the world. With the exception of the first two Sundays the French have been ahead of the English but not at any time more than 500 miles ahead. The contest has been very close, and next Sunday will end the race. The French to date are flying nearly 400 miles ahead.

Quite a crowd of Tecumseh people gathered at the New York Central depot Saturday to meet the afternoon train from the north. The train contained members of Co. B enroute home. There was no elaborate demonstrations, but some warm greetings exchanged during the short time the train stopped here. In Adrian the boys met with an enthusiastic welcoming demonstration. The morning train also carried some returned soldiers.

It is the custom of the Men's Class of the Presbyterian church to have an outside speaker once each month. The committee has secured for next Sunday Hon. James H. Baker of Adrian, the former mayor of that city. Mr. Baker has never addressed the class before and the men are anxious that he be given a good hearing. A general invitation is extended to the men of the town to be present next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

THEDA BARA IN SALOME

Big Attraction at the Royal Theatre Today—Matinee and Night.

The industrious and up-to-date managers of the Royal Theatre have booked into their theatre for Thursday afternoon, matinee and night, a picture which is the last word in moving pictures the most stupendous spectacle ever produced. Five thousand people appear in the making of this picture in fact it took 2 years to complete this great master production.

It is quite an undertaking to put on such a picture as this in a small theatre, but Messrs. Pierce say that they are going to give the people of Tecumseh the best or nothing at all. This picture is the Great Theda Bara in "SALOME."

They are getting "Salome" at a price never before ventured. Heretofore the prices charged have ranged from 50c to $2 but Tecumseh people are going to be able to see this wonderful show at 25c and 35c, tax included. The managers of the Royal surely deserve to be highly complimented and richly patronized for their progressiveness in giving us such shows at such small prices.—adv.

FAT STOCK SHOW PUBLIC AUCTION

NEW FEATURE OF MICHIGAN STATE FAIR

Cattle, Sheep and Swine Entries Will be Received—Any Entry May be Placed on Auction Block by Exhibitor.

(From G. W. DDickinson, Secretary-Manager State Fair.)

A fat stock show and public auction is to be inaugurated at the 1919 Michigan State Fair, as a new feature of the exposition. Cattle, sheep and swine entries will be received, and any entry may be placed on the public auction block by the exhibitor.

Though the official announcement of this new department has just been made by G. W. Dickinson, secretary-manager [illegible] Fair Association, a number of full car exhibits have already been entered, and the enthusiasm aroused indicates fat stock show will become one of the outstanding features of the Fair.

In installing this department, the fair executive is not only opening the exposition to the commercial field, but is also enlarging the educational scope of the fair. Through study in this department the young farmers of the state may learn how to fit stock for the market.

The inauguration of this new feature resulted from demands made by the stock buyers, packing men, and stock raisers of the state. These men are desirous of a great central market where the best stock of the state will be exhibited and offered for sale on the auction block.

At the 1918 exposition the prize fat steer was put up at auction by Charles Prescott, of Tawas City, the owner; and after spirited bidding among packers, was sold to Thomas Newton, of the Newton Packing Company, Detroit, for 70c a pound on the hoof. This price established a record in the state, but Mr. Dickinson believes a record will be hung up when a large auction, attracting bidders from other cities, is held this fall.

MEMORIAL HEART DAY

Sale of Hearts for Benefit of Crippled Children.

A large number of school girls, with the approval of the Mayor and Superintendent of schools, will see that everybody has a heart, thereby helping to furnish surgery, hospital care and educational advantages to Michigan's poor crippled children. Remember your dimes, quarters, half dollars, etc., will help in saving some child from the human scrap heap. Report all cases to 401 Congress Building, Detroit.

The sale of hearts will be conducted by Miss [illegible] McIntyre with headquarters in Pulver's Drug store and Herbert S. Temple of the Lilley State bank is to have charge of the funds.

MRS. HUGH HANNA SUSTAINS INJURED HIP

In a Fall at Her Home Friday—Watching For Return of Son From France.

Mrs. Hugh Hanna fell on the floor in her home Friday and injured her hip. At first it was thought broken but it proved to be badly wrenched and muscles torn. As she is a lady well along in the seventies her friends fear it will leave her lame. Knowing that her son, Charles, is enroute from France and thinking, as she had not heard from him in a couple of weeks, that he might be planning to surprise her, she has watched the trains from her parlor window. This time she was hurrying to the window when she fell. She had only partially recovered the use of one of her arms which was broken last winter.

Her daughter, Mrs. Will Hanna, of Adrian is assisting in caring for her.

Breaking World's Record in an Overland

Overland Model 90 Travels Seven Days and Nights Without Stopping Motor

COVERED 4,370.1 MILES

Gear Was Sealed in High, Making Hardest Possible Test on All Car's Working Parts.

Remarkable automobile performances are not as frequent these days as they were four or five seasons ago; the American automobile manufacturer has attained so very high a standard of product. That may explain why so much unusual attention has been attracted during the last few days to a new world's performance record made by an Overland stock car, Model 90.

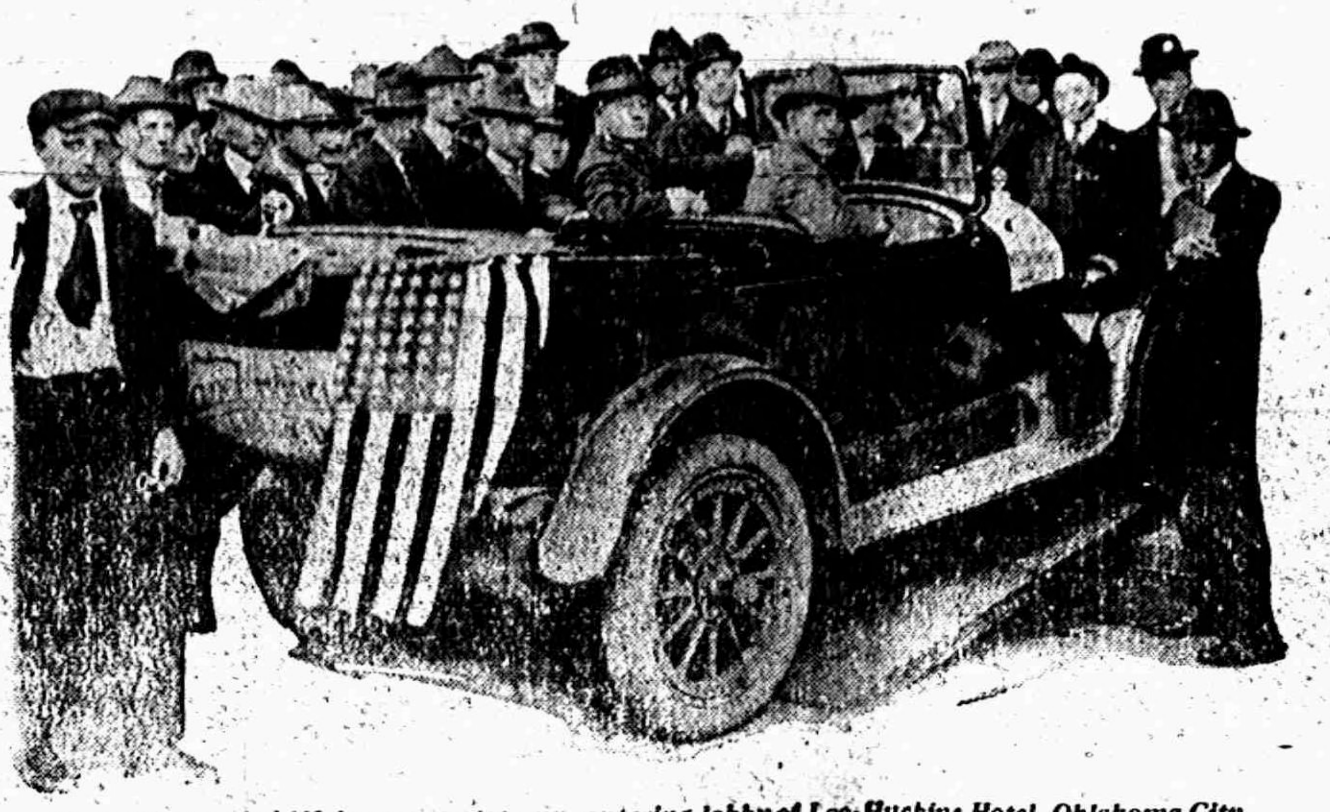
New from the factory, this Model 90 was taken from the salesrooms of the Carhart Motor Company at Oklahoma City, Okla., on March 29th, and driven to the lobby of the Lee-Huckins Hotel. There the gear shift lever was disconnected from the low, middle and reverse gears, and the gear-box was sealed in high. The motor was started; the car left the hotel and did not return for seven days; that was April 5th.

The Overland 90, driven by a relay of four drivers, ran night and day, the motor never stopping for 168 continuous hours. The drivers had no advantage of gear shifting during the two days of rain on muddy roads and the twelve to fifteen hours they spent each 24 hour day on good and bad city pavements, in the rush of traffic, and on the Oklahoma roads. It has been said that if a motor car will stand up on an Oklahoma road, it will endure in any other section of the world.

In these seven days and nights, during which the gear could not be shifted from high, nor the motor stopped for carburetor adjustment or spark plug change, the Model 90 broke the world's record for a test of this kind. The speedometer, carefully checked, showed that it had traveled 4,370.1 miles. That is practically one-sixth around the world, or a distance equal to a trip from New York to Los Angeles and back across the southern trial to Oklahoma City.

This remarkable non-stop performance in high gear exceeded the next best record ever made by 129.1 miles.

Another unusual record was attained by the four drivers of this Oklahoma car. The A. A. A. record for a 24-hour non-stop, gear-sealed-in-high run is 587 miles. That mileage was made in Chicago, several makes of cars competing. On only one day of its run did the Overland fail to exceed the official A. A. A. record. That was the third day—an afternoon and night of rain with muddy going, under the axles. The car then fell eight miles under the mark, but its performance was, so unusually high that it averaged 624.3 miles for each day of the 168 hour run.



Model 90 at end of 168-hour non-stop run, entering lobby of Lee-Huckins Hotel, Oklahoma City. Linn Mathewson famous racing driver at wheel; beside him Dick Carhart.

The motorist is interested in tests of this kind only as they point him to some feature of economy in operation and upkeep. The test made by E. R. Carhart, Overland distributor in Oklahoma, appears to be replete with such features. The judges of the contest were the president of the Chamber of Commerce of that city, and the managing editors of the two leading daily newspapers. Examination of their records of the Model 90's record-breaking trip show:

1. The car made a trip, exclusively in high gear, through city traffic, over country roads, with two days of steady Oklahoma downpours to contend with, at a cost of one and 17/100 cents for gasoline and oil for each of the 4,370.1 miles traveled.

2. Gasoline can be saved by proper shifting of gears under varying traffic conditions. The Model 90's record is declared to be unusually good under the no gear-shift conditions. Burning a 59 test gasoline, it averaged 20.66 miles for each gallon.

3. Only 5⅞ gallons of oil were needed. The oil cost $4.70.

4. Champion spark plugs were used. None was changed nor adjusted during the seven days' continuous driving.

5. Federal tires were used. There were three punctures only. Wouldn't the man or woman who drives be content to undertake a transcontitental trip if he thought it would cause no more tire trouble than that?

Four controls were established for change of drivers and refilling with gasoline and oil. The captain of the driving team was Linn Mathewson, well known in the east and middle west as a famous racing driver on the speedway tracks. He is now the retail manager for the Carhart Motor Company at Oklahoma City.

The Oklahoma public was advised in advance of the test. The daily newspapers bulletined the progress of the run each day. In addition to that publicity, Mr. Carhart arranged to flash on the motion picture screens of the city, the car's mileage every four hours. The run was officially started by F. W. A. Vesper, the president of the National Automobile Dealers' Association.

This amazing demonstration of the economy possibilities of the light-weight American car of high-grade manufacture is already reflected in an increasing inquiry in this and adjoining territories for motor cars. It is estimated that there will be an appreciable shortage of motor cars this year—the first free season after the restrictions of the war-munitions production. The local dealer for the Overland .... points out that while this run has produced a very great many inquiries for the Model 90, conceded to be one of the most successful of American automobiles, the production of these cars has been limited this year by the parent company in Toledo.

Obituary—Wm. Underwod.

Wm. Underwood was one of the children born to John and Elizabeth Underwood in Ridgeway township, Lenawee county, August 8, 1842, and departed this life at his home here May 19, 1919, at the age of 76 years. On April 8, 1863, he was married to Eliza Jane Getty and to this union nine children were born, namely Charles, who passed away a few years ago; Arthur, Mrs. Adelaide Main, Mrs. Phena Exelby, John, Mrs. Vie Zeluff, Amos, Clayborne and Clarence. The wife and mother passed away in 1881. On August 8, 1882, he was united in marriage to Mrs. Adelaide Underwood, and to this union two daughters, Mrs. Fern Smith and Mrs. Kate Curry, were born. Besides the wife and ten children who are left to mourn the departure of one who was a devoted father and wise counselor, he is survived by one step-son, Glen Underwood, and one step-daughter, Mrs. Libbie Bachman, 24 grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren and one brother, G. W. Underwood.

Mr. Underwood after marriage settled on his farm east of town, living there until about ten years ago, when he and his wife purchased a home here, where they have since resided. He has always lived in this township and has a large circle of friends and acquaintances, possibly the more so as he for a great many years was a prominent stock buyer, his son, in later years, becoming his partner, remaining so until death separated them. Mr. Underwood's health has been gradually failing for about a year, but he was able to around. Only within the past three weeks was he confined to the house and had been in bed only three days when death relieved his suffering. During his illness he was ever patient and cheerful, never complaining, waiting for the call to that better land to which he was ready to go. He not only will be missed in the home circle, but by his friends and neighbors as well, where he always proved loyal and true.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the home, Rev. J. C. DeRemer and Rev. Sam'l Tamblyn officiating. Appropriate selections were furnished by the Temple Quartet of Tecumseh. The pall bearers were the five sons and step-son. The body was laid to rest in Ridgeway cemetery amid a profusion of flowers.

Among those from away attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Silas Main of Lansing, Earl Babcock of Fremont, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Underwood and daughter, Bert Metsey, Gordon Bachman and J. T. Exelby of Detroit; Clyde Exelby of East Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bachman and children of Adrian, John Pilbeam of Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Calhoun of Holloway, and Mrs. Maude Cummings and son, Claude, of Tecumseh.

Obituary—James Curry.

James Curry was born June 20, 1852, in Antrim county, Ireland, and at the time of his death was nearly 67 years old. When but a lad of 14 he came to New York state. After his marriage to Miss Elizabeth Remond they came to Michigan. To this union one son and four daughters were born, namely Mrs. Mary Oliver, Will Curry, Mrs. Nannie Johnston, Mrs. Margaret Thompson and Miss Jennie Curry, and these with seventeen grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and one brother, Wm. Curry, sr., survive and keenly feel their loss. The wife and mother passed to the great beyond January 5, 1911.

The remains were laid to rest in Ridgeway cemetery. Among those from away attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Andy Johnston and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thompson, Miss Jennie Curry of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Will Anderson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Mills, Cassius Mills, Mr. and Mrs. John Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sage, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Pennington, Mrs. Revilo Sage and son, Edmund Sage of Macon and Mrs. John Schreder of Tecumseh.

Marriage—Drury-Hoagland.

A quiet wedding that came as a surprise to their many friends here was solemnized Saturday, May 17, in Tecumseh by Rev. W. R. Curtis at the Baptist parsonage, the contracting parties being two of our popular young people, Miss Helen Hoagland, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hoagland, and Marsh Drury, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Drury.

The bride was attired in a traveling suit of blue, with hat to match. They were unattended. The bride is a charming young lady, a graduate of our school and has just closed a successful year's is a hustling young farmer.

After a short wedding trip the young couple are at home to their many friends, who join in the heartiest of congratulations, on the farm north of town.

Mrs. Nellie Osterhout and son, Lyman, and daughters, Mrs. Chas. Dixon and Mrs. Ellen Stewart of Tecumseh, were Sunday visitors at E. A. Bachman's.

Britton Team Wins Silver Cup at Field Meet.

In the track meet following the basket ball game at the field meet held Saturday in Blissfield, our high school boys soon demonstrated they had the best balanced and best coached track team present.

Our best point winner was Wilber Clark, who won four firsts and a third on a total of 21 of his team's 36 points, and was given the silver cup as best all round athlete. Vere Gill, a Sophomore, also came up for his share of honors and deserves special mention. Our team won easily the 36 points and was awarded the large silver cup offered the winning team. They are highly elated over their victories.

Commencement exercises begin Sunday evening, with the baccalaureate services to be held in the M. P. church. Commencement proper will Thursday, June 5, in Lenardson's opera house. Alumni reception Saturday evening, June 7th.

Three ladies from this vicinity are in hospitals in Ann Arbor, namely, Mrs. Jas. Craig, Mrs. Lucian Bannister and Mrs. Chas. Anspach. Mrs. Jas. Haight of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Eugene Cheever of Tecumseh, former residents here, are also there for treatment.

The remains of Mrs. L. S. Palmer who died a week ago in Ontario, Calif., arrived Monday evening accompanied by her two sons Arhur and Cyrus, and were taken to her home here. The funeral services were held the next day with burial in Ridgeway. Those from away attending these services were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Van Deventer of Hamtramack; Miss Phena Palmer, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Deventer and Rev. and Mrs. Chalker, of Ithaca; Mrs. Rhoda Easlick, of Onsted; Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Benedict, of Tecumseh, and Mrs. Fred Wickwire and Mrs. Henry Dibble of Adrian.

Rev. J. C. DeRemer officiated and several from here were in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Mary Wright held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Lowry in Tecumseh. Mrs. Wright was 75 years old and was the wife of the late Rev. James Wright, a pastor at the Christian church here for several years. Since the death of her husband she had lived with her son Charles and when he entered the service she went to the home of her son, Ernest. Last December she had a stroke of paralysis and since February has been in a hospital. The remains, accompanied by the two sons, were brought to Tecumseh from Ypsilanti for the funeral service. Burial was made in Ridgeway.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

A Proclamation

The Boy Scouts of America have rendered notable service to the Nation during the world war. They have done effective work in the Liberty Loan and War Savings campaigns, in discovering and reporting upon the black walnut supply, in cooperating with the Red Cross and other war work agencies, in acting as despatch bearers for the Committee on Public Information, and in other important fields. The Boy Scouts have not only demonstrated their worth to the Nation, but have also materially contributed to a deeper appreciation by the American people of the higher conception of patriotism and good citizenship.

The Boy Scout movement should not only be preserved, but strengthened. It deserves the support of all public-spirited citizens. The available means for the Boy Scout movement have thus far sufficed for the organization and training of only a small proportion of the boys in the country. There are approximately 10,000,000 boys in the United States between the ages of twelve and twenty-one. Of these only 375,000 are enrolled as members of the Boy Scouts of America.

America cannot acquit herself commensurately with her power and influence in the great period now facing her and the world unless the boys of America are given better opportunities than heretofore to prepare themselves for the responsibilities of citizenship.

Every nation depends for its future upon the proper training and development of its youth. The American boy must have the best training and discipline our great democracy can provide if America is to maintain her ideals, her standards and her influence in the world.

The plan, therefore, for a Boy Scout week during which universal appeal will be made to all Americans to supply the means to put the Boy Scouts of America in a position to carry forward effectively and continuously the splendid work they are doing for the youth of America, should have the unreserved support of the Nation.

Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby recommend that the period beginning Sunday, June 8th, to Flag Day, June 14th, be observed as Boy Scout Week through the United States for the purpose of strengthening the work of the Boy Scouts of America.

I earnestly recommend that, in every community, a Citizens' Committee under the leadership of a National Citizen's Committee, be organization to cooperate in carrying out a program for a definite recognition of the effective services rendered by the Boy Scouts of America; for a survey of the facts relating to the boyhood of each community, in order that with the cooperation of churches, schools and other organizations definitely engaged in work for boys, adequate provision may be made for extending the Boy Scout program to a larger proportion of American boyhood.

The Boy Scout movement offers unusual opportunity for volunteer service. It needs men to act as committeemen and as leaders of groups of boys. I hope that all who can will enlist for such personal service, enroll as associate members and give all possible financial assistance to this worthy organization of American boyhood. Anything that is done to increase the effectiveness of the Boy Scouts of America will be a genuine contribution to the welfare of the Nation.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done this first day of May in the year of our [illegible] and nine hundred and nineteen, and of the independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and forty-third.

(Signed)
Woodrow Wilson.

Robert Lansing,
Secretary of State.

Rev. and Mrs. S. N. Oliver and Mrs. Alice Norcross attended the State Congregational association at Pontiac last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Clack, daughters, Helen and Mary, of Clinton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gon.

Mrs. Eliza Crittenden was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Chauncey Pentecost, in Onsted from Friday until Sunday.

Dr. Fruit of Detroit and Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson of Tecumseh were callers Saturday evening at the home of Rev. Kellogg.

Mr. McNeil, Mrs. Myrtie Campbell, Roy Campbell and lady friend of Tecumseh were callers Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Anna Hoxie.

Rev. C. M. Thompson of Tecumseh, Rev. F. M. Purdy of Clinton and Rev. R. C. Scott of Napoleon were in town Monday assisting in the Centenary work.

Mrs. F. E. Derby and W. J. Fridd visited their uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Jabez Fridd in Adrian last Wednesday. They found Mrs. Fridd very low.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Luce entertained Sunday Misses Elvira and Julia Luce of Tecumseh, Emmett Luce and family of Napoleon, Howard Luce and family, Irving Luce and family, Roy Luce and family and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Luce.

About 125 met at the M. E. church last Wednesday evening to welcome Rev. Kellogg and family. Rev. Kellogg has been on the charge for some time, but Mrs. Kellogg, son Maurice and A. J. Beattie have recently got settled in the parsonage. Among those present were some from Springville. S. H. May gave the welcome address and Rev. Kellogg responded with some well chosen remarks. A nice program of instrumental music, songs and recitations was given and nearly all responded to encores. The ladies served ice cream and cake and all departed for home, feeling the evening was well spent.

IT is indeed hard to stand at one side while the stream of life flows by. A man or woman condemned to sickness that does not p[illegible] her to perform the active duties of life, to do his or her share of the world's work, is a pathetic figure deserving of sympathy.

Much sickness, pain and misery result from disordered kidneys and bladder. Failure of the kidneys to do their work properly and filter impurities out of the blood leads to rheumatic pains, backache, sore muscles, stiff or swollen joints, puffiness under eyes, floating specks, biliousness, bladder weakness, nervousness, or other symptoms of kidney trouble.

are effective in removing the cause of the trouble for they strenghthen and invigorate weak or deranged kidneys and help them to normal functioning so that the blood stream is purified and the cause of disease removed.

F. M. Platte (Brakeman), Sec'y. Switchman's Union, 515 Blaine St., Peoria, Ill., writes: "Two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills relieved all symptoms of my kidney and bladder trouble, stopping the backache and pains, correcting the kidney action, clearing secretions. I am also free from dizziness and floating specks before my eyes. Foley Kidney Pills cured me."

KIDNEYS WEAKENING? LOOK OUT!

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow slowly but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1696 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. PAVED HIGHWAY FOR TURNPIKE their readiness to co-operate with the state highway department in every way. They explained that the commission is yet in its infancy and that it will take some time before real results will be apparent.

In order to accomplish something Mr. Rogers called upon expressions from various representatives of the townships interested. Supervisor Exelby stated that everybody in Ridgeway township was in favor of good roads. Highway Commissioner Swick corroborated Mr. Exelby. Supervisor Schreder of Tecumseh township said all here are highly in favor of the road. Others should be for Tecumseh has the best roads in the county. Mr. Rogers admitted that we had "beautiful roads." "It will be necessary, however, that this road give way to pavement," he added.

President Hines stated that the matter of pavement in Tecumseh has been in the air for thirty years. Tarvia has been considered by the village council and then the state highway came up and it was thought best to await what would be done along that line. Tecumseh will come up to the mark and go into it heart and soul as she does in all matters of public welfare, he said.

Mr. Rogers said Tecumseh would have choice of pavement. The people of the two townships, Tecumseh and Ridgeway, should see about securing some person to circulate the necessary petition. Signers should be property holders; if joint deeds are owned both holders should sign. It should be one petition and he would see to it that a proper petition would be prepared. The petition requires signatures of owners of more than 60% of the road frontage to make it lawful to proceed with the improvement.

Representatives from Franklin and Cambridge were asked to express opinions. Supervisor Thos. Conlin of Tipton said Franklin was strongly in favor of improving the turnpike. John Ruesink, township clerk, said nearly all were in favor of the improvement and ready to do their part.

Supervisor Shultis of Cambridge stated all the people of his township favored the improvement and would do all they could for its advancement.

Mr. Rogers said Jackson county has promised to extend their gravel road to form a connection, thus making a continuous good highway to Monroe and Detroit. He asked if there were any present that preferred anything besides pavement. No answer.

Mr. Evans said he preferred a 20 foot pavement to 18. Mr. Rogers replied the new pavement from Ypsilanti to the Wayne county line was 18 feet, and, while there was considerable driving off the edge on the 16 foot pavement, there was very little on the 18 foot. A 20 foot pavement simply adds to the cost of construction and perhaps a little to safety. We will have to hold a new hearing in the west petition and it would be well to hold both hearings on the same day when the time comes.

Answering the question whether the type of road would be concrete, Mr. Rogers said the kind of pavement would not be decided upon until after the bids are received.

One of the men in attendance wanted to know whether it was true that in case the road cut through a farm, whether that farm is doubly assessed. Mr. Rogers explained that the assessments are made according to acres and zone and not according to valuation.

Mr. Evans explained that the law making it possible to receive 75% of the cost from federal and state aid has not yet passed; that it would come up at the special session for decision. There is no question that it would become a law, for he had canvassed the house and found the majority favoring it. He always believed that the federal government and state should bear 75% and more, when it is considered that local communities must take care of the lateral roads. He believes the state should pay 25% of the cost of all highways.

For the maintenance of the Monroe turnpike and all trunk lines the federal government and the state will pay 50% of the cost.

In regard to the Chicago turnpike, running from Detroit, through Ypsilanti, Saline and Clinton, Mr. Rogers said that road had the privileges of all trunk lines. He asked an expression from Clinton people.

W. D. VanTuyle said that the people of Clinton were just as enthusiatic for the improvement of that road as any and the delegation from Clinton came to the meeting for the purpose of learning what could he done to push the matter along.

Mr. Rogers replied nothing could be done until after the special session of the legislature. The state highway department is desirous of closing up all gaps and is getting ready to push the work as fast as possible. It will be 1920 before the work can be pushed through, but the limit will be according to to the number of cor[illegible] be placed. The work [illegible] done as fast as possible with reasonable economy. It will not be done as in war time as the building of cantonments, when the work had to be done regardless of cost.

Mr. Bugbee of Adrian township brought up the matter of changing the route of the road west of Adrian, stating the proposed change would accommodate more people. Said he would like to have Mr. Rogers ride over the road. When asked whether the road is passable he answered: "I think it is; at least I keep a team close to the barn."

Representative Evans said he was in favor of improved highways in the county where they serve the most people. Ready to go over any time next (this) week with Senator Bryant and the county commissioners.

Senator Bryant, who was present, and the commissioners expressed their willingness to take the trip.

Mr. Rogers thanked the men for their interest, evidenced by such a splendid attendance and the meeting adjourned.

PRINCE ALBERT
CRIMP CUT
LONG BURNING PIPE AND CIGARETTE TOBACCO

SAY, you'll have a streak of smokeluck that'll put pep-in-your-smokemotor, all right, if you'll ring-in with a jimmy pipe or cigarette papers and nail some Prince Albert for packing!

Just between ourselves, you never will wise-up to high-spot-smoke-joy until you can call a pipe by its first name, then, to hit the peak-of-pleasure you land square on that two-fisted-man-tobacco, Prince Albert!

Well, sir, you'll be so all-fired happy you'll want to get a photograph of yourself breezing up the pike with your smokethrottle wide open! Talk about smoke-sport!

Quality makes Prince Albert so appealing all along the smoke line. Men who never before could smoke a pipe and men who've smoked pipes for years all testify to the delight it hands out! P. A. can't bite or parch! Both are cut out by our exclusive patented process!

Right now while the going's good you get out your old jimmy pipe or the papers and land on some P. A. for what ails your particular smokeappetite!

You buy Prince Albert everywhere tobacco is sold. Toppy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors—and—that classy, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition.

Rev. J. G. Widdifield had a full day last Sunday. He drove to Clinton for the morning service when he gave the Memorial address to the G. A. R. Then home again for the afternoon service at St. Peter's, then to Clinton where he gave the baccalaureate sermon in the evening at the Congregational church.

Last Tuesday evening at their regular meeting the Odd Fellows conferred five scarlet degrees. The degree work was followed by a pie supper, and the way those pies disappeared was a caution. Those "Fellows" sure are "Odd" for we have failed to find that a single one was laid out as a result of their assault on those pies.

After the meeting of the L. O. T. M. Monday evening the April committee gave a very enjoyable entertainment with the following program: Vocal solo—Mary Barrett, playette, "How the story grew." Ladies Mary Belding, Abbie Fagan, Edith O'Dell, Louise Haynes, Ethel Cole, Edith Broiller and Jennie Broiller; reading, Lady Catherine Hoag; charades.

The domestic science classes appreciate the gift of a large steamer, a double compartment affair which includes several basins and has a copper bottom. This comes from Miss Mildred Heesen a former Tecumseh girl, who desiring to do something for our beautiful new school, took this means and couldn't have hit a more acceptable plan if she had tried.

To prove how valuable our classified ad column may be: Thos. Murphy last week advertised a cow and a calf for sale. On Saturday he had sold both. A couple of weeks ago he advertised in the same column 100 bushels of potatoes. In just a few days he had sold the whole outlay and could have sold 200 bushels more if he had had them. Nearly all went to farmers below Britton.

The Eagles met in regular session Tuesday evening, Wm. E. Barrett presiding. W. H. Graham, of Lansing, the deputy grand worthy president, was present and spoke highly of the manner in which the Tecumseh Aerie was conducted, commended the large percentage of attendance and the many good causes to which the lodge funds are devoted. He was here four years ago and was delighted to repeat the visit. Following the lodge session a roast beef dinner was served by the officers.

Mrs. Mary Wright passed away in Ypsilanti Friday. The remains were brought here Saturday and taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lowry, where the funeral was held Sunday afternoon with burial at Ridgeway cemetery. Mrs. Wright lived in Tecumseh a number of years, going to Ypsilanti with her son, Ernest, and family about a year ago. She has lived with her son, Charles, in that city since his return from service. She was a faithful attendant of the Methodist church while a resident here.

Tecumseh merchants were accommodating this week, getting their copy in early, thus enabling The Herald force to get the issue out in time for the rural carriers this morning. Rural subscribers got their papers one day early. As there is no rural delivery on Decoration day, patrons would not have received The Herald until Saturday. Such promptness in turning in copy every week would give the force a better opportunity to get out a better paper, and the best is none too good for the people of Tecumseh and vicinity.

The Ladies' Band put on their home talent show, "The Doll Shop," at Britton Tuesday night at Lenardson's hall. The dainty little show met with its well deserved favor by the house full of people who showed their appreciation heartily. The receipts were $43. There were a few changes in cast but it seemed not to detract from the success of the venture as given here. The ladies' band gave several selections in the street in front of Lenardson's hall, before the play started and were very well received. "The Doll Shop" is to be put on in Tipton this evening.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

A Happy Affair at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Waring.

Tuesday, May 27th, Miss Lillian Clark, who makes her home with Mrs. Alva Waring, had a birthday and some of her friends in the Baptist church, went with well laden baskets and surprised her, and it was a complete surprise too. After a little while of visiting, the guest of honor was invited to take her place at the head of the table in the dining room, the other places were filled and a fine supper was served to twenty-five. One of the features of the supper was a large birthday cake, heart shaped, made by Mrs. Jacob Rentschler, with 1903-1919 in red candies and so we finally found out how old Miss Clark was.

After supper Mrs. O. B. Finch, teacher of the S. S. class to which Miss Clark belongs, in a very pleasing way presented the latter with some money, suggesting that a book be bought with it.

Miss Clerk responded in a very sweet manner, thanking the ladies for their gift and for their thoughtfulness in the surprise part of it.

The rest of the time was spent in a social way, the guests finally saying "good night" and wishing our friend Miss Clark, many happy returns of the day.

Tecumseh K. of P. Entertains Those Who Served

DELICIOUS BANQUET AND EXCELLENT PROGRAM

Circuit Judge B. L. Hart Gives Address—Gen. F. B. Wood, Toastmaster.

Tecumseh Lodge, No. 190, Knights of Pythias, on a patriotic day carried out a patriotic affair by entertaining those that served their country during the world war that gave pleasure not only to the honored guests, but also to the members of the thriving K. of P. organization.

The affair was staged in the Grange hall Friday evening, only a few hours after the citizens of Tecumseh paid homage to the veterans of the Civil war.

Grange hall was prettily and artistically decorated for the occasion with flags, bunting and beautiful flowers of spring time. Four long tables were arranged for the banqueters, with the speakers' table crosswise at the head of the room. Seated at this table were Gen. F. B. Wood, Hon. B. L. Hart, Major H. H. Hammel, and the Revs. J. G. Widdifield, W. R. Curtis, C. M. Thompson and W. A. Rex.

About 6:30 the members of the lodge and guests marched from Pythian temple to Grange hall and in a short time the men, nearly 150 were seated and being served by a number of ladies that seemed to know how. Coats wer discarder (by nearly all) and the men made themselves as comfortable as possible, although the weather was of the real summer variety.

At each place was found a neatly printed program, patriotic in design, with a two-colored flag prominently placed on the cover.

The menu, prepared by Mrs. Mattis, caterer, was delicious and consisted of the following: Roast beef, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, cabbage salad, pickles, hot rolls, coffee, ice cream, cake and smokes.

During the feasting music was furnished by an orchestra composed of Archie Boyd (recently discharged from service) violin, Mrs. W. L. Coller, piano, and W. L. Coller traps. Patriotic airs and late popular hits, rendered in a snappy manner, delighted the banqueters, who, after the first pangs of hunger were relieved, applauded liberally.

The lighting of smokes was the universal sign that the men were ready for the program. Gen. Fred'k B. Wood presided as toastmaster, introducing the various numbers on the program in a clever manner, interspersing a story as fitted the occasion. First he introduced Miss Lillian Kennedy, who sang so charmingly that the "boys" demanded more; she graciously responded to the encore.

Major H. H. Hammel, who served with the British in France, was next introduced, his topic being "Tales from the Front." The Major appeared in his uniform, coat tightly buttoned up dress-parade style. After giving a vaild

MEMORIAL DAY MORE SOLEMN THAN IN PAST

TECUMSEH SADDENED BY WAR LOSES DURING THE YEAR

Attendance at Impressive Exercises for Fallen Heroes Is Larger Than Usual; Rev. C. M. Thompson Gives Eloquent Oration.

War having stretched its death-dealing hand into several Tecumseh homes during the last year, Memorial Day was observed in a more solemn manner this year than ever before by the residents of this town and vicinity. It was with deep reverence that an unusually large number of people gathered at the high school auditorium and listened intently to a masterly address by Rev. C. M. Thompson and later proceeded to the cemetery where impressive exercises were held in memory of this community's fallen heroes.

In preparation for participation in the exercises, the G. A. R. and the T. B. A. met at their hall at 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, being conveyed to the high school auditorium at 2. It was a bright, hot day but this failed to interfere with the attendance, a large crowd being present to pay tribute to those who had made the supreme sacrifice in fighting their nation's battles. There was a little delay in gaining an entrance to the building, there having been a misunderstanding in the arrangements for the meeting, but some Boy Scouts soon overcame the difficulty and the auditorium was thrown open to the public. The hall quickly filled, the Civil War Veterans, the Beer's auxiliary, the ladies' band and those taking part in the program being assigned seats on the stage.

John D. Shull, as president of the day, presided. In his introductory speech he told of the origin of Decoration Day and that the reverence with which the day is regarded is now more pronounced than ever.

The ladies' band gave a pleas-

FREE SHOWS TO BE RESUMED IN TECUMSEH

FIRST ENTERTAINMENT IS WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11.

Three High Class Stunts on Program; Welcome Extended to All From Far and Near.

Tecumseh merchants are proud of their home town.

They realize it is a highly desirable place.

There are many people, however, who do not appreciate to the full the attractiveness of Tecumseh.

So the local merchants have decided to induce people to come here and learn for themselves the advantages offered by this thriving place.

To draw people to Tecumseh it has been arranged to hold free entertainments on the streets during the coming summer, and the first of these will be given next Wednesday, June 11.

Three big acts will be presented and those in charge announce that the attractions will be of a superior character.

Similar entertainments were held last year and proved decidedly popular, people coming from all directions within driving distance of Tecumseh.

These attractive entertainments offer the people of this vicinity a splendid opportunity to meet their acquaintances from the nearby localities, to spend an enjoyable day in pleasurable, community-like association with Tecumsehites and gives those who plan shopping trips to this place a chance to do their buying on a day when they may also participate in the holiday spirit which these free acts generate.

Tecumseh is the most enterprising town in this part of Lenawee county and in presenting these free entertainments the merchants desire to encourage the residents of the surrounding territory to participate in and derive the benefits of the town's advantages.

The entertainments presented last year met the hearty approval of the thousands who weekly enjoyed them and the managers of this year's undertaking give assurance that the acts to be staged during the months to come will be as good or better than any that have preceded.

In addition to the free feature stunts that are to be offered on the opening occasion Wednesday, June 11, there will be band music and the event will be made such as to cause all who attend to be present at each succeeding show.

Tecumseh extends the hand of welcome to all.

DOUBLY AFFLICTED

After Being Shot by Germans Hascall Biggins Encounters Auto.

Hascall Biggins, only recently returned from France, was over from Monroe Saturday, meeting old friends and visiting relatives. "Zeke" is sure some banged up soldier. Over there he was shot in the side of the head, laid in a hospital some months and reported back to the states as missing. Now that wound is about healed up, but he met a Ford in the streets of Monroe the last of the week which left more scars and not so serius as the German bullet. He has one leg, both hands and his head bandaged as the cuts and bruises were that much spread over his person. He gaily greeted his friends with "They can't kill me, you see."

Corporal Ed Rogers Comes Back After Serving Uncle Sam.

Corporal Ed Rogers arrived home from service Monday evening. He enlisted in the marines and was called shortly before the armistice was signed, being stationed at Paris Island, S. C. Here he remained until three months ago when he was sent to the navy yards at Philadelphia and it was there he received his discharge. He's looking fine and no more glad to be home than his many friends who have been welcoming him right and left.

PYTHIANS WILL HAVE BIG TIME HERE JUNE 12

FOURTEEN LODGES TO COMPETE FOR SILVER CUP.

Tecumseh Knights Planning Warm Welcome For Members of South Central Michigan League—Banquet a Feature.

Knights of Pythias from more than a dozen towns in this vicinity will invade Tecumseh next Thursday, June 12, when the annual meeting of the South Central League of Pythian lodges will be held here. There will be afternoon and evening sessions and it is expected the attendance will be large. A banquet will be one of the features of the gathing. Grand lodge officers will conduct the meetings.

The South Michigan League of Knights of Pythias lodges comprises the organizations at Adrian, Ann Arbor, Chelsea, Saline, Ypsilanti, Milan, Manchester, Dundee, Morenci, Hudson, Tipton, Seneca, Waldron and Tecumseh. All are expected to have delegations at the sessions here June 12 and a number of the lodges will send their degree teams to participate in the competition which will be held in the evening. The team putting on the initiatory work in the most finished manner is awarded a silver cup, this now being in the possession of the Ypsilanti lodge. Word comes from that city that the Ypsilanti lodge will send its degree team to compete in the initiatory exhibition in the hope of retaining the silver cup another year. There will be other teams determined to win the award, and the prospects are that the gathering here next Thursday will be one of great interest. The Ypsilanti team is to be accompanied by at least fifty lodgemen, according to word from that city, and if the other towns are represented in proportion there will be a large number of Knights of Pythias in Tecumseh a week from today.

H. H. Hanna of Tecumseh is president of the league and assisted by members of the local lodge is making preparations to welcome the visiting lodgemen like Tecumseh always greets visitors. The business session of the league will be held in the afternoon at the Castle hall of Tecumseh lodge, No. 190, and early in the evening a banquet will be served the delegates. The exhibition degree work will follow. The cup for which the teams will compete is now on exhibition in the display windows of the Rosacrans dry goods store.

KILLED BY AUTO

Sister-In-Law of Two Tecumseh Residents Loses Life in Cleveland.

Tuesday morning Mrs. J. D. Service and Ed Rogers received a message of the death of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Arthur Rogers, Toledo. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers had just started east on a vacation trip by auto and when in Cleveland they met with an accident, Mrs. Rogers being killed. The family went to Toledo Wednesday for the funeral.

TO BRING BACK BRIDE

Popular Jeweler Goes to Saskatchewan to Marry Erma Hendrix.

Karl Braman, the jeweler, starts Sunday for Calgary, Saskatchewan, Canada, where he will June 24 marry Miss Erma Hendrix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hendrix.

Mr. Braman, before coming to Michigan, a few years ago, lived in North Dakota and Miss Hendrix is a friend of the old days.

The couple will naturally come to Tecumseh as we can not let Mr. Braman go for keeps after so recently returning from service in France. He is working up a splendid trade here and has a large circle of firm friends who are prepared to heartily welcome his bride.

CUPID INVADES STORE

Two Young Ladies From 5 and 10 Cent Establishment Are Wedded.

The marrying epidemic certainly struck the 5 and 10 cent store this week. Miss Ella Clapp, the former manager, was married on Monday to Horace Magley and on Wednesday her assistant, Miss Gladys Welch, became the bride of Leland Cheever of Adrian, son of Mrs. Lizzie Cheever of Tecumseh. Mrs. Cheever will return to her work at the store Monday.

Miss Clapp and Horace Magley, who is from Adrian, went to Detroit Monday and were married at the Christ church rectory. After a short auto trip they will return to Adrian, where Mr. Magley conducts the Nevison bakery.

For a couple of years Miss Clapp has managed the Tecumseh 5 and 10c store, coming here when Harold Tribolet went into Uncle Sam's service. She has won many loyal friends by her kindliness and happy nature. The Herald unites with the villagers in wishing her a happy journey through life with the man of her choice.

Miss Mary Tribolet gave a shower Saturday night at her home in Coldwater in Miss Clapp's honor.

Editorial Comment

This week the writer of this column takes pleasure in introducing to the many readers of The Herald, Mr. Charles A. Ihrkey, who has purchased an interest in and will be associated with Mr. Ahrens in publishing The Herald.

Mr. Ihrkey assumed the position of associate editor-manager Monday morning of this week. His duties will bring him in personal touch with the business and social activities of the town and the surrounding territory, and the writer bespeaks for him, and his family later, a cordial welcome in Tecumseh.

Mr. Ihrkey is an experienced newspaper man, giving up the city editor's desk in the office of the Jackson Daily Citizen-Patriot, with which paper he has been connected for nearly seventeen years, to take up his new work in Tecumseh. He comes back to old Lenawee to take up his residence in his native county, being born and reared in Adrian. He began his newspaper career in the office of the Adrian Daily Telegram as devil twenty-one years ago. The writer can vouch for the fact that he made an excellent devil and his record following also substantiates this statement. From assistant foreman in the Jackson office he advanced to foreman, then was promoted to sporting editor and his strict attention to business and his ready adaptability soon won for him the city editor's desk, an honor not easily acquird.

This change in the conduct of business of The Herald is made for several reasons. First, the welfare of The Herald was considered, and as the burdens of a growing business were becoming rather heavy for the publisher, he sought assistance, and he bethought himself of old associates. Good team work is the keynote to success, and as Mr. Ihrkey and the writer had in the past accomplished much for others in team work, that system was thought best to keep The Herald up to the top notch and make it still better.

The firm of Ahrens & Ihrkey will stand for progress and everything that is good for the welfare of the community in which The Herald circulates.

"The League of Nations was the covenant of governments that the millions who fell in the great war shall not have died in vain," said President Wilson in an address at the graves of American dead in a cemetery near Paris.

The League of Nations has been the ideal hope of America and the world, and is yet looked upon in that light by the masses who have made sacrifices that there may be no repetition of the butchery and destructive warfare the world has witnessed during the past few years.

But the politician—the partisan politician—has come into the arena, ready to discredit the greatest movement for peace ever attempted. "It won't work," they say. When the Monroe doctrine was brought up for legislation the same partisan political cry was raised—"it won't work." But it did work and a good stiff American bluff is the only thing that made it work.

A League of Nations is not incomprehensible or impossible. It is a court of the largest order where national misunderstandings can be ironed out without butchery. The first plan might not prove absolutely successful; in fact it would be a marvel if it did; but the first plan might lead to the successful one that would eliminate for all time the big war horrors.

The League of Nations should not be considered from a partisan standpoint. But too many of our representatives in Congress still adhere to party lines without seriously considering the welfare of humanity, and thus the measure has its opposition.

Congressman Earl C. Michener has returned from the battlefields of Europe with the house committee of military affairs. It was quite an extensive trip and we trust these men will see the light and act in the interest of humanity.

In an interview with a daily reporter Mr. Michener did not speak in a very cheerful manner of the proposed league; in fact he expressed a doubt that such a league would ever become a reality.

Mr. Michener entered the congressional race independent of any party clique and promised to serve the people to the best of his ability. We believe he will. If he allows any partisan feeling to influence him against humane legislation many will be sorely disappointed in him.

"Senior Echoes Bugle"

IT CAN BE DONE!

(With due apologies to Edgar Guest)

Somebody said that it couldn't be done
But we with a chuckle reply,
That maybe it can't, but we'll not be the ones
To say so till we've tried.
So we're buckling right in with a bit of a grin
On our faces, if we worry we hide it.
We're starting to sing as we tackle this thing
That can't be done and WE'LL DO IT!

For the first time in the history of the old Tecumseh High School we Seniors are editing a Year Book. It is entitled "The Senior Echoes" and we want to tell you that it's no trifling book. When we first thought of putting over such an undertaking as the editing of a Year Bok in Tecumseh we realized that we had our nerve, and so did others, but as our friend Edgar has said in the above lines (revised to suit our occasion). "Maybe it can't be done, but we'll not say so till we've tried."

Here are a few reasons why we the Class of 1919 are publishing the "Senior Echoes" and why we know it will be a success.

1—Because we have a school that is worth advertising. We figure that this book may be instrumental in drawing new students to Tecumseh and indirectly help the town by bringing families to trade here.

2—We knew that if Tecumseh kept up her reputation that she would put out a Year Book eventualy. We said "Why not Now?"

3—We want the citizens and taxpayers of Tecumseh to have the satisfaction of seeing what a wonderful institution we have in our midst. We want them to see that talent is in our school as is shown in the cartoons, etchings and drawings and essays to be found in "The Echoes."

Here's why the undertaking is bound to be a success.

1—The book itself is a big one, of one hundred and forty pages, each nine inches wide and a foot high. The cover will be deep yellow ad the binding is of the very best—on heavy glazed paper.

2—There will be over a hundred cuts of cartoons, snapshots and photographs of the old High School and the New, of the School Board, the Faculty, the Seniors, and of every student in the upper six grades.

3—There will be twelve full-page cartoons, all by our own students and twelve big departments, each made extremely interesting by the photographs. The departments are as follows:

I—"The School Board." Included in this is a photograph of the five men who have given so much time and effort to the school in the past year and to whom so much credit is due. Watch for that in the "Echoes."

II—"The Faculty." In this department are shown the individual cuts of every instructor in the upper six grades. Watch for that in the "Echoes."

III—"The Seniors." This department consists of individual pictures of the twenty-two graduats. Also a short write up about each member and then the Commencement Exercises.

IV—"The Juniors." Here is a group photograph of the Junior Class, a list of their officers and members and a big picture of their play.

VI—"The Junior High." This department is devoted to the seventh, eighth and ninth grades with group photographs of each grade.

VII—"Music." Showing full-page photographs of all the Glee Clubs, etc.

VIII—"Military." With two splendid photographs of the cadets, one in front of the School, the other while the company was in Platoon Drill Formation.

IX—"Athletics." This department shows to what a great extent we have gone in for physical development this year. Has pictures of football, baseball, basketball, tennis and track teams, etc.

X—"Socitey." With the social events of the past two years. Also a picture of the recent May party in the Gym.

XI—"Jokes." This department is worth the price of the book alone. "Life" or the joke section of the Woman's Home Companion can't hold a candle to this department of the "Echoes." Sixty laughs a minute guaranteed, or your money cheerfully refunded.

XII—"Advertising." Here one can find the best reason for the fact that Tecumseh is the "Biggest Little Town on Earth." Her business men are not afraid of advertising, and they all believe in co-operation, in backing the school.

Of course this just briefly describes this interesting book. Perhaps one can gain a better idea of how big a thing it is when he realizes that the cost of editing this Year Book will be over $900.00. As things are reckoned so much nowadays by their cost in money perhaps one would be interested in knowing too that we have cuts in the "Echoes" that cost over $340.00.

There are 500 of these books being printed now by one of the biggest printing establishment in this part of the United States. They are being sold by fifty of the best salesmen in school who are earning their own book by selling a certain number of others.

BIGGER THAN TOLEDO'S YEAR BOOK.

The following statement was made by one of Tecumseh's leading business men:

"I have looked very thoroughly into the Year Book that the Seniors are editing this year.

"To my knowledge it is one of the biggest undertakings ever attempted by a school the size of Tecumseh.

"I was amazed to find that the Class of 1919 are publishing a Year Book that is even bigger than that of the Toledo Schools, and although like the rest of Tecumseh's loyal citizens I have contributed liberally to all war causes, nevertheless inasmuch as our students have shown such ability and push to put this big undertaking across I as a business man of Tecumseh am supporting this worthy project to the fullest extent, not only by advertising and buying "Senior Echoes" for myself but buying them for my friends as well.

"I know from investigation that only the very best of material and the highest grade cuts are being used in the make-up of this book. From the first page to the last it is a credit to the Class of 1919.

"Tecumseh should support any worthwhile enterprise on the part of its younger generation for all it is worth, especially in an instance like this.

"Signed
"R. S. MOORE."

WHIRLWIND CAMPAIGN

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week have been chosen to put on the whirlwind campaign for the sale of "Echoes." Every home will be canvassed and every citizen that buys a book will be given a tag. The biggest sellers (the best Salesmen) will receive compensation for their efforts.

NOT LACKING IN "PEP"

A Banker's advise is often invaluable. See what our livewire Banker Herbert Temple has to say concerning the "Senior Echoes":

"I am pleased to see that the first class to graduate from Tecumseh's new school building has accumulated some "PEP" in their project of getting out the "Senior Echoes."

They are entitled to a lot of credit and from the proofs of the "Echoes" which I have seen, it is bound to bring credit to Tecumseh as well as to Tecumseh High Schol Class of 1919.

"Signed
"H. S. TEMPLE,
"Cashier Lilley State Bank."

The Class of 1919 is not editing this Year Book to make money. It is editing it to advertise Tecumseh as well as its new school. If anyone thinks we have got a snap in undertaking this job they have got a second guess coming. We hope that following classes will continue the custom which we have started and edit a "Senior Echoes" yearly from now on.

DOES IT COST TOO MUCH?

Is $1.25 too much to ask for a "Senior Echoes?" NO-O-O-O-O assuredly not! If 500 books cost us over $900.00, are we profiteering on them at one dollar and twenty-five cents apiece which we are seling them for.

Watch for your kid's picture in the "Echoes." Its there.

There are 275 people whose pictures are in the "Echoes."

BOOST TECUMSEH

Listen to what "The Herald" has to say about the "Ehcoes":

"All efforts to boost Tecumseh deserve encouragement and as the publication of the "Echoes" will clearly demonstrate that this place is among the live towns in Lenawee County, we unstintingly endorse the undertaking. The High School is an institution in which we may take just pride and any project which will redound to the benefit of our places of learning warrant the support of all Public Spirited merchants and other citizens.

"May the "Echoes" be crowned with unlimited success.

"Ahrens & Ihrkey, Publishers."

HENRY D. WINNE EXPIRES

Second Stroke of Paralysis Fatal to Former Adrian Resident.

Henry D. Winne passed away Saturday evening at 7:40 at the home of his niece, Mrs. William Willnow, with whom he had resided for the past four years. Death followed a second stroke of paralysis which he suffered May 22, he having been nearly helpless since.

Mr. Winne was born October 11, 1849, in New York, coming to Adrian with his people when but a small lad. On July 24, 1871, he married Miss Rose Upell of Adrian and that city was their home until her death.

His funeral was held Tuesday. Short services were conducted at the William Willnow home, South Union street at 8 o'clock in the morning with burial ceremonies at the Catholic church in Deerfield. Burial at Deerfield.

A sad circumstance of this death is that the day previous the body of his nephew, John Perry, arrived in Deerfield, he having been killed in New Mexico.

COMPOSES POEM TO BOYS OVER THERE

Walter Kinney, Former Tecumseh Boy, Pays Tribute In Verse to Heroes of World War.

The following poetry was composed by Walter L. Kinney of Cincinnati, a former Tecumseh boy and brother to Mrs. G. H. Tansley.

THE NEW ERA

Dedicated to "Our Boys"—Over There.

By W. L. Kinney,
Cincinnati Lodge, No. 33.

We've been waiting through long ages on the darkest side of life
For the coming of an Era to remove this world from strife;
Now, the night seems neorly over and the morn, at last has come
For we see, in yon far distance that the battle's nearly won.

Yes, we've waited with all patience for this welcome time to come
And it now, is being greeted with the bugle, fife and drum;
Then, the Masses, will be cheerful and have reason to, so great
For Justice will be the watchward ere we reach the Golden Gate.

As the day, at last is dawning when we see the Saviour's plan
Justice, the basis of Harmony and humanity of man to man;
All at that time, will be brothers and the war of strife be o'er
We will hail the "Banner of Freedom" for Humanity's sake, the Poor.

Then, we'll treat each other kindly and forgive, as we're forgiven
We will bear each other's burdens and thereby welcome Heaven;
This, will be a day most joyous to the Men, with hearts most true
Who, will ever greet the coming of an Era, born anew.

It is All Gone Now.

Was on a Torpedo Ship.

Thomas A. Breslin, 646 Broadway, Albany, N. Y., writes: Having been on a torpedo ship coming to this country from England, I had a cold ever since. I was advised by a friend to take Foley's Honey and Tar and before long I was cured." You can stop that cough or cold that has been lingering since spring. Sold everywhere in Tecumseh. adv

Finding The Reason

Do you know that there is a logical reason why our business is steadily growing from month to month and year to year. It is because our customers are all of the "repeat" variety. They are coming in everyday and saying, "I want another just like I got the last time." This means that they have received complete satisfaction from their purchase; in fact have got value received and then some for the money they spent.

It is the "then some" that makes customers come back. You can buy good merchandise from any dealer, but our policy is to give every customer more than they expect. If you are not more than pleased with any purhase, we want you to come back and ask for a readjustment and see how cheerfully we make good.

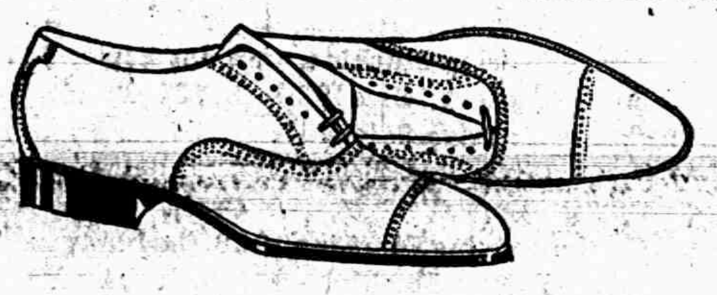
Shoes for Men



YOUNG AMERICA

Be he farmer's boy or city bred, salesman or mechanic, clerk or proprietor, student or professional man—the young American of to-day wants good shoes.

Not merely durability in shoes, but that added quality of trimness and vim that RALSTON style so emphatically imparts.

And—it's no secret—the young American's father warms up to RALSTON style, too, for he has learned it can be had with no sacrifice, either of wear-value or comfort.

LAW STUDENTS GIVE ADDRESS

U. OF M. MEN SPEAKERS AT COMMUNITY SERVICE

Trio Makes Decidely Favorable Impression — Next Sunday's Meeting to Be at Presbyterian Church.

In spite of the intense heat Sunday evening the Methodist church was fairly well filled with people from all the churches for the Community service. After a song, Rev. W, R. Curtis read the Scripture lesson and prayed. Among the announcements given was that next Sunday evening Rev. W. A. Rex would at the Presbyterian church give Tecumseh Night No. 5, providing the proposed government drive for the benefit of the Boy Scouts did not mature. If so, the service would be given over to that. Following came, a vocal solo by Lester Waring.

The audience was then treated to some fine addresses by three students from the law department of the University of Michigan. David A. Watts talked on Universal Service,"- giving the arguments for and against the same. This is one of the main questions which confront the United States in political, economic and military affairs and a discussion givng the reasons pro and con come in pat now. The young man's speech showed deep study into the subject. He ended, "It is to be hoped that at some time, there will be no need of such a policy when all our foes are vanquished and Christ is Lord of all."

Wade P. Connell took for his subject "Religion and Duty." The first christians were narrow putting their duty before their religion, but now our religion is getting broader, as "see here tonight, people from all churches, met together to worship God and all working for one cause, Christ's kingdom."

Earl Miles, the leader of the group, spoke on "The church and State, the infiluence of both on Society." The message of love is the duty of the church, of the state that men be forced to live lives directed by this spirit of love, where there was no love at first there was constant war. Universal peace has been the dream of the ages, but we must have practical means to make this possible. He gave a splendid plea for the League of Nations. "They say it won't work all over, but success was built on failure." The stricken nations over there are looking to us for a time of peace, for liberty, fraternity, equality. when all will be peace on earth, to men good will."

The people received these fine young men most royally after the service, they going back to Ann Arbor, feeling they had had a hearty welcome over here and having left many a higher thought with the Tecumseh people.

RIDGEWAY

Memorial Exercises.

Decoration Day was observed here with a short program at the church after which there was a parade to the cemetery where a committee decorated the soldiers' graves. Clark Baldwin was the speaker of the day and the Britton orchestra furnished the music.

Graduating Exercises.

The graduating exercises were held at the church last Thursday night. The class was composed of three members, Beatrice Gilmore, president, and Dorothy Combellack, and Ernest Combellack. The music was furnished by Mrs. Marian Stone, Lillian Dibble and P. G. Heidenreich of Tecumseh. Prof A. A. Riddering of Dundee gave the address, after which the diplomas were presented by Mr. Eyler.

Alumni Banquet.

The twenty-third annual alumni banquet was held in the church parlors Saturday evening. After the feast, which was furnished by the Ladies' Aid with Mrs. Horace Smith chairman, a program was given. This was followed by a short business meeting. The following officers were elected.

NOVEL EXPERIENCE

School Board Members and Wives Served Splendid Meal by Domestic Science Class.

The members of the school board and their wives were honored at a novel function Thursday evening when they were the guests of the Senior domestic science class at a five-course six o'clock dinner.

The dining room at the high school basement has been furnished as a cozy home dining room, with furniture, dishes, linen and silver complete and the art of setting the table is a part of the course. This night the tables were beautifully laid, baskets of lilacs lending the festive touch. At each table sat a hostess, the Misses Jessie French and Gladys Gilbert acting in this capacity.

The splendid dinner was every bit prepared by the girls of the class and every item on the menu just right. The guests expressed themselves repeatedly as highly delighted with the dinner, both in the preparation and service and that certainly the domestic science and art classes as taught by Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw has proved highly satisfactory, in fact one of the best courses in the high school.

HERE'S REAL TREAT

Two Noted Artists to Be Heard in Adrian.

People of Tecumseh and vicinity, especially those who are musically inclined, will be interested in the announcement that David Bispham and Clarence Eddy are soon to appear in Adrian under the direction of the Adrian College Conservatory Artist concerts. Mr. Bispham will appear June 17, while Mr. Eddy gives a recital June 24. The visit in Adrian of these two famous entertainers is epoch-making in the musical life of Lenawee county. That two such distinguished artists can be presented in Adrian with every assurance of success reminds all that this county and vicinity are intensely interested in the best music that is produced. Tecumseh residents and people residing in this vicinity are among those urged to take advantage of this extraordinary opportunity to hear two of the country's leading artists.

Mr. Bispham has been a famous figure in the world of music for 25 years and Mr. Eddy even longer. Mr. Bispham is perhaps one of the most versatile artists on the concert platform, for with his delightful baritone voice goes great dramatic ability which puts in second place the tonal qualities of presentations. He is master of musical declamations. His "Raven," by Edgar Allen Poe is the most masterful presentation of this weird poem that has ever been made. This poem will be included in his Adrian program on June 17 at the Croswell.

"As a study in characterization David Bispham's performance of 'The Raven' is most remarkable, Without make-up or stage appurtenances of any kind, he sits in a chair by the piano but one forgets instrument and accompanist in witnessing what seems to be a human tragedy. A torn soul is telling its tale of love and loss,—of wretchedness and ruin, and how drink and the devil dragged him deep down to the depths of despair! As he tells the tale the audience fairly seems to see with Mr. Bispham, the imaginary raven entering the window out of the storm, strutting across the room, and perching itself upon the bust above the door. With each succeeding verse of the tragedy, Mr. Bispham seemed to grow more insane until yielding at last to temptation, he drains to the dregs another draught.

"The glass falls crashing to the ground, and a maniac stands before one, praying to be delivered and to be restored to the arms of his beloved. And yet one feels as deep a pity that the sense of salvation and the everlasting arms fill the audience with deep emotion. This rendering of 'The Raven' is said to be the greatest temperance sermon ever preached."

PLEASURABLE MEETING

Westminster Gild Has Interesting Session—Labor Problem Discussed.

Mrs. P. G. Heidenreich, Mrs. J. L. Coller and Mrs. J. R. Nyland were hostesses for the Westminster Guild Tuesday evening at the Heidenreich home. That there is unusual interest in this society was proven by the good attendance in spite of the heat. Miss Byrde Stone had charge of the devotionals, and the "Labor Problem" was discussed by Mrs. Frank Nyland and Mrs. Donald Wright. During the social hour the hostesses served most delicious strawberries, ice cream and cake.

MAKES RAPID STRIDES

Glen Griswold's Success as Business Man Is Remarkable.

The many Tecumseh friends of Glen Griswold, a former resident here and graduate of our schools, will be proud to hear of his phenomenal success, for it is certainly nothing less for a man of only 25 to attain the height he has reached in business. Something like fifteen months ago he and a friend organized the Griswold-Wagg Motor Company in Sandusky with Glen as president. The business has so far outgrown the present quarters that this week they let the contract for the erection of a two-story, reinforced concrete, steel and brick structure to cost $60,000. When complete, this bulding will be the most up-to-date and fully equipped garage between Toledo and Cleveland, with room for 160 cars.

BRADLEY OPERA HOUSE ATTRACTIONS

Shoulder Arms Saturday Evening.

"Shoulder Arms," who has not heard of this wonderful three act Charley Chaplin comedy? Thousands have been talking about it and asking when and where it would be shown in Tecumseh, but it's a case of "the big house with the big show" and we are glad to tell you that this, the first of the new "Million Dollar Chaplins" will be shown at the Bradley opera house this week Saturday, June 7, so keep your Saturday night date for Charley.

Don't compare "Shoulder Arms" with any of the old Chaplins you have been in the habit of seeing. The new Chaplins are as far ahead of the old subjects as an aeroplane is ahead of the old ox-cart. When you see "Shoulder Arms" you will see the best comedy ever shown in Tecumseh, we bar none. The management of the Bradley is paying more for these new Chaplins than is paid for any five reel feature brought into town and is showing it as an extra attraction at that, but owing to the enormous seating capacity at the Bradley the admission is only advanced 5c on the first floor, and if you wish to sit in the balcony, you can see this big bill at regular admission, 10c plus war tax. The charming Pauline Frederick in a famous story and a magnificent five act production, "The Hungry Heart," completes the big Saturday night bill at the Bradley.

It is always ten degrees cooler at the Bradley than outside—plenty of room, big crowds handled without crowding, good outside ventilation and electric fans in both balcony and first floor make the Bradley an ideal place for an evenings entertainment these hot summer evenings.

Marguerite Clark and Alice Brady to Share Honors—Sunday Evening.

On Sunday evening, June 8, Marguerite Clark in "Bab's Birglar" the last of the "sub-deb" stories which recently ran in "The Saturday Evening Post and Alice Brady, the brilliant and gifted screen star will be seen in "The Whirlpool"—the story of a girl who had faith in human nature—and played her hunch. A clean and wholesome story and splendidly presented on the screen. These two stars will share the honors on Sunday's big double program.

The Sunday evening programs, are, without a doubt, the greatest amusement values ever presented. Two complete plays with two different stars are offered at one admission and it is doubtful if either of the productions could be seen anywhere else at the price charged at the Bradley for the two.

HOLD LAWN PICNIC

Jolly Party Takes Place at J. L. Calhoun Home Near Holloway.

Tuesday evening a party of relatives went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Calhoun, near Holloway, and held a jolly picnic on the lawn, honoring their guests, Mrs. Nellie McCormack and Mrs. Thos. Biddison of Baltimore. After the great supper there was a program of music and fun generally. Mrs. McCormack, who is quite an artist as a whistler, and Mrs. Calhoun entertained the guests with piano music. Present beside the hosts and guests from Baltimore were Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rector, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nemire, Mrs. J. C. VanDoren, Mrs. B. J. Rector, Mrs. F. D. Rector, Misses Mildred Boyce, Madeline Boyce and Alice Nemire and Wilbur Boyce.

TIPTON GIRL HONORED

Ivaline Lamkin Appointed Journal Clerk in House of Representatives.

Miss Ivaline Lamkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orman Lamkin of Tipton, has been appointed journal clerk of the house of representatives for the special session. Miss Lamkin is the first woman to hold this office in Michigan. She was assistant journal clerk during the lat regular session.

Miss Lamkin is very well known and liked in Tecumseh. A graduate of our high school and later from a business college, she returned to Tecumseh and for some time was a stenographer for F. B. Wood in his law office.

Girl Makes $98 From Nine Hatches

A little girl in Orange County, Va., borrowed money from her father to buy nine settings of eggs, so she might belong to a poultry club organized by the United States Department of Agriculture and the State Agricultural College. One setting would have entitled her to a membership but she is no believer in halfway measures. On this venture her first year's work netted a profit of $98, and she has three roosters left.

Don't borrow trouble; almost any one will gladly give it to you.

Miss Lula Stabler was in Adrian Sunday evening, going to hear Dr. F. A. Perry's sermon on the question of "Should the Movie Theatres be allowed to keep open on Sunday."

Rev. E. M. Conklin of Charlotte preached at the Universalist service Sunday. He is soon to take his family to their summer home on Long Island and no plans as yet are made for the services at the local church.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Updyke were in Clinton Monday going to see the former's mother, Mrs. Louise Updyke, who is very ill with heart trouble and Mrs. James Trombley, who is recovering from an operation performed last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Graebner's guests for Decoration day were Rev. and Mrs. Albert Benze and daughter, Alberta, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heymann and daughter, Helen and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Hellen and two children all of Toledo.

At a meeting of the county road commissioner, at the court house in Adrian Saturday afternoon, John L. Richard was appointed county engineer to superintend road construction in Lenawee county under the county road system.

W. L. Coller was a busy man in the music line on Decoration day. He assisted the Tipton band in the Memorial services, furnished music for the Knights of Pythias banquet in the early evening, and played for the K. of P. dance at Tipton the same evening.

Miss Laura Comfort started for Philadelphia Thursday, to be ready to begin Monday her work as a district nurse in that city. This plan she formed before her arrival home from overseas and again have the Tecumseh people reason to be proud of this young lady.

Clare Roush, who recently arrived from overseas and his sister, Miss Mabel Roush, of Montpelier, Ohio, spent Saturday and Saturday night with their aunt, Mrs. C. N. Graebner. Mr. and Mrs. Graebner motored to Toledo with them Sunday, spending the day there.

Stewart Brazee of Detroit was a Sunday guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brazee.

The board of review met Tuesday and Wednesday in the council room. One object of these meetings is to give taxpayers an opportunity to learn of their assessments and file objections if any there are. By some oversight the meeting was not given the publicity it should have had for the convenience of the taxpayers.

Gov. Sleeper's private secretary, Rolf Duff, of Armada delivered the Memorial address at Tipton Friday afternoon. Afterward Rep. C. A. Evans brought him to Tecumseh to take the 5:40 train north. While in the village he spent an hour with his old friend, Dr. L. G. North.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. DeSpelder and little Betty Lou returned Sunday to their home in Columbus, Ohio, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Aylesworth and Mrs J. F. DeSpelder.

The men's class of the Presbyterian church was disappointed in the promised talk by Hon. James H. Baker on the League of Nations, Mr. Baker sending word that because of a mix-up in dates it was impossible for him to be here Sunday. However, the men of the class were consoled with some excellent stories telling the experiences of preachers in Y. M. C. A. war work in France. The stories showed up the preachers as heroic workers for the cause and the remarkable adaptability possessed by them when necessity demanded.

R. R. Hendershott has a new Dodge auto.

John Kratzer of Jackson spent Sunday with his brother, Joe and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Taylor of Detroit were here for Decoration day and a visit with the latter's mother, Mrs. Hobart Mitchell.

Will Lockhart of Delray, conductor on the D. T. & I., managed to get to the K. of P. banquet just a little late for the physical feast, but he did enjoy the program and the familiar geetings from the brethren of the lodge, with which he is affiliated.

THOUGHTS ON THRIFT

By Ben Franklin.

Save and have.

Every mickle makes a muckle.

Little strokes fell great oaks.

A rolling stone gathers no moss.

God helps those that help themselves.

Spend one penny less than thy clear gains.

Look before or you'll find yourself behind.

The way to wealth is as short as the way to market.

He that waits upon fortune is never sure of a dinner.

Money can beget money, and is offspring can beget more.

It is foolish to lay out money in a purchase of repentance.

Learning is to the studious and riches to the careful.

Waste neither time nor money, but make the best use of both.

Remember that money is of the prolific, generating nature.

All things are cheap to the saving, dear to the wasteful.

If you would be wealthy, think of saving as well as getting.

Beware of small expenses; a small leak will sink a great ship.

A penny saved is a twopence clear. A pin a day is a groat a year.

Gain may be temporary and uncertain, but expense is constant and certain.

Buy what thou hast no need of, and ere long thou shalt sell thy necessaries.

It is easier to suppress the first desire than to satisfy all that follow it.

Shoes Wear Longer

When you walk in comfort; so do stockings. A package of Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to shake into the shoes, gives you that "old shoe" comfort. Allen's Foot-Ease stops the pain of bunions, corns and callouses, and makes tight or new shoes feel easy.—adv 6-19.

BRITTON

Baccalaureate Service.

The first of the commencement exercises began Sunday evening in the baccalaureate services that were held at M. P. church. Potted plants huge bouquets of snowballs and lilacs interwoven, with their class colors, blue and gold,, with a handsome latticed work piece in the back grounr formed the hansome decorations. As the march was being played by Miss Lucile Lowe the class took their places, when the following numbers were given:

Music—High School orchestra.

Scripture reading and prayer—Rev. J. C. DeRemer.

Duet, "Deep River"—Wilbur Clark and Harry Allen.

Address—Rev. Samuel Tamblyn.

Mr. Tamblyn's talk on "visions" was full of advice both to old and young and all who heard him could not help but feel new inspiration and higher ideas.

After a selection by the orchestra Rev. DeRemer pronounced the benediction.

Obituary—James McCarbery.

James McCarbery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCarbery, was born in Antrim county, Ireland, July 12. 1840, and departed this life at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Underwood, of Britton May 30, 1919, at the age of 79.

He came to this country when but a small child. After the death of his parents he lived with his aunt in Lenawee county. When a young boy he worked by the month until the age of 22. when he heeded his country's call and enlisted in Co. F, 26th Michigan Infantry. and faithfully served his country until the close of the war. September 25, 1866, he was united in marriage to Katherine Waltz, who passed away five years ago. To this union were born six children.

Mr. McCarbery since his marriage always lived in Macon township until 12 years ago, when he moved to Ridgeway township and has lived there ever since. He has been in failing health for about a year, but was up and around the house until two months ago when he was confined to his bed. He was cheerful and patient during his sickness and never complained.

He leaves to mourn his death one sister, Mrs. Maria Erskine of Grand Rapids, five children, Henry of Ridgeway, Charles of Monroe, Mrs. Thomas Russell and Mrs. John Underwood of Britton, and Mrs. Harry Cox of Tecumseh and eight grandchildren.

Dear father, how we miss you,
Our God alone can tell.
To Him we look for comfort,
Who doeth all things well.

The funeral services were held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. L. Underwood, Rev. J. C. DeRemer officiating. Burial was made in Ridgeway.

Obituary—Nancy M. Linn-Palmer

The subject of this sketch, Nancy M. Linn-Palmer, was born in the township of Ridgeway, October 10, 1845, and passed away May 18, 1919, at Ontario, California, aged 73 years, 7 months and 8 days. She was one of six children born to Samuel and Obigail Linn, pioneer settlers, and was the last one of this family to pass away.

October 10, 1866, she was united in marriage to Leonidas S. Palmer and to this union were born three boys; Erwin of Britton, Arthur and Cyrus of California and they wih four grandchildren are left to mourn the departure of one whom they dearly loved. The husband and father passed away several years ago. She had always lived in this township and the past few years had resided in this village. A year ago she went to California to visit her sons. A few weeks ago she submitted to an operation which was very successful and she was making preparations to return to her home here when she was taken ill again and although loving heart and hands did all they could for her, yet it was of no avail and death came as a release to her intense suffering. She was a member of the Christion church "where she had done what she could" not only as a member of the church, but in the Ladies' Bible class, where she will be greatly missed. The remains were accompanied here by her two sons, Arthur and Cyrus, and the funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, May 27, Rev. J. C. DeRemer officiating. The pall bearers were nephews namely: W. L. Exelby, Chas. VanDeventer, Lavern Linn, Willis Palmer, Herbert Smith and Clarence Exelby. The body was laid to rest beside her husband in Ridgeway cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation to all who were so kind in various ways during our recent bereavement caused by the death of our beloved mother, Mrs. L. S. Palmer. We are also grateful to the pastor for his comforting words, singers and those who sent the beautiful floral pieces.

Superintendent and Mrs. Geo. Putnam entertained at six o'clock dinner, Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Downing, Mrs. Rhea Tillyer, Mr. Gansfield and the Misses Alice Roscoe, Rosenary Gibson and Donna Exelby. The evening was delightfully spent in social converse.

Beautiful weather and flowers delightfully greeted Decoration Day this year adding not only pleasure to the few remaining war veterans but to friends who have loved ones laid in the silent city of the dead. All that morning as well as the afternoon and evening previous baskets of blossoms were carried to the cemetery and by afternoon it resembled a handsome flower garden. A large crowd was present at the M. E. church to listen to the excellent program that had been prepared and announced in last issue and which was faultlessly carried out. Attorney Clark E. Baldwin gave an excellent address paying tribute not only to the Civil war veterans but to those of our later wars who had given all in service for their country. He also gave a warning against problems that have arisen and of which we must fight against. After these services a long procession wended its way to the cemetery where a potted geranium was placed upon the graves of the soldier dead these later to be removed to the circle where they will be kept fresh and as a memorial through out the year.

Rather Be Quartered in Hell.

When the Lord was designing creation,
And laying out ocean and lands
With never an hour's relaxation,
Nor a moment to spit on his hands.

And the sixth afternoon of his contract,
His bonus expiring that day,
He took all the scraps from the process
And shoveled them out of the way.

He rushed things thru in a hurry,
And because of the rush he was in.
He called the damned thing Russia,
And Russia it has always been.

And then feeling blue and sarcastic,
And because it was Saturday night
He picked out the worst corner of all
And called it Archangel in spite.

It's there they do everything backward,
And the mud doesn't dry between rains;
Where money and sawdust are plenty,
Where thieving is better than brains.

It's the land of the wop and the bohunk,
The herring and mud covered crows;
My strongest impression of Russia
Got into my head thru my nose.

It's the land of the infernal odor
The land of the national smell
The average United States soldier
Would rather be quartered in hell.

The above poem was given the Jackson News by Mrs. G. G. Case, and was sent to her by her nephew, Ralph Gleason, of Ovid, Mich., who is now at Archangel, and whom it is presumed is the author of it, since the copy is an original one—not in print. Sent by Jesse Coller to W. L. Coller.

COUNCIL SESSION

WATER WORKS FUND OVERDRAWN [illegible]

Investigation of Flat Rates Considered—Annual Budget for Next Meeting.

Besides ordering paid the usual grist of bills the business transacted at the regular meeting of village council Monday evening was of no great importance, although there were some things discussed on the side that are of general interest. For instance, it was brought to notice that many people were getting water service on a flat rate, that is the water is not metered. Another fact brought out was that more than one party was receiving water service from one un-metered supply pipe. As the water fund has been overdrawn year after year from a thousand dollars up, some of the trustees were of the opinion that an investigation should be made and that every consumer should be placed on the meter system and every consumer should at least pay the minimum water rate. This year's report by Clerk Coller shows the water fund overdrawn something like $7,000. This of course, includes [illegible]plies.

Next year's budget for municipal expenses was discussed, but no tax rate could be fixed until after the meeting of the board of review when the corporation valuation will be determined. Last year's budget amounted to $18,000.

Trustee Pulver reported that a resident near Mounment park suggested that lights be placed in that park. No action taken. Mr. Pulver also reported that the macaroni people had about 50 loads of washed gravel that they would turn over to the village for what it cost them, about $1.25 per yard. Street Commissioner Kennedy informed the council that the amount would gravel well about a block. It was suggested that the washed gravel be tried out on Evans street from Chicago north. Trustee Hendershot moved that the matter be left to he street commissioner.

It was als osuggested that the village would save money if it purchased a truck for hauling gravel. A gravel screener and grader were also suggested, but as the new state trunk road will fix Chicago street it was deemed wise to wait.

Trustee McCoy of the water committee reported that Leon Temple asked permission to hook onto a city water hydrant and wet down the street running north and south. He claimed that the dust was injuries to his stock of machinery. It was his intention to oil the street as soon as the oil is available and wants the water privilege until the oil is applied. No action was taken.

Trustee McCoy also reported that Chas. Hooten, night man at the water works plant, had notified him that he was considering acepting another job; salary was not enough. Trustee Pulver moved that a raise of $5 a month be given Mr. Hooten.

Trustee Hendershot reported from the health committee that there was no contagion in the town and in consequece the health officer's salary would be small.

The entire board of trustees was present despite the heat, which even an electric fan could not dispel from the council chamber.

Every time a lazy man looks at the clock the day becomes longer.

The Evening Line-Up

Both children and grown-ups, with coughs and colds, are all the better for a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar at bed time. It wards off croup, stops tickling throat, and hacking coughs, and makes an otherwise feverish, sleepless night of coughing and distress, a quiet and restful one.

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS, Mr. Chas. Baker, writes: "My wife would not think of using any other cough medicine, as Foley's Honey and Tar is certain to bring quick relief. It is especially effective in cases of bad coughs, and we give it to our children and recommend it always as a safe remedy, for it contains no opiates."

TECUMSEH K. P. ENTERTAIN THOSE WHO SERVED

explanation why he did not join the other men in removing coats he told the tragic story of a dog that managed to save about three inches of his tail by squirming at an opportune time. Major Hammel also told instances to illustrate how common members of the British royalty really are. As the Englishmen express it, "They are fine chaps." He told of building "Tecumseh" cabin out of logs from timbers wantonly destroyed by the Germans. While German aviators appeared often in the sky over the vicinity of the little log cabin, not one shell was dropped within 200 yards of the cabin. One incident, or tale from abroad that amused the banqueters was when three American soldiers recognized in a new fire truck purchased by a small French town an American engine. The truck was on display and admired by the citizens, when, just as soon as an opportunity was open, the three American soldiers jumped onto the machine and drove all about the town at the fastest speed they could obtain. In the evening officials of the town came to look for them, but they had left in an ambulance. After telling other amusing stories Major Hammel, in a more serious mood, displayed a K. of P. medal that he carried all through the war. Concluding he said people need not feel sorry for the officers—they managed very well—but their sympathy should go out to the private—the enlisted men who did all the work.

The next numebr on the program was a vocal solo by Gordon D. Bailey. Mr. Bailey has a good voice and the banqueters showed their appreciation by hearty applause. Mr. Bailey responded with a second number.

With a little story about early day judges, Toastmaster Wood introduced Hon B. L. Hart, well known as a Knights of Pythias, who graces the circuit bench of Lenawee and leads a daily life in exemplification of Damon and Pythias.

Judge [illegible] began a splendid, interesting and instructive talk by stating to him it was a great pleasure to pay a tribute to any of the men who served in the war just closed. Since coming to the banquet he said he discovered several things. He discovered that all men that had shirts on took off their coats. Some kept their coats on, probably for good reasons. Another thing he noticed was that a lady took all the silver off the speakers' table, while it remained on the others. He did not know whether to consider that a reflection upon the clergy or the bar.

He felt especially proud of the K. of P. for giving such a fine banquet. While the boys who served their country are brave, he considered an order that could give such a banquet on such a hot night and the women who servd it brave. Seriously, he felt proud of the boys that took part in the conflict just ended.

Mr. Hart reviewed the struggle for liberty from the small group that came across the waters in the Mayflower and landed at Plymouth Rock. Then came the Civil War of '61-'65, and in this great war the soldiers were boys of 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20 years. When he saw the boys leaving for this war he thought they looked too young to know anything about war. But they are the same as the boys of '61 that became the bulwark of the nation.

When the Spanish war was thrust upon us by the blowing up of the Maine, it was not thought that we would amount to much because we had no large standing army, but in a hundred days we had a fine, disciplined army. Through this war the torch of civilization was carried to the benighted islands of the sea. Another effect of the Spanish war was the uniting more strongly the north and the south. From that war we drifted on pleasantly when another war came upon us suddenly like the Spanish war. We knew what was going on over there, but thought 3,000 miles across the waters [illegible] away. Then when we picked up the papers one day we saw that the Lusitania was sunk, with many Americans on board. Then we deemed it time to take some action. It was again thought that America would not amount to much—there was no standing army. After the questionnaires came in and we had an army of 2,000,000 men it was said we couldn't feed them nor furnish them with ammunition. It was then that we showed the world what a great nation we are, Some of us remained at home, but we were sort of partners and kept things going. We kept the home fires burning. He felt proud of every one that went to the front.

Out of the war, said the speaker, came great good. The democracy of America became the democracy of the world.

If we love our government we do not need a large standing army. We have the same blood that coursed through the veins of the veterans of the Civil war and as long as that blood exists this country is safe for democracy.

It was especially fitting that this lodge should entertain the soldiers of this war, for it was in the dark days of the Civil war that the Knights of Pythias was organized. He was proud of the K. of P. war medal; it was a noble work of the order to give these little tokens at a time when anything from home was particularly appreciated.

Through the war it developed that we had the best Red Cross organization in existance and that we had young ladies who had the nerve to go across to help the boys—to look after and nurse the wounded.

It also developed that we had another organization of which we are proud—the Salvation Army, to which Mr. Hart also paid a glowing tribute.

The war is responsible for the building up of great industriies, one of the greatest being ship building. He saw no reason why American car[illegible]ried on American ships.

This has been a grea war and mistakes have been made over which we should spread the mantle of charity. He called attention to the inadequate pay of the soldier. In 1861 the soldier was paid $11 per month, which was raised in 1862 to $13 per month. The boys of this war received $30 per month, and if they had wives $15 was set aside for her. One thing he found fault with that should be remedied is the fact that boys that were exempt and worked in the ship yards drew $9, $10 and $12 per day. He didn't see why if the government could draft boys to fight it could also draft them to work in the ship yards. It was unjust that the drafted man was paid $1 per day to fight, while the man in the ship yard was exempted and paid $12 per day. (This sentiment brought hearty applause from the men.)

Mr. Hart also touuched upon other things that should be remedied. He believed the railroads should be returned to private ownership. Care should be taken about allowing foreigners into this country; they should have proper education for citizenship and if they are not with us they should be sent back. We should watch the inflation of prices. The government should have control of the coal output, and perhaps control of food products.

From the humane side great blessings came from the war. People received new visions and broader views and came to realize that there is something else in this life than making dollars. Great, sums of money were raised and marvelous things accomplished in medical and surgical science.

Quoting appropriate lines, the speaker left this admonition with the men: "Go home from this banquet with your mind made up that from now on you are going to live in the house beside the road and be a friend to man"

Miss Edna Taylor sang two charming solos that were highly appreciated, and just as the meeting was about to disband Henry Sweet, a veteran of the Civil war, asked for recognition, and called Mr. Hart's attention to the fact that the soldiers of that war received an increase in pay to $16 per month in the early spring of 1864. The soldiers, however, were paid in greenbacks, which as currency dropped 38c on the dollar in value.

"America," sung by everybody closed the excellent program of the evening.

A great deal of credit for the success of the banquet is due to the committee in charge of arrangements, Sir Knights Hugh Hanna, Lynn Butrick and Earl Undyke and the ladies that so efficiently served.

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs.

This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the weaknesses and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil is inclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 5 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a small swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. Go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.

MEMORIAL DAY MORE SOLEMN THAN IN PAST

ing selection and Rev. C. M. Thompson offered prayer. A vocal solo by Harold Lowry, "Beloved Columbia," followed, his accompanist being Miss Camilla Hayden.

Mr. Shull then intorduced Major H. H. Hammel, who was, as the president put it, "Just back from the horrors of war and able to realize better than most the full meaning of Lincoln's Gettysburg Speech." This the doctor read prefacing it with the fact that just one year ago one of his friends, standing near him on the front line in Belgium, was hit by a piece of shell and killed. So he appreciated Decoration Day as never before.

"The Death Army" was sung by Mrs. Stella Brush Billings, accompanied by Miss Edna Taylor. The final number of the musical program was a cornet solo by Lester Coller, also accompanied by Miss Taylor.

Rev. Thompson, is giving the Memorial Day oration, took as his subject, "War Clouds and Their Silver Lining," his address in part being as follows:

War clouds, like the clouds of an electric storm, are threatening and terrifying. They fill the land with a disturbing fear and an awful gloom. And when the storm from the war clouds breaks upon the defenseless world in all its fury as it did over Europe in 1914, scattering desolation sorrow and death in its wake, then indeed, war clouds prove themselves messengers of terror and doom. Little wonder we speak of the "dogs of war" and that Sherman said, "War is hell" The world has surely had a full chance to realize the truth of this laconic statement, during the past four years; a calamity forced upon an unprepared world by German greed and perfidy, lust of blood and thirst for power.

But I am not to speak today of the war clouds with their darkness and death but of the silver lining of the war clouds, especially the bright spots in the silver lining. It is said, "every cloud has a silver lining," and it is true even though the silver lining is not always clearly seen. "Somewhere the Sun is shining, Somewhere the song birds dwell." It is our purpose today to look at the bright spots in the four war clouds that have appeared upon the horizon of American history. We will note some of the good things that have come out of these wars.

The war of the Revolution revealed the love of freedom. That love had stirred in the breast of humanity all along the ages; had smouldered a hidden fire in the souls of the Hugenots of France, the Covenanters of Scotland, the Puritans of England. Occasionally this smouldering fire had burst out into a religious flame, only to die out again under the quenching power of persecution. But in the American revolution the smouldering fire burst into a glowing political and religious flame that has glowed on and on until its clear light is lighting the whole world. Another rift in the revolutionary war cloud was that at that time a nation was born to freedom, a nation that crystalized end embodied the spirit of freedom and gave a tangible and militant form. A nation that was conceived and born in freedom, has grown and grown, becoming more and more stalwart until it has become the greatest world power among the nations. Germany sought this proud eminence by force of arms, by military might and like many other nations of the past using the same means, failed in her purpose. America born and cradled in freedom, and loving freedom and desiring it for all men and nations, has achieved that distinction, that exalted place among the nations, simply as the representation and embodiment of freedom and the champion of Justice for all. And truly every genuine American can heartily sing: "My Country 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty of thee I sing."

The Civil War cloud also had its silver lining. Many good things resulted from that war. "The nation, under God, had a new birth of freedom." Up to that time the nation was only in part free. Four millions of our people were slaves, bought and sold as chattels. Lincoln tersely expressed it when he said the nation could not continue to exist half slave and half free, for a "house divided against itself could not stand." The freeing of the slaves made us fully free and gave joy to all freedom loving souls. It was indeed a bright day for America when her people could truthfully sing, "Here freedom spread her banner wide, And wide her silken leaves unfold."

But the civil war not only gave freedom to the slaves; that titanic struggle saved and preserved us a nation. The nation emerged from the civil strife, still one nation, still the United States of America, not the divided states of America, not a northland and a southland but one land. And it is that oneness that makes her a great world power today. The 800,000 of both north and south who fell have not died in vain, since this nation had through their sacrifice a new birth of freedom and a larger mission among the nations.

The Spanish-American war demonstrated the great fact that a nation can be unselfish and do a truly generous thing. Uncle Sam, under the guiding hand of Presidently McKinley, freed the Cubans from the galling Spanish yoke and then presented them their own land free and independent, to work out their own national destiny. Such a generous act is, I think, unparalelled in history. And every generous hearted American is prouder of his country for the unselfish act of national generosity. And all honor to the heroes who fell and all who fought in that noble fight for the freedon of a feeble, oppressed people.

And what of the bright spots in the silver lining of the awful carnage of blood and destruction recently ended and known as the world war? Can anything good of the war so colossal, so indefensible? Yes, good things have come, and will continue to come, from the great world strife. Time simply permits me to mention without elaboration, some of these things. The back of German militarism is broken, the Beast of Berlin has received his death blow. Military autocracy is completely defeated and democracy is coming into its own, and the reign of the people is to sway the nations of earth.

A league of nations is born to lay the foundation and provide for a permanent and universal peace. Human brotherhood has found new forms of expression upon "Flanders field" where better things than "poppies" grow. The soldiers of the Allied forces and our American soldier boys love and understand each other better for having fought and suffered and died side by side. The Allied nations will respect each other more and will pull together for the welfare of the world.

The "Unspeakable Turk," the world's "great assassin," the murderer and despoiler of the Centuries, especially of the defenseless Armenian has his murderous teeth and claws drawn, and let us fondly hope that he may be driven from Europe.

American loyalty has been tested, and, in most cases has not been found wanting. We have contributed, men and money, food and raiment, to win the war; we have done this upon so large scale as to call forth the plaudits of the world. We paid the price of loyalty to our own land and loyalty to the great principles of liberty and justice. And on the other hand the disloyal, the un-American, pelf-getters, among us have been discovered. There is one of three things for such people to do. They should leave the country, or become loyal citizens, or take the full consequences of their loyalty.

And there are still other benefits accruing from this war. The spirit of benevolent generosity has been developed and we have poured out our gifts in abundance. Our loyal mothers and fathers have made their choicest gifts of sons and daughters and our women have toiled and served with true womanly devotion. America has demonstrated anew the powers of her Arms, she is neither too proud, too cowardly, nor too selfish to fight. Her soldiers and sailors proved themselves among the bravest and the best in the dreadful carnage. We are proud of them and we honor them today and give them their exalted place among our heroes and worthies. The world knows that America can and will fight if she should, and fight to win.

The church has done her part and is still doing it. The Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A. the K. of C., the Salvation Army, are simply the church in action in war time. The present Centenary and New Era movements in the churches are heroic efforts to do their work fully in these days of world reconstructin.

This fifty-first celebration of memorial day is the most significant of all our memorial days. We have heretofore remembered the heroic dead of the Civil war and we have talked of the heroic Ellsworth and Baker and Mitchell and others who fell upon the field of battle; we have talked of the multitudes of known and unknown dead who died that our country might live; and we have sung the praises of the great leaders of our union forces. Grant and Sherman, Sheridan and Logan, and the illustribus Lincoln, and multitudes of others, brave and great. And later we spoke of Roosevelt and others, liberators of Cuba. And today we think of our equally splendid heroes who have fallen in the recent war some of them our gallant lads of Tecumseh. And the memory of all our heroes of all these wars should hallow and ennoble our souls, should inspire us to noble and sacrificial living that we may be worthy to associate with our heroes even in the memory, and to enjoy the land and the liberty they have bequeathed to us through their supreme sacrifice.

"They never fail who die in a cause; the block may soak their gore,
Their heads be sodden in the sun, their limbs
Be strung to city gates and castle walls,
But still their spirits walk abroad
And conduct the world at last to freedom."

And we cannot close our address better than in the language of one of our Michigan poets:

"And in the great day that is coming,
When loudly the trumpet shall sound,
When those who have rested and slumbered,
Shall come from the quivering ground;
When those who have striven and labored,
To teach and ennoble the race,
Shall march at the front of the column,
Each one is God given place;
As they march through the gates of the city
With proud and victorious tread,
The boys in the blue and khaki,
Will travel not far from the head."

Mr. Shull then thanked the audience for their attention and announced the remainder of the ceremonies would be held at the cemetery. The long cortege then formed with Arthur Harding Marshall and Ernest VanVleet and Floyd Bryan his aides. Little Eva Mark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mark, on a Shetland pony, led the procession. Following came the ladies band, in their new white uniforms, seated in the Wm. Hayden Milling Co.'s great white truck. Then speakers, the Boy Scouts, the flower wagan, in which were some ten or fifteen high school girls all in white, the Sons of Veterans, ladies of the T. B. A., village council and citizens making a long line.

At the cemetery the high school girls, assisted by the Boy Scouts, decorated the graves of the deceased soldiers. The usual memorial service at the soldiers' lot was read by H. C. Daniels and others of the Post. The ladies band played a dirge and "Taps" was sounded by Claire Camburn. The line of march was then taken up to the Post rooms on Chicago street, where after disbanding the ladies band gave a delightful concert in the street in front. This was the first open air concert given here by this newly organized band and certainly was appreciated by the great crowd.

CLINTON

THE ALUMNI BANQUET

A Successful Ending of Commencement Week.

The annual alumni banquet of Clinton high school last Thursday proved an enjoyable finale to commencement festivities in Clinton, many members of the classes of by gone years being present.

The banquet proper was held in the basement of the Methodist church, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The menu was in charge of Mrs. Mattis, Tecumseh caterer, and consisted of the following, all well prepared: Roast pork, browned potatoes, pineapple ice, asparagus tips, hot rolls, olives, pickles, pineapple salad, wafers, ice cream angel food, coffee. The service conducted by the young ladies of the Junior class, was excellent.

To Howard R. Hause, class of '88, fell the honor of introducing the new class into the association, and this he did in his well known original manner, giving some humorous incident as he called the name of each member.

Harold Davis, '12, only recently returned from overseas service, occupied the position of toastmaster in a creditable manner.

Miss Marjorie Mensing responded to the welcome with a clever speech, and the remainder of the program was as follows:

Solo, "The Girl from Hanley Way"—Merle Reiser, '13.

"Going Up"—Oley Blanchard, '09.

"The Aftermath"—Randall M. Cooley, '04.

"Looking Backward"—Geo. E. Taylor, '94.

Solo, "Boat Song"—Pearl Whiting, '13.

"The Girl Who Earns Her Own Living"—Mrs. Kate Mead-Wainwright, '82.

At the conclusion of the program the annual business meeting was held, when the officers of the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Geo. E. Taylor; vice president, Merle Reiser; secretary, Lucile Woodward; treasurer, Hope Halladay.

A dancing party at the town hall, handsomely decorated for the occasion, closed the evening's enjoyment.

Graduating Exercises.

The graduation exercises, when diplomas were presented to thirteen young people of Clinton High school were held Wednesday evening at the town hall. Miss Minota Lancaster of the Junior class played the processional, to which the 1919 class marched to the stage. Rev. S. N. Purdy invoked divine blessing, after which the following program was given: President's address, Marjorie Mensing; salutatory, Hope Halladay; class history, William Noone; trombone solo, Paul Hoyt; oration, Lucile Woodward; prophecy, Roland Hause, Anna Lou Campbell and Maurice O'Leary; last will nd testament, Richard Hittle; piano solo, Eleanor Walker; class poem, Eileen Richardson; giftatory, George Brooks; valedictory, Ruby Norcross; class song; presentation of diplomas, Prof. E. W. Corey; benediction, Rev. Father Hackett.

Harold Davis' French Bride.

A Detroit paper contained a portrait of the French bride of Harold Davis, who was a member of base hospital 36, joining the Detroit hospital unit from Clinton. Marguerite D'Hyevre was the name of the vivacious little French girl that captured the heart of Harold, who now lives in Detroit, where his parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Davis, moved some months ago. The young bride is not disappointed in Michigan, and although she cannot coverse in English, seems to be happy in her new home nd country.

Adrian College Conservatory Artist Concerts

June Festival Series

DAVID BISPHAM
DISTINGUISHED CONCERT BARITONE
Croswell Opera House, Adrian, June 17

CLARENCE EDDY
RENOWNED CONCERT ORGANIST
Down's Hall, Adrian, June 24

BOTH IN PERSON

The appearance of these two celebrated musicians is epoch making in the history of this locality.

MR. BISPHAM sings in English only. After spending many years in foreign operas he has turned all his activities to the presentation of American and English music for he believes in its future. To have this artist, who is America's greatest concert baritone and dramatic recitalist, make this decision has given the greatest possible impetus to musical advancement.

IF YOU COULD HEAR him recite Poe's Raven with musical background you would agree with a famous New York critic who said his presentation is the "greatest argument for temperance ever made."

YOU WILL HEAR HIM GIVE IT ON JUNE 17th

MR. EDDY'S ART is perhaps best expressed by Sig. E. di Sin Martino, president of the Royal Academy of St. Cecelia in Rome, Italy, when he said: "Mr. Eddy is the most marvelous and versatile executant on the organ we have ever entertained. We considered ourselves honored in placing his name on our list of members."

YOU WILL BE INTERESTED in noting the delightful way in which Mr. Eddy makes the organ a very human instrument. His playing has none of the monotony that is claimed for that of some organists. And his programs are always delightfully appealing to the popular tastes.

ONLY A LIMITED NUMBER OF TICKETS CAN BE SOLD SO DO not delay in getting yours at the earliest possible moment from the Tecumseh representative.

By co-operating with other nearby cities we can present these two artists for a season ticket of

$2.00, Reserved Seats Included

REPRESENTATIVE IN TECUMSEH, MISS CAMILLA HAYDEN

FRANKLIN

Mesdames Alma Wisner, Alice Allen, Nettie Whelan, Fred Willnow and Elva Dibble attended the school picnic at Sand lake Saturday.

Much corn is being planted this week and there is much more to plant.

One of our townspepole has a (supposedly) hen which cackles but lays no eggs. Noticing her early in the spring the lady fixed up a nice nest for her. The bird sits on the nest every day, comes off with a loud and joyous cackle, and she sings and sings, but never an egg does she lay.

Mrs. E. J. Whelan was a guest at the birthday party given for Will and Ed Spalding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spalding at Tipton Sunday. Their real birthdays occur on the 27th of April and 28th of May respectively.

It seems strange to say it but we really need rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thompkins have each adopted a boy. The boys are brothers and are nephews of Mrs. Sam Thompson. The boys' father lives in Adrian.

The school board of district No. 3 have secured the services of Miss Iva Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Allen entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kay of Detroit from Decoration day to Monday morning. Sunday they spent at the lakes. Mr. Kay is at work at Packard's and says they could give employment to 600 more men if they could get them.

Alton Whelan and wife, Mrs. E. J. Whelan and Mrs. C. L. Wisner attended the administrator's sale at the late Wright Doty's last week Tuesday. At this sale a sow and nine sucking pigs sold for $165.

Seth Simmons took the eighth graders of the Center school to Adrian Wednesday for their examinations. Mrs. Alton Whelan took them Thursday.

The Center school closed Thursday with a picnic at Sand lake Saturday. Miss Hezel Tyson's school also enjoyed their closing school picnic at the same time. The Stone school closed the previous Saturday.

The funeral of Mrs. Smith Munger, an old and respected resident of Franklin, who died at Bridgeport, Conn., was held at the residence of her son, Herbert Munger, Sunday. Mrs. Munger had been very ill for some weeks and her daughter, Mrs. Ella Woods, of Bear Lake had been with her, caring for her. Herbert also went to Bridgeport last week. Another son, Earl Munger, is in Germany, location unknown. Max who resides in Morenci was unable to go. Her old friends and neighbors gathered to witness the last sad rites. Rev. Oliver of Tipton officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Soules sang. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The remains were laid to rest beside her late husband in Tipton.

Nothing jolts a smart man so hard as being beaten at his own game.

The optimist enjoys the fruit and the pessimist slips on the peel.

The politeness of a mean man is always more or less put on.

He Threw Away His Crutches.
"Six years ago I had rheumatism so bad I was going on crutches," writes August Strandell, Sister Bay, Wis. "I tried several medicines and doctors and got no relief. Three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills cured me. I threw away my crutches." Have no equal for weak, sore, aching back, muscles or joints. Sold everywhere in Tecumseh. ad

A Town's Trade Territory.

The trade territory of a town is not all dependent upon the distance to neighboring trading points. The trade territory depends upon the enterprise of the merchants and the residents of the town. If a town does not reach after the trade it will come only as fast as it has to. But if the merchants go after business in surrounding country, advertising in every possible way, and making good every word of their advertising, trade will come from an ever increasing radius, the town will gain a reputation of being awake and it will forge to the front. It is the men in the town and not altogether the men living within a certain number of miles from it that makes the town good for nohing. — Record, Lewiston, Mo.

Fearing to break into a profession that's overcrowded, some men waste the best years of their lives looking for one that isn't.

Direct Marketing Limited.

While it may be attractive to a city dweller to believe that he can have a vegetable garden grown for him 100 miles or 150 miles away, place his orders for the cost of a stamp, and have the produce delivered at his door, it should be remembered that not all farm products lend themselves to direct marketing by parcel post. Usually it is impracticable to market such heavy products as potatoes by parcel post, whereas eggs, butter, sausage, poultry, many vegetables, and nut meats may frequently be shipped with profit and at a saving to the purchaser. In general, the greater the value a pound the more favorable is the chance for direct marketing.

CLEAN—Absolutely, when they are out of the Thor Electric Washing Machine. No matter where the dirt is th Thor gets it.

You know how hard things are to clean on the washboard.

You rub and rub to get the dirt out! Soon you find the edges frayed—how ugly they look—and the rest of the garment "good as new."

Let us demonstrate this machine to you in your own home.

TWO ARE HURT IN A BRACE OF AUTO MISHAPS

FR. CLEMMET OF RIVER ROUGE SEVERELY INJURED WHEN CAR IS DITCHED

Miss Irene O'Hara of Adrian Has Numerous Cuts As Result of Machine Turning Turtle.

Last evening a Hudson Super six carbolet, in which were two Catholic priests, was ditched on the Clinton road and one of the pastors Fr. Clemmet terribly hurt. Gordon Wolfe, the Clinton New York Central agent, picked up the injured man and his friend and brought them to Dr. Hardy's office where the patient was cared for. He was cut about the head and one arm received a compound fracture. Guy Belding, with his ambulance, took the patient to St. Joseph's hospital at Ann Arbor.

The two men, Fr. Clemmet and his assistant of River Rouge, had been attending the graduation exercises at the academy at Adrian and were enroute home. In turning out to pass a machine, their car skidded in some loose dirt and tipped over.

The car was driven in on its own power although badly damaged. The leather top is torn and windshield smashed, beside the fenders bent. It is in the Big Chief garage awaiting word from owner.

The priests from Manchester and Adrian came as soon as they were notified of the accident and Fr. Hackett of Manchester accompanied the two to Ann Arbor.

The victims of the accident on the Clinton road were scarcely on their way to Ann Arbor when Miss Irene O'Hara of Adrian was brought to Dr. Hardy's office all cut and bruised, the result of another auto tip over. With a friend, she was enrouts to Tecumseh to see the Wednesday night street show and near Holloway their machine turned turtle. The gentleman was uninjured, but Miss O'Haro was cut about the head, arms and legs, but not seriously. Her brother-in-law, Leonard Langthorne, who happened to be in town, took the couple to his home near Tipton.

Street Show Season Opens Auspiciously

MERITORIOUS ACTS STAGED BY TECUMSEH MERCHANTS PLEASE CROWDS

Next Wednesday Merged Bands Will Play and at Least 3 Feature Acts Will be Given; Neighboring Towns Invited to Participate.

Last evening Tecumseh's series of Wednesday night shows began with a splendid program, which the crowd fully appreciated. The rain of the mid-afternoon stopped the afternoon performance and probably made the evening crowd a little smaller, but people came from Deerfield, Blissfield, Manchester, Adrian, Milan, Saline, Detroit and the lake regions and again the cars were packed from the Methodist church to the electric light office. The Boy Scouts took one thing in hand which pleased mightily, as they saw to it that every auto top was down so those behind could see the stage.

On the program were The Freemans with a wire act, The Mells in an aerial stunt, Lukens, a juggler, and Miss Campbell, of London, Ont., who has been singing with the 84th Highland Band. Each was unusually good and in the stunts were some clever acts while Miss Campbell's voice was remarkably sweet for such strong timbre.

The music was furnished by the local men's band and we shall congratulate ourselves if we always have as good.

Manager Wade Jones promises for next Wednesday night a program of three acts and if possible four, all every bit as good as last nights. The ladies and men's bands will play in unison. The attractions are booked through the International Vaudeville Company of Detroit and the manager was here last evening to announce the program. The fame of Tecumseh's stunt in this direction has reached far and the association is interested for that reason in giving us the best.

WILFRED WALDRON IS INJURED BY TRACTOR

Chain Strikes Him With Great Force; Still Confined to Bed.

It was only by the merest good fortune that Wilfred Waldron escaped death last Saturday. He had started his tractor and either had not fastened the ahcin securely or it broke, for it flew with terrific force striking him in the abdomen. He managed to get to the house but has been in bed since and will have to remain there a few days longer.

MRS. F. S. TURNER CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF NEW ORGANIZATION.

Exhibition of School Work, Entertaining Program and Talk by Mrs. W. H. Jobe of Detroit Draws Throng to New Building.

Tecumseh's modern new school was a lively place Thursday night when every room was thrown open to the public. Great bouquets of peonies, iris, snow balls and spirea were in the various rooms, with drawings and specimen lessons nearly covering the sides of the rooms. Several hundred of the villagers took advantage of this exposition and filled the rooms with admiring spectators.

In the commercial room a half dozen students were busy at the typewriters, pounding away for dear life, as it all counted on their credits. The speed acquired was certainly a credit to Miss Cooley, the teacher.

The agricultural room also attracted much attention. Grains were laid out for the inspection of the public, corn ground for the tiny chicks, then larger as to age. One example will be remembered as to potato bugs: First the tiny nests on the under side of the potato, then the full grown bugs in a glasscovered box, a mound of Paris green, a bottle of arsenate of lead, then the dead bugs. The problem underneath read: "These X equals these divided by the poison equals these." Other examples showed the ravages of the bug and worm on the plants. Then a farm, with crooked rail fences, waste corners, etc., was diagramed and the same farm laid out as it should be with no waste land, and much more conveniently tilled.

In domestic science and art departmented the visitors reveled. In the cooking room, all spread out for inspection were many dishes of salad, looking most appetizing. The little dining room, a new addition, was another point of interest, but it was in the sewing room where lay the large display. Complete dresses hung in rows, with tables full of dainty underwear, skirts and waists. Such an array and so beautifully finished!

In Miss Caldwell's room was the great display of drawing, and the pictures were splendidly executed. It is evident we have many embryo artists growing up amongst us and if the talent is there Miss Caldwell finds it.

Despite the heat the auditorium was packed for the program given by the scholars.

The first number was a song

ALUMNI BANQUET TO BE HELD ON JUNE 27

Event Will Be of Military Character and Feature Program Is Planned.

The alumni committee is arranging a military evening for this year's gathering. It has set the date for June 27th, the late date being made necessary by existing conditions. By that time the students will be home from the colleges and the home folks who are teaching away will be back so it is hoped it will be a real home gathering.

That so many of the alumni have returned from Camp lends interest and from these will be picked the speakers. The toastmaster chosen is one of the best and the musical program, in charge of Miss Edna Taylor, promises something splendid. The reception will be held at the high school auditorium at 5:30 on the evening named with the banquet at 7:30 in the gymnasium.

MISSIONARY MEETING INTERESTING EVENT

Delegates Present From Four Towns at Session at Methodist Church.

A group meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the West Detroit District of the Methodist church was held in Tecumseh, June 6. Delegates were present from Adrian, Clinton, Ridgeway and Dundee.

Mrs. Adelaide Hudd, President of the District, presided and gave a fine address at the morning sessin. She was followed by Mrs. Kuntz of Detroit, secretary of Young People's work who gave an interesting talk on one of the schools for colored girls, at Jacksonville, Florida.

A picnic lunch was served at noon.

In the afternoon Miss Katherine Wolaschak, a graduate of the McCrum Training school at Unionville, Penn., gave a talk on her work. She is a Polish girl and is engaged in work among the Polish people in Toledo.

Mrs. Kuntz gave another talk on the schools for white girls, at Athens, Tenn., and Meisenheimer, North Carolina.

An offering was taken and was to be used to purchase table linen for the school of Jacksonville, Florida.

ROUTSON — HILL

William Routson and Miss Ruth B. Hill Wed in Jasper.

On Saturday Williamson Routson of this place took a bride, the lady being Miss Ruth B. Hill, a successful teacher. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, at Jasper, Rev. Mitchell, the Methodist minister at Weston, officiating. Miss May Dobbins of Adrian, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and Ed Harper of this city best man. The little Maxine and Helen Ragless were the dainty flower girls. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Wagner of Jasper and during the ceremony the groom's sister, Mrs. Ed Braun of Lorain, Ohio, softly sang "I Love You Truly" during the ceremony.

The bride wore a dainty creation of white crepe meteor and silk net and carried brides roses. A splendid three course dinner was served, the caterer being Mrs. Reed of Adrian. That the young people are popular was shown by the fine array of silver, cut glass, money, etc., in the presents by the many friends.

The couple left on a short wedding trip to Niagara Falls, and upon returning will reside here where Mr. Routson is conducting a successful milk business with his father, Geroge Routson.

SENIORS—JUNIORS

Return Party at Wampler's Lake Proves Enjoyable Occasion.

The Seniors gave their return party to the Juniors and faculty Friday evening in a unique and jolly fashion. Just after school up drove several cars to the school house, each member of both classes as well were handed an ice cream pail and invited to enter the cars. They were driven to Wampler's Lake and after a couple of hours spent in boating, swimming, bowling, etc., they opened those pails and in each was found potato salad in a paper carton sandwiches, pickles and cakes. Lemonade and ice cream also were served. No sooner had they began the feast when there came a downpour and into the bowling alley and dance hall they dashed, and laughing and the party not spoiled. Later came a few hours dancing and the crowd returned early, all heartily delighted with the Seniors as hosts.

FIVE YEAR ICE DEAL RESENTED BY SOME

Number of Merchants Decline to Accept C. H. Williamson's Proposition; Robert McCoy to Rescue.

Not all of Tecumseh's merchants believe in affixing their signature to a long time ice contract, this fact becoming known last Friday and Saturday when Charles H. Williamson asked the local business men to sign a five year ice furnishing agreement. Some of the merchants placed their signatures to such a contract, while others declined to do so, these being denied ice by Mr. Williamson, it is stated. They found another source of supply.

Some of those who declined to sign the contract presented by Mr. Williamson say they do not desire to bind themselves for such a long time and resented the feature that if the agreement was not accepted that ice would be denied them. Mr. Williamson's proposition, as explained by one of the merchants he approached was to this effect: The business man is required to sign a contract running for five years, under which Mr. Williamson agrees to furnish ice at market price if he has it. Those who refused to sign were not to get any ice.

A number of the merchants, fearing they could not get the frozen product elsewhere or not being adverse to affixing their name to a five year agreement, accepted the terms presented. Among those who would not sign the contract was Robert McCoy and he took it upon himself to provide ice for those who did not accept Mr. Williamson's proposition. He is now furnishing at least three stores with ice, which he is securing from the houses at Manchester.

Mr. Williamson, when called over the telephone by a representative of The Herald declared he had nothing to say, merely saying "Let the other fellows do the talking."

Village Tax Rate Lower Than 1918

IT IS FIXED AT 1 CENT PER $1 VALUATION FOR THIS YEAR

The village tax assessment has been placed at 1 cent per $1 valuation. This is divided in .006 general tax and .002 for highway improvement tax and .002 sinking fund and interest tax. This is as against a rate of .0115 last year, the first thing to become cheaper in many months.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS HONORS MRS. THOMPSON

Gives Birthday Party for Teacher at Which Officers are Selected.

Honoring the birthday of Mrs. C. M. Thompson, her Sunday school class met at her home, the M. E. parsonage, Monday afternoon and reminded her of the event. The party was also given as a farewell for one of the members, Mrs. W. L. Reed, who leaves shortly for her new home in Mason. The ladies presented Mrs. Reed with some silver pieces as a token of their esteem. One pleasant feature was the presence of Mrs. Jennie Waring, a former teacher who, though an invalid, enjoyed the gathering with the rest. The twenty-one present partook of a bounteous picnic supper and then elected these officers for the next year:

President—Mrs. Emilie Hall.
Vice president—Mrs. Elizabeth F. Temple.
Secretary—Mrs. Edna Pocklington.
Treasurer—Mrs. Minnie Howe.

Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Reed were delighted with the thoughtfulness of the ladies and everyone had a pleasant afternoon.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. B. J. Pulver entertained the Bridge club yesterday afternoon.

The ladies of St. Peters Guild sold ice cream and cake at the Anderson store last evening clearing over $30.00

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lamont, Billingham, Washington, a son. Mrs. Lamont was formerly Edna C. Peck and a teacher in our high school.

Mrs. Jennie Hicks of Baltimore is visiting her brother, Fred Rosacrans, and sister, Mrs. Lawrence VanTyne, besides her many other friends in Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Philo Mills of Toledo were in town over last night. They had attended yesterday the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Oliver Hines, who died Monday at her home about seven miles north of Adrian.

A large attendance is expected at today's meeting here of the South Central League of Knights of Pythias lodges. The business session will be held at the K. of P. hall at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, followed by a banquet at Grange hall about 6 o'clock. Later in the evening degree work teams will compete in the ritualistic work at the opera house.

There has been quite some contest on in the Fourth and Fifth grades since last January for a prize offered by Henry McClure to the youngster buying the most thrift stamps. The contest closed this week with Dudley Arnold possessing $34.70 in stamps and John Hamilton holding $31.10. In the two grades, which by the way are taught by the Misses Lapointe and Stone, over $150 worth of stamps have been purchased.

At the circuit court Friday and Saturday was tried the case of Marsh vs. Garlinghouse, where Homer Marsh sued Otto Garlinghouse, both well known garage men, for $2,350, stating that amount was the commission coming to him from sales of cars while in the employ of Mr. Garlinghouse. Several from Tecumseh were called as witnesses. Judge Hart found a verdict of $23.10 and allowed the plaintiff the taxable costs. Leland F. Bean was attorney for Homer while Clarke E. Baldwin looked after Otto's interests.

BOY SCOUT WEEK

COMMUNITY SERVICE SUNDAY, EXHIBITION STUNTS MONDAY NIGHT

The first event of Boy Scout week, so urged in the President's recent proclamation, was the Community service of Sunday evening. The Presbyterian church was fairly well filled, both troops of Scouts being present, accompanied by their leaders, J G. Widdifield and Perry Hayden having charge of Troop 1 and Robert H. Moore and Harold Sisson of Troop 2.

The room was in twilight to represent a campfire and the scripture lesson and songs read from the screen. Rev. W. R. Curtis manipulated the lantern, proving he has talents of a mechanical line as well as being a minister of the gospel.

The Rev. C. M. Thompson talked on the Scout Oath which was reflected on the screen. He comented on the fact that the two clergymen in the village most ignorant of Boy Scout work should be chosen to give the addresses of the evening, yet he had found the study wonderful and was excedingly interested now in the movement. This is the oath each boy promises before becoming a Scout.:

"On my honor I will do my best..

"1. To do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout Law;

"2. To help other people at all times;

"3. To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

The Rev. W. A. Rex followed with the Scout Law:

1. A Scout is trustworthy.
2. A Scout is loyal.
3. A Scout is helpful.
4. A Scout is friendly.
5. A Scout is courteous.
6. A Scout is kind.
7. A Scout is obedient.
8. A Scout is cheerful.
9. A Scout is thrifty.
10. A Scout is brave.
11. A Scout is clean.
12. A Scout is reverent.

Rev. Rex enlarged on each clause of the law showing how different by far his own boyhood might have been had such an organization reached him.

The flag of our nation was thrown on the screen and immediately the Scouts stood at attention, the audience only rising when so advised by the minister. The troops and audience gave the allegiance to the flag, it being very noticable that every one of the boys said the words and but few of their elders. With a couple of stanzas of "America" the audience was dismissed by the benediction by Rev. C. M. Thompson.

GIVE EXHIBITION

Troop No. 1 Entertain Spectators With Drills and Games.

Interesting to a high degree to quite a number of spectators were the camp fire, exhibition drills and games as given by Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, at Elliott park Monday evening.

Reports from the various patrols were given, minutes of previous meetings read and the troop gave a splendid exhibition drill.

A camp fire was built in the regulation manner, requiring only a few moments to secure a bright blaze.

Two tenderfeet passed the test and were presented the proper badges by C. F. Patterson, who gave the tests. E. C. Heilman gave the test to one candidate for second-class Scout. The ceremonies included the repetition of the Scout oath and Scout law in unison by the troop.

Several Scouts absenting themselves from assembly without sufficient excuse took their medicine in a manly manner. The penalty requires offenders found guilty to wear a yellow ribbon for a stated time.

Scout Master Widdifield and Leader Perry Hayden put the boys through some lively maneuvers and games, the latter amusing to the spectators.

That the boys receive some good training was evidenced by their strict attention to commands and agility in maneuvers and games. The exhibition of first aid to the injured was exceptionally good, the boys providing splints for supposed broken bones and a stretcher to carry the wounded. The flag signal work was also good. At the conclusion of the exhibition the boys accepted an invitation to a free ride on the merry-go-round at the carnival.

Funds for Local Budget.

Next week the citizens committee under the chairmanship of H. S. Temple will conduct a campaign to raise the budget for the needs of the local troop organized under the auspices of Tecumseh Commerce Club. People who know the work and the results obtained will help swell the fund; others should.

"BAY LITTLE SWOAT" WAS WAY BISPHAM SANG IT

Artist Can't Watch Faces and Keep His Lines Straight.

David Bispham tells a story on himself: "For all the many operas, hundreds of oratorios, and thousands of songs I have sung," says he, "my memory has to be carefully watched, and I dare not allow my attention to be distracted when before an audience by faces of men or of clocks which sometimes stare me out of countenance in concert halls, or indeed by anything which might take my mind off the performance in hand. An amusing thing happened recently when in the midst of Harriet Ware's vocal gen, 'A Boat Song,' my eye happened to catch that of a friend who sat toward the front of the hall. My slippery mind immediately slid into a train of recollections, and with the sliding my tongue slipped and I made a mistake which landed me in still another, but I went on as if nothing had happened. The song contains the line, 'lazily, drowsily, sway little boat,' etc., but I with seeming composure lilted leisurely into 'lowsily, drasily, bay little swoat!' The following morning in the Sun Mr. Henderson remarked apropos of my concert: 'Mr. Bispham's memory played him false at one point in the program; but, then, no one makes mistakes with such authority as Mr. Bispham.'"

David Bispham is an admirable raconteur and does not in the least mind telling stories upon himself. Years ago, when in business in Philadelphia, and long before he thought seriously of entering upon a musical career, an aged Quaker, a friend of his grandfather, was conversing on the street with a younger man, when the now famous singer passed by, absorbed in thought and quietly whistling. The aged friend, looking after him, shook his head and sadly remarked: "Does thee see that young fellow? Well, he ain't a-going to come to any good, for he's always fooling around after music!"

Mr. Bispham will give a performance in Adrian at the Croswell Tuesday, June 17, as the first number of the June festival series of artist concerts under the guidance of Adrian college conservatory. The second number will be given by Clarence Eddy, organist, on June 24 in Downs hall, and will be equally as important an event in the musical life of this community.

Editorial Comment

"How do you like your oiled street?" to this question numerous citizens fortunate enough to reside on thoroughfares where oil was applied last week answered "Fine; we can now take some comfort, especially on Sunday without holding the garden hose two or three hours during the day."

Residents on streets not treated with oil who were either skeptical or entirely opposed to the method were also questioned. A dozen of them answered: "Say, that's a good job of oiling; wish we could have the entire length of our street oiled."

Such expressions of approval are gratifying, for they are evidence that The Herald's persistent advocacy of the modern dust laying method has not only born fruit, but that it has proven successful and in another year we will have a dustless city. It will make Tecumseh a better, cleaner and healthier city and that is one of the main objects of the publishers of The Herald.

In our report of the council meeting last week it was mentioned that the water fund had been overdrawn from $1,000 upwards every year. It was also stated that a number of consumers [illegible] the flat rate and that some supply pipes on the flat rate were finishing water to more than one consumer.

The water works plant should be self-sustaining, or at least nearly so. A private company operating a water works system could not conduct such a business at a yearly loss. Perhaps the village of Tecumseh is not actually losing money on the operation of its municipal plant when we take into consideration the actual value of the fire protection, the water used for sprinkling the the business district and to supply the sanitary drinking and horse fountains. But it is not a square deal to allow some people to have free water when others are obliged to pay for the service. Every consumer should at least pay the minimum rental of $8 per year, and no one should be allowed to use water from a supply pipe that serves more than one apartment or more than one family. Every office or apartment that uses water for a toilet should pay the minimum rate. It is worth it. In this way the yearly deficit would be diminished if not entirely obliterated. Now, before the new pavement through Chicago street is built, is a good time to investigate this matter of supply pipes and also the sewer system that there will be no necessity for mutilating the pavement after it is laid.

Despite the fact that W. G. McAdoo, chairman of the National Citizens' committee, neglected to wire in his appointment of a local chairman for the observance of Boy Scouts week, the "show" went on here just the same. Men interested in Boy Scout movement became interested and arranged for the observance of the week.

That people have not forgotten the good times had here in past seasons was evidenced in the large crowd of visitors last evening to witness the first free midweek entertainment provided for them by the merchants of Tecumseh. On these nights people come from every direction, driving from 15 to 25 miles to enjoy the out door entertainment, the music and the pleasant visits with friends and old neighbors not often seen during the winter months.

Tecumseh merchants are not putting on these entertainments with any notion of making money.. They are given for the purpose of entertaining free of charge all people who may come. Some of the merchants, however, are inclined to make it an object to trade with them while in town, and these offer special inducements in bargain prices. People should watch more closely than ever the advertising columns of The Herald.

It looks as if Adrian will decide the Sunday movie show by a special election, which, it is estimated will cost the citizens something like $800. It will be with deep interest that the people of Tecumseh and other towns will watch the outcome of the campaign against the Sunday picture show waged by the W. C. T. U. There are two sides to the question in our county seat town, with equally prominent people on both sides of the fence.

Ladies will be interested in the announcement that the style committee of the National Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' association has decreed that skirts for fall and winter are to be of sufficient width to allow ease in walking. How the news will effect the city man of leisure who has been watching ladies mounting and dismounting street cars steps is another question.

Germany says she can't and will not meet the financial demands of the allied peace terms. Germany has caused so much destruction of life and property that it does not matter much now what she says she will or [illegible] If the allies see fit to turn the thumb screws she will come to time and that without further wholesale butchery. Starve the brute and he'll soon come to time.

Street car service in Detroit was stopped at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, the carmen voting a strike. Attorney-General Groesbeck says now is a fine time to settle the old, old story and for the city of Detroit to get rid of the D. U. R. by ordering that company to vacate the city streets.

PEACH LEAF CURL SHOWS UP IN STATE

M. A. C. Expert Predicts Bad Year—Wet Spring Held Responsible.

East Lansing, Mich.—Samples of Peach Leaf Curl which have just been sent in to the Michigan Agricultural College lead Dr. G. H. Coons, specialist on the plant disease, to predict that the disease will be very common in Michigan this year. The cold wet spring is held responsible for the present condition, as Leaf Curl is known to flourish after a backward spring.

When trees are infected the curled leaves drop during June and July, the trees losing all their leaves in severe cases. The loss of the leaves cuts down the crop, if it does not destroy it entirely. The tree affected by the Leaf Curl winter-kill badly during the following winter.

"It is too late to take any measures to control Leaf Curl this year," says Dr. Coons. "The spray to control the disease must be made before the buds open or the parasite cannot be reached. Bordeaux mixture, and lime-sulphur are two of the best spray materials for Leaf Curl control."

Insurance of the crop by spraying at the proper time is strongly recommended for future years. The disease is too destructive for orchardists to take a chance that the spring weather will be favorable for its control.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to thank the neighbors and friends who have sent me so many beautiful flowers during my sickness.

POSTMASTER EXPLAINS

DIFFICULTIES OF HANDLING MAIL IN DETROIT OFFICE

Twelve Hundred Resignations in Carrier Force in Past Year——Reasons Why Herald Does Not Reach City Subscriber Promptly.

Having received at this office an unusual number of complaints of late and non-delivery of The Herald to subscribers in the city of Detroit, the postmaster of that city was written with a view of securing better service. Detroit subscribers and their home friends will be interested in the following explanatory letter from Postmaster Nagel of Detroit:

"United States Post Office,
"Detroit, Mich., June 6, 1919.

"The Tecumseh Herald,
Tecumseh, Michigan.

"Gentlemen:

"Reply to your letter of May 31st, relative to the delay in delivery of copies of your publication to subscribers in this city, this office has to advise that while it cannot be definitely determined that all the delay in handling of these papers is chargeable to the Detroit office there is no doubt that some is occasioned by conditions at this office, which are worse than at any time since the beginning of the war.

"This office has been greatly handicapped by the loss of a large number of skilled and experienced distributors and it is impossible to replace these men with either men or women, who will remain in the service even long enough to learn the Scheme of Distribution. This obviously slows up the handling of mail after receipt at this office. There have been over 1200 resignations in the carrier force during the past year and about an equal number in the clerical force, which you can very readily appreciate occasions conditions very difficult to overcome

"In addition to this the receipts of paper mail in this city have been enormously large, particularly during the last half of the week as a large portion of the weekly publication are sent out in time to reach this office Thursday, Friday and Saturday, occasioning some congestion before all can be handled.

"Weekly publications are usually received at this office is sacks containing miscellaneous matter and mail so received is handled, so far as possible, in the general order of its arrival at this office. Under normal conditions your paper should be invariably handled in time for delivery at least but Saturday and possibly before but I cannot assure you, at the present time, that this service can be invariably given although every effort is being made to handle this matter as rapidly as possible after it arrives here.

"Respectfully,
"Wm. J. Nagel, Postmaster."

Sunday School Class Holds Costume Affair, Mrs. C. F. Avery Host.

Miss Kyle's Sunday school class enjoyed one of their splendid good times last week at the home of Mrs. C. F. Avery. Many of the guests were rigged out to kill some as little girls with broad sashes and curls, others as old ladies in bonnets and bustles. As the different ones arrived they were greeted with gales of laughter Then came the great dinner and in that class are some famous cooks. The afternoon was spent in visiting and stunts.

KITCHEN SHOWER FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Miss Yutsey, Latin Teacher, Honored With Party.

Miss Yutsey, the Latin teacher in our high school for three years back, was the honored guest at a little party given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw at her residence. Miss Yutsey is to be married in a few weeks to Lieut. Arthur Pino of Bridgewater and Mrs. Laidlaw invited the teachers of the schools to her home to give the afternoon to Miss Yutsey's sewing. They put in the time with flying fingers—and tongues, of course, when in came the hostess loaded down with packages galore. She stated that her kitchen ware was wearing out so badly that she had decided to pass it on to Miss Yutsey and get new for herself. The bluff didn't work, however, and Miss Yutsey tumbled that the joke was on her and the kitchen shower was a complete surprise. The gifts were many and will help materially in completing the kitchen at the new home besides serving as delightful reminders of a very happy afternoon.

Mrs. Laidlaw served a dainty supper at the close of the afternoon.

LARSEN—MUELLER

Assistant Superintendent of Macaroni Factory Brings Home Bride.

John Larsen, the assistant superintendent at the Macaroni factory, was one of the principals at a very pretty wedding at Park Ridge, Ill., June 4th, when Miss Hildegarde Mueller became his bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Glade at the bride's home in the presence of only immediate relatives and a few close friends. The couple were attended by Miss Dorothy Theiner as maid of honor and Robert R. Larsen, the brother of the groom, as best man. As flower girl was little Florence Alfreds, all from Chicago.

The dainty little bride wore georgette crepe.

A bounteous wedding dinner, gracefully served, followed the ceremony.

The happy couple have arrived at Tecumseh and will at once begin house keeping in Miss Phelps house, corner Pearl and Shawnee streets.

Since coming to Tecumseh in the late winter, Mr. Larsen has made for himself many friends who will gladly welcome the new wife. Mr. Larsen was a captain in the U. S. Army and but recently returned from overseas.

GETS PROMINENT PLACE

Dr. R. E. Adkins, Well Known Here, Made Director Illinois T. B. Medical Field Service.

The Illinois Arrow a few days ago gave an interesting sketch of Dr. R. E. Adkins, interesting the more to Tecumseh people among whom Russell Adkins, the son of a loved Baptist clergyman formerly stationed here, is so well remembered. Dr. Adkins has just been made director of the Illinois Tuberculosis Medical Field service. He has had a varied experience in tuberculosis and public health problems, both of civil and military life. He has just finished twenty months of active army service as captain of the medical corps, where he has been medical examiner in many of the cantonments. Previously he was for several years in China in the service of the Baptist Foreign Missionary Society as medical director of the Josephine M. Bixby Memorial hospital at Kityang.

Why not take advantage of the present situation and get a little much needed money for the Government by sub-letting the White House during the absence of its regular tenant?

IMPROVEMENT BEING FINISHED

QUAKER OATS MACARONI PLANT TO RESUME WORK SOON

Remodeling of Factory Increases Efficiency; Bigger Force Will Be Employed and Output Enlarged.

Extensive improvements are now being completed at The Quaker Oats plant and it will be welcome news to the people of Tecumseh that macaroni manufacturing operations are to be resumed at the factory in about one week. A larger force than has ever been employed at the plant will be put to work and it is the prediction of Superintendent R. T. Mead that the product will be superior to any previously manufactured, this being made possible by the improvements which are at present nearing completion.

When a representative of The Herald visited The Quaker Oats plant the other day he found a large gang of workmen putting the fininshing touches on an extensive remodeling job, Superintendent Mead explaining that the concern had found it advisable to reconstruct the "drying" rooms to a certain extent, this step being taken to assure an even higher grade product than has been manufactured in the past. While the old style drying rooms were highly satisfactory during the warm months, it developed that they were not producing the best results in the winter time. The Quaker Oats Company uses the forced drying method in the manufacture of its macaroni. Late last winter it developed that when this forced air came in contact with the outer walls of the drying rooms the air condensed and moisture would form on the walls, this impairing the efficiency of the system. It was decided to overcome this, and to make the plant perfect no expense was to be spared. As a result the factory was shut down the first week in April of this year and plans were immediately made to begin making improvements. These are now nearing completion and are of an elaborate character.

The plan adopted to overcome the undesirable moisture which formed on the drying room walls, called for the insulation of the walls and ceiling of these compartments. Though this meant the expenditure of a large sum of money, to guarantee a perfect product, there was no hestitation in taking the step. The walls and ceilings of the drying rooms have been covered with a very thick coat of cork and also a layer of cement and the floors have been given the same treatment and in addition will be covered with a hard wood flooring. The return system for the air used to dry the product has also been altered, this being part of the general plan for securing greater efficiency. It will be of interest to The Herald readers to know that the air used in drying the Quaker Oats Company macaroni is washed before it comes in contact with the concern's product, this assuring the same cleanliness in this portion of the process as is insisted upon throughout the plant.

Mr. Mead in commenting on the improvements, said he is confident that the annoyance which the concern experienced has been fully overcome and that he hoped to have the plant in operation again in about a week and that the output is to be increased. This is to be brought about by additions to the force and by the installation of more machinery. In the past the plant has provided employment for about sixty persons, but when work is resumed about seventy-five will be hired. When operations are resumed the company is to make its own cartons and new packing machinery will be installed.

Although the plant is unusually well stocked with supplies the superintendent declared they would soon disappear after manufacturing operations are resumed as the demand for the concern's product is remarkably large.

That the company will find that its many improvements will bring all the results hoped for and that it will prosper more than ever before, is the wish of The Herald and its many readers.

CLERK-CARRIER SOUGHT

Tecumseh Postoffice Needs Help; To Hold Examination June 28.

To secure a clerk and city carrier in the Tecumseh postoffice the United States civil service commission announces that it will hold an open competitive examination in the local office on Saturday, June 28. Qualified persons are urged to make application for this examination to Fred C. Dickinson, local secretary.

Applicants must have reached their eighteenth but not their forty-fifth birthday on the date of the examination. The age limits are waived, however, in the case of persons honorably discharged from the United States military or naval service by reason of disability resulting from wounds or sickness incurred in the line of duty. Eligibles resulting from this examination who were under 21 years of age on the date of the examination will not be certified for filling vacancies in the position of assistant postmaster.

Each applicant will be required to submit to the examiner on the day of the examination a photograph or himself, taken within two years, securely pasted in the space provided on the admission card sent him after his application is filed. Group photographs or proofs will not be accepted.

Unless they are the wives of soldiers or sailors serving in the present war, married women will not be admitted to this examination, regardless of whether or not they are separated from their husbands and are supporting themselves.

This examination is open to all citizens of the United States who meet requirements.

From the eligibles resulting from this examination it is expected that certification will be made to fill existing and future vacancies.

TECUMSEH WINS OPENING GAME

FOURTEEN - INNING BATTLE TAKEN FROM JACKSON, 6 to 5; NAPOLEON HERE SUNDAY

There was an encouraging opening of the local baseball season here Sunday when the Tecumseh Independents took a fourteen-inning struggle from the Jackson Independents by a s core of 6 to5, the game having several sensational features and being attended by 300 enthusiastic fans. The present season gives promise of being an unusually successful one for the local nine and the organization hopes for the liberal support of the people of the town. The games are played at League Park.

The second contest of the season will be staged at the park Sunday afternoon, June 15, when the Napoleon Independents will be the opponents of the Tecumseh team. The game is to start at 3:30.

It was especially gratifying to the local fans that the home team won the first game of the season and when the contest went five extra innings this added more real enjoyment to the afternoon of sport for Tecumsehites. Lewis Howe, in the box for Tecumseh, hurled all the way, while the opponents used Frey and Wellman on the mound. At the end of the seventh inning the score was tied, each team having sent five men completely around the circuit. It was a close battle all the way after this and it remained for the Tecumseh heaver to win his own game. There were two out and Cole was on second when the home team twirler came to bat in the fourteenth. He laced a two-sack drive over second base sending in the run that ended and won the contest.

A feature of the game was a sensational catch of a foul, Skinner, the home nine third sacker, being the star on this occasion. He ran thirty yards over in between third base and the home plate, wending his way between autos. and surprised all by grabbing the foul. He was loudly cheered for this performance.

Tecumseh garnered eleven hits, while the visitors smote safely sixteen times.

SON ARRIVES IN U. S. ON MOTHER'S BIRTHDAY

Sergt. Chester E. Thompson Sends Parents Word of Landing at Boston.

Monday evening at 5:30 a telegram came to the Methodist parsonage informing Rev. and Mrs. Thompson that their son, Sergeant Chester Earl Thompson, of the United States army in France, had landed in Boston that morning. The message contained a birthday greeting for his mother, who at that time was celebrating her birthday with her Sunday school class, who had called upon her for that purpose. It is needless to say that the cheering message gave added zest to the celebration and brought great joy to Rev. and Mrs. Thompson. Mrs. Thompson could not have received a more welcome birth day gift than this cheering message.

Sergeant Thompson has been with Company A, Twenty-First engineers. He landed at Brest January 10, 1918, and after one month of intensive training, his company was sent to the fighting front, where it remained for nine straight months, until the armistice of November 11, 1918. The company was in the St. Mihiel drive and in the final great battle of the war in which American forces took part, known as the Meuse-Argonne drove where so many of our brave boys fell. Sergeant Thompson is a graduate of the M. A. C. in civil engineering, class of 1916, and was employed by the D. U. R. of Detroit when he enlisted in September, 1917. He has seen seventeen months of the most severe army service in France and on November 2, 1918, narrowly escaped death by a German shell. He is 25 years of age. Rev. and Mrs. Thompson are now fully expecting his arrival at Tecumseh within the next ten days or two weeks.

An endeavor has been made the past week to form a branch of the American Legion in Tecumseh. This was originated in the overseas service but is open to every man mustered into the service either in the army, navy or marines. At McCann & Bowen's store yesterday R. K. Anderson added many to the list already signed and the Legion is bound to make a strong pull in Tecumseh.

Mrs. Irving Boltz arranged a surprise party for her little daughter, Gwendolyn, for Tuesday evening in honor of her birthday. Miss Grace Gillespie's Sunday school class were the guests and they enjoyed the appetizing supper and jolly good time to the limit. Little Miss Boltz received some pretty gifts as souvenirs of the visit.

Efficient Haying Machinery

LABOR CONDITIONS DEMAND EFFICIENT TOOLS—MACHINERY THAT WILL SECURE CROPS IN THE SHORTEST POSSIBLE TIME, WITH MAN LABOR REDUCED TO THE MINIMUM.

HAYING TIME IS HERE AND THE PROBLEM OF SECURING THIS IMPORTANT CROP QUICKLY CONFRONTS THE BUSY FARMER. WE HAVE THE MACHINERY THAT WILL DO THE BUSINESS IN AN EFFICIENT MANNER, AND WE ASK THE FARMERS TO CONSIDER THE MANY GOOD POINTS OF THE MACHINES MANUFACTURED BY THE OHIO RAKE COMPANY OF DAYTON, OHIO, AND DESCRIBED BELOW:

The Giant All Steel Combined Side Rake and Tedder

The Giant Combined Side Rake and Tedder is a first-class machine in every particular, built on correct principles, out of high grade steel by experienced workmen. Thrown in and out of gear by a clutch with shifting lever within easy reach of the driver. Also to change from rake to tedder or to reverse again to rake. When used as tedder it lifts the hay from the ground, separating it and leaving it loose so that it can cure evenly, thereby making a better quality of hay than if left to cure in the swath.

The shaft which carries the raker bars is of one continuous piece of 2-inch tubing, which adds strenght and wearing qualities. The ends of reel shafts are equipped with roller bearings. Spiders on each end of reel are held in position by two steel pins.

The large ground wheels which furnish the power are steel wheels of own make, 46 inches high and 2½-inch channel tire, heavy spokes and strong lugs; and the ratchets in the hubs of each wheel are on the outside, and have removable center boxes, with three pawls to each ratchet, insuring a prompt engagement and equally dividing the strain when quickly thrown into gear. The right hand wheel is provided with holes and a sleeve for adjustment in or out in raking beans.

The Giant Combined Side Rake and Tedder has three sets of rake bars with oil-tempered teeth, 3-16 x 11 inches, placed 3¾ inches apart. Being in three sets allows a slower motion and prevents the shelling of the beans, or the threshing out of the clover seed and leaves from the ripe clover hay, which is done by the high-speeded type of rakes.

The Giant Combined Side Rake and Tedder has anti-friction roller bearings in all the journal boxes, insuring light draft, ease of operation, long life and durability.

The Giant Combined Side Rake and Tedder is equipped with two castor wheels which can be raised and lowered by a lever, and the supports for same are made of steel construction and have a heavy relief spring to relieve the jar. Both castor wheels have roller bearings, and the outer one is provided with the adjustment of the teeth to the surface of the ground by the driver from the seat.

For Beans it is the Best Rake yet produced, for the ground wheels are narrowed up to plant beans 28 inches apart and so attached as not to hit the rows of beans.

The Giant Combined Side Rake and Tedder saves time and labor. The 99-tooth rake covers the biggest space, accumulates more hay in one windrow than any other rake.

Hayes-Dayton Steel Frame Cylinder Loader

Hayes-Dayton Loader is a steel frame windrow loader made simple and strong without complicated parts to get out of order.

The Cylinder Ends have 8 spokes, each spoke supporting its individual bar, thereby eliminating danger of breakage.

The Ground Wheels are 44 inches in diameter with lugs on the same, giving them plenty of traction power. They are provided with a ratchet clutch and loader can be thrown in and out of gear easily.

The Elevator which takes the hay from cylinder to the load, is strongly made. The wood slats of good material, all held in proper position by chains at outside edges. Strands of rope connecting the slats and close enough together to keep hay from falling through them.

Wind Breaks are on each side of deck to prevent hay from being blown from the carrier and the long pressure slats over the elevator provides sufficient pressure to keep the hay steadily moving upward and over the load.

A simple adjustment is provided at upper end of carrier to tighten the elevator web when necessary.

The Fore Carriage to the loader carries a portion of the weight of the loader and fits itself to uneven ground by a round socket joint. The axle and arch being of one piece makes the construction much better than being in several pieces, as many fore-carriages are made. It can be attached to the wagon easily and detached from the wagon after the load is completed by the person on the load.

Wide Shields are provided for ground wheels to prevent hay from wrapping in them.

The Teeth are made of spring steel and are double with four coils to each tine, giving plenty of flexibility when raking over rough ground, and stiff enough to gather the heaviest hay either from the swath or windrow.

The Gathering Cylinder has eight steel pipe bars to which the double spring teeth are secured and means are provided at each end by curved levers traveling in rack provided to hold bars in correct position to gather the hay on the cylinder and discharge it on elevator at the proper time. The gathering cylinder drives the elevator carrier, thereby making positive delivery of the hay to the wagon as the loader travels with it.

The Height of the loader from the ground to where it discharges the hay is ten feet, which is of value to the farmer, as it allows him to build a large load, and the wind shields extending eight inches above the rollers that carry the web, protect the hay from being blown off the wagon.

Flag Day - June 14

Proudly we celebrate the birthday of Old Glory. For 142 years it has waved over this land of the free, gathering new glory as the years rolled by. Today it is indeed radiant with "a new luster" because of the records of the men, and the women, too, who have made possible victory and peace.

In peace, as in war, we must all serve together to carry on high this starry banner—"the emblem of our unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation."

Today, as yesterday, our country counts on each of us to keep always in mind the ideals for which this emblem stands.

The Monroe-Lenawee County Association O. E. S. will hold a meeting in Dundee June 19. The afternoon session will begin at 2 o'clock and the evening meeting at 6:30 o'clock. It is hoped a large number from Tecumseh will attend this meeting.

Webb Kay came from Detroit Thursday to join his wife in a visit with relatives. They returned home Sunday, taking with them Mrs. B. J. Rector and daughter, Mrs. G. E. Nemire, who hoped to be able to see Sgt. Earl Rector, who was to arrive at Ford hospital in that city that day.

R. S. Moore has received word of the marriage of his nephew, Lucien W. Moore, a second lieutenant in the aviation, and Mlle. Marie-Therese Bellivier. The ceremony took place in Paris June 4th. Lieut. Moore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore of Dundee.

Arthur A. Baldwin of Port Huron, fiance of Irma Casler, the 19-year-old teacher who was shot to death in her school near Saline in March, has just arrived in New York after having been overseas with Uncle Sam's soldiers, and has just learned the details of tragedy that robbed him of the girl he intended to wed. He had written her, "I'll be coming home soon to protect you all your life." Up to a few weeks ago Baldwin expected his sweetheart would meet him in New York and they had planned and early summer wedding. Since he has learned that his loved one was foully slain by a Jackson young man he has become broken in health and spirit and he now says he would like to re-enlist in the army and go to Cuba or "Some place far away from the man who broke my heart."

CHILDREN'S DAY

THREE SUNDAY SCHOOLS OBSERVE THE DAY

Good Programs of Recitations and Music Creditably Presented

Children's day was observed Sunday by three of our Sunday schools. The program for the Baptist Sunday school, which was published last week, was successfully carried out. Below we give the other programs:

At the Friends Church.

The Friends Sunday school observed Children's day last Sunday with exercises appropriate to the occasion. The church was very prettily decorated with flowers and banners. The following program was given by the pupils of the Sunday school:

Song by the choir.

Invocation by Rev. Edw. Escolme.

Recitation, Harlow Clark.

Song, choir.

Recitation, "A Star for Me," John Hamilton.

Song, "Children's Day Has Come," Primary Department.

Recitation, "My New Bonnet," Bertie Clark.

Solo, Florence Hill.

Violin Duet, Osborn Raymond, Everett Hensen.

Duet, Gladys Clark, Hazel Beevers.

Song, Class 4.

Solo, Eyrcil Van Winkle.

Duet, Mr. Escolme, Russel Comfort.

Exercise, "The Ruling Power," Class 4 girls.

Song, quartette, Mabel Lockwood, Elizabeth Comfort, Jennie Broiller, Naomi Van Winkle.

For the Cradle Roll, Mrs. Lockwood.

Song, Class 4.

Song, Choir.

For the Home Department, Anna Satterthwaite.

Song, choir.

Benediction, Mr. L. D. Kenyon.

There were four cradle roll diplomas given to Roberta Hamilton, George Meads, Harry LeBaron and Gaylord Snellenburger and each mother who had a baby on the cradle roll was given a bouquet of pansies and roses.

There were three new babies, names put on the cradle roll. Dortha Cooper, the only one whose father has been in the service, was given a card with her name written on it and tied with red, white and blue ribbon. Robert and LeRoy Montgomery, twins, were given a card tied together with blue ribbon.

Anna Satterthwaite gave a very interesting report about the Home Department. In giving her report she stated that the quarterly went into 40 homes.

The pastor gave a very appropriate talk. He called attention to the passage in Mark where Jesus blessed the children and advised the parents to bring their children to Sunday school and thus to Jesus.

The superintendent after a few remarks dismissed the congregation.

At the Methodist Church.

A large audience filled the M. E. church Sunday morning for the Children's day exercises. The church was beautiful with hosts of flowers, and the exercises were splendid, each little person doing his best. Below is the program as given:

Invocation, Rev. Thompson.

Song, Heirs of Liberty.

Recitation, A Rose sermon, Barbara Williamson.

Exercise, How they Helped, Marian Colson, Beatrice Day, Roberta Powell, Mary Louise Leighton.

Recitation, God Everywhere, Helen Pocklington.

Song, Father we thank Thee, Miss Kennedy's class.

Recitation, The proper time, Eleanor Reed.

Recitation, A little boy's troubles, Arthur Eaton.

Exercise, Be True Blue, Gerald Roberts, Raymond Benedict, John Edward Leighton.

Song, Liberty, Queen of all nations.

Recitation, A Buttercup, Louise Williamson.

Recitation, The little Forget-me-nots, Doris Rockwood.

Song, Peace, The worlds greatest blessing.

Exercise, What love can do, Herbert Croll, Homer Colson, Dale Hoag, William Martin.

Recitation, Lessons, Helen McKinney.

Baptism.

Song, Jesus Lover of My Soul, Miss Yutsey's Class.

Exercise, If we were birds, Maxwell Coller, Kenneth Willits, Richard Williamson, Howard Wright.

Song, The loyalty band, Mrs. Gasner's class.

Recitation, William Martin.

Duet, Mary and Helen Leighton.

Recitation, the Rose and the Dandelion, Elizabeth Snow.

Solo, The Red, the White, the Blue, Lillian Kennedy.

Dialogue, the heirs of liberty, [illegible] Brown's class.

Song.

Collection.

Song, the Prince of Peace.

FRANKLIN

TIPTON GRANGE ENTERTAINS POMONA

Centralized Schools Discussed—Good Program and Dinner.

Tipton Grange, No. 165 entertained Pomona Grange Thursday, June 5, at their hall in Tipton. Pomona held a session in the fifth degree in the upper hall in the morning while the ladies of the Grange prepared dinner, which was served at the close of the session.

The master of Pomona Grange, N. J. Morey, called the house to order after dinner and after a few appropriate remarks turned the meeting over to Mrs. Pauline Raven Morse, who had charge of the program. After a song by Miss Dorothy Taylor and a recitation by Catherine Fisher the topic for discussion, "The Centralized or Consolidated School," was introduced by Mr. Coffee, one of the professors at Lansing, who had this subject in charge. Mr. Coffee is a witty and convincing speaker and a man of most interesting experiences gained in his travels about the state. Yet he came to explain rather than to advise.

He was followed by Hon. Geo. B. Horton, who would preserve the district school and the public highway as sacred American institutions. He believed in education and would enlarge and improve the district school, but opposed centralization or consolidation. Keep the children where they can help with the chores night and morning. He believed in the education of the hands as well as the head.

County School Commissioner George J. Tripp closed the debate with a most scholarly paper, a large portion of which he omitted because of lack of time. He opened with a heart-felt tribute to America, her flag, her schools. He was enthusiastically in sympathy with the movement. He had been asked if it would cost more; it surely would, but money was not the ultimate—the real value. The real value in life is character and education is essential in character building. Money is a means and should never be considered an end.

Rev. Oliver of Tipton gave a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Clarence Fisher on the piano, and they respo[illegible] an encore. Miss Beatrice Munger gave instrumental music.

Among those present were County Agent Coffeen, the Illenden brothers of Adrian, a number from Tecumseh, including D. T. Hall and wife and Mrs. Ella Munger Woods of Bear Lake.

Franklin News Notes.

The Boy Scouts of Tipton will study the birds.

Wilfred Allen and wife were in Clinton Monday.

C. L. Wisner, who was ill last week, is some better.

C. L. Wisner was under Dr. Hardy's care last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wisner were Tecumseh visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Brown visited in Tecumseh Sunday.

Mrs. Stanley Jacobs went home with her grandmother Sunday for a visit.

Miss Alice Allen and children were ill last week with the epidemic cold.

Mrs. Stanley Jacobs entertained her grandmother of West Unity last week.

Mrs. Lorenzo Daniels of Pentecost was the guest of S. N. Wisner and family the first of the week.

They had strawberry shortcake at Earl Allen's Monday. The berries were grown by G. W. Allen of Tipton.

Mrs. Otis Whelan and Euzell Whelan and Mrs. Starkweather were callers at C. L. Wisner's Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Allen have received the announcement card of graduation of Miss Isabel Skeese, daughter of Elmer Skeese, at Litchfield high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Daniels and family, Mrs. Lorenzo Daniels of Pentecost, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Wisner and family and Mrs. A. B. Wisner attended children's day services at Clinton Sunday morning, afterward motoring to Ann Arbor, where they visited the museum and viewed again the university. It was Eldred Daniels' 9th birthday.

Alton Whelan and family motored to Wesley Snooks' in Birdsall Sunday morning. Later they motored to Tecumseh, stopping with Mrs. Rosetta Billington, and then to Adrian, where they called on Dr. Rice. Mrs. Whelan has a severe attack of bronchitis. She is a little better at the present writing. They found Mrs. Billington better than last week.

Renowned Concert Organist,
DOWNS HALL, JUNE 24th

Both in Person in Adrian

THE RECITALS OF THESE TWO INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN MUSICIANS will give you absolute value for your money of the kind that will make you say, "The sense of pleasure and satisfaction remains long after the cost is forgotten."

YOU SAY YOU DON'T KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT MUSIC, but we say you don't have to know music technically to enjoy these two artists. You like a good song, don't you? And you like to hear the organist play a good voluntary at church on a Sunday morning, don't you? The concerts of these two men are just filled with simple, understandable, interesting compositions that appeal to everyone. Mr. Bispham always sings in English, too, and recites some of our good American poetry.

WHAT MADE YOU BUY A VICTROLA OR AN EDISON, A COLUMBIA, PATHE or other phonograph? And what makes you buy the records of the best artist singers, violinists and pianists? Your desire to hear some rattling good music that gives you good entertainment, of course. It becomes a lasting inspiration.

HERE ARE TWO MORE ARTISTS OF THE SAME KIND. David Bispham has made a large number of records which are immensely popular. Clarence Eddy's instrument is not suited to reproduction on the phonograph, but that doesn't hinder his being one of the greatest organists in the world today.

THIS IS AN OPPORTUNITY FOR THE ENTIRE COUMMUNITY. DON'T WASTE IT!

Only by co-operating with two other nearby counties has it been possible to present two such expensive artists, for the fee of both is large. This is acommunity endeavor to give ourselves a treat that will be of really lasting benefit.

THE MOST DANGEROUS DISEASE

No organs of the human body are so important to health and long life as the kidneys. When they slow up and commence to lag in their duties, look out! Find out what the trouble is—without delay. Whenever you feel nervous, weak, dizzy, suffer from sleeplessness, or have pains in the back—wake up at once. Your kidneys need help. These are signs to warn you that your kidneys are not performing their functions properly. They are only half doing their work and are allowing impurities to accumulate and be converted into uric acid and other poisons, which are causing you distress and will destroy you unless they are driven from your system.

Memorial Service.

The memorial services which were held Sunday, June 1, at the cemetery were attended by a large crowd . The day was cloudless and the weather fine and warm and people from the surrounding country and neighboiring towns came to pay their repacts to the memory of our country's honored dead, thirty-one of whom rest beneath the sod in our beautiful cemetery. There were present fourteen veterans of the Civil war, five of whom still reside in this community. Five of "the boys of '61" who were present, viz., James Osgood of St. Johns, John Jackson, of Manchester; Henry Stevens of Tecumseh, Jacob Harring and W. H. Crittenden are all over 80 years young; the other aged heroes who were present were Elwin Camburn, Tecumseh; Parker Allen, Ann Arbor; James Chambers, John Mooney, and John Hendershot; and four Clinton "boys" Peter Socks, William Holmes, Sylvester Green, and M. F. McClure. The oldest of these fourteen "boys of '61," James Osgood is but 82 and the youngest John Hendershot is only 72.

Rolph Mills presided as chairman of the day and the following program was rendered: Music, Clinton band; invocation, Rev. W. Combellack; music, Clinton band; address, Rev. Combellack; music, Clinton band; address, Rev. Rex. The program was concluded by a Memorial exercises conducted by members of the G. A. R. from the platform instead of from the soldiers' momument as is customary. After the benediction which was pronounced by Rev. Rex, the children formed in line and bearing wreaths of flowers marched to the music of the band and decorated the soldiers' graves. Of the soldiers thus honored one, Jacob D. Harring, fought in the war of 1812; two Dr. Joseph Howell and John Sage participated in the Black Hawk war; and the rest were soldiers of the Civil war.

Perry Hayden then gave an enthusiastic talk about "Senior Echoes," the book being put out by the seniors, and he proved a whirlwind as a salesman, his talk resulting in many books being disposed of.

"A Sleepy Song" was the exercise given by the little pupils of the kindergarten. Then came

Rev. W. A. Rex, in behalf of Supt. Reed, then told the main object of the gathering, that the committee which has been working on the idea of a Parent-Teachers' Association for Tecumseh had asked for the program, to stir up more of an interest in the parent for the work his child might be doing in the school and to start some sort of co-operation between the parent and teacher. He introduced Mrs. W. H. Jobe of Detroit, the state organizer of this good work. She was formerly state president of the Missouri branch of Mother's Work and that she is vitally interested in the association was evident by the manner in which she presented the subject to her audience, in a few words and forcibly. She told of the organization of the association twenty-three years ago by Mrs. Theodore Bernie, the mother of seven yet she wanted to "mother" all children and when she found a child of eight who had set fire to a boarding house where she worked early and late for a mere pittance and only enough food to keep life going, she began the study of child welfare. Mrs. Wm. R. Hearst financed the endeavor and the first meeting of the National Congress of Mother's resulted. It may be interesting to add that the little 8-year-old girl was cared for through the endeavors of Mrs. Bernie and today is a famous teacher.

The speaker said the hearts of men have not been legislated upon for the child as for other movements, yet America today with five other nations is now holding a congress in Washington for the benefit of the 35,000,000 children of the world.

Mrs. Jobe gives as the three objects of the Parent-Teachers Association: Co-operation between parents and teachers, advancement along school lines and for child legislation and to arouse the people to an interest in the things "best for Mary, John and Susie."

Right then an organization was effected and these officers elected:

President—Mrs. F. S. Turner.

First vice president—Rev. W. A. Rex.

Second vice president—Mrs. J. H. McIntyre.

Secretary—O. W. Laidlaw.

Treasurer—J. H. Smith.

Chairman child hygiene— Dr. H. H. Hammel.

The organization starts with somewhere near 100 members and like in other places there is much for it to do in Tecumseh in addition to bringing about closer relationship between the parent and teacher.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, the Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee, in Chancery.

Nellie McDonald, Plaintiff,

vs.

Nelson Dewey, as administrator of the Estate of Lorenzo D. Dewey, deceased, Nelson Dewey as an individual, Nellie M. Marvin, as defendant and cross-plaintiff, Thomas Beaty, Mrs. Thomas Beaty, whose christian name is unknown to cross-plaintiff, Andrew Coats, Mrs. Andrew Coats, whose christian name is unknown to cross-plaintiff, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns.

Defendants.

Suit pending in the Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee, in chancery, at the City of Adrian on the 10th day of May A. D., 1919.

In this cause, it appearing from affidavit on file that Thomas Beaty and Mrs. Thomas Beaty, Andrew Coats and Mrs. Andrew Coats, are not residents of the State of Michigan, and that said affiant has made diligent search and inquiry to learn the place of residence of each and all of the last named defendants, and has been unable to ascertain the same and it can not be ascertained in what state or county said defendants and each of them reside; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that said last named known defendants are proper parties to this suit; and it further appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, and assigns of the last named known defendants, (named in the caption hereof) are proper parties to this suit; and it further appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the unknown grantees and encumbrancers of said last named known defendants (named in the caption hereof) are proper parties to this suit:

On motion of Theodore M. Jeslin, attorney for said cross-plaintiff, Nellie May Marvin, It is ordered, that the appearance of said known defendants, Thomas Beaty, Mrs. Thomas Beaty, Andrew Coats, Mrs. Andrew Coats, be entered herein on or before three (3) months from the date of this Order; that said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of said last named known defendants be made parties defendant hereto, and that the appearance of said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of the aforesaid last named known defendants, be entered herein on or before three (3) months from the date of this Order; and that the said unknown grantees and encumbrancers be made parties defendant hereto, and that the appearance of said unknown grantees and encumbrancers of the aforesaid last named known defendants be entered herein on or before three (3) months from the date of this Order; all in accordance with the statutes of the State of Michigan, in such cases made and provided; that in the case of the appearance of any such defendants, that he cause his answer to the cross-bill of complaint to be filed and a copy thereof to be served on cross-plaintiff's attorney within twenty (20) days after service on him of a copy of said cross-bill of complaint and notice of this order; and in default thereof, said cross-bill will be taken as confessed, by said non-resident defendants and by said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, and by said unknown grantees and encumbrancers.

And it is further ordered, that within twenty (20) days the cross-plaintiff cause a notice of this order to be published in the Tecumseh Herald, of Tecumseh, Michigan, a newspaper printed, published and circulated in said County of Lenawee, and that said publication be continued therein once in each week for six (6) weeks in succession, or that she cause a copy of this order to be personally served on said non-resident defendants, and on said unkown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, and on said unknown grantees and encumbrancers, the defendants herein, at least twenty (20) days before the day of above prescribed for their appearance.

ALUMNI BANQUET AND RECEPTION

A Pleasing Social Function in Honor of 1919 Class.

On Saturday evening the Alumni banquet and reception for the class of 1919 graduates was given, and it truly was a pleasant occasion. The banquet, a splendid three-course affair, was served by the Dorcas class in the Christian church parlors. The tables were effectively decorated with the Alumni colors, red and white, excepting that of the Seniors, which was decorated with their class colors, yellow and blue, and these with handsome center pieces and place cards made a very pretty appearance. Victrola music was played throughout the supper and a rising vote of thanks was given the ladies for their excellent service. Following the banquet, at Lenardson's opera house, which had been prettily decorated with the Alumni colors, maple boughs and beautiful flowers and ferns, the following program was given:

Music, Britton orchestra.
Address of welcome, Julia Craig.
Response, Reuben Young.
Music, orchestra.
Reading, Doris Pilbeam.
Vocal solo, Mrs. Leon Exelby.
Short talk, Harold Davis.
Music, orchestra.

The following officers were elected:

President—Rosemary Gibson.
Vice president — Charles F. Brown.
Secretary - treasurer — Glen Gripton.

The "initiatory" for the class of 1919 that followed was very amusing and after this came a social time and dancing, this ending an event which is treasured by all.

Those here for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Tim McClaughlin of Holloway, Geo. Simpson of Deerfield, Clyde Exelby of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lewis and, Clyde Drewyor of Tecumseh Miss Emma Lowe, Hattie and Dewey Berry of Ridgeway and Harold Davis, Kenneth Fletcher and the Misses Alice Boyd and Pearl Linton of Detroit.

Class Day Exercises.

The class day exercises of the class of 1919 of our high school were held Thursday evening, June 5, in Lenardson's opera house, and were largely attended. Every effort had been made to make the affair a success and it certainly was from start to finish. The stage was prettily decorated with a background of maple boughs and lattice work of the class colors, yellow and blue, beautiful ferns and bouquets with their class motto, "The elevator of success is not running, take the stair," in the foreground and taken altogether gave a pleasing effect. The class march was played by the orchestra and as this was being done the class, together with their superintendent, G. F. Putnam, and Dr. F. A. Perry of Adrian, took their place upon the stage and the following program was given:

Invocation—Rev. J. C. DeRemer.
Salutatory—Glen Gripton.
Music—Orchestra.
Valedictory—Reuben Young.
Presentation of Diplomas—G. F. Putnam.
Music—Orchestra.
Address—Rev. F. A. Perry.
Music—Orchestra.
Benediction—Rev. Sam'l Tamblyn.

The orchestra was from Adrian, under the efficient leadership of Prof. Bert Green and gave several fine selections.

Dr. F. A. Perry of Adrian, who needs no introduction to people here, gave a splendid adress, full of excellent advice.

The class this year is the second largest in the history of our schools and is composed of four girls and seven boys. A pleasing feature touching to all, was the respect shown to one of their number, Harold Osterhout, who is still in France and has been in the service more than two years. He no doubt would have been with them at this time if he had remained, and so in his honor his chair was placed with others and Old Glory was draped around it, and when he arrives home, which he soon expects to, he will receive his diploma.

The class this year deviated a little from the regular routine, only two members taking part, Glen Gripton as salutatorian and Reuben Young, valedictorian. Their speeches were fine and bespeak for the rest of the class the good work that has been done throughout the past four years. With a few well chosen words Supt. Putnam presented the diplomas and thus the class of 1919 join the alumni.

The Congregational Sunday school will hold their exercises next Sunday evening.

THE BEST PROOF

Given by a Tecumseh Citizen.

Doan's Kidney Pills were used—they brought benefit.

The story was told to Tecumseh residents,

Time has strengthened the evidence.

Has proven the result lasting.

The testimony is home testimony—

The proof convincing.

It can be investigated by Tecumseh residents.

Mrs. Alice Burroughs, W. Pottawatamie St., Tecumseh, says: "I sometimes ached all over and was all tired out and had no ambition. My kidneys didn't act regularly and at times my back ached. I knew others who had been helped by using Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got some at Wright & Son's Drug Store. In a few weeks, I felt much better and finally I was free from the aches and pains. I was benefited in every way."

AGAIN PRAISES DOAN'S

Over seven years later Mrs. Burroughs said: "I am always glad to recommend Doan's Kndney Pills, for they are a good medicine. They cured me of kidney truble."

Uncle Sam Sets a Good Example

VIEW OF U. S. CAPITOL DURING PAINTING.

The dome of the United States Capitol at Washington is kept in excellent condition by painting it every few years. For this work forty painters are steadily employed for three months' time. Over five thousand gallons of paint are required for one coat. The reason for painting the Capitol dome at regular intervals is to prevent disintegration of metallic surface.

HOLLOWAY

A Wedding.

Miss Gladys Young and Kenneth Pocklington drove to Dundee Saturday morning and were quietly married by Rev. Somers of that place. They were accompanied by Mrs. Willis Palmer, a sister of the bride, and Miss Stella Pocklington, a sister of the groom.

Mrs. Pocklington is a very popular young lady of this place and Mr. Pocklington is a prosperous young farmer near Ridgeway. All join in hearty congratulations.

Family Picnic.

Tuesday evening a merry company was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Calhoun. A picnic supper was served on the lawn. Those present were Sam Boyce and family, Mrs. J. L. Van Doren, Mrs. C. W. Benedict, Miss Mildred Boyce, Mrs. B. J. Rector, Miss Madeline Boyce, Mrs. F. D. Rector, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rector, Mrs. Webb Kay of Detroit, Mrs. C. F. McCormick and Mrs. T. E. Biddeson and daughter, Shirley, of Baltimore, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. James Cole of Salida, Col.

Church Notes.

Rev. Obee of Adrian college filled the pulpit Sunday morning. There was a business meeting of the Christian Endeavor society immediately following church service. A congregational meeting was called following preaching service to take action on supplying the pulpit.

Holloway News Notes.

Miss Edna Hedrick was at her home Wednesday night and Thursday from her duties at Adrian schools, on account of sickness.

"A SHINE IN EVERY DROP"

Black Silk Stove Polish is different. It does not dry out; can be used to the last drop; liquid and paste one quality; absolutely no waste; no dust or dirt. You get your money's worth.

Black Silk Stove Polish

is not only most economical, but it gives a brilliant, silky lustre that cannot be obtained with any other polish. Black Silk Stove Polish does not rub off—it lasts four times as long as ordinary polish—so it saves you time, work and money.

Don't forget—when you want stove polish, be sure to ask for Black Silk. If it isn't the best stove polish you ever used—your dealer will refund your money.

Black Silk Stove Polish Works, Sterling, Illinois.

Use Black Silk Air Drying Iron Enamel on grates, registers, stove-pipes, and automobile tire rims. Prevents rusting. Try it.

Use Black Silk Metal Polish for silverware, nickel, tinware or brass. It works quickly, easily and leaves a brilliant surface. It has no equal for use on automobiles.

Keep the Children Well

To keep the little ones well, sturdy and happy, free of coughs, colds, croup, little fevers and inflamed throats, use

Foley's Honey and Tar.

It is carefully made of selected remedies that loosen and break up a cough, stop croup and ease an aching inflamed throat, and it is clean of all narcotics.

The prompt use of Foley's Honey and Tar is very helpful for whooping cough, and the restless feverish state that attends children's diseases.

M. T. Davis, Bearsville, W. Va., writes:—"One of my patrons had a small child taken with croup. They came to my store and bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and before morning the child was entirely recovered."

NEARLY BLOWN INTO ETERNITY BY RUSSIANS

"CHIC" COLLER SENDS ENTERTAINING LETTER TO THE HERALD

Describes Narrow Escape When Five Pals were Killed; Has Been on Three Fronts; Dares Friends to Write to Him.

That he was nearly blown into eternity and that the lives of five of his comrades were snuffed out by enemy shell fire is the substance of an interesting letter which "Chic" Coller has sent The Tecumseh Herald from far off Russia, where he is now stationed as a member of Uncle Sam's fighting forces in the vicinity of Archangel. Sergeant Coller, who is a member of Company A, 339th Infantry, writes to all his many friends through The Herald, and his letter teems with entertaining information regarding the activities of the Yanks in the frozen wilds of Russia.

He says he has been on three fronts and will substantiate and emphasize what Sherman said about war, and in making it known that he would be pleased to hear from his Tecumseh friends he dares them to write to him.

Sergeant Coller's cheerful message to his local friends is as follows:

Archangel, Russia.
April 19, 1919.

Tecumseh Herald:

To my many friends; I use this means of writing to you all as it is impossible to write to each and every one at such a time. I have even neglected to write to my relatives but if you belong to the "Kings Own" 339th infantry, mostly Michigan and Wisconsin men, you would understand why we did neglect our many friends, and continue to do so. We are awful busy way up here in the frozen north. I think we undertook a job that really didn't belong to us (U. S.) only time will tell what the outcome will be.

I have been on three (3) fronts and could honestly say that I agree with that remark that "Sherman" made about war, only say it louder. The nearest I have come to leaving this world, (so far) is to have the stock of my gun blown from the barrel and I attached to the barrel. Very lucky to not even get a scratch, but that same shell did end five comrades' lives, all who were friends of mine. That did take the heart out of me. They say you can get used to any thing, but I am of a different opinion. Oh! I could write page after page of the like as such, but on account of censorship and playing the part of a soldier, I won't. Now you will think I am home sick, but I'm not. Of course, I would like to be home, the same as you, as I have never lost any thing up here and what's the use of hunting for something you haven't lost.

We hear all kinds of rumors about us leaving here in June, but if you could all look out and see that deep, deep ice you would change your mind, but here's hoping that by the time you read this the news of our home coming will be spread broadcast and get the ladies band all tuned up to play "when 'Chickie' comes marching home again." Sgt. Louis Schneider, Sgt. Harold Kay, Lt. Raymond Mills are the only other Tecumseh boys that I know of here. I used to see Sgt. Louis a great deal but don't just know where he is at now. Lt. Mills and Kay I haven't seen all winter but know the are O. K. so far. Kay is well spoken of and has had some narrow escapes. I am awful sorry to inform you in advance that the left side of my coat is minus of medals, being as I am only a cook in the army, I can't win any, unless they would let me cook a few meals for Mr. "Bolo" and then they might give me a D. S. O. for unintentionly killing them. I am thinking somewhat of opening a school to instruct the modern housewife the advance art in cooking, especially "Bully Beef." I now know twenty-seven ways to camouflage it, but can't name each dish, at present, reasons for which—I never studied French. We have another very nice dish, called mixed veg, that the boys are very fond of ? ? The man who put that mixture together had better make one more mixture and then depart this life, because if the 339th ever learns of his whereabouts, newspapers will read—"Funeral tomorrow, omit flowers."

I have been unfortunate enough to have a bad attack of Sciatica rheumatism and have been on a hospital ship for some weeks but am O. K. again and have charge of mess at Convalescent Annex here in Archangel. Here my business is to feed the boys and help to put them back in good condition. Thanks to the Red Cross for the extra rations.

The regular field rations or Iron ration as it is called, don't furnish the required nourishment for a convalescent so with the Hospital comforts that the Red Cross allow us, which includes extra sugar, dried apricots, oatmeal, jam, egg powder, cornstarch, baking powder, raisins, cornmeal and flour, I am able to make a great many things that the boys up at the fronts don't get. It would do you good to see a wounded or a sick soldier eat after he has had a few months of the Iron ration at the front. I try to make pies, cakes, fried cakes, cookies, corn bread, pancakes, French toast, tarts, etc, each day. That is one or more of the mentioned articles, each day.

The Russian people, as a whole, are to be pitied as they are in a terrible condition. The allies are furnishing them what food stuff they get and if some of our stay at home friends had to eat the things that I see the poor people here eat they would say "I don't believe it."

What bread they have, looks like dirt and I really do believe it has straw in it. Wouldn't dare mention what it tasted like. I was fortunate enough to eat Christmas dinner with a Russian family in SheulRush, Russia, (a town the American papers have spoken of a great deal, of late) I really tried to eat what they had, but its a court-martial offense for self inflicted wounds, so I ate but little. Russian people as a rule are good cooks providing they had the food stuff, as they are now I don't see how they exist on what they have. I can't resist giving part of my meal to the women and children that hang around the kitchen door waiting for the soldiers to wash their mess kits to gather what scraps the boys may leave.

Eggs are worth 10 rubles each or $1.00 in our money. We get even, though. Leave it to the Yank. Boys who have been fortunate enough to remain at the Base are coming back, rich. For a while last December we didn't have any cigarettes or tobacco and tea leaves, coffee grounds and clover hay made godd pipe tobacco. One fellow in my company (now dead) paid 500 rubles for a package of cigarettes during that tobacco famine. We pay 12 rubles a fund (14 oz.) for cocoa. Oh! its a great country. When I come home I will rent the theatre and invite you all to hear my tale. I guarantee that I will have one to tell.

Here's hoping that this finds the best little town in Michigan free from the "Flu" (yes, we have it here) and business good. If any so desire to write me I would enjoy it and will try to answer each and every letter providing I am not on my way home by that time. I'll dare you to write.

In one of my letters to my father last fall I mentioned that a picture of a cow from Michigan would be welcome and Christmas eve the first U. S. Mail reached me and out of twenty-two letters that I opened I guess I received ten pictures of cows. I couldn't get the drift of the joke until I happened to get a home paper and read the letter that I had written to my father, which he had allowed this paper to print. It called for considerable laughter among the boys.

Well dear friends hoping to pay you all a visit this coming summer, will stay for dinner or supper, don't matter to me which. Promise not to critize your cooking. Only promise not to have hard tack or corned beef. I draw the line on those two.

My best regards,
Earl "Chic" Coller.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. John Sherman and grandson, John, spent Sunday at Wampler's Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Lawson of Deerfield were over for the street show last evening.

Mrs. Carrie McCollum has been at an Ann Arbor hospital for the past week, receiving treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Boltz are entertaining her aunt, Mrs. Sylvia Denuis of Omaha, Neb., and sister, Mrs. D. J. Rackley, of Jackson.

Friday, June 20, the Old Fourth Michigan will hold their reunion here. A program of the events of the day will appear in our next issue.

Mrs. James Kennedy was in Jackson yesterday going to meet Miss Mildred Comstock who has been in school at the Nazareth college at Kalamazoo, this year. Miss Comstock comes to spend her vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Hardenburgh are enjoying a visit from the latter's brother, Stanley Darling, who for some months has been instructor in a gunnery school at March Field, Riverside, Cal. This is Stanley's first visit with his many Tecumseh friends in a number of years.

Born, Sunday, to Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bryan of Midland a daughter, Ruth Genevieve. Miss Bryan was formerly a Tecumseh young lady, Miss Minnie Mulvaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Mulvaney. Mrs. Mulvaney returned yesterday from Saginaw where the event occurred after being from home two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Van Winkle moved their household effects to Detroit yesterday. Mr. VanWinkle, a successful contractor, has found business conditions so much better there that he has decided to locate there permanently. The home has been rented to Prof. Crampton, the new superintendent of schools. Miss Margaret and Donald will remain here with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Pangburn.

Mrs. Florence Splettstoesser and Mrs. Will Cummings were in Jackson on business Tuesday.

R. B. Stuckey is out on a business trip through Indiana and Illinois for the H. Brewer Co. this week.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Lowe purchased Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ager's home on West Chicago street.

Mrs. Sarah Davis of Clinton was a Tuesday guest of her sister, Mrs. Caroline Fenwick and Miss Lucy Train.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Smith moved yesterday to the R. A. Heesen house which they have just purchased.

Miss Hambrecht of Chicago, for the past week a guest of Miss Beth Satterthwaite, returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Russell of Petersburg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McLaughlin Thursday and Friday.

Assisting at The Webster Anderson Co's yesterday were Mrs. Guy Nemire, Mrs. Earl Updyke and Miss Margaret VanWinkle.

Mrs. Nellie Fabrique and little daughter of Yale, and Clarence Avery of New York City, are visiting their mother, Mrs. C. F. Avery.

Miss Helen Bates arrived from Medina, N. Y., last evening to visit her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. James Updyke, and her many girlhood friends.

Mrs. Helen McNeil, Prof. Earl McNeil and little son were in town last evening, taking home with them Mrs. Fred Sheldon and little son, Paul, for a few days' visit.

Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Conklin are in Atlantic City, N. J., attending the meeting of the American Medical society. They will visit New York City, Washington and other eastern points and be home by July 1st.

Word comes from Clinton that a heavy storm passed over that section yesterday afternoon, doing some damage to wheat and rye. However, the accompanying rain did enough good to growing crops to overbalance the damage.

Contractor Gettins of Toledo has the contract for the erection of a new school house at Striker, O. Monday he had the school board and several of the others interested here looking over our fine new building, which was his work.

A picture of Tecumseh in 1868 has been and attraction in the window of the Lilley State Bank for several days. It has been very interesting to hear the older people discuss the various buildings there pictured. A picture of the town as it is now would be an interesting contrast.

Mr. and Mrs. John McIntyre and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gilbert and daughter, Miss Gladys, were in Lnsing yesterday, going for the commncement at the Michigan Agricultural College when Miss Agnes McIntyre and Miss Vera Gilbert received their degrees in home economics.

The Tecumseh Independents played the Factory team a game of ball Tuesday evening which had to be called off at the 6th inning on account of darkness. Then it stood a tie 6 to 6. The battery for the Independents was Eagan and H. Clark; for the factory boys, Drake and C. Mattis. The same teams will play next Tuesday night.

Coller's first dance Wednesday was the largest ever held at Witherell hall, over 100 couples attending. Dancers came from far and near, Detroit, Ypsilanti, Saline, Adrian, Onsted, Tipton, Macon, Britton, Ridgeway, Manchester, Jackson and Clinton being represented. Coller's orchestra furnished the music. Mr. Coller will give a dance every Wednesday.

Once a beautiful home of which Tecumseh was proud, the old Coller property, corner Chicago and Pearl streets, has assumed a neglected appearance that is no credit to Tecumseh, especially as it is located on a conspicious corner. It is to be regretted that the place has not a caretaker to keep the grounds more attractive by cutting grass and weeds. The town can look after the weeds at the proper time to prevent seed from spreading. It would be a benefit to the property to have it rehabilitated and a source of gratification to Tecumseh citizens who take pride in the town.

Mr. Leosch and family were among the Milan people here last evening.

Mrs. Jessie Helfrick of Ann Arbor has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Avery, the past week.

A picnic was given at the Globe pond Tuesday evening by a party of young ladies honoring Miss Florence VanWinkle who left yesterday for her new home in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hines, Mrs. Eugene Service and Mrs. H. S. Waring were at Onsted yesterday for the funeral of Mrs. Kate Brooks, a lady well known in this village.

Mrs. Pliny Gratz was in Ann Arbor, Thursday and Friday for medical treatment. Miss Margaret Rudabou, who has been nursing her for the past eleven weeks, accompanied her.

Tecumseh K. of P. Praised as Hosts

ENTERTAIN SOUTH CENTRAL MICHIGAN LEAGUE IN GENEROUS MANNER

Ypsilanti Degree Team Wins Cup, Next Session In Ann Arbor and University City Man Chosen President.

"Every time you come to Tecumseh you certainly get treated right."

In these words one of the representatives from Adrian to the meeting of the South Central Michigan League of Knights of Pythias lodges, held here last Thursday, summed up the welcome extended the visitors by the Tecumseh lodge. And from the many complimentary remarks which other delegates were heard to make, this expresses the sentiment of all the 200 or more who partook of the delicious menu served the visitors at Grange hall and who witnessed the competitive initiatory work at the Bradley opera house later in the evening. Tecumseh Knights of Pythias have long had a reputation for being generous in extending hospitality to visiting lodgemen and their renown along this line will be more widespread than ever as the result of the pleasurable time they provided those at the meeting here last week.

The League held its business in the K. of P. hall in the afternoon, at which officers were elected for the ensuing year, the next meeting place selected and other matters of interest transacted. At 6:30 visiting and Tecumseh lodgemen were served a banquet at Grange hall, the competitive degree work following at the opera house.

Officers chosen for the coming year are as follows:

President — Otto Powers of Ann Arbor.

Vice president — John Lawson of Milan.

Secretary—J. E. Warner of Ypsilanti.

Treasurer—Howard Boyd of Chelsea.

It was decided to hold the meeting in 1920 at Ann Arbor, and it is likely that it will be held earlier in the year, as the sentiment seemed to prevail that June was too late in the spring because warm weather often prevails and League members are too busy at this season to devote much time to lodge matters.

The towns represented at the business meeting were Adrian, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Milan, Dundee and Tipton, while at the banquet and degree work many more places had delegates present. Two grand lodge officers were present, Frank L. Covert of Pontiac, the grand vice chancellor, and Charles W. Smith of Lapeer, the grand prelate.

Grange hall proved too small to seat at one time all the Pythians who desired to partake of the

HITCHHING PLACE FOR FARMERS

Members of Tecumseh Commerce Club Consult With City Dads.

With a view of securing a convenient hitching place for farmers, four members of Tecumseh Commerre club appeared before the council at the regular meeting of that body Monday evening. The men were J. R. Nyland, Chas. Bidwell, Jas. A. Murphy and C. A. Wright.

Mr. Nyland as chairman of the Commerce club, addressed the council first, explaining that the present feed shed is inadequate for the farmers' teams and wagons when they come to town. Mr. Bidwell had a lot for sale conveniently located that would take care of the farm teams. The lot is located west of the old Dr. Waldron barn, and he thought some suggestion might be made to obtain the desired relief.

Jas. A. Murphy, manager of Tecumseh Co-Operative Association, spoke strongly in favor of taking care of the farmers who trade in Tecumseh. Coming six or seven miles farmers have no place to hitch and feed their teams—no matter how hot or cold the weather.

Mr. Bidwell also spoke, explaining that with permission from the owners of The Herald building his lot could be entered from Chicago street, with the exit on Logan street—a convenient arrangement.

After considerable discussion the matter was put into the hands of the building and grounds committee with instructions to investigate, confer with the Commerce Club committee and report at next meeting of council.

The movement of providing suitable hitching facilities is favored by many, and more so now because when the new pavement comes through the city, the old hitching posts will have to go.

McQUARIE—RAUTH

On Monday of this week Lloyd McQuarie and Miss Edith Rauth of Adrian were married at the home of the bride's parents at Ida, Monroe county. After a week's visit with relatives and at the lakes the couple will come to Tecumseh where they will reside with Mr. McQuarie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McQuarie on West Pottawatamie street.

Mr. McQuarie is well known in this vicinity through his work in the garage business. At present he is assisting F. C. Gallup in his Britton garage. The bride for the last two years has been an efficient saleslady in Adrian.

Boys Are to Come Home From Russia

DETROIT PREPARING BI WELCOME CELEBRATION

Expected to Arrive at Belle Isle During First Ten Days of July.

Detroit is planning a big reception for the return home of the boys of the 339th Infantry, the 337th Ambulance company and the 310th Engineers, now on their way home from Russia.

Tecumseh will he especially interested in the return of these soldiers, for she has at least four of her boys with them — Lieut. Raymond Mills, Sgts. Earl Coller, Louis Schneider and Harold Kay.

Regarding this mammoth celebration Mayor James Couzens of Detroit writes to Village President Geo. B. Hines as follows:

"City of Detroit, office of the Mayor.
June 11, 1919.
"To the Mayor, Tecumseh, Mich.
"My dear Mr. Mayor:

"We are planning a great celebration for the return of the 339th Infantry, the 337th Ambulance company and the 310th Engineers, all of which units havei been in Russia enduring hardships and making many sacrifices.

"As you no doubt have observed from the press, these men are on the way home and should arrive sometime during the first ten days of July.

"We have made arrangements with the war department whereby they will be brought from Buffalo to Belle Isle by boat. Senator Hiram Johnson is planning to come here to address the men and their relatives during the entertainment at the Island.

"We have more time to arrange this event than we had in the case of the Thirty-Second Division, and intend to extend the greatest possible courtesy to groups of relatives of members of these regiments who reside in your community.

"I would appreciate any suggestions or any information which your people would desire to give me as to their pleasure in helping us welcome these men.

"Reservations will be made at Belle Isle for whatever number you designate.

"The men will arrive early in the morning by boat directly to the Island, where we intend to hold a parade. I assure you that the day will be a memorable one.

"Will you please see that publicity is given in your local papers and information as to your plans forwarded as soon as possible.

"Yours very truly,
'James Couzens.
"Mayor."

MISS ANNA SCHREDER IS GIVEN A FAREWELL

Miss Veva Hardcastle was hostess on Friday evening for a party of young ladies honoring Miss Anna Schreder who is leaving Tecumseh shortly. The guests enjoyed a picnic supper which was most bountifully served and the evening spent with jokes and visiting. As a token of the love of these ladies for Miss Schreder they presented her with a handsome picture.

In the party were Mrs. Margaret Carr, Mrs. Will Babcock, Mrs. Percy Heidenreich, Mrs. J. L. Coller, Mrs. Frank Snell, Mrs. Ed. Schreder, Mrs. Rose Burrow, Misses Vesta Wilson, Edith Gray, Ethel Keyser, Ethel Russell, Jane Lochner of Adrian, and Mrs. Leon VanDusen of Clinton.

Miss Schreder, who has for several years been an efficient and exceedingly popular clerk at Fred Rosacrans & Son's store, resigned her position Saturday night.

Boy Scout Council Is Organized Here

Fund Drive Decided On, H. S. Temple Being in Charge; Another Troop Likely to be Organized Soon.

Boy Scout work in Tecumseh is in the future to be directed by a Scout council, another troop is soon to be organized and prospects are that activities along this line will be more numerous and more successful than at any time since the work was taken up here. Added impetus was given the Boy Scout work here at a meeting held last Thursday evening when plans were made to form a council, it was decided to hold a fund drive and other steps were taken to make the Scouts' activities as productive of results as they are in the larger cities.

The meeting Thursday evening was attended by members of the Commerce Club and by interested citizens, it being desired that all be given an opportunity to assist the Boy Scouts in their varied and praiseworthy work. When the Scouts first began their work here there was no central body to direct their efforts, but with the growth of the organization and now that there are two troops in Tecumseh and another likely to be organized soon, it was deemed advisable that a Council be formed to aid the youth of this place in making their efforts as effective as the importance of the work warrants. The Boy Scout council will supervise the activities of the troops, those now in existence and any to be formed in the future, will conduct a drive for funds for the Scounts and will direct the efforts of the local organizations that their undertakings be assured of success.

For the present the Boy Scout Council is to consist of five members three to be appointed by a committee composed of E. C. Heilman and R. S. Moore, while the other members will be named by the two troops, each selecting one. When the third troop is perfected this organization will also chose a member for the Council, bringing the total membership to six. The three named by Messrs. Heilman and Moore are George A. Rathbun, Charles F. Patterson and Rev. W. A. Rex.

It was found that $300 would be needed to carry on the work successfully this year and an effort is now being made to raise this sum. H. S. Temple was chosen to be in charge of the drive for funds. The Boy Scouts have been doing some much needed work in Tecumseh, their efforts at all times having been along helpful and commendable lines, and they deserve the hearty support of all the people of this place. When assistance is needed on any big occasion it is the Boy Scouts who are called upon to do the work; when there are errands to run during a celebration of any kind or when there is work which lads can do, it is the Boy Scouts who are asked to do it and always respond willingly, and now that the people of Tecumseh have an opportunity to do a good turn for the Boy Scouts it is hoped they will generously answer the plea for funds.

Notice to Maccabees.

I am at The Tecumseh State Bank the last Saturday night in each month for the purpose of collecting the monthly rates which must be paid before the 30th of the month. Members not paying by the 30th are liable to suspension without notice.

Specials Draw A Very Large Crowd

Superior Stunts to be Offered Next Week and All for Miles Around Are Invited.

Again an immense crowd was on the street last evening for the free entertainment, the Wednesday night special. By actual count there were 600 autos packed between St. Elizabeth's church to the Library and from the garage to the council building. There must have been about 5,000 people in the crowd.

The stunts were far above the average. They were Allen & Allen, trapeze act; Harris & Harris, hand balancers; Wilson & Wise, singing and whistling. The music by the combined bands of the town was a splendid feature. Clair Camburn led the aggregation and through the crowd were heard many favorable comments.

The ladies band members have been disposing of a graphonola, Mrs. Elmer Blesing acquiring it.

Several novel acts will be offered for next week Wednesday and it is hoped the attendance will be even larger than last evening.

PRESTON FAMILY HAS ITS ANNUAL REUNION

The thirteenth annual reunion of the Preston family was held Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holmes at 212 Democratic street with about sixty present.

Relatives were present from Orland, Ind.; Battle Creek, Hillsdale, Jackson, Adrian, Deerfield, Tipton, Pentecost and Palmyra.

The meeting was called to order by Vice President Bert Wigent. "Blest be the tie that binds," was sung after which Floyd Preston led in prayer.

The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year: President, Leroy Preston; vice president, Bert Wigent; secretary, Dorothy Daniels; chairman of program committee, Mrs. Mabel Kellar.

Mrs. Mary Dell of Jackson extended an invitation for the reunion to meet with her next year.

Some items of interest were given regarding the splendid service which the 13th Regiment, U. S. Marine Corps, is rendering in France. This is the regiment of which J. Wade VanValkenburg is a member.

Regrets were read from relatives at Deerfield, and Elgin, Ill.

PREACHER-AVIATOR WILL SPEAK SUNDAY

An opportunity to hear an aviator in the role of a preacher will be presented the people of Tecumseh Sunday evening, when Lieutenant Louis Wilton of Jackson will be the speaker at the community service which is to be held at the Baptist church. Lieut. Wilton has the distinction of being one of the youngest men in America to win a commission in the U. S. fighting forces during the world war.

The Boy Scouts especially and all young people in general are earnestly requested to attend. The service will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Napoleon Is Easy For Local Team

Second Victory of Season; Jasper Nine to be Opponents for Next Sunday at League Park.

When the Tecumseh Independents and the Napoleon Independents clashed at League park Sunday afternoon it proved little more than a practice game for the home team, Tecumseh winning by a score of 11 to 8. At no time were the locals in danger of losing the contest and the fact that the visitors amassed eight markers is due purely to the generosity of the Tecumseh players, who after they had circuled the basses nine times in the opening and the second inning let the Napoleon baseballers frolick to a certain extent. Next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the Tecumseh nine will have the Jasper Independents as its opponents.

Howe and Darling were in the box for Tecumseh against the Napoleon team, while Clark did the receiving. For the visitors Higbie and Taylor did the twirling, Smith being behind the bat. The home aggregation hit safely eleven times. Napoleon exceeding this by five smashes. Twelve of the visitors were retired by the strike-out method, only seven Tecumseh batters being retired in this way.

The attendance at the Sunday game was larger than the week previous, when the season was opened here. The initial contest was also won by the Tecumseh team. It hopes to continue its winning habit.

TO THE PUBLIC

We did think before the article appeared in your paper last week that it would be useless to stir matters up further on the ice proposition, but after seeing the write-up put up as it was decided we had better defend ourselves.

In the first place, only quantity users were asked to sign any contract and only by force of circumstances and self preservation are we insisting on the contract being signed, certainly no agreeable task on our part.

Our village now has a fine ice equipment and believe gets as good service as anywhere in the state and at prices that are as low or lower than elsewhere. If there is anyone who can show of a company anywhere with like investment and equipment selling for less or giving better service, we challenge them to do so. Have been years getting business in shape, if there are people who think they can handle the ice business better than we do they have the opportunity to get busy and when certain ones in town who are sore on account of old deals like the mausoleum, school house site and certain village election try to butt in and threaten another company we must protect ourselves. This town is not large enough to support two ice companies as every one knows as has been proven in the past. We aim to give the best service and the lowest prices possible under existing conditions.

NOW IS TIME TO EXTERMINATE PESTS

This is the season of the year when pests of all kinds infest the city garden and the fields of the farmer, but with the many positive bug-killing preparations now on the market it is not difficult to combat the trouble breeders. There are no surer insect exterminators than

PARIS GREEN, ARSENATE OF LEAD
MAGNESIUM ARSENATE and BORDEAUX POWDER

The great benefit resulting from the use of Paris Green as a defense against pests is well known, but Magnesium Arsenate is also very effective, especially in fighting the potato bug. This preparation may be applied before actual hatching of the egg has begun, providing a poison for the first bite taken by the slug, causing his death.

Editorial Comment

A movement to close Tecumseh stores on Thursday afternoons to give proprietors and clerks a half holiday did not materialize because of lack of complete unionism among the merchants. Cities all over the country have adopted the Thursday afternoon holidays during the summer months, and the innovation has been found a blessing to the many clerks whose duties oblige them to remain indoors so many hours a day. The plan seems to work out fine in the larger cities, and no doubt would in the smaller towns if the people would co-operate with the merchants and do their shopping on Wednesday or Thursday morning.

Tecumseh stores, nearly all of them, have been closing at 6 o'clock every evening except Saturday, until last week when the free out of doors entertainments started. There have been some complaints from farmers in regard to the early closing hours during the busy season of farm work. Farmers have informed us that they have had to leave their work in the fields at 4:30 i order to get to town early enough to secure articles needed. These incidents have brought out the question whether the early closing is wise in a town the size of Tecumseh—a town that caters greatly to the farmer trade. But the complaints have not been numerous enough to cause any serious apprehension. Village people can readily accommodate themselves to early closing conditions and so can the farmers, except in rare cases, such as a break in machinery.

During the free mid-week entertainment season, farmers from all directions come to town on Wednesdays. A little forethought on their part to trade on Wednesdays would make the Thursday half holiday for storekeepers and clerks a feasible project.

The writer enjoyed an interesting good roads talk with Hon. Chas. A. Evans, our representative to the Michigan legislature, last Saturday. Mr. Evans has good cause to feel elated over the manner in which his bill, relating to the percentage in the cost of road construction assumed by the state was put through both houses of the legislature. Not a dissenting vote was cast against the measure, so we in Lenawee are assured seventy-five per cent of the cost of constructing trunk lines and roads leading to market centers, besides the aid in maintenance.

That Monroe turnpike will be paved through Tecumseh is practically assured, although we will not see the construction work started until next year.

If the Townsend bill becomes a law, which it undoubtedly will, Chicago turnpike, passing through Clinton, will be designated a federal road, which will be entirely constructed by the federal government. Mr. Townsend's bill provides for two federal highways across each state in the Union, and where these roads have already been built and are up to requirements, the federal government will build an equal number of miles in the state.

Uncle Sam has become wise as to the necessity of good roads since the world war, and from now on we can look forward to the construction of a complete net work of first-class roads that will not only prove of great value in war time, but will reduce cost of transportation and be a great benefit to the masses. The good roads era is here and it is up to the people to get the roads while the getting is good.

Why not close shop in Tecumseh when Michigan welcomes home her boys from Russia on Belle Isle? Lenawee has a number of representatives among the soldiers that withstood the hardships of the great frozen north. Tecumseh has at least four boys that we know of in the bunch expected to land the first of next month. It would make a splendid occasion for a patriotic holiday. Why not?

The Boy Scouts of Tecumseh should have some recognition by the citizens of this town. A campaign for funds to meet the budget for the coming year is on and it is desired to raise $300 to carry on this splendid work. These boys will be the men of tomorrow and the training they are receiving will be of immense benefit to them and the community.

Auto speed fiends will undoubtedly disappear in Michigan to a great extent, if not altogether, after the new law requiring all drivers to procure a license becomes effective next August. The license will cost only 50 cents, and on the [illegible] the law may look to some as of little consequence. However, there is something beneath the surface. A violation of automobile regulations—the speed law, for instance—may be the cause of revoking a driver's license, without which it will be unlawful to drive a car. It will act as a check on reckless drivers and thus safeguard public traffic. Violations of the speed law now are very numerous, but speed fiends will have a care to preserve their right to continue driving even at a speed within the law.

MACON

F. E. Odell left Monday for a few days' visit with relatives and friends in Akron, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Delos Biddle have as guests their sister, Mrs. Martha Hornbaker, of Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Spittler moved to their new home in Tecumseh last week Wednesday.

Mrs. Parker Allen of Ann Arbor was a weekend guest of relatives, returning home Sunday.

Wm. Richmond and Lew Coller made a trip to Buffalo last Thursday with a shipment of live stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Mansfield motored to Detroit Sunday and spent the day with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Spittler left Tuesday morning for points in Indiana to visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Koebbe attended the funeral of their brother, William Koebbe, at Manchester Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Ross Biddle returned to her home last Saturday after a stay of three weeks or more in an Ann Arbor hospital.

Mrs. Rose Day and daughter, Minnie, returned home Saturday after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Allen in Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Dewey motored to Jackson Sunday and were entertained by John Roberts and family.

Services will be held at the usual hours next Sunday, June 22, at the Methodist church. Sunday school at 2 p. m. and preaching at 3 p. m.

W. H. Crittenden, who will have reached his eighty-first year June 21 is in attendance at the state encampment at Traverse City this week.

The Children's Day offering amounted to $9.02 and was shared equally by both schools and will be used by each school for church educationl purposes.

Miss Helen Morgan, who graduated from the Tecumseh high school this week, delivers the class prophecy at the commencement exercises Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gamble Kuder returned Saturday from Portland where they had visited Mrs Kuder's brother, Jeff Boughner, and sister, Mrs. Clara Guilford, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson of Manchester were guests Tuesday and Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Frost and Mrs. Clarisa Frost.

Miss Mary Pratt was surprised last Saturday, June 14, when fourteen of her neighbors and friends dropped in to spend the afternoon. The occasion was the seventy-sixth anniversary of her birth. A good old fashioned visit, a pot luck supper and a birthday cake all together made the affair a most enjoyable one.

The friends and relatives of Mrs. Fred Camburn were surprised Sunday to hear that death had come to her that morning at her home near Milan. She had suffered with dropsy following an attack of the "flu." Her funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of her daughter at Milan with burial at Macon cemetery.

IT is indeed hard to stand at one side while the stream of life flows by. A man or woman condemned to sickness that does not permit him or her to perform the active duties of life, to do his or her share of the world's work, is a pathetic figure deserving of sympathy.
Much sickness, pain and misery result from disordered kidneys and bladder. Failure of the kidneys to do their work properly and filter impurities out of the blood leads to rheumatic pains, backache, sore muscles, stiff or swollen joints, puffiness under eyes, floating specks, biliousness, bladder weakness, nervousness, or other symptoms of kidney trouble.
are effective in removing the cause of the trouble for they strengthen and invigorate weak or deranged kidneys and help them to normal functioning so that the blood stream is purified and the cause of disease removed.
F. M. Platte (Brakeman), Sec'y. Switchman's Union, 518 Blaine St., Peoria, Ill., writes: "Two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills relieved all symptoms of my kidney and bladder trouble, stopping the backache and pains, correcting the kidney action, clearing secretions. I am also free from dizziness and floating specks before my eyes. Foley Kidney Pills cured me."
For sale everywhere in Tecumseh.

BACCALAUREATE ADDRESS SUNDAY

DELIVERED BY THE REV. J. G. WIDDIFIELD

Graduating Class of Tecumseh High School Listen to Short but Interesting Sermon.

The Presbyterian church on Sunday evening was but sparsely filled for the Baccalaureate sermon, the poor attendance, no doubt, being due to the intense heat. The long line of twenty-three graduates as they filed into the church made a handsome appearance and everyone present was proud of them.

After a song, "Soldiers of Christ," Rev. W. R. Curtis gave the invocation and Rev. Edw. Escolme read the scripture lesson, Rev. C. M. Thompson made the second prayer and the quintette, Mrs. R. S. Moore, W. S, and Fred Dickinson, Harold Lowry and Ernest Harris gave a pleasing number.

In the introductory Rev. W. A. Rex commented on the lack of interest shown by the townspeople for the baccalaureate services, and especially were the school board and a majority of the faculty noticeable by their absence.

Rev. J. G. Widdifield gave the address taking for his text, "God said unto him 'Thou Fool'", from the story of the husbandman who built great barns and laid up for himself much store so that he need not work, but did not lay up treasure in heaven. Rev. Widdifield told how today we would have considered that husbandman a model business man, certainly no fool. Yet so God called him. He did not take into consideration that he might live maybe one year, maybe forty, but eternity was certain and for that he made no provision. We are liable to forget the greater life called character. "As you go out with all of life before you, do not forget there is something more in life than just things of the world. One thing you've always got to bear is character, the one thing you'll never get away from—yourself." The thing you may leave undone is the building up of character. Never was there such a time as now to link our lives with our fellow men and do such great good, all in the building of our character.

Remember, the successful man of the world may be one of "God's fools."

The offering of the evening went toward a small deficiency in the new Parent-Teachers Association.

The community service next Sunday evening will be held at the Baptist church when Lieut Louis Wilton of the aviation service will speak.

About Coal

Do you realize that coal mines are not being worked anywhere near their capacity? A year ago everybody was putting in their winter's supply of coal at this time. Now nearly everybody thinks it is too hot to even think of it. We believe there will be some big regrets later on.

If all conditions continue as at present, you will find coal nearly as scarce this winter as it was two years ago.

Farm Machinery

A great many farmers believe that farm machinery will be cheaper and are making their old tools "do" this year. In many ways this is a mistake. Farm machinery WILL NOT BE CHEAPER. IT WILL BE HIGHER if anything. You cannot pick up a paper without reading the cause of higher prices.

BUY NOW. You can get the machinery to assist in harvesting the highest priced crops known.

Pretty Wedding.

A pretty wedding was solemenized Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Free Methodist church, south of town, when Miss Maud Montri of near Deerfield and Leo Spohr were united in marriage by the Rev. David Wells assisted by Rev. Chas Young. The church had been prettily decorated and when the bridal party took their places a pretty picture was presented.

The bride was neatly dressed in white voile and carried roses.

Following the services a lunch was served at the home of the groom's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Will Spohr. The young couple are among the popular ones of the neighborhood, and have hosts of friends who join in the heartiest of good wishes. They will soon be at home on the farm where they will be pleased to welcome their friends.

Christian Church Notes.

There was a full house present to enjoy the Children's Day exercises Sunday morning. Much credit is due the committee who prepared the excellent program. In spite of the excessive heat there were 151 who remained for Sunday school.

We are glad to look forward to the Sunday evening union services which have been decided upon for the months of July and August. Watch for further announcements.

The Bible class of the Sunday school has been invited to meet with Miss Mary Cheever Wednesday this week to help her celebrate her birthday.

The Dorcas class is meeting Thursday afternoon with Miss Bernice Underwood.

TECUMSEH K. OF P. PRAISED AS HOST

menu provided by the Tecumseh lodge, many being served at a second table, but there was enough for all and to spare. And such a feast as it proved to be. There was roast pork, mashed potatoes, buns, butter a plenty, salad, several kinds of relishes, coffee and brick, double-flavored ice cream and cake. The meal was prepared and served by the Pythian Sisters, as only this organization can serve, and each member seemed to be a committee of one to see that all got all they could eat. The splendid service called forth many and high words of commendation.

Throughout the banquet Collier's orchestra played a program of catchey music, this feature adding much to the enjoyment of the occasion. The musicians were frequently encored.

Following the feast there was an intermission in the festiviti while the finishing touches were being put on the arrangements for the initiatory work at the opera house. It was expected there would be a number of teams to compete for the silver trophy which the grand lodge presents the organization which gives the ritualistic work the nearest perfect. Tecumseh and Ypsilanti however, were the only lodges represented by teams. The local lodge lost to Ypsilanti but by only a narrow margin, both teams making a very creditable showing.

Cigars, furnished by the Tecumseh lodge, were provided all knights as they entered the opera house, that they might enjoy to the fullest the evening of degree work. The local lodge was the first to put on the work, presenting the beautiful lesson of knighthood in most effective manner, eliciting praise from all in attendance. Ypsilanti's team followed, strongly impressing on their candidates the great lesson which Pythianism teaches. The visiting team was also highly lauded and until the result of the contest was announced by the grand lodge officers there was no indication as to which team had scored the most points. When the announcement was made that Ypsilanti had been declared the winner, Tecumseh Pythians were among those to applaud the loudest, as they realized the visitors were compelled to do their best to eclipse the efforts of the local team.

Grand Prelate Smith presented the Ypsilanti lodge with the silver cup, a member of the team acceptng it on behalf of the victorious organization. As Ypsilanti has now won the trophy for three years it becomes the property of this organization and the grand lodge will secure another one for which the various teams in the South Central Michigan League of Pythian lodges will compete in the coming year. The team member after accepting the cup on behalf of the Ypsilanti lodgemen, announced that next year a new team would represent his city in the league, as the old one would relinquish the work so that some of the younger members might let their talents along this line become known. J. E. Warner of Ypsilanti was called upon for remarks and after assuring the Tecumseh lodge that its hospitality was fully appreciated and that as the new secretary of the league he would always be ready to be of service even if he had to neglect his own business, he recited "If I Should Die To-night" this being a pronounced mirth producer.

Grand Prelate Smith gave a short talk following the ritualistic work, his right-to-the-point remarks leaving a marked impression on all the knights. He said he was proud that there had been such an outpouring of members on such a hot night and that there must be something in Pyththianism for it to have such a strong hold on men. Such league meetings as held here, he declared are productive of much good and he congratulated the Tecumseh and Ypsilanti teams for having made such a remarkable showing.

The grand vice chancellor, Mr. Covert, also addressed the gathering, his words proving of an inspiring character. He said it is probable that the league meeting would be held somewhat earlier in the year in the future, it having developed that the attendance is lessened if the sessions run into June. Mr. Covert had the highest praise for the Pythian Sisters, asserting this organization had been of the greatest benefit to the knights, and that where the two work together so harmoniously as in Tecumseh, abundant good results. The Pontiac man called the attention of the delegates to the fact that the returned soldiers are the best timber for enlarging the membership of the subordinate lodges, as the dangers that the United States fighters have passed through on foreign battle fields fit them admirably for exemplifying the lessons of knighthood. He advised the Pythians to aid in teaching the youths of today, who will be the men of tomorrow, real American citizenship, love of their country, believing that this will help to counteract the spirit of unrest which seems to be prevalent at present, and which is generated by foreigners, he said. He declared it had been proven that most of the discontent is aroused by men who can not read or write English and by instilling true Americanism in the youths now approaching manhood that in the future there would be no cause for worry.

The South Central Michigan Pythian League's session here was pronounced markedly successful, and all present look forward to another profitable year. Practically all of those in attendance at the 1919 meeting announced their intention of being present when the league convenes in Ann Arbor next year.

New Telephone Toll Rates

Effective June 13th, 1919

By order of the Postmaster General, new schedules of rates for telephone toll calls became effective 12:01 a. m., June 13th, 1919.

Under these new schedules the "station to station" rate is the base rate upon which all rates for the various classes of service offered, are computed. This rate is determined by the air line distance between toll points and is computed, for the initial period, on the basis of 5c for each 6 miles up to 24 miles and 5c for each 8 miles beyond that distance.

For toll calls where the calling party does not specify a particular person to be reached at the called telephone, the "station to station" rate is charged. This method provides the cheapest and quickest form of telephone toll service.

"Station to station" calls should be made as far as possible by giving the telephone number of the called telephone. Where the number is not known and telephone directory information is not available, the name and address under which the telephone is listed together with the information that it is a "station to station" call should be given to the toll operator.

For toll calls where the calling party specifies a particular person to be reached at the called telephone and the connection is established and conversation held with that person, the "person to person" rate is charged. As this service requires a greater amount of operating effort, the rate for such calls is about one-fourth greater than the "station to station" rate. (Minimum "person to person" rate 15c).

For toll calls on a "person to person" basis, where the calling party, in placing the call, designates a definite time at which he will talk and the conversation is held, the "appointment" rate is changed. As this service involves the making of the appointment in addition to the operating effort necessary for a "person to person" call, the 'appointment" rate is about one-half greater than the "station to station" rate. (Minimum "appointment" rate 20c).

For toll calls made on a "person to person" basis where messenger service is required to secure attendance of the designated person at the called telephone the "messenger call" rate applies. This rate is the same as the "appointment" rate, plus any necessary charge for messenger service.

In connection with all toll calls other than those made on a "station to station" basis where the connection is established but the conversation is not held, because of any reason beyond the control of the telephone company a "report charge" is made equivalent to about one-fourth of the "station to station" rate. (Minimum "report charge" 5c, maximum $2.00).

Reduced rates, applying only to calls made on a "station to station" basis are quoted for toll service between the hours of 8:30 p. m. and 4:30 a. m. The rate between 8:30 p. m. and 12 midnight ("evening rate") is about one-half the "station to station" day rate, and between 12 midnight and 4:30 a. m. ("night rate") about one-fourth the "station to station" day rate. The minimum night rate is 25c. Where the "station to station" day rate is 25c or less no reduction is made for evening or night service.

The time at which connection is established at originating point governs the rate determining whether the day, evening or night charge applies on "station to station" service.

Day rates apply on all calls other than those made on a "station to station" basis, whether they are made during the day, evening or night.

"Collect Calls" or calls for which the charges are reversed (that is, collected from the subscriber at the called station) are allowed only in connection with "person to person" calls.

PRESBYTERIAN CHILDREN'S DAY

Program Excellently Given by Young People—Report of Aeroplane Race.

The Children's Day exercises as held at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning were very pleasing, each little person doing his share well. The program was given as printed in our last week's issue together with several additions. Four babies were baptized: Roger Allen Gillespie, Mary Dorothy Babcock, Frank Simeon Harris and Julia Eva Rex, Rev. C. M. Thompson coming from the Methodist church to perform the ceremony for the baby of the manse.

One feature of the program came in pat for Boy Scout week. Eight Scouts from Miss Boyce's class, under the leadership of Dale Bowen, saluted the flag and gave the allegiance also their Scout oath.

Rev. Rex then gave a talk to the children. He brought onto the platform a stand on which was an array of glasses and a pitcher. He asked the youngsters to tell what soft drink they liked best and into each glass poured water from the pitcher producing the color of the beverage wanted any how. Then he told them of the "water of life so freely given." Illustrated as it was, the little people will never forget.

At this service also the result of the contest which has been in progress in the Sunday school was announced. This has been an aeroplane race, one bearing the English flag and one the French. In Rev. Rex' report of the race he said the other pastors report a better interest in Sunday school work in their respective churches, which can be partially attributed to the great interest manifested in the Presbyterian Sunday school. Before the contest there was an average of 55% of the membership in attendance. During the contest the attendance roe to 68%. The average collection formly was $5.86, but during the contest the average has been $11.43. The English are credited with 32 new scholars and the French 25. The classes at the lead are Miss Kyle's class (French) with 4610 miles; Mrs. Paul Bowens, (English) 3,796 miles; Mrs. Frank Nyland's 3,784; Mrs. Slayton's, 3332; Primary 3171. The English made 21,934 miles, the French 21,614. As Mrs. Bowen's class of young men was the champion for the English they were given the $10 gold piece, given by the Session, and which is to be used for some purpose in or about the church.

The Session are to entertain the Sunday school a little later, "when it gets warmer," as announced.

Next came the ordination and installation of the two new members of the session: A. W. Mills and Fulton McLain.

The decorations, the work of Mrs. Bowen's class, were very effective. Banks of willows were across the front of the choir loft and immense boquets of white daisies were in great white tiles on either side, with the flame of poppies lending just the right touch of color.

Light refreshments will be served and all Master Masons are urged to attend to give the guests a cordial welcome.

This might be termed "Picnic Week." Scarcely one of the little people but have been in on some sort of a picnic either at the ponds or the lakes, with their classes in school or their Sunday school this week. We are blessed with beautiful spots around our city for these functions and the teachers and their charges have enjoyed them to the full. The seventh and eighth grades were at the lakes yesterday for their share of the fun.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church will hold an all day meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Alfred Wright, Thursday, June 26. In the forenoon the ladies will sew for the Children's Home at Detroit, at noon a picnic dinner will be served and in the afternoon will be held the annual meeting of the society with the reading of the annual reports of secretary and treasurer and election of officers.

Sergeant Chester E. Thompson arrived in Tecumseh Tuesday evening and will spend a few days with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson. Sgt. Thompson was in Company A, Twenty-First Engineers, and came home by auto from Jackson, where he missed train connections. While his former position in the engineering department of the D. U. R. in Detroit is open for him, he has not as yet formulated any plans for the future. He is being heartily greeted by his many Tecumseh friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Derby, two children and their niece, Miss Ellen Mohr, were in Adrian Monday evening for a reception given Sergeant and Mrs. Lloyd Lewis, at the home of Sergt. Lewis' parents. The soldier and his bride, who was Miss Geraldine Derby, had arrived in Adrian from San Antonio, Texas, only that morning. Mrs. Lewis was a popular telephone operator on the local exchange and her Tecumseh and Tipton friends are delighted to have the couple return to Lenawee county.

Tuesday evening Miss Martha Caldwell entertained the teachers of the school at her home at a lawn party, honoring the teachers who do not teach here next year. Those thus honored were Supt. W. L. Reed, Principal O. J. Duguid, Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, Misses Bessie Yutzsey, Lucile Forrester and Corinne Cardwell. A picnic supper was served and a very pleasant evening enjoyed. As a token of the respect of his co-workers, Supt. Reed was presented with a handsome picture, "The Lone Wolf." Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Duguid with their little daughter were also of the party.

Frank Miller of the Tecumseh bank was in Lansing over the weekend.

The invitations for the Alumni have been issued and the prospects are favorable for a delightful meeting. The date is June 27, in the evening, place the school. All men returned from service are requested to wear their uniforms.

Mrs. L. C. Hayden, Mrs. Mary Ives, Mrs. Alice Percy, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Moore, Lieut and Mrs. P. C. Satterthwaite, Miss Camilla and Perry Hayden were in Adian Tuesday evening for the David Bispham Concert, which they pronounce exceedingly fine.

In the circuit court yesterday Mrs. Marietta Greenfield was given a decree of divorce from Hardy Greenfield, with the custody of the two small children. The husband is to pay $6.00 per week for the support of the children and the property is to be divided about equally between the plaintiff and defendant.

The Boy Scouts gave a demonstration at the school house Friday evening which was very pleasing. The exhibition consisted of bandaging and work of second class Scouts, consisting of drilling, boxing, etc. Slides were also shown of the boys on hikes, building their campfires, etc., which delighted the boys themselves as well as their guests.

Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy has been doing a little effective missionary work in exterminating mosquitos. Finding the old fountain and stagnant pools at the old Coller place breeding centers of the little pests, she applied kerosene oil thereon and now notices a decrease in the insects. Mosquitos as well as dust are dangerous to health.

Wyman Service came home from Chicago Monday. For the past 6 weeks he has been attending the Worsham school of embalming and will return in October for a short post graduate course to fit himself for the state examination in November. He is keenly interested in the business, and will make an energetic addition to the firm of Service & Sons.

People who have spoken for a copy of the "Senior Echoes" will not be disappointed when the delivery is made, for the book is all that has been promised. Typographically it is almost faultless, the illustrations are splendid and taking it altogether the book is a credit to Tecumseh. Although we have not had time to examine a copy thoroughly, we extend hearty congratulations to the class of 1919, for the work is a great achievement.

The death of Mrs. Mary A. Boyd, aged 87, widow of the late Wm. Boyd and well known in this vicinity, occurrel at the home of her daughter Mrs. Adam Mull, Adrian, about 11 o'clock last night. The remains will be taken to the home of another daughter, Mrs. Henry McCarbery, Ridgeway, where funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 2 o'clock. Burial will be made in Tecumseh. It is requested flowers be omitted.

Roger Waring will leave for Detroit next Saturday where he has been engaged by H. Howard Crane to superintend the construction of Orchestra Hall. Orchestra Hall will be, when completed, one of the largest auditoriums in that city. It is to be used exclusively for musical entertainments. Among those who will appear there this winter are Galli Curci, Kubelick and Josef Hofman. The building will seat about 2,500 and will cost around $500,000. It is located on Woodward and Parsons about a mile out Woodward Ave.

Notes

A Father and Son banquet was given at the church Monday evening by the Boy Scouts. The Scouts furnished the feast and arranged the room. Ice cream was served at the close of the supper. The meeting was opened in form by the Scoutmaster, who then introduced Ralph Hodges as toastmaster, who showed his ability to tell a good joke. Each member was introduced by him and asked to demonstrate before all present, some part of scout work. Elmer Fox gave a very interesting talk of the work in the trenches. Pastor Curtis told that the organization was not a military one but its object was to build the character and render service. Rev. Rex gave an illustrated talk on the value of pure life. Games followed.

Lieut. Louis Wilton, of the aviation corps, will deliver the address at the Community service at the Baptist church Sunday evening. Lieut. Wilton was a student for the ministry in Chicago when the war broke out, and because of his kind and Christian ways the boys in camp gave him the name of "The Sky Pilot." He is the youngest man who has been given commissions. All Boy Scouts and young people are urged to be present and hear his story with an appeal to enlist in a life work for the Kingdom of Christ.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT

FATAL BURNING OF MRS. H. W. STEVENS SATURDAY

Clothes Catch Fire While Endeavoring to Stamp Out Flaming Newspapers That Ignited From Hot Oven.

Hosts of friends grieved sincerely when they learned of the fatal burning accident that befell Mrs. H. W. Stevens shortly after the noon hour Saturday last while preparing dinner for herself and husband.

Mrs. Stevens was using the oven on top of her oil stove baking short cake. On top of the oven were some newspapers, which ignited from the heat. Mrs. Stevens naturally took the flaming papers from the oven, threw them on the floor, and in endeavoring to stamp out the flames her clothing caught fire. Her cry for help was heard by Mr. Stevens, who was close by in the yard. Although he rushed to her assistance, the lady was so severely burned that the physicians called gave no hopes for recover. The accident occurred at 12:30 Saturday noon and at 8:15 that evening suffering was relieved by the flight of the spirit from its earthly tenement.

Telephonic communication brought her only daughter, Agnes, and husband, Geo. H. Chapman, from Detroit, and her only sister, Mrs. Mary Guiwitts of Clinton to her bedside in the shortest possible time, thus giving her the comfort of seeing her loved ones before entering the new life.

Mrs. Stevens was born in Ann Arbor, Mach 30, 1841, and was married to Mr. Stevens November 4, 1860, just before the outbreak of the Civil war. She was one of those true wifely and motherly women that made this nation great, always ready to sacrifice for her loved ones and her country. Her Christian character and motherly qualities made many friends who grieve over her tragic and painful death. As a companion of over 58 years her passing is a great sorrow to the husband who has the sympathy of the entire community.

Mrs. Stevens was a member of Tecumseh Presbyterian church and took keen interest in the church work, although for the past five years rheumatism prevented her attendance regularly or as often as she would like.

The funeral services for Mrs. Stevens were held from the home Tuesday afternoon when the house and lawn were filled with friends of this sweet character. The Rev. W. A. Rex was assisted in the services by the Rev. C. M. Thompson and appropriate hymns were sung by Mrs. R. T. Meade and Miss Martha Caldwell. The bearers were Charles Burridge, John D. Shull, F. E. Bradley, J. J. Freeman, O. B. Finch and E. R. Smith of Clinton. The remains were laid to rest in Brookside.

Present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevens of Ann Arbor; Mrs. Mary Guiwitts, Mrs. Sarah Stevens, Clinton, Mrs. Mary Morrison, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith and daughter of Eaton Rapids. The Beers Post, G. A. R., and Tecumseh Beers Auxiliary attended the services in a body.

NEW SCHOOL CATALOG BEING DISTRIBUTED

Tuition Fee for Non-Resident Pupils Is Slightly Advanced.

We are in receipt of the school catalog for 1919-1920, an attractive booklet just issued by the board of education. In it are some excellent cuts of the new building and some of the new departments, with the full list of grade and high school texts. The work of each grade and each course in the high school is outlined with the credit given each study. The names and addresses of the high school alumni complete the book.

The tuition for non-resident pupils has been raised to $25 for the primary and $40 for the high school, which is $5 below the advance made by other schools not as good as ours. This advance is made necessary to pay the higher wages demanded by the teachers and this we must pay to get the best and retain our high standard.

SEVERELY INJURED.

Maurice Adams' Leg Lacerated When Bolt Gives Way on Baler

Saturday morning before 7 o'clock Maurice Adams, who with his family have recently moved from Britton to the old Garlinghouse place south of town, met with an accident which may prove serious even yet. He had begun work on his hay baler on a farm just south of Britton and was finishing only the second bale, when a short bolt which fastened the whiffle tree to the baler flew off and the plunger struck him in the left leg just back of the knee, ripping the whole calf of the leg open clear to the ankle. Dr. Lusty, was called and knowing it was work demanding two doctors he brought him to Tecumseh to Dr. Hardy's office. Dr. Hardy was busy with another operation so not in his office and it was some time before the injured leg was sewed up, when forty-six stitches were found necessary. He has since been suffering severely.

Graduates Present Program of Merit

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES BY CLASS OF 1919 EXCEEDINGLY PRETTY

Most Recent Product of Tecumseh High School Has Bright Future; Departing Superintendent Receives Gift.

One of the prettiest commencements ever given by a graduating class from the Tecumseh high school was that of Thursday evening, June 19, when the class of 1919 said its adieu to the high school. Bradley opera house was filled with the relatives and friends of the class members. The stage was handsomely decorated, strands of white and gold forming draperies for either side. Across the front was a white trellis supporting banks of dainty marguerite, the class flower, with several great urns filled with the blossoms. High over all was the class motto, "Upward and Onward," the letters being emblazoned in gold.

The officers and members of the graduating class are:

President, Perry Hayden; vice president, Harley Van Vleet; secretary, Lucile Miller; treasurer, Muriel Halladay; Susie Anderson, Violet Boyd, Jane McConnell, Vera Sisson, Edgar Meads, Robert Moore, Jr., Helen Morgan, Mabel Lockwood, Lena Mapes, Gladys Gilbert, Jessie French, Marion Crittenden, Elizabeth Comfort, Eula Schwartz, Alice Hardenburgh, Marian Brooks, Mildred Brooks, Milburn Brooks.

The exercises began with the "Festival Procession March," (F. C. Rathbun). A piano duet by the Misses Marian and Mildred Brooks, members of the class. To the strains of the march in came the class of twenty-two members, Supt. W. L. Reed, Rev. W. A. Rex and F. B. Wood, of the school board.

Following the invocation by the Rev. Rex, Perry M. Hayden, the class president, gave the salutatory, welcoming most cordially the audience. The cane, made from a spindle of the stairway of the old school house, has been received by the Juniors each year since the old building was demolished, so again this year did the Juniors receive the responsibility. The presentation was made by Miss Lucile Miller, George Newsom accepting it for the class of 1920.

Mrs. E. T. Rosacrans charmingly sang "Butterflies," (Seiler) accompanied by Mrs. Ella Hodges.

The class historian was Miss Alice Hardenburgh and her duty was performed well. The class prophecy by Miss Helen Morgan was unique. Everyone was given the brighest of prospects and the vocations varied from Comfort's brick yard to a Parisian fashion shop.

Miss Muriel Halladay no long-

DEATH TAKES FORMER TECUMSEH ASSESSOR

Samuel Steel was Widely and Favorably Known; Long Resident Here.

Samuel Steel, for many years the village assessor and who was forced to resign this spring, through ill health, passed away Monday evening at his home, corner Logan and Division streets. He had been in poor health since last December but had been about until a couple of weeks ago, since that time failing rapidly. He had been a sufferer from aenemia.

Mr. Steel was born in the Town of Avon, Livingston county, N. Y., August 19, 1858, one of six children born to John and Jane Steel. In the winter of 1863 the brave pioneers and their family of little children came to Michigan. The first night in Tecumseh December 31, 1863, they stayed in the old Central Hotel, then they located on a farm near former York State friends in Macon. In that township on October 1884, he married Miss Anna Stewart. Their home was a farm within a mile from the old homestead and there they remained until nine years ago, when they sold the farm and located in Tecumseh. To the couple were born three children, Roy of Eaton Rapids, Ira of Britton, and Mrs. Jennie Schreder of this townohip. Besides the wife and children, there is one brother surviving, John Steel, who also came to Tecumseh when Samuel and wife did. There are aiso four grandchildren.

Mr. Steel was an ardent republican and popular both here and in Macon as a town offiecr. In Macon he was supervisor for five years, also served terms as clerk, highway commissioner and treasurer. He was instrumental in the organization of the De-Spelder church in Macon also.

The funeral is to be held from the home this afternoon, the Rev. W. A. Rex officiating with burial at Brookside cemetery.

Samuel Steel was of a quiet, unassuming personality, and kindliness shone in his face and drew friends to him and those friends are counted by the score The sorrowing family have the sympathy of the town, for his loss is keenly felt.

EASTER STAR HONOR G. B. HINES, TECUMSEH

Local Man Chosen Vice President of Lenawee-Monroe Association.

Quite a party of the local members of the Eastern Star were in Dundee Thursday for the meeting of the Lenawee-Monroe county association. Some 350 were present with Mrs. A. J. Montgomery, the president for two years, presiding. The new officers elected are:

President—Mrs. Elizabeth Fluher, Dundee.

First vice president—Geo. B. Hines, Tecumseh.

Second vice president — Mrs. Iva Smith, Deerfield.

Secretary treasurer — Miss Margaret Lawson, Deerfield.

Chaplain—Mrs. Luella Hall, Blissfield.

Marshal—Mrs. Helen Pentecost, Onsted.

It was voted to support the little French orphan another year. The collection taken, $37.40, was divided evenly between this orphan and the new Masonic orphanage at Adrian.

Present from Tecumseh were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hines, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Graebner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snedicor, Mrs. G. S. Field, Miss Nannie Kyle, Mrs. John McIntyre, Miss Margaret Haire, Mrs. E. M. Campbell, Mrs. R. J. W. Bowen, Mrs Eva J. Snow of Ludington, the worthy grand matron, was also present.

JASPER BLANKS THE TECUMSEH PLAYERS

Old Rival of the Local Team, Clinton, Will Be Here for Battle Next Sunday Afternoon.

It was the Jasper Independents who administered defeat for the first time this season to Tecumseh's fast baseball team, the locals being humbled at League park last Sunday afternoon when the nine from the little village to the south blanked their opponents, while they were scampering around the bases three times. But the visitors had no trouble in taking the game, as the Tecumseh players seemed as anxious for Jasper to win as the out of town team were eager to get the most scores. The locals aided and abetted their opponents in a liberal manner, making errors at frequent intervals. Drake, the Tecumseh shortstop being the most serious offender along this line. That the people of Tecumseh are still interested in the national game is attested by the growing attendance at these Sunday afternoon contests, the crowd at League park last Sunday being larger than at any time this season. It is expected the attendance record will again be shattered next Sunday afternoon when Tecumseh will clash with its long time baseball enemy, Clinton. This will also be the last home game for the local team for some time, as it will be playing in other towns for a number of weeks.

Howe, in the box for Tecumseh, did efficient work and it was not his laxness that lost the game, as he struck out eleven Jasperites. The visitors' heaver, Travis, fanned but 4 of the local Independents. Clark and Drewyor did the receiving of Howe's offerings, while Meyer was back of the home plate for Jasper. Tecumseh clouted safely seven times, five hits being the total of the vistors.

In the first two games this season Tecumseh showed much class and what caused the slump of last Sunday may never be known. But a slump it was decidedly, but the fans hope the local team has rid itself of its accumulation of misplays and will demonstrate to Clinton next Sundav that the town to the north still has much to learn in regard to playing the national pastime.

After the home team had presented the game to Jasper through its many bungles it had two chances to redeem itself, one in the fourth and in the sixth inning, but failed to make the most of them. While most all of the Tecumsehites added their score to the misplays, Drake was the most insistent in favoring the visitors, and he also showed some poor judgment on the bases. Altogether it was a poor showing that the home men made.

There always has been and is still the keenest rivalry between Tecumseh and Clinton so far as baseball is concerned, and supremacy along this line is to be settled for a time at least when these two teams meet at League park next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Both nines plan to use the best they have in this battle, and as old accounts are to be settled in this contest the fans are looking forward to an encounter that will be peppery to a high degree. Another factor which will probably attract a larger crowd than usual is that this will be the last home game for some time for the Tecumseh Independents, as they will be playing elsewhere for a number of Sundays after June 29.

All meat markets and groceries will be closed all day July 4—adv

Famous Regiment Warmly Greeted

TECUMSEH WILLING HOST TO OLD FOURTH MICHIGAN INFANTRY

Next Reunion Will be Held in Adrian; John Rentz of Blissfield is Chosen President.

Members of the famous Old Fourth Michigan Infantry have a warm spot in their heart for Tecumseh. This was forcibly brought to light during this gallant organization's forty-seventh annual reunion in this city last Friday, when more than one of the speakers referred to the hearty welcome given the old Fourth on a previous reunion here and which was repeated at its session less than a week ago. About thirty of the members of the regiment attended the 1919 reunion, a number of the few survivors who were not present sending word that they were too feeble to make the journey during the hot weather. Quite a few of those present were attended by their wives. The dimishing attendance reminded the veterans that their ranks are thinning fast and that in the course of a few years the makers of American history back in th sixties will have answered the final taps, but leaving there glorious record to remind the present and future generations of the heroic task they so bravely accomplished.

The members of the Old Fourth Michigan Infantry began arriving early in the forenoon, some coming by train while not a few motored here. The business session was held in the hall of Beers post, G. A. R., where twenty-five members had registered before the meeting was called to order at 11 a. m. The most important matter to come up was the election of officers, the result being as follows:

President — John Rentz, of Blissfield.

First vice president—C. T. Hartson, of Eaton Rapids.

Second vice president — John Wallace, of Pittsford.

Secretary—Mrs. T. H. Midgley, of Hillsdale.

Treasurer—J. A. Dillon, of Hudson.

It was decided to hold the next reunion at Adrian, the exact date to be selected by the officers. They will probably choose June 19 or 20 as the yearly session is usually held on one of these dates.

The report of the treasurer showed the regiment still had funds in its treasury.

Following the business meeting all the delegates and the ladies in attendance went to the New Home restaurant where they were served an appetizing dinner.

At 1:30 in the afternoon a program was given at the Methodist church, the newly elected president presiding. Prayer was offered by Rev. C. M. Thompson. Among the places from which letters of regret were received from members who could not attend were Newark, N. J., and Chicago.

The address of welcome was given by Hon. J. D. Shull of Tecumseh, who declared the members of the Old Fourth Michigan Infantry Regiment were heartily welcomed by Tecumseh as they were worthy of a warm greeting

HOWES—KENYON

Popular Tecumseh Girl Wedded to California Musical Director.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. Lorenzo D. Kenyon at 12 o'clock Friday, June 20, when Miss Ethel M. Kenyon and George Leonard Howes were united in marriage. Rev. W. A. Cutler of Grass Lake, pastor of the Congregational church of that place, officiated. Miss Kenyon was born in Lenawee county and has resided here most of her life. She is a graduate of the Michigan Normal and has held several positions as teacher in the public schools.

Mr. Howes is widely known as a musical director and instructor of vocal culture. His work had been in Detroit and other cities of Michigan and for seven years in California.

Those present at the ceremony were the relatives and intimate friends only. After the beautiful ring ceremony an elaborate three-course luncheon was served to the guests by three young ladies, Misses Mabel Lockwood, Eula Schwartz and Elizabeth Comfort, under the direction of Mrs. Mattis, who catered.

Miss Kenyon wore an exquisite bead embroidered crepe de chine gown with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of pink and white rose buds.

Mr. and Mrs. Howes left immediately for Long Beach, Cal., where they will spend the summer. After October 1 their permanent home will be at Los Angeles, where Mr. Howes formerly lived and where he plans to resume his musical work.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Kenyon and daughter of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Trevidick and Roy Trevidick of Grass Lake, Mich., and Dr. and Mrs. DePuy of Jackson, Mich.

Tecumseh people who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Avery, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, the Misses Yutzey, Donaldson and Miller, Mr. Frank Miller and Rev. Edward Escolme.

R. W. COLE, WIDELY KNOWN, PASSES AWAY

Had Been Township Treasurer and Highway Commissioner; Was Aged 84.

R. W. Cole, one of the best known men in this part of the county, passed away Monday morning aged 84 years. He had been in feeble health for many months, due to his advancing years, but it was only two weeks ago that he became so sick he had to remain in bed, so his death came as a surprise to his many friends in the village.

The subject of this sketch was born in Constantia, N. Y., November 9, 1834. He became a merchant upon reaching man's estate and married. The wife died leaving him with one daughter, now Mrs. W. C. Hopkins of Jackson. Twenty-seven years ago he married Miss Louise E. Hill, who has faithfully cared for him through the remainder of the long life.

He sold his business in New York and bought the farm in Raisin now owned by Henry McLain. There he and the wife lived until failing health forced him to go to a smaller place and they purchased the property near the Bills race course where they have since resided.

Mr. Cole was active in public affairs, taking a keen interest in all things political. An ardent admirer of Theodore Roosevelt, he watched that great man's career closely and at all times approved of the fearless steps taken. In all things else he accorded with the republican party. While at Cato, N. Y., he was postmaster for fourteen years and for twelve years was a justice of the peace. Since coming to Michigan he has been highway commissioner two or three terms and also township treasurer.

The wife and daughter before mentioned survive as also one sister, Mrs. Thomas Russell, of Detroit.

The funeral services were held at the home yesterday afternoon, Rev. W. A. Rex officatng. The bearers were Frank Wells, of Detroit, Ed Tafft, of Adrian, James Elliott, Will Ousterhout, Lee McConnell and J. B. Kennedy. The burial took place in Brookside.

CLINTON

BIG CROWD AT CLOSING OUT SALE

E. L. and Frank Parker Going Out of Clothing Business.

The largest crowd that ever attended a sale in this town stampeded the store of the Clinton Clothing Co. on the opening day of the sale Wednesday. Long before the doors were open people were lined up waiting to gain admittance.

The stock of the Clinton Clothing Co. was owned by E. L. Parker and his brother, Frank, the latter managing the store. Death took from the Clinton Woolen Mfg. Co., its eastern saleman, Mr. Eakles, and E. L. Parker, superintendent of the Clinton plant, was appointed to fill vacancy. Frank Parker has been appointed to take the place of superintendent.

ALUMNI 50 YEARS AGO.

Account of High School Class Long Ago Brought to Light.

A clipping has come to our desk which comes right pat this week. It is a write up of the alumni of the local high school as it appeared in The Record just fifty years ago. The exercises took place in Union School hall, the assembly being called to order by Col. L. Saviers. The first number was a song, "The Alumni Reunion," by J. S. Strong, who was assisted in the chorus by Miss Ella Hall of Ridgeway and Messrs. Conkling and Herrick.

Thos. O. Perry, of Franklin, (right now visiting in this city) was orator of the day. S. C. Stacy read an original poem. The following list of officers were elected for the next year: President, Lieut. W. C. Fitzsimmons; vice presidents, David Boyd, Romyne Miller and Mrs. Nellie J. Bidwell; secretary, G. L. Graves; treasurer, Seaton W. Anderson; executive committee S. C. Stacy, Chas. A. Cook and Chas. A. Wright; orator, Chas. A. Cook; substitute, Thos. O. Perry. The society enjoyed a social reunion in the evening at school hall and later adjourned to the Presbyterian Festival at Merchants Hall.

Editorial Comment

"Trade in Lenawee" is a new slogan which the merchants of Adrian have adopted and they plan to make it a household phrase in every home in the county by judicious advertising.

The Herald, having always advocated that Lenawee county people should get into the habit of buying everything possible in their home town or at least in the county, emphatically endorses this movement and will co-operate to the fullest in bringing the Tecumseh folk to realize the advantages of making their purchases in the home town.

It is the plan of the Adrian merchants, members of the Chamber of Commerce, to do co-operative, systematic, community advertising and they have engaged an experienced publicity man to direct the effort. It will be advocated that people residing in Lenawee county should trade in their home county and not send their money away to mail order houses or make long trips to cities outside the county to buy articles they need. Those promoting the movement have adopted the slogan "Trade in Lenawee," and this will pe given publicity for a year.

Realizing the advantage of the country weeklies as an advertising medium, the Adrian merchants will also push their campaign through these publications, calling upon the people to by all means trade in Lenawee county and urging those living in or near the small towns to do their buying there. Should the dealers is these places not have the articles desired, then the customers are invited and requested to go to Adrian to seek the goods, rather than to some city outside the county. If the goods cannot be procured in the county people should do their buying in the state when possible. It is the aim of the promoters of the campaign to convince the people of Lenawee county that they do not have to leave their own community to do their buying, and by making their purchases at home they will be contributing to the general welfare of the locality and also receive direct and indirect benefits themselves.

The movement is worthy of the hearty co-operation of all the residents of Lenawee county and if the campaign receives this support The Herald predicts it will result in great benefits for all concerned.

The state bankers' association in Saginaw acted in a patriotic and broad-minded manner in giving its endorsement by resolution to this year's War Savings Stamp campaign.

The savings stamps have proved a convenient and profitable means of putting by money to many a family, and were the bankers to have taken a narrow view of the matter, they might have been disposed to regard the "savies" as a potentially dangerous competitor.

However, the broader view of the convention was that the campaign for the stamps has been of a nature to encourage thrift in every form. It has been an interesting fact that in every community where the sale of the stamps has been a success, the increase in savings desposits of banks has enjoyed a corresponding growth. Business in general has shown health, too; and this was an inevitable development. For the thrifty community is the successful community.

The bankers resolution of endorsement follows similar pronouncements in favor of the thrifty little thrift stamps by the Michigan legislature, and the editors at the state convention.

Thousands of persons are endorsing the campaign, and providing for their own investments in a safe and profitable way by daily purchases of the stamps. With Liberty loans past, they are the best security in the world.

It was a gathering of proud relatives and friends of the high school graduating class which filled the Bradley opera house last Thursday evening for the commencement exercises, and all had just cause for being elated over the demonstration given by the twenty-two young people in convincing their admirers that the years they had spent in school had not been wasted. Never was their a more promising, alert or mentally keen group of young men and women graduated from Tecumseh high school than this year. It is not to be doubted but what all will make their mark in the world in one way or another. And with this town's modern and spacious new high school in operation to its best advantage, there will be other and perhaps even better equipped classes to complete the various advanced courses now offered.

It is expected that the advance units of the 339th Infantry, which includes several Tecumseh boys, will reach New York Ciy either Saturdav night or Sunday and a large delegation of Detroit people, who have relatives in this regiment, are planning to welcome the soldiers at the docks in the American metropolis. The welcome home celebraton to be held in Detroit in honor of the lads from that city and other parts of Michigan who have been fighting the Reds in rigorous Russia it is likely will be held on the Fourth of July, and if the people of Tecumseh expect to take part in it collectively te time for making arrangements is now. If this town plans to have no home demonstration for its fighters in the 339th, it would not be out of place of the people from here joined with Detroit in giving this long suffering organization evidence that the stay at homes appreciate fully the service rendered by the youths sent to frozen and Bolshevik-infested Russia. It is high time steps were taken if anything along this line is to be undertaken.

Oiling of streets is decidedly popular now. In all parts of Tecumseh where the thoroughfares have not been thus treated there is a demand that it be done. The initial step along this line, at first strongly opposed, now has the sincere approval of those who at one time were the loudest in protesting against it. Residents of streets which it is desired be oiled are advised to draw up a petition making their request known, have it signed by the property owners on the thoroughfare and then present the petition to the village council. The residents of the street pay for the oil but the town officials bear the expense of applying it.

Peace is to come at last, Germany having agreed to sign the allies' terms on Friday.

The defeated Teutons agreed to the terms whimperingly, but that is no more than is expected from a foe who had no respect for womanhood nor mercy for defenseless children. Certainly the terms which the Germans are to sign are severe, but no more so than the methods adopted by the Huns in their vain attempt to rule the world. And that lenient rules would be disregarded by the treacherous Teutons was clearly demonstrated by the sinking by their crews of German warships anchored in Scapa Flow. The boats had been sent to this place, all explosives removed and skeleton crews left on board, the fleet being guarded by British ships while the allies were deciding how to dispose of them. Saturday practically all of the war ships were sunk, the members of the crew opening valves and letting the water enter the vessels. The crews fled in small boats but were taken in charge by the British. Admiral von Reotor admits re ordered the ships scuttled, saying he was following the German navy's tradition which knows no surrender. This act is considéred treachery, as the vanquished Germans were placed on their honor when they were permitted to remain on their warships without guard, and the sinking of the fleet is evidence enough that the ruthless enemy can not be trusted.

No, the peace terms are not too severe.

LIEUT. LOUIS WILTON GIVES INSPIRING TALK AT COMMUNITY SERVICE.

Aviator Details Experiences in Army; Rev. C. M. Thompson to Address Knights of Pythias and Ladies at Methodist Church Next Sunday Night.

One of the most interesting of the Communty services yet held in Tecumseh was that of Sunday evening when Lieutenant Louis Wilton of Jackson, the young aviator-preacher, was the speaker at the Baptist church.

He was introduced by Rev. W. R. Curts, who told how Lieut. Wilton comes of a family of soldiers. Out of the three boys in the family, one belongs to the navy, one is still in Germany in the United States army and the lieutenant is an aviator. "With such families as these against them, no wonder Germany was defeated," declared Rev. Curtis.

Lieut. Wilton told in an entertaining way of the training of the aviator, the different stages of this instruction and the large scope which this instruction covers. He told first of the stringent physical examination before entrance into the service. Out of his class of twenty-one examined he was one of only four to pass. At his first school at Champagne, Ill., they were given a twelve weeks' course in infantry drills, aeronautics, wireless telegraphy, the operaton of many sorts of motors and machine guns. Here only twenty-three graduated out of the class of seventy-eight. Then they were taken to the Texas aviaton fields and given the remainder of the course. When through here and the commission as pilot is received, one can do about anything possible with a plane.

The Jackson aviator told many comic adventures, showing the life of an airship pilot isfilled with a great variety of experiences, yet through the talk ran the idea that though a good soldier for Uncle Sam yet he followed and was protected by the Great Pilot. He made an ardent plea for the work of the church for the boys coming home. He calls this the "Young People's Age," both in business and the church.

"Are you willing to put yourself in training for Christ as the pilots have been trained? Will you show your loyalty to our Lord, Jesus Christ, by saying as the soldier implies to Uncle 'Take me, Father, do as you will, I am yours,' " the speaker asked his hearers

During the opening service the choir of the Baptist church gave a splendid selection and Mrs. R. S. Moore beautifully sang "The Lord is My Shepherd."

Rev. C. M. Thompson announced that next Sunday night he would address the Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters as well as the public with his theme, "Knightly Men."

Expects He'll Be Sent Home Soon

JOHN L. McCAUGHN WRITES INTERESTINGLY FROM FRANCE

Reviewed by Perishing Recently and Visited by President Wilson's Daughter; Is Having Much Excitement.

That he was among those to recently pass in review before General Pershing and that President Wilson's daughter visited the soldiers at the camp at which he is stationed, are among the interesting facts mentioned in a letter which Private John L. McCaughn has sent his wife from Le-Mars, France. He expects to be sent home soon.

Private McCaughn is a member of Company 297, M. P., 147th Provisional Battalion, and his letter to Mrs. McCaughn is as follows:

June 3rd, 1919.

To My Dear Wife:

I will drop you a few lines tonight in answer to your letter I received today. I expected to be on the ocean tonight instead of here. We left Conflans for home on May 22 but been in three different camps since. We have had several inspections and are all ready to go across but something is wrong somewhere. When we left Canflans I expected to be with you and mother on my birthday (12th day of June), but now I think it will be near the last of the month before I get there. We are now at Le-Mars Camp which is an embarkation center. It is a fine camp and we have had a lot of excitment since coming here.

They have a quarter mile race track here and for three days they had a big time. Decoration Day they had two bands and a parade and lots of races, the Second Cavalry and several companies of Military Police which are stationed around here took part as they have some fine horses. There were two soldiers decorated with war medals on that day one was a general and the other a corporal. Saturday afternoon Marguerite Wilson was here and she walked around the race track and smiled and waved her hand to all the soldiers and yesterday we had a review at the aviation camp abut 4 miles from here. We were reviewed by General Pershing. He is sure a fine looking general. His son is with him. We have surely been well entertained since coming here but every one wants to get home so bad. It is about twelve hours ride from here to Brest where we are to take the boat as we have been expecting to go any hour.

I haven't written you since leaving Conflans, but I thought that I would get home as soon as a letter would reach you. I expect to go to Custer to be discharged. Charley Wilnow has just finished writing a letter to his wife. There are seventy-nine of the old Eighty-Fifth division men left in this company now. We don't have to do any more duty here and all we do is eat and sleep as they want let any one go to town.

Well I guess that I will close now for this time. Hoping to see you in the next three weeks I remain your loving Hubby,

John L. McCaughn.

MRS. PATIENCE GOHEEN CLAIMED BY DEATH

Lenawee Pioneer Is a Victim of Paralysis at the Age of 66.

After an illness of four years with paralysis, the sufferings of Mrs. Patience Goheen were mercifully ended by death on Friday last at noon. She had resided with her son, Arlie, and family for many years and they have lovingly cared for her through all the long years of pain.

Mrs. Goheen was 66 years of age, June 4, having been born in Clinton township. Her life was spent in kindly caring for her people until their deaths, and in just that splendid measure has it been meted to her. She leaves besides the son and family, 1 sister and two brothers, Mrs. Lily V. Burton of Warwick, N. D., Fremont N. Goheen of Eaton Rapids, and Fred Goheen of Tecumseh.

The funeral was held at the home on East Kilbuck street Mondav afternoon, Rev. W. A. Rex officiating. The bearers were nearly all close relatives, Arlie Goheen, Fremont Goheen, Fred Goheen, Dale Goheen, Rav Goheen and Elemr Boyce. The burial was on the family lot in Macon cemetery.

Fremont Goheen of Eaton Rapids and Mrs. F. A. Harms of Detroit were present at the funeral.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thus express our thanks and appreciation for the many kindnesses shown us by our neighbors and friends, both in Tecumseh and from the old home in Clinton township, through the long illness and since the death of our mother and for the many beautiful flowers sent to honor the memory of our loved one, also Rev. Rex for his kind attentions.

GIVEN A FAREWELL

Miss Mary Barrett Honored by Party of Her Young Friends.

Lavern Barrett and family have gone to Wampler's lake for the remainder of the summer, so Friday evening, wishing to honor Miss Mary, the daughter, before she left the village, a party of young people gave her a surprise at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fagan. They had the best kind of a time with games on the lawn, and ice cream was served. As a little token of their friendship they presented the little lady with a great box of stationery, enough for many letters to each.

In the party were the Misses Helen Deming, Dorothy Clark, Eleanor Caldwell, Geraldine Westcott, Gayle and Billie Bowen, Alice Hall, Katherine Patterson, Marion Williamson, Margaret Turner, Bernice Austin, Geraldine Gillespie, Martha Comfort and Beatrice Barrett, Billy Beardsley, Erwin Anderson, Webster Anderson, Thomas Meade, Dale Bowen, Wendel Cleveland, Donald Van Winkle, Lucian Williamson, Charles Gray, Donald Brown and Frederick Temple.

Raymond accompanied the Nyland family in their motor trip to the city for a visit with her son, Henry, and family.

Travel Pay For Released Fighters

Congressman Earl C. Michener Would Assist Soldiers and Sailors in Securing Allowance.

It is the desire of Hon. Earl C. Michener, representative in congress from this district, to be of assistance to soldiers and sailors from this vicinity in their efforts to secure the travel pay they are allowed by the government, and he has sent The Herald the following statement in reference to this matter which will be of interest to service men from this vicinity.

Payment of Travel Pay for Solders and Sailors:

In an Act of Congress approved February 28, 1919, it is provided that:

"Enlisted men honorably discharged from the army, navy, or marine corps since November 11, 1918, shall receive five cents per mile from the place of his discharge to his actual bonafide home or residence, or original muster into the service at his option."

Soldiers.

Due to controversy over the intent of the law, many soldiers and sailors have received only three and one-half cents, or have been paid only to place of muster in. All such claims the War Department is now prepared to adjust. To secure such settlement, the soldiers must send in his discharge paper or a copy thereof certified by the nearest recruiting officer, and a sworn application.

Any soldier in my District desiring to present such a claim may secure the necessary blank at the office of The Teumseh Herald, Tecumseh, Mich., and after it is properly filled out may send it, together with his discharge papers, to me at the address given below and I will present them to the War Department and return the discharge paper with check.

Sailors.

No affidavit is required by the Navy Department. Simply send me your discharge papers.

I am indebted to this newspaper for its generous space in bringing this matter to the attenion of soldiers and sailors.

Earl C. Michener,
Members of Congress.
476 House Office Bldg.
Washingon.

The blanks referred to are available at the office of The Tecumseh Herald and the publishers will take pleasure in providing soldiers and sailors with same and will also gladly extend other courtesies to those who have served in Uncle Sam's fighting forces.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REUNION

Class Lead By Mrs. [illegible] Pleasurable Function.

Mrs. B. Hurry's Class of the Methodist Sunday school held one of its reunions at the home of Mrs. Wm. Anderson Tuesday afternoon. About twenty-two were present and a general good time was enjoyed by all. It being the annual meeting of the class, a short business meeting was held and the officers of the present year were elected by acclamation to succeed themselves as follows:

President—Mrs. A. J. Bigelow.
Vice President—Miss Emma Rogers.
Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. Will Waldron.

At the close of the business meeting a picnic supper was served. As a result of so many ladies being together a fine thunder storm prevailed during the afternoon cooling the air and benefiting the crops. As the party passed one house on the way home it was hailed by one of the occupants who remarked, "The next dry spell, you ladies start out with your baskets." The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. C. Vedder in July.

Since the last annual meeting one death has occurred among the members, Mrs. Annette Crossman having passed away. Each meeting strengthens the ties that bind the members of this class together, and they realize more and more how pleasant it is, to hold these social gatherings.

ONLY FEW DAYS LEFT

As Money Saving Sale Ends July 1

Those who desire to take advantage of the remarkable values we are now offering in all our departments must act quickly. Our semi-annual Inventory Sale closes July 1, but until that time we will continue to offer the attractive bargains which no economical farmer can afford to ignore.

During the balance of June we will slash prices from 15 to 25 per cent on Hardware, Harness and such other merchandise as we are overstocked in, these prices being for cash purchases.

Buy Now If You Would Add to Your Bank Account

Bear in mind the goods we offer are not of inferior grade. They are the best we carry, but as we are overstocked on many things and must close them out before taking inventory, these large price reductions are made.

We are lowering prices in the Harness and Hardware departments, on Cordage, Fuel, Fertilizer, Feed, Stoves, Implements of all kinds and on a large assortment of miscellaneous articles.

You will be the loser if you fail to take advantage of this unusual opportunity.

There will be no regular grange meeting on July 4, although it is the date. Instead at the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Whelan the evening will be spent on their fine lawn. The program is not yet completed, but there will be fire works for the youngsters.

Mrs. Alva Waits of Tryon, Neb., writes under date of June 17: "We have had such a late spring corn is just coming up. The cut worms took a good deal of the early planted and are taking some of ours now. They are awful bad here this year." She also says her daughter, Dona, received her life certificate at Greely last March. She stayed on and took book binding. "She likes that work very much. She took manual training too and she has made a piano bench, book case and waste paper basket and they are awfuly nice." This is an example of what manual training will do for the children. Mrs. Waits was formerly Grace Wisner of this town.

MACON

Obituary.

Sarah J. Lindsley was born in Saline township May 14, 1841, an passed away June 17, 1919. She was the daughter of Samuel and Rachael Lindsley, who came from Ireland to the Territory of Michigan in 1834. June 26, 1867, she was united in marriage to Charles Oscar Camburn, who died twelve years later. To this union were born three children, Elnora and Lavern at home, and Mrs. Fred Heininger of Bleleville. She was the last of her father's family, her twin sister and a brother having died some years ago. In early married life she was united with the Methodist church at Macon during the pastorate of Rev. Hudson.

Sister Camburn was a friend to all and had often sat by the sick bed and comforted the weary hours of the suffering and closed the eyes of the departing. Her willing and capable hands were often the first to welcome the little ones as they came to this earthly life as well as to prepare many for their last resting place. The influence of her kind and helpful life cannot be estimated.

The funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon at the M. E. church of which she had for so many years been a faithful member. Rev. J. E. Sommers of Dundee and Rev. W. Combellack officiated. Burial was at Macon cemetery.

Those who attended from away were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heininger and family and Mr. and Mrs. Coy Leonard of Belleville, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Briggs, Mrs. K. Stang, Mr. and Mrs. Fred April, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fowler, and Mrs. W. S. Morden of Saline, Walter Cotton and Mrs. Ella Cotton of Clinton, Mrs. J. N. Smith and Mrs. J. A. DeSpelder of Tecumseh, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pocklington and Chas. Pocklington of Ridgeway, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Biddle of An Arbor and the Messrs. and Mesdams Herman, John and George Heininger of Saline.

Card of Thanks.

To those who so kindly assisted us by word or deed during the sickness of our mother and for sympathy, flowers, music and sermon after her death, we wish to thank you one and all

Elnora Camburn,
Lavern Camburn,
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heininger and family.

Red Cross Notes.

The first of the present month Mrs. Frank Thomas turned in to headquarters thirty-one pairs of stockings and five sweaters. This with the May work reported completes the quota for Macon Red Cross work.

Mrs. Gabe Mills, president of the Macon branch of the Red Cross, extends her thanks to all who so nobly assisted in the Red Cross work in any way. Especially does she desire to thank first of all the chairmen of the three divisions who were ever ready and eager to take up the different quotas and second, the workers, one and all, who never refused to do their "bit" and so made possible the filling of every quota assigned to Macon township. Not only was every quota filled but often extra work was donated and sent in.

The Remington reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Collins last Friday, June 20. There were about sixty present and a most enjoyable time was spent by all notwithstanding the rain, which came down in a regular flood.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Blair and children, Lucile and Thomas, and Mr. Blair's mother came Tuesday, June 17, to be present that evening at the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Milan Avery. After a week's visit with other relatives and friends, they returned to their home at Elm Hall.

Coughs Worse at Night

The simplest and quickest way to get rid of a wearing, racking night cough, tickling throat, hoarse, wheezy breathing is to take

Foley's Honey and Tar.

In it, you get the curative influence of the pine tar and other healing ingredients, together with the mollifying and laxative action of honey.

Editor C. T. Miller, Cannelton, Ind. (Enquirer) writes: "I was troubled with bronchial affection and coughed constantly day and night. I took Foley's Honey and Tar and got relief. It is great for bronchial colds and coughs." La grippe and bronchial coughs, croup, hoarseness, tickling throat, are all quickly relieved.

WILL ENLARGE COAL HANDLING FACILITIES

Lenawee Lumber Co Is Soon to Begin Making Important Improvements.

Work is soon to begin on improvements at the coal shed of the Lenawee Lumber Company which will greatly facilitate the handling of fuel by this fast growing concern. The proposed improvements call for the installation of a belt conveyor - bucket hoist, a step which was to have been taken a year ago but which had to be delayed when the government took charge of the coal situation.

The new management will improve the efficiency in unloading coal from the cars about 60 per cent, and will provide about 35 per cent more storage for fuel than is available at present. When it is borne in mind that up to 1918, when the federal authorities stepped into the fuel busines, the Lenawee Lumber Company's coal sales had been doubling each year, the need for more speed in handling the black diamonds will be readily perceived. Under the old method from eight to ten ton of coal can be handled an hour, but when the new system is installed as high as thirty ton an hour can be conveyed from the car to the bins.

It is stated by Maynard Mulvaney, the manager of the concern, that the improvements contemplated have been given the approval of the officers of the New York Central railroad, whose tracks run adjacent to the Lenawee Lumber Company's plant, and that work on the project is to begin in the very near future.

T'S NOT YOUR HEART IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. A majority of the ills afflicting people today can be traced back to kidney trouble.

The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filterers, the purifiers, of your blood.

Kidney disease is usually indicated by weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago.

All these derangements are nature's signals to warn you that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammations and destroys the germs which have caused it. Do not wait until tomorrow. Go to your druggist today and insist on GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In twenty-four hours you should feel health and vigor returning and will bless the day you first heard of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil.

After you feel that you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep in first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks.

Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. Three sizes. Money refunded if they do not help you.

PRIVATE HOWARD J. HAND SENDS AUNT INTERESTING LETTER

Devastation Wrought by War Deeply Moves Soldiers; Describes Journey Into Teuton's Homeland; Will be Glad to Return.

Of deep interest to Tecumseh people will be a letter Private Howard J. Hand has sent his aunt, he now being located at Coblenz, Germany, with the American army of occupation. Private Hand is a member of the 281st company of the M. P. C., and his letter tells of his unit's trip from Sable to Adenau, his discription of the desolation and ruin which war left in its wake being a touching recital of the horrors of militarism.

His letter is as follows:

Adenau, Germany
May 18, 1919.

Dear Aunt Fannie and All:

Well, I guess it is about time I was writing you a long letter, don't you think so? I have a little time before going to bed so will make a start tonight, but probably will not finish for a day or two. Hope this finds you all well and enjoying life. I am feeling fine and having just the best kind of good times, same as usual and seeing a good share of the country. How is everyone and everything in the old home town?

I am surely going to make the town a visit when (?) I get home. There are so many places I want to go before returning to work again.

We did duty in Sable about two weeks before leaving for Germany and I certainly had a great time there as it was the largest place we have been stationed in since going on duty. I will tell you a little something about our trip, but I don't imagine I will make much head way at it. We left Sable about 3:45 p. m. Sunday, May 4, and arrived here at Adenau about 2:45 p. m. Thursday, May 8, so we were four days and nights on the road, but naturally had plenty of stops and stopovers; traveled in U. S. box cars; they are a little different from those back home as they are built to fit the French railway system which is a little behind the times compared with our own. Still I have seen a few passenger trains which really equal our own up around Paris. Well, these box cars have two doors and four windows on each side, so you see it wasn't bad traveling after all. I could give you the names of ever so many towns and cities we passed through, but I will not, as I don't think they would be of interest to you and it would make that much more work for the censor. We passed through beautiful Alsace-Lorraine, but the sight I really did enjoy was passing through the old battlefields by way of St. Mihiel and Verdun. I passed within about fifteen kilometers of the city of Verdun when on the front in October. We began to strike the war torn country at Campigny on May 6, and about the last effects we could see of it was at Conflans the following day. It surely put one in mind of old times, crossing the old fields, but they were terrible looking sights to gaze upon.

Passing through some of the towns, especially the larger places, and see some of the poor French returned to what once was their happy, peaceful homes to find nothing but heaps of crushed stones, not even as much as a wall left standing where the cannons wielded their heaviest blows, and to see what few women and children and a few aged men had returned laboring under conditions, if I must say it, the sight brought tears to my eyes. I would say to myself, imagine if those conditions had been at home. Some of the people were tearing down barbed wire entanglements near the towns to make ready for crops once more; some were filling in huge shell holes; a few were removing some of ebe debris in towns, etc. At Verdun they were still exploding some of the old explosives to avoid danger I imagine in the future. Oh, they were terrible sights, but thank goodness it is over now.

From Verdun we could see "dead man's hill" off in the distance. There were some awful battles foungh in the neighborhood of Verdun; the old Hindenline ran through there, so the fighting around there, I imagine. lasted four years or better. "Dead Man's Hill" would belong to the French a few days, then to the Huns and so on with loss of thousands until the Khaki lads stepped in and started the Huns on their homeward trip at the double quick. Just outside of Verdun we passed through a long tunnel which the French used for a kind of hospital or first aid and the Boche, threw gas in the tunnel and killed 800 French at one lick. A French soldier, who got in our car at Verdun, was telling us this. The crown prince's tunnel was on this "dead man's hill," he told us, as we rode along we would view the old trenches, dugouts, etc., some of them caved in and occassionally we would pass a bunch of graves.

Now, about Germany. She surly must of been one rich country and from all appearances she is one long ways from a failure now. Factories, of which she has her share running full blast, many day and night, and mines, we see many of them while coming thru the mountains, all doing a rushing business. She seems to have everything in her stores and plenty of it. There is only one thing I can see she has suffered from the effects of war and that is man power, but goodness knows there is no shortage of young "Heinies" children galore. When one stops to think of it, it seems queer to think that but a few months ago they were our bitterest enemies and now we are among them and friends, for friends we must be. They seem to have no great dislike for Americans but oh, the French they surely despise them.

We laid in Coblenz over night or rather from about 1:30 or 2:00 a. m. to about 8:00 a. m. It is quite a city. Most of our trip through Germany was through the mountainous sectons and some of the most beautiful sights. Talk about tunnels, there were many. We are down in a valley here with beautiful scenery all around us. I was upon one of the peaks this morning and I wish I could describe the scenery to you.

A short time ago we expected to go to Turkey instead of Germany, but we were doomed here instead.

May 20, 1919.

Three truck loads of us went to Neuenahr, a beautiful city about 45 kilometers from here. It was termed a sight seeing trip and is surely was. Have three commerce passenger truck in the company and we are to take trips like that off and on as long as we are in Germany. A bunch went over Sunday, another yesterday and still another today. There certainly are some beautiful buildings there. Wish you could see the one that is used by the Y. M. C. A.—the entire building with its marble floor and walls, huge mirrors set in the walls and oh, the decorations on the interior are just simply grand and all modern conviences in the world. We ate dinner at the Y. M. C. A. also supper in the mammoth dining hall, swell meals for only 5 marks or about 50c in good old U. S. A. money; German waiters and a swell orchestra playing while we ate.

Just across the way from the Y. M. C. A. is a big sanitarium and in connection with that is the mineral bath with goodness knows how many rooms. That, too, is run by Americans for their sole use and they surely make use of it. I took advantage of is yesterday and I think they are great.

May22.

Back once more and will finish and get this off today. Do you know I was one happy soldier boy last evening. Had mail call for the first time in about four weeks and I received 14 letters and one card. Now can you imagine me running through those letters, and some were big fat ones too. It surely makes us feel good to get our mail. I have a job now to answer them but I do enjoy it. One of the letters was from you containing one you sent me in December and was returned to you.

I see by the papers the 32nd is to be stationed at Camp Custer so when I get home I no doubt will see some of the boys out of my old outfit. Well the Sixth division is leaving this area today, part of them are on the train now so they will soon be on their way.

I heard the other day the Brittish were to take over this area. We took the town in hand at 8 this morning, I go on at 7 tonight it will seem good to get on duty once more after about three weeks of no duty, I really like it. I also heard a rumor we were going to Berlin soon. We will have no more Y. M. C. A. or K. C. here now unless more troops move in I guess.

We surely are having bautiful weather. It seems funny I did not run across more Teumseh boys over here and no one at all from Battle Creek. There are a few in this company from Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Bay City and around near Battle Creek. Well aunt Fanny I will close now (this will be for you all). Give my best to all in the old home town. Will try and send you some views of the mountains through this section of Germany soon. Hoping you all keep well I will say good-bye.

No doubt some of the boys returning home have told you all about France and Germany and the history of the war, etc., still we must write things along that line to make a real letter, one worth sending. Here is my new address.

Four Great Records

Only a small part of the story of the unusual performance of the Overland is a matter of record. In the last few weeks, however, from Oklahoma City, Boston, and Los Angeles have came reports of remarkable tests that prove the power, endurance and dependability of Model 90 cars.

Now comes Harrisburg with a new world's record of 702.5 miles a day for 5¼ days without motor stop, sealed in high gear. A Model 90 stock car performed this remarkable endurance feat. Let us show you a duplicate of this car.

GRADUATES PRESENTS PROGRAM OF MERIT

er can hide her talent under a bushel. The class poem was a little gem. Mrs. Ella Hodges and Mrs. F. B. Wood next played two delightful piano duets, "Valse Lente" from "Sylva" (Delbes) and a "Polish Dance," (Scharwenka).

Harley Van Vleet presented the class will, all decked out with the regulation seal and ribbon. The class had some peculiar bequeaths to make, and there were frequent bursts of applause as some appicable hit was directed at some of the faculty or school.

Miss Eula Echwartz, with her giftatory, was exceedingly good. Each little gift with its sally was appreciated by both the class and the audience. At the close she presentated Supt. Reed with a gold pencil a token from the class of 1919.

Burton Garlinghouse, as he made his appearance for a piano solo, was heartily applauded by the home folks. Every one was glad, to see their favorite home again. He was roundly encored after playing "Fantasie — Impromptu" (Chopin) and responded with "Humoresque," most exquisitely played.

The valedictory in the commencement exercises is an honor position, coming to the one highest in his classes for the four years of high school. To Robert Moore, jr., fell the honor this year, and his winning it is noteworthy when it is borne in mind that both in his freshman and senior years Robert was seriously ill, losing twelve weeks each time. He spoke feelingly of the parting of the classmates and the kindness and thoughtfulness of the teachers.

Frederick B. Wood, in behalf of the school board, presented the diplomas, and his short address with some good advice will linger in the memory of the class.

Rev. Rex pronounced the benediction and another class was added to the alumni of the Tcumseh high school.

Before closing, mention should be made of the fact that all the graduates spoke distinctly and everyone could hear perfectly every sentence, so frequently not the case in exercises of this sort. The girls were beautifully gowned in white with boquets of pink roses, the boys also sporting pink rosebuds in buttonniers.

The productions of those taking part in the exercises and the order in which they were presented follow:

Salutatory—P. M. Hayden.

We the Class of 1919 Salute you!

We have met with a common purpose tonight,—to thank you, our fathers, mothers and friends, —You who have made our high school education possible.

Here you can see in a meager way the results of the sacrifices you have made for us, and be satisfied, we trust, that those sacrifices were not made in vain. As for us tonight, we shall have the satisfaction of receiving diplomas which signify that after twelve years of preparation we have successfully passed every grade.

As a master of art delights to look upon the successful efforts of his students, just so we believe that you will take pleasure in listening to the few words we have to say to you at this time.

All we ask is that you be lenient in criticising our attempts at creating literature and remember that we do no profess to be orators or to "Hold a corner" on all the learning in the world.

Instead, we want you to think of us a jolly group of students who have sufficently serious at times to study enough to graduate.

Just as the finest flour is the finished product of good wheat, this the Class of 1919 is the product of the Tecumseh high school. But unlike wheat which becomes flour in a single season, we tonight have reached the top rung in the ladder of our public school education only after having passed through twelve seasons.

Like the farmer who sows his wheat in the fall of the year, our parents "planted" us twenty-two seniors in the garden of education in the September of 1907. As a kernal of wheat finds the dark, warm soil a comfortable place in which to live, just so we found the primary class one continual round of pleasure, where nearly all we had to do was to draw pictures, play games and sing.

A kernel of wheat cannot, however, lie in the warm ground without commencing to germinate and to grow. Neither could we stay in the kindergarten class without feeling a desire to do what the "Big First Graders" were doing. We too wanted to grow, to become bigger, to be seen and heard and to have some part in their activities.

Warm autumn showers make the wheat grow rapidly and in almost no time it reaches sunlight. Here the "little seed" becomes aware of many other young gren shoots, like itself, starting up on all sides. Among these companions he finds upon closer observation some who have just peeped through the crust of the soil, others as high as himself, and still others way up above him.

He begins to speculate and arrives at the same conclusion we did in our early school days; namely that every little seed" has an equal chance to grow and the same opportunities to be of some benefit to the world, and that the way to get up in the world is to soak in all the rain and sunshine it possibly can and to grow by its own labors. It did not take us long to notice that the pupils who idled away their study hours shooting paperwads and other various articles were the ones who naturally fell behind and that the pupils who applied themselves diligently to their work were the ones who went to the head of their classes.

After all traces of the cold winter have disappeared and spring at last arrives, we note a wonderful change in the little green shoot. It has passed in a hurry through the primary class in agriculture and as now become a first class stalk. It seems to survive the freezing and thawing period of early spring just as tenaciously as we did our despised mid-semester exams and to withstand wind and storm as doggedly as we swallowed the "X's" and "F-s" on our report cards.

Every day it gains in strength. Every day it manages to squeeze up just a notch higher in the world. The days fly fast. The month of May comes and goes; then June. The harvest is at hand and the wheat is taken from the fields to the granaries and to the mill. Just so were we taken from the field of the grammar grades into high school.

It all sounds easy doesn't it, but we must remember that a stalk of wheat has the elements to fight for a living. Likewise in order to make our grades we students had to dig in and assimilate some decidely indigestable reading matter which we found in our text-books.

Having followed the growth of the wheat through to the milling stage and the progress of our class through to the entering of high school, we might liken ourselves, graduating from the eighth grade as the harvest from eight acres of wheat.

We entered high school in the fall of 1915. Like the chaff that is separated from the wheat by threshing, a goodly number of our freshmen classmates at this stage passed out of our view.

Again as the farmers screenings are separated from the wheat by the miller's receiving separator some of our sophomores drifted away from us in 1916.

Now, just as the flour, the very heart of the wheat, comes to view when the wheat is crushed on the first rolls, we in our junior year began to discover our own abilities and to know each other better.

A flour is mixed, refined and dressed by modern milling mahinery and turned a pure white by bleaching, likewise we began to mix in social affairs, and to be polished up by the receptions, parties and dances in our senior year.

Our teachers have been the millers who have put us the grist through the mill of school work, who have changed us from the mischievous youngsters of 1907 to these grave seniors of 1919.

But even flour is made into different things. Some will make bread, some will make beautiful frosted cakes and some will make doughnuts. Likewise we seniors will no doubt turn out dicerently Some of us will be as substantial and reliable as a good old fashioned loaf of home made bread. Some of us will go in society, and like a cake is covered with pretty frosting just so will we devote time and thought to making ourselves beautiful. And one can never tell,—some of us may go into the ministry and like a doughnut be righteous and Holy!

Nevertheless we sincerely appreciate the interest you have taken in us and extend to you an this "night of nights" the heartiest of greetings.

Presentation of Cane — Lucile Miller.

President of the class of 1920:

We, the seniors of the class of 1919 have assembled here tonight on the stage of success to give to our friends the best of our thoughts, or ideals, and our accomplishments. We, feel proud that the junior class is following closely in our footsteps and hope that you have gained great lessons from our success as well as our faults. This cane was given to us last year as a precious gift from the seniors and is still more precious to us this year as we are the first class to graduate from the new school building. You may forget the words we have spoken tonight but you never can forget the ideals and principles of education that this cane represents. To the senior class of 1920 we now present the cane we have cherishel so highly and hope it will be in safe keeping and bring success to one and all.

Receiving of Cane — George A. Newsom.

We, the juniors of 1919, accept this cane which you the seniors have so nobly upheld. We realize that it is not a cane but a symbol of educaion. With this thought in mind we will try to walk in the path of learning and we hope we will walk in such a way that we will not discredit those who have gone before, but rather will inspire those who may foow.

Class History—Alice Hardenburgh

It was on a bright September morning in the year of nineteen hundred and fifteen, that the history of our famous class began. For at this time we, the class of 1919, entered Tecumseh high school. Many who started with us have left, but some have been added, until now we number twenty-two.

One of the first events in our freshman year was the meeting of our members, and the choosing of our president, Robert Moore, and of our class colors, gold and white.

Late in October we had our first class party, a Hallowe'en frolic to which all came masked, and a jolly bunch we were.

In fact, as freshman we made ourselves both known and heard. three of our girls were in the basket ball team. And our freshman team defeated the seniors. As for making ourselves heard we all did, but especially Perry Hayden who was elected school yell master.

As sophomores we again entered the old school building. At first we resided where ordinary sophomores did, on the second floor, but Mr. Reed, thinking us a very exceptional class, moved us down stairs with the seniors, and incidently near his office. But we did not remain long in the old building. On January 31, 1917, we entered school at the Hotel Vendoma. Here school took on a different aspect, and had even a homelike atmosphere. The dining room was the assembly hall, where we feasted in Knowledge.

The kitchen became the science laboratory, while the laundry room became the Latin quarters. and the remainder of the house became the apartments of English, history, mathematics, music and drawing. After a short vacation due to the undesirable tenants (bugs), we took up our work at the Hotel Vendoma.

In September of 1917 we could call ourselves Juniors, and back we trooped to the Vendoma, to continue our course of education. This year we decided to promote class spirit by having a class party every month. Parties were enjoyed at the homes of Miss Palmer, our English teacher, Jane McConnell, Elizabeth Comfort, Vera Sisson, Lena Mapes and Helen Morgan. Never shall we forget our sleighride to Helen's when the mercury registered 12 degrees below zero, but the fine dnner with which we were served fully atoned for our long, cold ride.

As is customary in T. H. S. we put on the annual junior play. The success of our play, "The Heiress Hunters," was largely due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Goodrich and Miss Mary Miller, and we felt well satisfied when we learned that we had cleared over one hundred and sixty dollars.

Friday, May 10, we gave an elaborate reception to the Seniors at the home of Robert Moore, jr. On account of the war, we decided to have our program in keeping with the spirit of the day and choose as our subject "War Gardens".

We in return were entertained by the seniors at the home of Miss Dorothy Balmer.

When we were nearing the close of our junior year, the Red Path Lyceum Bureau sent its representatives here to interest the class of 1919 in financing a Lyceum Course to be held in the new T. H. S. auditorium. This we accomplished with the help of both Junior and Senior divisions of high school and we hope that the Senior class of next year will have as great a success as we have had.

Late in September of 1918, the class of 1919 again met, but this time on different field of action, for we assembled in the new Tecumseh school. Here we trod the flowery path of knowledge in peace.

One thing that made our school prominent, aside from the new school building, was the addition of a course in military training. The instructor was Hugh Hanna, our senior boys were well represented among the officers, Captain Robert Moore, First Lieutenant Perry Hayden, Sergeant, Milburn Brooks.

In October we had an enforced vacation due to the influenza epidemic. And when we assembled again we regretted that one member of our class was not with us. Kenneth Davidson died on December 19 of pneumonia.

Soon after Christmas vacation we originated the idea of being the first class of Tecumseh to issue a year book. After much effort we produced the "Senior Echoes." and we do not doubt but that the classes that follow will continue this custom that we have established.

In conclusion, we, the class of nineteen hundred and nineteen, congratulate ourselves on being the first class to graduate from the New Tecumseh school building, and we hope those that follow will enjoy it as much as we have.

Class Prophecy—Helen Morgan

In the year 1930 when the Steamer Tecumseh struck a rock somewhere off the Southwestern coast of Africa and the wail of shipwreck rose as one voice from the terror stricken crowd, I happened to be one of its passengers. In a spasm of fear and frenzy I hurriedly snatched a life preserver and not waiting for my doubts to be abolished or confirmed threw myself into the depths below. Sometime later, I can never tell how long, I found myself conscious of lying faint and hungry in a bed of white sand and the seemingly tropical sun pouring down upon me. I was quite dazed at first but as I came to my senses in sheer desperation I arose and staggered to some nearby berry bushes, seized the fruit that hung there and devoured it hungrily. In a very few minutes I felt myself going into a sort of a trance, familiar faces in strange pictures flashed before my eyes, first confused and indistinct but finally crystalizing into things clear and possible.

The first one that I recall was what seemed to be the interior of the U. S. Supreme Court. The judge with a solemn face was presiding over the assembly, and upon looking closer I was surprised to find my old classmate Robert Moore, and whom should I discover to be his stenographer but competent nimble fingered Jane McConnell.

That scene quickly passed and the next was that of a hospital, where the nurses were taking their patients out for a walk. I recognized no one at first, but as it came closer I could see the portly figure of Gladys Gilbert faithfully fulfilling her duties as head nurse in the young men's ward of a large hospital.

Things were traveling so fast before my eyes that I could scarcely comprehend what it was all about. Mabel Lockwood and Violet Boyd stood before me. They were dressed in the beautiful attire of actresses, and were dancing to the lively swing of the orchestra, and as the music ceased they danced off the stage amid a roar of applause from the audience. Before I could recall the place, another scene came into view, which seemed to be somewhere in the jungles of Africa. There was a small Company of natives gathered around listening intently to a young blond woman who was expounding the scriptures very earnestly. As she turned her head, one glance at her porfile assured me that she was none other than Lucile Miller.

But the scene again changed from one quiet to one of shouts and laughter, wild animals, tumbling clowns, and prancing horses. Suddenly my attention was riveted to a very daring bare-back rider whose figure and manner seemed very familiar, as she came dashing toward me. My suppositions were right. It was Marion Crittenden radiantly happy in her successful career. A curtain seemed to drop before the gay scene. The sad sweet face of a nun rose up before me, and in her eyes I read the story of a broken heart and disappointed love, doubtless the very thing that had driven Vera Sisson to this cloistered life. But life had not been so cruel to all, for our next scene is one near Clinton, the happy married life of Jessie French.

"With a husband so fine
And a family of nine."

Wonderful buildings in large cities flashed before my eyes and on each one was the sign "1900 Flour, Best in the Land." Perry Hayden had fulfilled his ambitions, and had made his flour known even to the utmost parts of Italy and Japan.

I next found myself looking down from a balcony of a large Y. W. C. A. gym. upon Marion and Mildrd Brooks who were conducting a large class of girls in their daily physical training exercises. The girls all showed their appreciation at having such capable teachers instructing them.

I was very surprised at the next thing that met my gaze, for whom should I see but Harley VanVleet who was running, an a large scale the "Comfort Brick Yark" just outside of Tecumseh. After a hard day's work he would go to his happy home to be surrounded by many "COMFORTS."

At first glance the next scene seemed very familiar for it proved to be none other than that of our Tecumseh school. It passed on into the interior, and there seated at her desk was Eula Schwartz. Eula had always been good in her studies and after attending the Normal she had studied the languages in Europe for some time, and now had returned to do her part in training the minds of the younger generations. Gradually the figure at the desk vanished and an entirely new scene flashed before me, that of a noted fashion shop on Fifth Avenue. Crowds were seen before a window where living models were displaying gorgeous gowns for the elite. One figure was especially alluring, that of a tall, slender blond. Something in her pose and manner, in spite of the splendor, reminded me of my old school days and Alice Hardenburgh. Her passion for beautiful clothes had carried her into his sphere of the artistic world.

A society column in the Tecumseh Astonisher next appeared. Lena Mapes and Edgar Meads quietly married at the bride's home in Onsted, with Rev. Milburn W. Brooks officiating. The bride was beautifully attired in red satin and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds. The groom having secured someone equally able to take his place in his prosperous junk dealing business the happy couple, will take an extended honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls."

The setting of the next picture was in the downtown district of Boston where our modest Muriel Halladay had attained the reputation of being one of the first class milliners of the day and was owner of the biggest millinery establishment in the city.

Against the background of a golden sunset, the figure of a woman on horseback could be seen crossing a western plain. As she approached nearer and nearer the vision, instead of fading as the previous one had, became clearer and more real. Finally I found myself conscious, and Susie Anderson stood not more than 20 feet from the place where I was. Could this too be a dream? Susie herself proved it to be a reality by springing lightly from her horse and coming forward to assist me to my feet. After I had eaten the entire lunch that she happened to be carrying to her husband, who was foreman of a mine near there, I felt quite like myself again and equal to the situation. The situation, however, did not prove to be as bad as I had expected. Susie convinced me that I was not on a wild uninhabited island as I had supposed, but on the continent itself. After communicating by wire with friends, I soon found myself sailing homeward thinking of the days I had spent in high school with my classmates.

Class Poem—Muriel Halladay.

With ruler, paper and pen,
With grey-matter working its best,
A student sat by his table one night
Cramming his head for a test.
Study! Study! Study!
'Till the clock in the tower strikes one;
But still he burns the midnight oil
And wishes the task were done.

Study! Study! Study!
'Till streaks of dawn tinge the sky
And work, work, work,
'Till the milkman rattles by!
It's O to be thru school;
And out in the world to roam,
Where there are no studies to bother your brain
And make you hate your home.

But why do we talk of work,
That path which we all must tread?
Why not stop grumbling and finish the task
And count our blessings instead?
So the student sat and worked on,
And finally his task was done;
But he thought of the work he had yet to do
And he knew he had only begun.

With ruler, paper and pen,
With gray-matter working its best,
A student sat by his table one night,
Cramming his head for a test.
Study! Study! Study!
Yes, our work is only begun;
But if we go at it cheerfully
Our task isn't hard it's fun.

There is something for each and all,
Some work which we dust do;
But we must not shirk and leave our work
Until we know we are through.
Sometimes our task may be hard for us,
And often our progress slow,
But let us do the best that we can,
As "Upward and Onward" we go.

Class Will — Harley Van Vleet

After most tedious and almost ineffective searching and researching on the part of the senior class for a good, honest man upon whom they might safely place the heavy responsibility of disposing in an appropriate and satisfactory way, their vast possessions and accumulated wealth, they finally have decided to trust this Herculean task to me, Attorney Van Vleet.

They have requested said document to be read in the Bradley Opera House, June 19, 1919.

We, the class of 1919 of Tecumseh high school, the first and most important class that will ever be graduated from the new building, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, being of strong hearts, of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this as our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by us made or papers testamentary, of whatsoever nature:

First: We hereby will and direct that all our just and injust debts be paid in full by the class of 1920 after our departure.

Second: We bequeath the lately constructed school building with its magnificent halls and stately class rooms to the future classes. May they always observe the dignity of their predecessors in taking good care of its furniture and atmosphere.

Third: To the high school we leave the opportunity to go "Over the Top."

Fourth: We bestow upon our successors, commonly called juniors, the trials and tribulations of the senior year. Although they can more than fill our places in regard to quantity, we feel that they cannot be compared with us in regard to quality, adaptibility and efficiency in taking up the tasks before them. We only ask that they do their best according to their ability. Also, We leave them the responsibility of continuing the publication of the "Senior Echoes." To these juniors, also, we give Mr. Alderdyce and his truck. May they take many long rides.

Fifth: To the sophomores we bequeath the front seats in the assembly hall; also a book of answers, in order that the Palman Bros. need not go beyond their own classmates seeking results to their numerous questions and problems.

Sixth: To the seventh and eighth grades we bequeath a desk on the stage, that position being open to the first volunteer, or to any one who may be drafted.

To the faculty we make the following bequeaths:

First: To the authorities of the year 1919-1920 we bequeath the advice that a guardian be placed over the freshmen to keep them out of all dangerous and questionable places and remind them when it is time for "taps" so they will not needlessly burn the midnight darkness. Also, to them the advice may be given that Leslie Abbot be forbidden to consume sweet chacolate every day for lunch.

Second: We bequeath to our steady and loyal suprintendent, Mr. Reed, many memories of days spent in Tecumseh high school.

Third: To Mr. Duguid we present our first "Senior Echoes," providing he has paid for it.

Fourth: We bequeath to Miss Miller a revised edition of new commands so that she may secure a new one, as her old one "Get to work" is about worn out.

Fifth: To Mr. Laidlaw we bequeath a muffler for his vocal chords.

Sixth: To the faculty at large we give one last, long, lingering look.

The members of the senior class make the following individual bequeaths:

First: Perry Hayden leaves his volume of history jokes to Miss Donaldson, so that when she has the "Blues" she may read them and smile.

Second: Gladys Gilbert bequeaths her long-loved and overfed dead goose to Gladwin Orr.

Third: Robert Moore bequeaths his phonograph and Perry Hayden his roll of music, to John Baker.

Fourth: Jane McConnell wills her knowledge of riding horse back to Dorothy Martin.

Fifth: Upon Helen McIntyre, Milburn Brooks gladly bestowes his bashfulness.

Sixth: Alice Hardenburgh bequeaths her power of concentration and position in the foremost ranks to Ralph Hodges.

Seventh: Edgar Meads bequeaths with great reluctance his book entitled "Helpful Hints to Bluffers" to George Allen Newsom, who has practiced that art considerably of late.

Eighth: Mable Lockwood bequeaths to Margaret Van Winkle her art and methods of whiling away time.

We hereby nominate and appoint Miss Yutzey as executrix of this our last will and testament, and authorize and empower our said executrix to bargain, sell and convey, or mortgage our real estate, without first obtaining an order of the court therefor.

In witness whereof we set our hands and seals this 19th day of June A. D. 1919.

Senior Class of 1919.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said class of T. H. S. as for their last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at their request, in their presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses. And the said class were at this time of unlawful age, of sound mind and disposing memory and free from compulsion and restrain.

Giftatory—Eula Schwartz.

Classmates and Friends: I thought before we parted that it was my duty to give each one of the senior class a gift by which to remember their good old high school days. I have certainly tried to pick out the best and most suitable gifts for each one.

I feel it my duty to present the first gift to the president of the class, Perry Hayden. It seems that he has great ability along the line of talking. So Perry, fearing that your tongue might grow tired and run down, here is some oil that will start it again.

Talking reminds me of a girl in the class that is continually asking questions. I have found an answer book for her. Mabel, here are your answer's to your future questions.

Two years ago the baby of our class brought to the Vendoma with her a pet gosling. She grew very fond of this pet and she took it nearly every where she went. During the summer her pet died. She has mourned for it ever since. She has been trying the whole year to find another. Gladys, I have found you another pet and I hope you will have success in raising it.

I had a hard time finding a suitable gift for Harley VanVleet. Finally it dawned upon me that he needed some one to do his talking because he never utters any unnecessary word. So I have selected an assistant for you.

Jane is happiness personified. There is always a time in a persons life when hapiness is overwhelmed with sorrow. So Jane, to insure your happiness I will give you a blue bird.

There are two girls in our class when we see them we ask ourselves this questin, Is it Mildred or Marion? To prevent further questioning here are some identification cards. Please wear these girls and it may save you lots of serious trouble.

During the flu epidemic this last year many of our girls had the misfortune to lose their hair. For this reason a good many of them had to cut it off. This epidemic and fate afflicted one of our girls. Here is a switch Crit, and I hope you will [illegible] use it.

We have a regular book worm in our class. I don't believe I could ever find a book, except one, that she hasn't read and that is the dictionary. If you ever find time to read, Lucile, here is a dictionary that you can read. I am sure you will never grow tired of it bcause the thought continually changes.

Elizabeth, seeing that you are intending to train in Home Economics here is an egg beater that will help in your course. So beat it.

I will have to do a little advertising tonight. I am going to put on exhibit the new 1920 Buick. Vera I will give you the pleasure of having the very first ride. I hope it will be an enjoyable one.

Robert, I simply can not bear to see you get up so high in the world. Some thing must be done. Please try this remedy. Place this brick upon the top of your head and keep it there for at least eight hours each day.

I wonder who I intend this linament for. This is used for rhuematism and stiffness. Let's see—Milburn Brooks.

Muriel, I know you are a designer, modiste and interested along the lines of art. So I will give you a life subscription to the Vogue magazine that you may never be without the latest designs.

The class having heard of your method of driving your Ford, Edgar, we have decided to give you a compass to keep you in the road.

Helen, here are some mittens for you. These mittens are not only for warmth but are used to keep the chaps off.

There is the old saying, "Spare the rod and you spoil the child," Seeing that you girls intend to teach next year, I thought these two switches might come in handy.

Jessie, I know that you are not in need of a watch but I am giving you a speedometer to acceleriate your rate of talking from one word per minute to two.

Susie, knowing that you are the hardest working girl on our Basket ball team here is something that you can play basket ball with whenever you choose.

Alice, the class understands just how difficult it is for you to make your first hour classes on time. To save you trouble in college next year here is an alarm clock. It will awaken you at any hour in the morning. This may seem to you like a very small gift, but no matter how much you receive you are always wanting Moore.

Mr. Reed, not by any means would we over look you. Please except this gift with all good wishes for your future success from the class of 1919.

Now you all have remembrances of the past high school days, and may it bring to you memories of good times and many warm friendships.

Valedictory — Robert Moore, Jr.

This is the night upon which we are to set aside our school work and enter the realm of life, necessarily breaking off old friendships and making new ones. Our success in forming new associations will depend largely upon the success that we have had in making friends while in school. Our school associations have been very pleasant and cheerful, and our hope is that we may make as good progress along the path of life as we have in old Tecumseh high school. We regret to sever the friendly relationships with our kind-hearted teachers who more than once have helped us out of serious difficulties, and placed us again and again upon the right path. We thank the different ones who have helped in making our school life a success, and we hope that we may render ourselves helpful in the days to come.

It was in our freshman year that we caught the spirit of the school, and little by little, step by step, through our sophomore and junior years, it has grown, like a small spark that starts a large forest fire, until now it has reached its height and we are unable to supress it. It is this spirit of loyalty and comradeship that makes it hard for us to depart. Our social events have been very successful during all the years, and this has also increased our close relationship with each other.

Our yesterdays have passed; the sun has set upon our school days, and when it rises upon the morrow we hope to begin our life pursuits, whatever they may be. Our fields will be widely separated; some will enter college, others will take up farming or a business pursuit and go wherever there special interests may call them.

In the days to come, there will be difficulties to be encountered, and as the memories of our school days are flashed back to us, they will steady us and give us confidence in ourselves, for we know we have weathered the storms of our school days, which prepare us to withstand the greater storms of life that are sure to come. We have accomplished many things that have seemed impossible, and if we have been able to do them well, we hope it may help us to do other things better. In the past, happiness has some times been enjoyed when our lessons have been overlooked, but this is one of the many points we hope to rectify in the future.

Dear classmates: It is now time for us to depart. Although we hat to say good-bye, and in some cases it may be forever, we will enter life with a firm purpose to conquer everything before us, to push "Upward and Onward." It is with these words that we leave old Tecumseh high school behind, with its unflinching honor, fighting spirit, and staunch friends. To the juniors we give the honored name of seniors; may you cherish and protect it as we have done during the previous year. With these few words, we bid friends, teachers, schoolmates, farewell.

anywhere because of the great service they had performed. He reminded the veterans that the last time they had their reunion in this city, many years ago, that he gave the address of welcome and that he was particularly pleased to open the doors of Tecumseh to such heroic defenders of the flag. Mr. Shull recalled that at the previous annual gatherings of this regiment here, which was held in the opera house, Congressman Lucius Lilley was present and the speaker called attention to the fact that it was Mr. Lilley who was instrumental in providing uniforms for the company of soldiers from Tecumseh. The Old Fourth had a set of fighting officers, the Tecumseh speaker asserted, and the regiment was known not only in Michigan but throughout the land as a battling unit. It had the proud distinction of having lost three colonels in action. He credited the Fourth Michigan with having helped win one of the most important battles of the civil war, saying that if this unit had not held its position in the storm center of a fierce conflict before Gettysburg that the city would have been lost. His remarks were vigorously applauded.

Musical numbers were next on the program. The Tecumseh Ladies' band played several selections, which were thoroughly enjoyed by the old soldiers. Mrs. Stella Brush-Billings of Tecumseh gave a vocal solo, her offering being warmly applauded. Mrs. R. S. Moore of Tecumseh effectively sang "The Story of Old Glory" which made an instant hit with the battle-scarred fighters. In response to prolonged hand clapping she sang another appropriate number.

The response to the address of welcome was made by H. C. Daniels of Tecumseh. He assured his comrades that Tecumseh as warmly welcomed the whole 4th regiment as it received Company G, of which he was a member, at the close of the war. Mr. Daniels drew a word picture of the scenes when Company G was being organized here and told how the people of this place opend their hearts and homes to the members. He also harked back to the day they received their uniforms and how gallantly they marched away to the conflict. With emoton he recalled the cheering letters which the members of Company G received from the people of Tecumseh and vicinity, especially those from the women folk. He paid the ladies a very high compliment and said he often wondered if the people in general fully realized what a great work the women had done during the civil war and what a powerful influence they had had in bringing it to a victorious conclusion. The aged soldier sketched briefly the hardships the civil war heroes had to endure, told of being sent to Detroit at the close of the conflict where they were discharged, and then described the glorious welcome which they received on arriving home. "All Tecumseh was out to greet us, nothing was too good for us and we were given a royal good time and I shall never forget it," he declared in closing.

All joined in singing "America" which brought the forty-seventh annual reunion to an end.

It was pronounced a markedly joyous and successful occasion, bringing together as it did men who had hungered and fought side by side in some of the most memorable battles of the civil war. Gettysburg, Antietam, Savage Station, Kelley's Ford, Gains Hill and other places now famous in history were often heard mentioned during the conversations between those grey fighters, as they relived the days when they were battling to keep the union from splitting. And for the women in attendance it was also a pleasurable gathering, as they met and exchanged home life experiences with those they had become acquainted with at previous reunions.

There was plenty of visible evidence that Tecumseh was delighted to have this regiment hold its annual gathering here. Chicago street was gay with flags and banners, welcoming signs and bunting; stores and residences displayed the Stars and Stripes in honor of the distinguished guests and the visitors were made to feel right at home.

Of interest to many of the veterans of the war of more than half a century ago was a display of relics of the world clash at arms at the Methodist church. These reminders of modern warfare were brought from France by Sergeant Chester E. Thompson son of Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson, who but recently returned from overseas. The exhibit included the gas mask worn by the sergeant during battles, his metal hat and two helmets.

The regiment members in attendance at the reunion who registered were as follows:

Company A—George Corser of Hudson, W. R. Fuller of Napoleon.

Company B—John Rentz of Blissfield.

Company C—W. B. Lindenbower.

Company D—Stephen Aldrich of Grand Rapids.

Company E—George B. Brown of the National Soldiers' Home in Tenessee, T. B. Burtch of Corunna, C. T. Hartson of Eaton Rapids and Archibald Weir of Hanover.

Company F—John A. Dillon of Hudson. E. V. Hamlin of Morenci and R. E. [illegible] of Hudson.

Company I—William H. Allen of Grand Rapids. R. P. Horton of Addison and John Wallace of Pittsford.

Company K—T. J. Curtis of Adrian and George J. Kesler of Clayton, and J. C. Garlinghouse of Napoleon was also present.

Charles Hanna arrived home from overseas duty Thursday after having received his discharge at Camp Custer. He was with the mobile ordnance repair shop and his service most of the time was just behind the front lines. His experiences were many and thrilling, all interesting and he saw the amusing features if they were there, trust "Nifty."

The other evening as Billie Rex was peddlng his papers he bumped into Wm. Gaston as he went up over the sidewalk on his wheel. Mr. Gaston was talking to a friend and stepped back just as the youngster came along with the result they went down in a heap. Their heads cracked together, leaving Mr. Gaston a black eye while the boy skinned his arms some. That neither was worse hurt is a wonder.

O. W. Laidlaw, the agricultural teacher, yesterday began his summer duties looking after the work of the thirty members of his agricultural classes in their course through the vacation. Each one he will visit some half dozen or more times and advise and instruct them in the work they are doing through the summer. He will also try to see each pupil who has taken the eighth grade examination this spring and interest them in his course or some other of the school.

Mrs. Ray Tobias and Mrs. Otis Smith of Adrian, better known here as the Kriedler Sisters, delightfully entertained a party of Tecumseh young people Friday evening, honoring Miss Anna Schreder with a miscellaneous shower. A bountiful potluck supper was served at the home of Mrs. Tobias, then the party adjourned to the Smith home across the street for the evening's entertainment when the hours passed happily in visiting. Present were Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Heidenreich, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Coller, Mr. and Mrs. Leon VanDusen of Clinton, Mrs. Margaret Carr, Mrs. Rose Burrow, Mrs. Ed Schreder; Misses Bernice Blythe, Vesta Wilson, Veva Hardcastle, Ethel Keyser and Jane Lochner and Dr. George Lochner of Adrian.

George E. Wood and family have moved into Vern Cooper's house, corner of Maumee and Logan streets. J. A. Collins and family are moving into their house just vacated by the Wood family and Mr. and Mrs. Will Haziett are to reside in the house which the Collins family are leaving.

The Lenawee county board of supervisors is in session in Adrian, but little business of importance has been transacted. The county road commission has asked for $49,300 for tools and maintenance this year, no action as yet having been taken on the request. All committees are now working on assesssment rolls prior to the equalization of townships in the county. What changes will be made is not known at this time.

This county now has an organization of milk producers, an association having been formed at Adrian. The Lenawee County Milk Producers' Association, as the organization will be known plans to protect the milk producers and provide a more efficient way to settle their grievances. Officers elected were as follows: President, H. W. Porter; vice president, C. J. Ayers; secretary, and treasurer, W. F. Howell. Among the township chairman chosen were the following: Tecumseh, William Wilson; Clinton, Arthur Staib; Franklin, John Kennedy; Macon, William Fletcher; Ridgeway, Leroy Britton.

The alumni to be held tomorrow bids fair to be a rouser. Acceptances are coming in large numbers and if any member has not decided the excellent program is expected to decide the matter quickly. The reception is to be held at 5:30 in the large auditorium of the school. Then at 7:30 comes the banquet at the "gym." This is to be prepared by Mrs. Mattis, which is enough to warrant a fine spread. After a short business session comes the program of toasts and music, with Miss Mildred Boyce, '08, toastmistress. As many returned soldiers as can are asked to come in unifome to carry out the semi-military idea.

Members of Zel-Gaz Grotto

ENTERTAIN TECUMSEH LODGE, NO. 69, F. & A. M.

Lively Bunch of Ann Arbor Fellows Drive Through Fierce Storm Tuesday Evening.

"Some roads; couldn't drive over 25 miles an hour," was the expression uttered by drivers of the automobiles that brought through a storm of almost cyclonic intensity a bunch of real, live fellows from Ann Arbor—members of Zal-Gaz Grotto, a society of Masons.

The storm, which was much worse in Ann Arbor vicinity than here, Monarch Stansfield explained, prevented some of their best talent from making the trip, but the entertainment given here needed no apology.

In the absence of Worshipful Master Lester Rogers, Attorney Geo. Rathbun acted as master of ceremonies for Tecumseh lodge, introducing the visitors and turning the meeting over to them.

It didn't take Monarch Stansfield many minutes to get things moving, he introducing Prof. Guest of Detroit, who gave a number of illusionary tricks that were clever. Master Harold Rich, an Ann Arbor lad, gave some excellent whistling solos and Prof. Schloske, a violinist of ability, rendered several solos that were highly appreciated. Mr. Stansfield, while awaiting the arrival of more cars, fearing that the program would suffer because of the storm, as their fine saxaphone quartet and ukelele trio would not make the trip, kept up a running monologue of good stories that were entertaining.

Monarch Stansfield stated that Zal-Gaz Grotto of Ann Arbor expected to initiate a class of a hundred or more candidates into the order next Wednesday and invited Tecumseh Masons to join the class. Prophets Carl Lehman, Clyde Elliott and Guy Davidson gave short talks describing the Grotto and its object. H. S. Temple, who is a member at Jackson, also spoke, telling of the fine equipment of Zal-Gaz Grotto, stating that Ann Arbor had it over Detroit and Jackson.

Following the entertainment the visitors were invited to the banquet hall, where refreshments of ice cream, cake and lemonade were served, smokes being passed before the men left the room.

Shortly after the midnight hour the lively visitors started on their return trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sherman and grandson, Little Roy, spent Sunday at Wampled's lake.

Mrs. Jacob Arner, mother of Mrs. Wm. Barrett, died at her home in Detroit Tuesday night, aged 88 years. The funeral will be held in Ridgeway tomorrow.

Notice — Church services at Presbyterian church at 9 a. m. next Sunday. Subject, "Good-by, John Barleycorn, good-by." A vote will be taken if the services shall be continued at this hour.

This week in The Herald are being advertised two auction sales of household goods. Mrs. Hugh Ager will sell much of her household effects Saturday and Philo Bowers all of his goods on Wednesday, July 2.

John S. Temple exchanged hats with some one at the Methodist church the other evening and wishes to recover his own, a nearly new Panama. The one he has is marked inside "Jackson Clothing House, Muskegon."

That our rural subscribers may have their Heralds next week Thursday instead of waiting until after the 4th, it will be necessary for the paper to be issued early and the correspondents are requested to send in their items earlier next week. Others especially the churches, are also advised to furnish copy in due time.

While at the cemetery Monday afternoon attending the burial services of Mrs. H. W. Stevens, Mrs. Sarah Lamkin suffered a stroke of paralysis, her left side becoming completely helpless. She was taken to her home, and has since been cared for by her daughters, Mrs. B. J. Roberts and Mrs. Ira Lamkin. As she is 79 years of age her condition is considered critical.

The stunts for yesterday for the Wednesday Bargain Day program were good. Fredericks & Van on the xylophone made a hit, as did also the trained pony, Peter Paun. He took alike with the children and the adults and some of his performances were novel indeed. The Webbs, Yeodelers and singers, pleased many and the excellent trapeze and slack wire work of Rockwell and Mase was appreciated. In the afternoon the program was delayed by the showers, but in the evening the weather man was kinder and a large crowd took advantage of the let up of the rain and enjoyed the show. The Tecumseh Men's Band played. Even better attractions are to appear next week.

All Knights of Pythias urged to meet at lodge rooms at 7:15 p. m. Sunday to attend services at Methodist church in body.—adv

Furthermore, good roads will make the farms to be granted to the soldiers and sailors more attractive and more valuable, besides furnishing employment to many.

TONNENBERGER-SHAW

Blissfield to be Future Home of Well Known Tecumseh Girl.

On Saturday noon of last week Miss Irene Shaw of this city and Atwald Tonnenberger of Blissfield were married by Rev. Edw. Montgomery at the Presbyterian manse at Adrian. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knoblaugh of Riga accompanied them. The bride was attired in a blue traveling suit with hat to match. This week Mr. and Mrs. Tonnenberger moved their household effects to Blissfield and the brothers, Robert and Beverly, will reside with them, leaving the older brother, Irving, to conduct the dray business here.

On Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McIntyre was given a surprise for the bride and her family, arranged by Mrs. McIntyre and Mrs. George Hines, two neighbors who have been exceedingly kind to the young people since they were left alone. The bride received many gifts of china and silver from her friends about town. The guests had a very happy evening and light refreshments were served.

This young lady leaves many loyal friends in Tecumseh, everyone appreciating her nobleness in standing by the brothers and keeping the boys together with Irving's help since the father and mother have been taken away. The boys, too, have hosts of friends and all are sorry to have "Bev" and "Bobby" go.

MEMORIAL TABLETS ARE MADE OF THE "MAINE"

Those Interested in Obtaining Relics Asked to Write Congressman Michener.

Earl C. Michener, member of the house of representatives in Washington from this district, has sent The Herald a copy of a letter which he has received from the secretary of the navy, which may be of interest to Tecumseh people. It is as follows:

Navy Department Washington.
May 27, 1919.

Hon E. C. Michener,
U. S. House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

There are on hand at the Navy Yard, Washington, D. C., 1311 memorial tablets made from the metal recovered from the wreck of the old battleship "MAINE" together with one ventilator, two deck plates and three powder tanks.

These tablets and the material mentioned are to be disposed of in accordance with the Act of August 22, 1912, which is quoted as follows:

"The Secretaries of War and Navy are authorized to cause to be made from any parts of the wreck of the Maine or its equipment that are suitable for the purpose, tablets for donation as relics in conformity with the provisions of the Act of December twenty-second, nineteen hundred and eleven, making appropriations to supply urgent deficiencies; provided, that the cost of such tablets may be charged against any unexpended balance of apprpriations heretofore made for the removal of the wreck of the MAINE, and that the municipalities and other bodies receiving such tablets shall defray the cost thereof, which cost shall be reimbursed to the proper appropriations."

The Act of December 22, 1911, specifies that the following are entitled to parts of the MAINE or its equipment:

Municipalities.

Military or Naval associations or societies; and the former officers and crew of the MAINE or their heirs or representatives.

The estimated cost of the tablets is about five dollars plus the freight or expdress charges from Washington to destination.

It is requested that this information be furnished to any of your constituents who are eligible to purchase these relics and that they further be informed that on request to the secretary of navy application blanks with full instructions in regard to the purchase and delivery of the relics will be furnished.

Very truly yours.
Josephus Daniels.
Secretary of the Navy.

Mr. Michener asks any one desiring information in regard to this matter to communicate with him and he will be pleased to be of service.

Alumni Meeting Is Highly Pleasurable

MILITARY TOUCH ADDS TO ATTRACTIVENESS OF OCCASION

Mrs. Eunice Davidson Hall Chosen President; Toasts Prove More Entertaining Than in Former Years.

This year's meeting of the Tecumseh Alumni associaton last Friday evening at the high school bulding was an enjoyable event, in every sense of the word. The committee, wishing to honor the boys of the alumni who had given such valiant service in the great war, planned the meeting as a semi-military affair and the decorations were in keeping with the idea. Great American flags draped the railing of the gallery of the gymnasium, where the banquet was held, and the beautiful flag of the school had the place of honor by the piano. A large Red Cross flag was displayed honoring the member, Miss Ferguson who had served for that organization in France, and the noble work done for the cause by nearly every lady present.

The reception was held in the auditorium and was a happy occasion, each greeting delighted the schoolmates of long ago and of more recent years. About 7:45 the year of the various classes were called by Donald F. Wright, '02, as chairman of the executive committee, and they filed down the stairs to the banquet hall. Leading the procession were Miss Lucy Train and Mrs. Fannie Waring, who finished the high school before diplomas were granted, then Mrs. Sarah Train Davis of Clinton and Mrs. Rosa McKinney Mills, both of tht class of '67.

The Misses Marian and Mildred Brooks, '19, played a piano duet while the party were being seated at the tables, which were handsomely decorated with a huge bouquet on each. The tables were laid in a hollow square with the new class of 1919 seated at a table in the center. This last was beautified with a bouquet of Marguerites, the class flower.

After the invocation, which was pronounced by the Rev. W. A. Rex, came the banquet served by the junior and sophomore boys under the direction of Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, teacher of domestic sceince this year. The two-course menu was excellnt, Mrs. Chas. Matis catering. Mrs. Mabel Mills Sanford, vice-president presided, C. A. Slayton, the president elected last year, having passed away during the interval. A short business session was

PEOTTER—ALLISON

Tecumseh Young Couple Wedded In Adrian; Will Reside Here.

Monday afternoon in Adrian Miss Lodica B. Allison and Ralph Peotter both of this place were united in marriage, Dr. F. A. Perry performng the ceremony at his home. The young couple were accompanied by Miss Hazel Allison, a sister of the bride, and Corp. Carl Belcher.

Upon their return to Tecumseh a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Allison, on North Pearl st. when a party of relatives were guests. The couple well begin house keeping at once in the King house on Noth Oneida street.

The groom has lived here all his life and is in the employ of the Tecumseh Lake Ice Co. The bride moved here with her parents a few years ago. Both have hosts of friends who wish them the happiest of married lives.

On Thursday evening a large party of friends gathered at the Allison home, completely surprising the bride with a miscellaneous shower. She received a beautiful set of dishes from the Tecumseh Lake Ice Co., and a fine assortment of silver, china, and kitchen ware. The evening passed happily in visiting and Mrs. Allison served ice cream and cake.

ENJOYABLE OCCASION

Presbyterian Missionary Circle Has Excellent Program at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Smith.

Forty of the members of the Presbyterian Missionary Circle had a wonderful good time Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Smith, northwest of town. After a bountiful picnic supper was enjoyed the following excellent program was given:

Reading, "How the Robin Came," Mrs. John Wyrill, costumed as Indian princess.

TAXES MAY BE LOWER IN TECUMSEH IN 1920

County Equalization Committee Makes $194,724 Reduction In Valuation of Township.

If he state board of equalization approves the action taken by a committee of the Lenawee county board of supervsors, Tecumseh people will not have to pay quite as high taxes next year as during 1919. The equalization committee of the board of supervisors has reduced the valuation of Lenawee county $6,771,465, the cut in Tecumseh townshipship being $194,724. The former valuation was $2,434,000. This was reduced to $2,239,336 by the equalization committee.

In the total number of reductions made by the committee the city of Adrian was the most benefitted a 12% slash being made there. Tecumseh township was given the least consideration, the decrease here being only 8%.

It is not known what action the state committee on equalization will take, but it is the hope of the Herald and its many readers that the decision of the Lenawee committee will be approved.

Mason's Honor St. John's Day

ATTEND MORNING WORSHIP AT ST. PETER'S

Excellent Sermon by the Rev. J. G. Widdifield Listened to Interestingly.

Honoring the anniversary of St. John, the Baptist, a fairly good representation of Tecumseh Lodge, No. 69, F. & A. M. attended St. Peter's Episcopal church Sunday morning and listened to an excellent sermon delivered by the rector, the Rev. J. G. Widdifield.

Rev. Widdifield took for his text a portion of the seventh verse of the eleventh chapter of St. Matthew, "What went ye out into the wilderness to see," and gave a fine word picture of St. John the Baptist. Prophet in the olden days did not mean a fortune teller of the future, but a statesman. St. John was just an ordinary man concerned with the present and a preacher. Of his sermons we know very little, but we have the sermon of his life—a life that was lived in the sight of God. He had no great gifts, but he gave his gifts for a purpose. He was a man of strong convictions, spending years in the desert thinking. [illegible] with us is that we have no personal convictions. Classified with St. John in the order of helpers, we should be helpers and not be content to be merely passers through this life. We learn from St. John's life to be active helpers, and we should emulate the character of this great man.

HUGE CROWD SEES GOOD STREET SHOW

Tipton Band Will Play Next Wednesday; Other Real Features Booked.

An unusually big crowd was in town last evening for the street show. Adrian sent over a large delegation as did towns close by and far away. The Tecumseh band gave several numbers preceding the show, which by the way was unusually good.

The first act was a musical and dancing stunt by the Clews Sisters, then came Heuella in a magic novelty act with some good features. The act by Arville and McKnight, comedy acrobats, was about the best number given here in this season's series. A saxophone solo varied the program.

Next week the Tipton band will furnish the music and there will be vaudeville acts of merit.

REV. C. M. THOMPSON URGES TO HOLD FAST TO GOOD

Community Service at Presbyterian Church Next Sunday; Rev. Rex to Point Out Town's Needs.

About twenty-five members of and a number of Pythian Sisters and a number of Pythian Sistrs attended the Methodist church Sunday night in response to Rev. C. M. Thompson's invitation, and all present found the service very uplifting.

During the service a duet "Abide With Me" was given by Miss Metta McKinny of Detroit and W. S. Dickinson, which was heartily enjoyed, and received words of praise from Rev. Thompson.

The pastor took for his theme "Knightly Men," his text being from I Thesalonians 5: 19-22, "Quench not the spirit. Despise not the prophesyings. Prove all things: hold fast that which is good. Abstain from all appearance of evil."

Following are a few of the splendid thoughts advanced by the speaker. No greater calamity can come to a man's soul than to lose his fear of sin. Life should be instructive. Some people are so holy they are unholy, so fanatcally religious, they are unkind, so narrow they are not easy to live with. Religious fanaticism is one of the worst enemies of mankind. The preacher don't get a fair chance at the people's souls.

You ask is relgion a good thing to live with, a good thing for my life? If your organization helps you in any way to be a good man, then it is a good thing. Hold fast to that which is good. We cannot be spirited without casting evil out of our life—and we can if we will. Let us make Jesus Christ our example and guide and make our lives like His, then our lives will be on the pathway to peace.

Next Sunday evening's community strvice will be held at the Presbyterian church when the Rev. W. A. Rex will hold "Tecumseh Night No. 5" giving a summary of the letters received and a few of his ideas of some of the things needed for the improvement of the town.

PYTHIAN SISTERS TO MEET HERE IN 1920

District No 7 Honors Tecumseh People During Memorial Services at Annual Convention at Adrian.

For their fifteenth annual convention, the Pythian Sisters of District No. 7 will meet in Tecumseh, this being decided at this year's session held at Adrian last Friday. The 1920 meeting will take place some time next May, the exact date not having been set. More than twenty from here attended the convention in Adrian and report the session was a most helpful and decidedly interesting one. Tribute was paid four deceased members of the Tecumseh lodge during the memorial services.

Mrs. Grant Schreder was a delegate from here about a score of others going from Tcumseh. Nelie Scattergood, D. D. G. C., is at the head of the seventh district, Verna Sampson being the secretary. Morning and afternoon sessions were held, both being largely attended. During the memorial services conducted by the Seneca Sisters among those whom tribute was paid were the following Tecumseh people: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brown, J. Snyder and Grace Butrick.

This program was given at the convention:

ADRIAN EAGLES ARE NO MATCH FOR TECUMSEH

Home Team Gets 30 Runs, Visitors 2; Locals Play Brooklyn at Clark's Lake July 4 and Ousted Here Sunday.

Two teams went through all the regulation motions of a ball game at League park in Tecumseh Sunday afternoon, but there was no contest, as Tecumseh toyed with the Adrian Eagles and when the agony was over it was found that the local Independents had amassed thirty scores while the county seat team had managed somehow to get two of its players all the way around the bases.

Howe and Drewyor composed the Tecumseh battery, the Adrian nine using three pitchers, Greihwan, Bassett and E. Wilds, the catcher being Woodard. The locals clouted safely twenty-five times, three of the Tecumseh men being fanned. Howe sent nine Adrianites back by the strike-out route, his opponents getting fourteen hits off his delivery.

The story of Tecumseh annexing thirty runs is briefly told. The Adrian team had no pitchers. The three heavers who were thus labeled hit so many batters, walked so many and their offerings were so unmercifully driven all over the field that the local players became weary of ambling around the sacks. How the visiting Eagles made the two scores they are credited with, the local players cannot remember.

Two of the home team men excelled the others somewhat, Cole smashing out two 2-base hits, and Ed Rogers ripped off a home run with the sacks crowded in the sixth spasm.

It had been expected that Clinton would be the opposing team last Sunday, but at a late hour this aggregation sent word that it would be unable to be here. The Adrian Eagles were then substituted.

On July 4 the Tecumseh Independents will play the Brooklyn team at Clark's Lake and it is expected there will be a big attendance.

There will be a game here next Sunday, the local team having changed its plans about playing away from home that day. Onsted will be the opposing nine and it is anticipated there will be spirited action when these two nines clash. The game, to be played at League park, will start at 3 o'clock.

FAREWELL SURPRISE

[illegible] Honor Guest at Delightful Party.

On Tuesday evening thirty-five members of Miss Kyle's Sunday school class met at the home of Mrs. H. S. Waring and went in a body to the home of Mrs. Hugh Ager, one of their number, where the surprise was complete. A great picnic supper was served. As a token of the love of her classmates and an appreciation of her many kind acts, the ladies presented their involuntary hostess with a fine lot of china.

Mrs. Ager and her daughter, Ruth, move their household effects to Detroit Saturday. There Mr. Ager and Miss Mabel have good positions. Mr. and Mrs. Ager have purchased a two family house there, in part of which their son, Floyd, and wife will reside.

The Ager family have resided in Tecumseh about eight years, and for many years in this vicinity. They have been loyal good friends and will be greatly missed especially in the Presbyterian church, where Mr. Ager was an elder.

PINO-YUTSEY

Tecumseh Teacher Becomes Bride of Manager of "Watkins Farm" Near Bridgewater.

On Sunday at the Methodist parsonage, took place the marriage of Miss Bessie Yutsey and Arthur Pino, Rev. C. M. Thompson performing the ceremony at 4 p. m. The attendants were Miss Catherine Watkins of Manchester and Charles C. Higbee of Brooklyn.

The bride, who is a graduate of the U. of M., has been the Latin and English teacher in our high school for the past three years, coming here from Middleton. She was popular with her students and a prominent figure in the society of the town. Especially was she an active worker in the Methodist church, having been president of the Epworth League the past year.

Mr. Pino, after graduating from the M. A. C., served in the army, gaining the commission of lieutenant. He had met a number of Tecumseh people in his visits with his uncle, the late E. C. Brown, and had given a very favorable impression He is at present manager of "Watkins Farm," near Bridgewater and there the couple will make their home. The many good wishes of the townspeople go with these young folks to their new home.

Editorial Comment

Tomorrow America will again celebrate Independence Day and this year the occasion will have deeper significance than ever, as since the Fourth of July was observed the last time the Uunited States, co-operating with the allies, has victoriously reaffirmed its right to freedom by forever stamping out Prussianism and its lust for world domination.

It was on November 11, 1918, when it became known to the world that America had given the allies the aid they needed to crush the Teutons, for it was on that day that Germany signed the armistice which lead the negotiations out of which is to blossom a league of nations and world peace for all time. It was the glorious, never-conquered fighting spirit of America which meant so much to the weary nations of Europe in their attempt to ward off the kaiser, the 1918 fighters displaying the same courage, endurance and inspired valor that their forefathers exemplified before the signing of the Declaration of Independence was achieved.

With the signing of the peace treaty last Saturday only a few days before our nation's Independence Day, this Fourth of July should rekindle in the hearts of millions of Americans a deeper love of the flag and country, for the great liberties and boundless blessings which our land of freedom offers us have been re-gauranteed during the last year, but not without the loss of much precious blood on the part of the best and noblest youths of the United States, several heroes from Tecumseh being among those to sacrifice thier life.

"Tecumseh sure does look good to an outsider. Oiling the streets makes the town look cleaner, brighter and more progressive. It also makes the town look more prosperous."

This is the opinion a prominent Jackson man got of Tecumseh when he recently motored here to visit relatives and proves conclusively that those in this city who had oil put on the streets on which they reside or on which their place of business is located acted wisely when they had the thoroughfares thus treated.

The Jackson man expressed his views in a letter recently received by The Herald, and he congratulated this paper on being located in such a progrssive place.

His opinion of Tecumseh is identical with that formed by many other people from far and near when they visit here, and should act as an incentive for those residing on streets which have not been oiled to take steps to secure this improvement at once. The village oficials bear the cost of applying the oil, the residents of the streets purchasing it. The only action necssary is that a petition be drawn up and signed by the property ownets setting forth their wishes and then submit the request to the village council.

The youth of Lenawee county is threatned with being denied the privilege of acquiring an education, as there is a serious shortage of teachers, due primarily to the fact that the wages paid instructors are too low to attract young people to this profession. George J. Tripp, the county commissioner of schools, fears the teacher shortage this fall will be more serious than ever. He says the war gave many of the teachers an opportunity to make a better living than by tutoring and that the low pay which prevails in most places for instructors is no inducement for young men and women to fit themselves for this calling. Wisely, Tecumseh's board of education advanced the pay of the local teachers, thus assuring the yount of this city modern educational advantages, which may be denied the young folk of other places. The school boards of the country and village schools throughout Lenawee will do well to emulate the Tecumseh board of education and thus provide the children of the county the county the privilege of an education which is their heritage.

The Evening Line-Up

Both children and grown-ups, with coughs and colds, are all the better for a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar at bed time. It wards off croup, stops tickling throat, and hacking coughs, and makes an otherwise feverish, sleepless night of coughing and distress, a quiet and restful one.

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS, Mr. Chas. Baker, writes: "My wife would not think of using any other cough medicine, as Foley's Honey and Tar is certain to bring quick relief. It is especially effective in cases of bad coughs, and we give it to our children and recommend it always as a safe remedy, for it contains no opiates."

After being on a strike for nearly three weeks, the Western Union operators returned to work yesterday and messages began to come into Tecumseh. No messages will be received after 3:30 p. m. however, but may be sent from Tecumseh Junction.

Supt. and Mrs. W. L. Reed and little Ardis left Tuesday for their new home at Mason. Mr. Reed was superintendent of our school for six years, through the building of the fine new structure, and they leave many friends whose best wishes accompany them.

Government officials are urging Tecumseh and other people to buy their winter's supply of coal now as it is predicted there will be a shortage as serious as two years ago. It is explained the coal scarcity is being brought about by a shortage of labor and cars. The plea is buy now.

Mr. and Mrs. John Heesen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Heesen and little daughter, Catherine, and Lester Heesen are at Carrolton, Ill., guests of the youngest son, Donald, and family. Mr. and Mrs. John Heesen will remain for some six weeks, but the younger people will return in two weeks.

Mrs. Elmer Knitner of Painesville, Ohio, has been assisting in the care of her mother Mrs. Sarah Lamkin, since Friday. Mrs. John Butrick of Adrian, another daughter, was over the last of the week, also. Mrs. Lamkin is so much better that her son, Ira, and wife hope to be able to take her to their home on Saturday.

William Ross has received word from Battle Creek that his nephew, Leon Buechner, has suffered a stroke, his right foot and hand being affected. The affliction has made the hand absolutely useless, but he has some control of the foot. His right eye was also affected but he has since regained the use of the optic. Mr. Buechner's and Mr. Ross' many friends hope for the afflicted man's speedy recovery.

Miss Doris Knapp of Morenci, a teacher in the Lansing schools, has been visiting Miss Ruth McKinney, also a teacher in Lansing. On Thursday evening a few other friends joined them in a picnic to Wampler's lake. After the supper the young people atended the dance. In the party were the Misses Knapp, McKinney, Kennedy, Frances and Gertrude Peters, Percy Bowen, Wiley McCann, Harold Halladay, Oley Hanna and Glenn Bowen.

The 339th infantry, which includes Tecumseh men and which has just returned from Russia, is expected to reach Detroit early Friday morning, where the troops are to be given a warm welcome. A big celebration in their honor is to be held in the Michigan metropolis and delegations are expected from many towns of the state. While Tecumseh has taken no formal action, it is anticipated quite a few will be in Detroit that day from here to assist in welcoming the heroes who have been opposing the disturbing element in Russia.

A way has been found which will make it possible for the roads of Lenawee to be kept in repair despite the fact that the county board of supervisors are powerless to appropriate sufficient money for this purpose. Last week the supervisors voted $7,000, all the law allows, for highway repairs, and recommended that the road commissioners enter into contracts with the township boards whereby the individual townships would take acre of the maintenance of the improved roads, they to be reimbursed after the county collection of taxes is made next year. This plan is already in operation, several townships having agreed to this arrangment and solves, for the time being, the problem of road repair which had been a puzzler.

BRITTON

Obituary.

The remains of Mrs. Delia Price-Haight were brought here last Tuesday from Ann Arbor and taken to the Christian church, where the funeral services were held at 10:30, Rev. J. C. DeRemer officiating. Mrs. Haight was 65 years of age and was one of six children of the late Rev. and Mrs. Geo. Price, Rev. Price being for some time pastor of the Christian church here. In youth she began her ministrations in the same church where she served faithfully as a member. She was a beautiful singer and assisted not only in the music but for several years was superintendent of the Sunday school and president of the ladies aid society working oftentimes, as it seemed beyond her strength, yet doing what she could for her Master because she loved to do so. She and her husband, James Haight, have always lived here, until they went to Ann Arbor thirteen years ago, where he passed away four years ago. In her immediate family one son, Ben Haight, of Cone, and one daughter, Mrs. Minnie Underwood, of Detroit and four grandchildren are left to mourn. She is also survived by 2 sisters, the Misses Lydia and Sena Price, of Ann Arbor, and one brother E. G. Price of this place. Mrs. Haight's illness was due to cancer and her suffering, which was intense was borne patiently, an evidence to all of her naturally sunny disposition. She was a member of the O. E. S. of Tecumseh, delighting much in that order. She was laid to rest by the side of her husband in Ridgeway cemetery. The pallbearers were A. E. Kniffen, C. R. DuBois, W. B. Swick, C. D. Zeluff, Chas. Gorham and John Taylor.

Those from away attending the services were the Misses Lydia and Sena Price, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vogel and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pearsall of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs Glen Underwood of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Haight of Cone.

The Sphor Reunion.

About seventy-five members of the Sphor family met Thursday, June 26, at the prety farm home of Fred Gadt near Dundee for their annual reunion. The day was all to be desired and the guests came prepared to enjoy themselves to the utmost, which they cerainly did. Four handsomely decorated tables were arranged on the lawn where the elegant picnic dinner was served. An excellent program was given in the afternoon and the following officers were chosen for next year:

President—Wm. Radke.
Vice president—Chris. Sphor.
Secretary—Leo Sphor.
Treasurer—Fred Spohr.
Historian—Mrs. Fred Gadt.

They will meet next year with Mrs. Lena Radke. Ice cream and cake were served before the goodbyes were said, all hoping to meet again next year.

Britton News Notes.

John Taylor has a new car.

A. D. Davis was in Detroit Sunday.

B. J. Beasley was in Detroit Monday.

Mrs. Glen Burcroff spent Monday in Seneca.

R. N. Hayward spent Sunday with his mother in Morenci.

Dwight Myers and Paul Babcock are ill with the measles.

W. L. Exelby and O. B. Lenardson were in Adrian Monday.

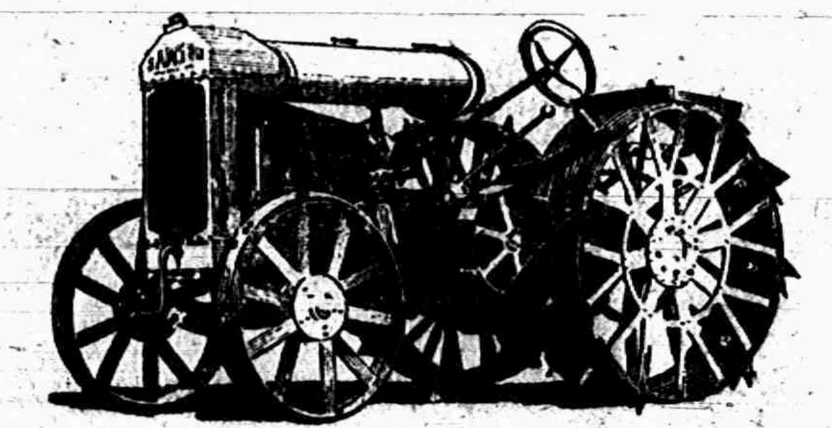
SAMSON

TRACTOR



Model M, $650.00

F. O. B. Janesville, Wis.

Manufactured by the General Corporation who are thinking of the future and want to make friends in each community. The controlling thought of this company will be — to make every single sale carry with it complete and permanent satisfaction.

They want you to buy the tractor best suited to your requirements—THAT TRACTOR AND NO OTHER.

They don't want you to buy a Two-Plow Tractor if it would be to your advantage to buy a Three-Plow Tractor.

If your farm by reason of acreage, soil conditions, or crop rotation calls for the Three-Plow Tractor type, they want you to have it.

By reason of their motor car experience they know that you want safety. That naturally comes first, for you value your life.

In designing a tractor, one of the vital things is distributing the weight. It must be evenly distribued. If it is not, it becomes dangerous, because it will not keep to the ground.

Next, you want power sufficient to meet your needs, and in the Samson you get it. It has stubborn, dogged, persistent power, that pulls, pulls, pulls.

You do not want undue heating of parts, with the discomfort that ensues for the driver. You want proper lubrication, large bearing surfaces and carefully chosen materials which do away with all friction possible.

You want economy, of course. You want a tractor that will not be a burden—a tractor that will be an asset, and not a liability.

Our first tractor is now in transit to us. Watch our future advertisements for the date of demonstration.

On account of the unusual demand for the Samson Tractor only a few will be allowed us this fall.

We are the authorized dealers for Tecumseh and adjoining towns.

Tractor furnished with or without plows.

Mechanical Features Samson Tractor (Model M)

MOTOR: The motor is suspended at three points. Extra water space surrounds the cylinder jackets. An air washer keeps the motor clean of dirt, grit, and any other substance. In this way the efficiency of the motor is greatly increased.

BELT PULLEY: Ample proportion for ensilage cutters, feed grinders, etc.

OILING: Forced feed oiling to all bearings. This method of oiling will be found in the highest-priced motors built. Forced feed costs more than splash feed but is surer and safer. Our underpan construction insures constant oil level—up hill or down.

FUEL: Burns kerosene or gasoline without any change or adjustment. Fuel tank holds 22 gallons; with extra large hand hole, enabling one to clean the tank easily. Reserve gasoline tank holding three gallons.

ALL MOVING PARTS ENCLOSED: ALL MOVING PARTS ENCLOSED AND SELF OILING. ALL MOVING PARTS WATERPROOF AND DUSTPROOF. NO MOVING PARTS EXPOSED EXCEPT THE FOUR WHEELS.

POWER-TAKE-OFF: A feature of the design of the Samson (Model M) Tractor is the "power take-off pulley" acting as a BRAKE WHEN IN FIELD USE. This brake, actuated by the clutch pedal makes change of gears safe and easy to handle. Recognized for years as standard practice in high priced motor construction.

CLUTCH: A plate clutch is used, which is SELF-ADJUSTING and RUNS IN OIL.

GREASE CUPS: There are but three grease cups on the entire tractor. On most tractors there are too many to count. All three grease cups are in plain view. One is on the fan, and two are on the front axle.

LUBRICATION: LUBRICATION IS APPLIED ONLY AT TWO POINTS, AND FROM THESE DISTRIBUTED TO ALL MOVING PARTS—and only two kinds of oil are used. The motor and clutch require the regular cylinder oil and the transmission and axle require a heavy transmission oil.

GOVERNOR: Motor speed is regulated by a mechanical governor.

SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION: The simplicity of construction will be best understood when it is learned that it requires only THREE WRENCHES TO TAKE DOWN AND PUT TOGETHER THE SAMSON (Model M) TRACTOR.

TOOL KIT: The entire contents of the tool kit consists of THREE WRENCHES. How many do you find as necessary equipment on the ordinary tractor? THE SAMSON (Model M) DOES NOT EVEN REQUIRE AN OIL CAN.

S. C. Cutting was a passenger for Grand Rapids Monday on a business trip.

Mrs. C. D. Beebe visited Dr. and Mrs. Segar at Lansing over the week end.

Mrs. E. J. Haines has been for a couple of weeks, visiting relatives at Frederick, near Grayling.

Miss Edra Van Winkle returned to Three Rivers the first of the week after a five weeks' visit at home.

Fred O'Dell and his carpenters are erecting cottages for Robt. McCoy and Thomas McCann on the north shore of Sand lake.

Mrs. Joe Mocherman of Arkansas City, Kansas, has been visiting her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Graebner.

Miss Maude Scofield is out of Avery's grocery for a few days' vacation and spending part of the time with cousins at Owosso.

Mrs. Leland Cheever has joined her husband at Adrian Miss Thelma Willnow has taken her place at Tribolet's 5 and 10 cent store.

Mrs. Henry Wilson started Friday morning for Columbus, O., to spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Osborn, and family

Mr. and Mrs. Rude Meade have been enjoying a visit from their daughter, Miss Gladys, of Mt. Pleasant and Lewis Tooley of Boyne City.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Palman entertained on Sunday Dr. and Mrs. Shaner of Toledo. Aby and Joe Palman returned with them for a few days' outing.

Miss Laura Haggart has arrived from Clifford, Mich., where she taught last year, and is getting settled in the home she recently puchased, the Roy Harrison house.

Miss Eloise Waring, who has been teaching in Grand Rapids, was home for a few days, then on Wednesday started for Booth Bar Harbor, Maine, where she will spend her vacation.

Miss Ethel McIntyre, who graduated last week from the Normal at Ypsi, went to Kalamazoo Monday to take up the play ground work in that city through the summer.

Mrs. F. J. Stitt and daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Thielan, of Jackson were in Tecumseh Saturday visiting Miss Veva Hardcastle. They returned to the prison city Sunday.

Mrs. B. Hurry went to Grand Rapids Monday where she joined her daughter, Miss Harriett, and they will accompany a party of young ladies to Highland Park a summer resort on the shore of Lake Michigan.

Miss Geneva Satterthwaite arrived home Thursday from Boston to spend the summer, thus completing the family circles, with Perry, Joe and Beth home from France and Mrs. Alice Satterthwaite Wood and little son, Frederick B. Wood III, here from California.

E. E. Crampton, Tecumseh's new superintendent of schools, expects to locate here permanently August 1. His family consists of his wife and three daughters. Mr. Crampton was in the city Monday on business connected with his position here and is very favorably impressed with our new school and the town in general.

Miss Ida Taylor, who has been teaching in the Chicago Latin school and her nephew, Mareus Fisher, who is taking the civil engineering course in the Lane Technical High, came home last week. Sunday Miss Taylor returned to Chicago where she will spend a few weeks in tutoring some backward children. Miss Anna Baker accompanied her to spend a couple of weeks.

Beginning July 1 the old postal rates again went into effect only two cents now being required on letters and one cent on a postal card. Local postoffice authorities say some Tecumseh people have gained the impression that drop letters now require only one cent, but such is not the case, as two cents postage must be attached. It is announced that those having 3-cent stamped envelopes or 2-cent postcards may redeem them at the postoffice at their full value in stamped envelopes of other denomination or in postcards.

Mrs. G. J. Ziehr was hostess to a party of twenty-five ladies Thursday evening, honoring Mrs. Lavern Barrett, who left Monday for Flint to reside. The guests were nearly all members of the Jolly 16 and a jolly bunch they were. After one of Mrs. Ziehr's splendid suppers were served, the ladies played progressive pedro. The prizes were won by Mrs. Guy Belding and Mrs. Clement Hardenburgh. These were presented to Mrs. Barrett and the guests also gave her a Pyrex baking dish and pie plate. Mr. Ziehr and Mr. Barrett were the only members of the sterner sex present.

Of interest to the numerous Tecumseh friends of William Ross will be the fact that his nephew, Arno Buechner, of Battle Creek, is a member of one of the United States fighting units which won high praise for achievments overseas. Buechner is with the Thirteenth field artillery, he having gone into service before the draft was effective. He was in the last big drive which overpowered the Germans and had been in three big battles previously. Col. Wright Smith, commander of the Thirteenth, has sent out from his headquarters a lengthy survey detailing the splendid part his unit took in the battle for freedom for all for ever, a copy of which has been received by the relatives of Private Buechner and which they value very highly. It sets forth the victories won by the Thirteenth which were many and imporant. Mr. Ross is justly proud of the record made by his nephew.

America's Glorious Day

The 4th of July

means more than the flare of rockets and the roll of drums—symbols of our patriotic celebrations. For this day commemorates the birth of a nation—of a "Government of the people, by the people, for the people" which stands today a leader on the earth. Each generation has strengthened the great structure of Americanism founded on the ideals expressed in America's Declaration of Independence—ideals to which today the world aspires.

With thankful hearts and a fixed purpose to be worthy at once of those gone before and of tasks ahead, we will celebrate this glorious Day of Independence.

KIDNEYS WEAKENING?

LOOK OUT!

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow slowly but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1696 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

called and these officers elected for the coming year:

President—Mrs. Eunice Davidson Hall, '77.

First vice president—Leon McLachlin, '15.

Second vice president—Mrs. Florence Keyser Osborn, '08.

Secretary — Dr. Pauline Bredow, '95.

Corresponding secretary—Percy Bowen, '08.

Executive committee — Frank C. Snell '10, Miss Grace Gillespie '92, Jay Morse, '92, J. Lester Heesen '98, Mrs. Mary Haight Brown '90.

Mrs. Sanford then introduced as toastmistress Miss Mildred Boyce, '08, and she was a splendid success in this office, a real surprise to her many friends.

The first number was a vocal solo, "When the Boys Come Home," by Mrs. Grace Heck Moore, '90, accompanied by Miss Edna Taylor, '18.

Mrs. Emilie Hamilton-Hall, '90, very happily welcomed the class of '19, to which welcome Miss Jane McConnell as charningly responded. Burton Garlinghouse, '16, gave two splendid piano solos, receiving appreciative applause. Then came the toasts, named from some of the bugle calls of the army.

"Reivelle" as responded to by Lieut. Perry C. Satterthwaite, '10 was very interesting being some of the experiences of his regiment of engineers while abroad. Their travels took them through Scotland and clear to the Swiss border and he tells his stories graphically and most entertainingly.

Lieut. Raynor K. Anderson, '91 followed with "Mess" as his toast and it was applicably given for it had fallen to him to see that 1,000 men were fed while in a part of his service. He is a hearty advocate of preparedness. He asserts "We never had a real army over there, but a crowd of the best fighting men in the world and had the was lasted one year longer we would have had a real army. There are many comp[illegible] made now by the men returning home, but not of all branches of the service. Our medical corps are the best n any army, but our motor transportation was not sufficent. There is a greater war coming and we should be ready. Every man should be physically fit and ready to take his place in the service. It is the duty of the man power in every country to protect it."

A vocal duet by Miss Lilian Kennedy, '17, and F. C. Dickinson, '07, was well given, Miss Camilla Hayden, '16, accompanying.

"Retreat" was responded to by Leon McLachlin, '15, he first stating that that term was never heard in the navy, in which he served. He told of the value of the navy in the various wars and in this, their great service was the blocking of the German harbors so more submarines could not get through and beyond the mines, and at last that branch of German service was whipped. He told some of the comic and thrilling incidents of his ten trips across in the transport work and his speech was greatly enjoyed.

"Taps" was Miss Frances Ann Ferguson's '10 toast. This she finished with the following original poem:

Taps.

Sunrise brings its fresh awaking
To the weariness of work,
And the vigor of the morning
Makes you sinful if you shirk,
Through the time of telling labor
With its aches and pains perhaps,
One may truly be forgiven
If he often thinks of Taps.

Taps the time when lights are lowered
And the quiet moments come
Sleep and rest to many mortals—
But the homesick hours to some.
What a world of strain and thinking
Is the moral world we know
From the cradle call of morning
To the sunset age we go.

Taps are sounded-calling rest time.
And the quiet of the night
That a fresher human being
May enjoy the morning light
So the Taps of death have meaning
For the hoping minds of men,
Through the night of death all passing
To the morning light, again.

Harold Lowry, '17, closed the program with a very pretty solo and responded to an encore with "Dear Old Pal of Mine," Miss Hayden accompanied him.

The following of the list of members have died in the past year: Chas. A. Slayton '65, Dr. Guernsey P. Waring, '73, Thomas H. Temple '75, Dr. Chas. A. Waldron '78, Capt. Adelbert P. Mills, '02, Sherman Camburn, '04, Mrs. Cline Scofield, Wolfe, '04, Mrs. Blanche Keyser Wheadon, '04, George Exelby, '10, David Underwood, '11, Charles Underwood, '13, Harold Bachman, '13. Five of these gave their lives in the world war and for each there is a gold star on the alumni service flag.

The ladies having charge of work of arranging for the banquet were Mrs. Sanford, banquet equipment, Mrs. Franc Gillespie, '92, assisted by Misses Camilla Hayden '16, Winnifred Mitchell '16, Agnes McIntyre '15, Ethel McIntyre '16, Vesta Wilson '09, and Mrs. Elona Anderson Barber '01.

Table decorations, Mrs. Julia Hicks Anderson, '98, and to Percy Bowen, acting corresponding secretary, is also due much credit for the success of the meeting.

Some of those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. O. Perry of Chicago; Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Cane of Evanston; Mr. and Mrs. Athol Brainard, Springville; Mrs. Margaret Waldron-Kidman, West Adrian; Mrs. Mary Lowry- Weiser, Mrs. Addie Lanning-Smith, Miss Ruth Kotts, Detroit· Miss Norma Moody, Plymouth; Mrs. Alice Satterthwaite Wood, Sacramento, Cal., Miss Geneva Satterthwaite, Boston; Miss Muza Rice, Adrian; Miss Lena Mapes, Onsted; Glenn Wyrill, Toledo; Leon Waldron, River Rouge; Fred Rentschler, Pontiac.

Headache

THOUSANDS OF WOMEN suffer miserably from periodic attacks of headache, never dreaming that a permanent cure may be had. Headache nearly always results from some disorder of the stomach, liver or bowels. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will correct these disorders and there will be no more headache. Many have been permanently cured by Chamberlain's Tablets.

THE BEST PROOF

Given by a Tecumseh Citizen.

'Doan's Kidney Pills were used—they brought benefit.

The story was told to Tecumseh residents.

Time has strengthened the evidence.

Has proven the result lasting.

The testimony is home testimony—

The proof convincing.

It can be investigated by Tecumseh residents.

Mrs. Alice Burroughs, W. Pottawatamie St., Tecumseh, says: "I sometimes ached all over and was all tired out and had no ambition. My kidneys didn't act regularly and at times my back ached. I knew of others who had been helped by using Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got some at Wright & Son's Drug Store. In a few weeks, I felt much better and finally I was free from the aches and pains. I was benefited in every way."

AGAIN PRAISES DOAN'S

Over Seven years later Mrs. Burroughs said: "I am always glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for they are a good medicine. They cured me of kidney trouble."

Quite a party of Pythian Sisters took in the district convention of the order at Adrian Friday. Among them were Mrs. Frank Snedicor, Mrs. A. J. Montgomery, Mrs. Grant Schreder, Mrs. Floyd Freeman, Mrs. George Hines, Mrs. Ida Spencer, Mrs. O. S. Hunt and Mrs. John McIntyre.

Captain Stanley D. Chapin of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. A. P. Dolwick of Cleveland, Ohio, were guests on Thursday and Friday of their aunt, Mrs. O. B. Finch Capt. Chapin recently returned from France and after receving his discharge at Camp Dix, N. J., will return to his home in the west.

While Byron Snell was mowing the door-yard with a scythe at the home of G. E. Wood, Richard Wood, the 8-year-old son, got too close. Boy-like he was interested in any form of work, but this time his spirit of investigation resulted in a nasty gash just back of the knee. Dr. Hardy was called and had to take five stitches to close the wound.

There have been some changes on the New York Central at this point this week, due to the addition of two trains on the Jackson Branch. G. J. Ziehr is through with his days' work at 3:30 p. m. Leon McLachlin has been transferred to the North depot with hours from 12 to 9:30. Charles Manley began working at the South depot Tuesday morning. Gus Vallenburg is no longer target man, the target work now being done by the men at the depot.

The other Sunday night as a young boy named Fisher left the opera house he looked for his bicycle, but could find nothing but the rims of the wheels. Deputy Sheriff John Smith has been making a still hunt around and Tuesday found a queer hiding place, behind the old Collar house. A dug-out had been formed far back beneath the underbrush which has grown up for the past several years and there the deputy found one of McCann & Bowen's park benches—and the frame of the lost bicycle. Banana and orange rinds, etc., showed the recent occupants had fared well.

Albert "Pat" Cook, truck driver for the Tecumseh Co-operative Association, narrowly escaped possible serious injury and displayed marked pluck when his vehicle was struck by the southbound 3:02 New York Central train Tuesday afternoon. He was just driving out of the Co-Operative Association building when the train approached, and seeing the truck would be struck he leaped from the machine, the rear end of which was pushed clear of the tracks when the engine hit it. A number of milk cans which were on the vehicle were scattered over the street. The impact of the train headed the truck in a northerly direction but did not tip it over so, Cook jumped back on the machine but for some reason or other directed it toward the sidewalk on the west side of the street and before he brought it to a stop it went up onto the walk and all but dashed into the Rude music store the car being halted just before it struck the building. The driver was not hurt and the truck was but very slightly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Wood were in Detroit from Friday to Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rottman and three children of Savannah, Ga., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. Rottman since Friday.

Fred C. Dickinson last Saturday conducted an examination for applicants for substitutes for the city postoffice and carriers.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nyland are enjoying a visit from the latter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce, of Kalamazoo.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Mills of Toledo and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mills of Detroit were guests yesterday of their sister, Mrs. Mertie Campbell.

John O'Neil went to Toledo Saturday, and Sunday his wife returned with him. She had been in that city caring for her daugter, Mrs. W. A. Smith, who had suffered a sun stroke while on the street and had been seriously ill as a result.

Mrs. Elizabeth McNeil, Mrs. Helen McNeil, daughter, Ella and the little grandson have returned from Adrian and are residing for the present in Mrs. Ella Sheldon's home. Prof. Earl McNeil is taking up special work at the U. of M. summer school.

The class of 1919 are not playing off since commencement. Miss Muriel Halladay has already begun work at Coller's music store, the Misses Mildred and Marian Brooks and Alice Hardenburg at the telephone exchange and Miss Mabel Lockwood at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Braman arrived Monday from Calgary, Alberta, where their wedding had taken place June 24. They had spent 2 days with his people in Benton Harbor, before coming on to Tecumseh. They are staying for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Heidenreich before starting housekeeping. Mr. Braman's many friends are welcoming his bride most heartily.

SIXTY-NINTH YEAR. NO. 39. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JULY 10, 1919. Published Every Thursday.

Says Community Welfare Society Is Necessity Here

REV. W. A. REX, IN SPECIAL SERMON, POINTS OUT CITY'S WEAKNESSES

Also Makes Suggestions; Favors Real Democratic Town Government; Terms Tecumseh's Average Far From Ideal.

As usual at the other "Tecumseh Nights" given this last winter in the series of Community services, the Presbyterian church was fairly well filled Sunday evening. This was a summary by the Rev. W. A. Rex of the preceding "Nights" and of the letters from the town and country folk then read, with a few of the minister's personal opinions. He took for his theme, "The soul of Tecumseh," from the text, Luke 10:12 "But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city."

He went on to tell of Jesus mourning for Jerusalem on the night before his crucifixion, how through the Bible more frequent does it speak of the group rather than the individual and today we are getting away from the idea of "Save your own soul" as preached before and looking after the common good. "Whatever helps people is Christianity." Much criticism has been offered in this series, no man, town or church is what it should be, so must be criticized. Yet to help either of the three the diseased spots must be shown.

This little town has a soul to save, a community conscience. The Commandments should apply to the town as well as the person.

Setting them forth in the order of the frequency they were mentioned in the letters were these points:

1. A community house. The soul of the town does need a home.

2. Paved streets. There is a good deal of gospel in paved streets.

3. More industries. Tecumseh does not need more as she does not support those she has. Tecumseh is not loyal to her own business industries.

4. Community Market. We could not make it "go" here, if Jackson could not and Adrian only does by a struggle. The fact remains that often things can be bought elsewhere cheaper, but still a community market would not be feasible for Tecumseh.

5. Need of supervised amusements. If larger cities should supervise their amusements then we ought. As an example Saintly Jackson refused to permit the exhibition of Salome and we allowed the film to run two days. We are imposed upon in this regard.

6. Community church or better churches.

7. Home patronage. Tecumseh is not grossly guilty along that line. The merchants have no right to complain if the people do now and then while on a trip to a larger city buy a few articles, if their families do likewise continually.

8. Immorality. After the first time gambling was mentioned

LOCHNER—SCHREDER

Popular Tecumseh Girl Becomes Bride of Adrian Physician.

Miss Anna Schreder, for several years a popular clerk at the Rosacrans store, on Tuesday became the bride of Dr. George Lochner of Adrian. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Leon VanDusen just west of Clinton and was performed by Rev. W. A. Rex at high noon. The bride wore a gown of blue messaline and georgette, her flowers being a corsage bouquet of bride's roses. The couple were unattended.

Immediately following the ceremony the guests were served a splendid wedding dinner. In the party were the parents and sister of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lochner, and Miss Jane Lochner of Adrian, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Schreder, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schreder and two children, Miss Veva Hardcastle and Willis Schreder of Tecumseh and Mrs. Grant Van Dusen of Clinton.

The bridal couple were escorted to Saline with decorated automobiles which were equipped with great tin cans on ropes and not many between Clinton and Saline missed the fun. From Saline they were allowed to depart on a boat trip to Mackinac Island. They plan to locate in Florida this fall.

The groom was in the medical service in the army during our recent trouble and stationed while across in a hospital in Liverpool where he was honored with the rank of captain. He has been home only a few weeks. Before joining the army he had practiced medicine several years in Adrian. In Florida together with his practice he will attend to business interests belonging to his father.

Mrs. Lochner has resided here all her life and counts the whole village as her friends, won by her charming personality. The best wishes of all attend these young people in their new life.

FRANKLIN PIONEER CLAIMED BY DEATH

Eugene Kimball, Aged 68, Had Always Resided Near Tipton.

Mrs. Andrew Wilson was called to the home of her brothers in Franklin Friday night to help care for one of them, Eugene Kimball, who was critically ill. Mr. Kimball passed away Saturday, aged 68 years and the funeral was held Monday afternoon. Attending the services from here were Mrs. Andrew Wilson, her daughter and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Lyle Hill, of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Wilson, and the Misses Vesta and Clara Wilson, also J. R. Keeney.

Mr. Kimball was well known in this vicinity, having been a lifelong resident of Franklin township. He had never married and for many years he and his brother Sidney, also unmarried, had lived together on their farm on the turnpike some three miles west of Tipton. He was a carpenter by trade and well educated. The brother and sister above mentioned are the only ones remaining of the immediate family.

School Meeting of Great Importance

Number of Questions to Be Decided at Annual Session Monday Evening.

More business than usual is to come before the annual meeting of School District No. 7 of the township of Tecumsh, which is to be held at the public library the evening of Monday, July 14, and it is hoped the attendance will be in acordance with the importance of the matters to be considered.

The term of one member of the board of education, Hon. Fred B. Wood, expires. So far as can be ascertained there is no one seeking the place. In addition to the election there will be reports presented of the past year's activitis, estimates are to be given of the needs for the coming school term and the board will make recommendations of what it deems should be taken up during the year.

Ancther matter on which action must be taken is a law passed in 1917 which provides for the classification of school districts. This act requires all school district to vote on the proposition of whther they desire to come under the provisions of the new law. By the terms of the act Tecumseh will be in the fourth class, its population being less than 10,000. An unusual phase of the law is that though this place decides to be governed by the provisions of the act, Tecumseh would still operate under the existing regulations, and the same conditions would hold good if the vote was against the proposition. Those versed in law explain that while Tecumseh and similar sized towns will not benefit at present if they decide to come under the new law, some future legislature may give schools coming in the fourth class under this act the benefits of the next higher grade.

This and the other questions to be brought up should bring out a larger attendance of parents and tax payers than ever before.

Those attending the meeting will also have an opportunity to secure one of the new school catalogs which are on hand at the library and which may be had on request. A copy will also be sent to any address if request is made of C. F. Patterson, secretary of the board of education.

BUY NOW IF YOU WANT A "SENIOR ECHOES"

Class of 1919 of Tecumseh High Has Only About Fifty Copies of Attractive Book Left.

Only about fifty Tecumseh people or former residents of this place still have an opportunity to come in possession of a copy of the "Senior Echoes," the valuable book which the 1919 class of the local high school produced at such great labor and expense and about a half hundred copies of which remain unsold.

Every family which has children attending school and every person who ever went to the Tecumseh high school, be he now located far or near, would want one of these books if they but realized the attractiveness and the real merit of the publication.

The bood consists of 140 pages; it contains more than a hundred cuts of snapshots, cartoons and photographs of the high school, the old and new; pictures of the school board, the faculty, seniors and every student of the upper six grades. In the volume are twelve full-page cartoons drawn by the students and the book contains twelve departments, each complete and of great interest.

Tecumseh's most prominent residents have given their hearty approval of the "Senior Echoes" pointing out that the book emphasizes as nothing else can the rapid progress Tecumseh is making along educational lines and urging all to purchase one that they may have a permanent reminder of the many happy days spent in the local schools.

As the names and pictures of 275 persons appear in the book it would seem that every present and former student would desire a copy. Those who have not acquired a "Senior Echoes" or those desiring another copy may secure same by getting in communication with Perry Hayden.

Roof Blaze Causes About $500 Loss

HOME OF FRANK AND HARLOW SMITH VISITED BY STUBBORN FIRE

Believed to Have Caught From Spark out of Chimney; Boy Scouts Among First to Respond.

A fire, which was discovered in the roof of the home of Harlow and Frank Smith on West Pottawatamie street Tuesday forenoon about 9:15, proved a stubborn blaze to subdue.

Frank Smith, who is the housekeeper, while about his morning work, heard a crackling in the kitchen roof and upon investigation found the roof of the kitchen and the whole north end of the upright ablaze. Apparently the fire had caught from sparks from the kitchen chimney and crept intween the joist of the upright to that roof.

When the department reached the house the smoke was so dense they could not see where the seat of the trouble lay, and made an effort to reach the blaze by taking the hose through the house. Finding that did no good, they chopped holes in the roof and soon water was going into the building in a flood, but still the smoke poured forth and it was only by hard work that the fire was extingished, leaving the roof demolished at the rear of the house and the chambers in this part of the home open to daylight. Every room is smoked badly and it is estimated loss will be about $500, but, fortunately is covered by insurance.

The Boy Scouts were on the scene at almost the first tap of the bell, under command of Rev. W. R. Curtis, and when the fireman arrived they had formed a bucket brigade and were working valiantly upon the burning roof. The little heroes stood by the job until the last spark was out and helped clear away the debris later.

Harlow Smith met with an accident, during the excitment. As he passed the roof where the boys were working one threw down a pail, the edge of which hit Harlow on the head, cutting quite a gash. He was cared for by Dr. Hendershott, who had to sew up the wound.

TECUMSEH IS AN EASY VICTOR OVER ONSTED

Local Independents Win by 16 to 5 Score; Meet Blissfield All Stars Here Next Sunday.

Outplaying their opponents in every department, the Tecumseh Independents had no trouble in winning Sunday's ball game at League park from the Onsted team, the score being 16 to 5. The visiting pitchers failed to deliver the goods and when Onster got men on the sacks they were unable to get them around. Tecumseh garnered twenty-two hits off the delivery of Easlick and O. Treat, while the out-of-town players swatted Drake safely eight times, but he fanned ten of the losers. Drewyor was behind the plate for the home team and Treat did the receiving for Onsted. It was the first game Drake had hurled in several weeks, and the rest seems to have benefitted him, as he twirled effectively. In fact all of the Tecumseh players were keyed up, going through the contest practicaly errorless.

It was a walk away for the locals from the beginning. After Onsted had scored twice in the first round, Tecumseh sent six men around the circuit and kept adding runs throughout the game. Three Tecumsehites jogged around to the fourth station in the third inning, one in the fourth, four in the sixth and two made the circuit in the eighth period. Onsted could not repeat its performance of he firs inning, being able to get only one tally in any one inning after the initial time at bat.

Tecumseh's numerous hits coupled with the opposition's frequent errors were a big factor in making their own run column total so much. Onsted's pitchers were also untamed, passing and hitting many a batter.

While the attendance at Sunday's game was good, it was not as large as that at the two previous contests.

In its game at Clark's lake July 4 the Tecumseh team was not so fortunate, being defeated by the Brooklyn nine, the score being 8 to 3. The two teams will play a return game in Tecumseh Sunday afternon, July 20.

For next Sunday the Tecumseh Independents will have as their opponents the Blissfield All Stars. The game will be played at League park and will begin at 3 p. m. The Blissfield nine is rated as a very fast aggregation and the local players anticipate a sharp clash.

Regular meeting of Royal Neighbors will be held Tuesday, July 15. Special business. A good attendance is requested.—adv -7-10

Notice

After the first day of July until and including August 9, I will receive the village taxes each Friday and Saturday, also Saturday evenings, at the Lilley State Bank also other evenings at my home, 305 W. Pottawatamie street, Mrs. Franc S. Gillespie, Village Treasurer. 8-7

AMERICAN LEGION TO HAVE POST HERE

Organization Meeting Will Be Held Evening of July 18.

Tecumseh is to have a post of the American Legion, a meeting to be held here Friday evening, July 18, at which the organization is to be perfected. Service men from all the places in the vicinity of Tecumseh are invited to attend the session and become affiliated with the local post. A charter has been applied for, the number of which will be 34, the name to be selected later.

The meeting is to be held in the Grange hall and is to begin at 7:30. After the preliminary matters are disposed of officers will be elected and all details of the post perfected, and it is the hope of those interested in the movement that a large number of those who aided in downing Prussianism will be present.

All men who served in the United States army, navy or marine corps during the war with Germany at any time between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, whose service was or is honorable may become members of the American Legion.

ATTENDANCE SMALLER BECAUSE OF STORM

Street Shows Prove Entertaining, However; Feature Acts For Next Wednesday.

The street shows given yesterday were, by force of circumstances, a sort of patch work.

In the afternoon the performers of but two of the acts were here at the hour for the show. The Morrels with their skating act were excellent and took well with the crowd. Val and Evans in an acordian and singing act finished the afternoon program. In the evening a storm interfered with the program but after it had passed the acts were finished. In addition to the above mentioned was Kildore, a comedy acrobat. He was recognized as the frogman of last season and his act was applauded heartily. Varying the program given by the Tipton band was an excellent cornet duet by Clare Camburn and Harry Baker of Adrian. The attendance was not as large as usual due to the storm.

Feature acts are scheduled to be given for next Wednesday's specials.

WILL OPEN PARKING STATION FOR AUTOS

Albert Van Doren to Provide Place Where Cars Will Be Guarded.

A place where automobiles may parked and where they will be guarded is to be opened in Tecumseh, Albert Van Doren having decided to establish such a station. He plans to be ready for business by Monday, July 14, and in the near future will install gasoline sales apparatus.

The parking place is to be located just north of Mr. Van Doren's garage on North Pearl street and he will have space for about 200 cars. Two experienced men are to be in charge, they to act as guards over the cars and see that they are not molested by thieves. Checks will be issued to the patrons of the place by which the automobiles will be identified when they are called for, a nominal charge being made for the privilege of leaving the machines where they will be guarded. The parking station is to be well lighted and will be open usually until 10:30 p. m., though on feature occasions like the "Wednesday Night Specials," Saturday evenings and on nights when there are big dances the attendants will be on duty until midnight.

SHOWERS FAMILY MEETS.

More Than Fifty at Reunion at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Frayer.

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Frayer on West Kilbuck street was the gathering place of the Showers family for their annual reunion on the Fourth. Over fifty enjoyed the day of visiting and the splendid dinner served at noon. Officers were elected during the business session, with Martin Frayer president and Miss Katherine Reed secretary. It was also decided to meet at Oscar Frayer's in Deerfield next year. Among those from away in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Riley Watkins, Mrs. Abbie Curtis, Elsie Curtis, Frank Curtis and three children of Swanton, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell and two children, Olivet, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene French and two children, Dean French and Grant French, Toledo; Mrs. Edson French, Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Drake, Adrian; Miss Ruth Reed, Morenci; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reed, Metamora, Ohio; besides relatives from Deerfield, Tipton and Lake Ridge.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our neighbors for their sympathy and assistance at the death of our dear husband and father, also those who sent flowers and furnished autos.

CLINTON

CLINTON CLOTHING CO. BUSINESS CHANGES HANDS

Westgate, Condra & Co. of Adrian New Owners.

The big sale of the Clinton Clothing Co. closed Monday evening of this week and the remaining stock and good will of the old firm has been transferred to Westgate, Condra & Co. of Adrian. The new owners, besides conducting a fine business in the county seat town, have recently started a branch store in Deerfield, and the acquisition of the Clinton store is an enterprising move on their part, for it increases their purchasing power of goods, thus enabling them to give good service to the people of Clinton and vicinity.

Messrs E. L. and Frank Parker, the retiring owners, have conducted a profitable business. The latter has been an efficient manager, a good advertiser, and a young business man of keen judgement. He succeeds his brother as superintendent of the Clinton Woolen Mfg. plant, while E. L. Parker will act as eastern representative for the woolen mill, making his residence in New York city. Mr. Parker and family have many friends who regret to have them leave Clinton.

Young Couple Married in Adrian.

Miss Marjorie Mensing, daughter of Mrs. Josephine Mensing, and Clyde Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, were married last Thursday evening at 6 o'clock at the rectory of Christ church, Adrian, by the Rev. Richard J. Lee. They were attended by Miss Thelma Whiting and Fred Myers of this place. After spending a few days at Sand lake the young couple went to the home of the bridegroom's parents, on the Silvers farm just south of town. The bride was a member of the 1919 graduating class of Clinton high school.

Death of Mrs. Frank Brown.

The funeral of Mrs. Frank Brown, who died at her home on Jackson street at midnight Sunday, was held Tuesday. Mrs. Brown was 64 years of age, had resided in Clinton and vicinity all her life and enjoyed the friendship of a host of people.

Mrs. Brown leaves a husband, one son, Eugene, of New York city; two daughters, Mrs. George Withee of Detroit and Mrs. V. G. Davis of Auburn, Ind.

Clinton News Notes.

Frank McDermott is home on 15 days' furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bailey were over from Detroit for the week end with relatives.

LaVere VanGieson of Detroit visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert VanGieson, over Sunday.

A number of Clinton men took in the nine-minute heavy weight championship fight in Toledo on the Fourth.

A post of the American Legion is to be formed at Tecumseh the evening of Friday, July 18, and all soldiers, sailors and marines from this vicinity who participated in any way in the world war are invited to join the organization. The meeting will be held in Grange hall in Tecumseh and will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Being in poor health and unable to give the business the attention it needs, Mrs. K. E. Kehoe has sold her dry goods stock to Jackent & Goodman of Detroit, who are planning on soon holding a sale. Mrs. Kehoe has conducted the business for several years and has made a success of the venture. Her many friend regret that failing health compels her to dispose of the business.

LADS BUILD BRIDGE

Edward Nyland and Assistants Do Splendid Piece of Work.

Edward Nyland, assisted by a group of boy friends, has just built a bridge across Evans Creek on the Nyland land which was a real job of engineering. He hauled from the Nyland farm two 48 foot red oak logs. These with the aid of horses and a tackle the boys threw across the creek and imbedded in loads of cinders. Then came the stringers and plank and now the land on the other side is accessible without going clear to the Wilson bridge way up stream. The tenant, R. V. Wilson, is commenting on the job said "And those boys didn't tear up a dozen hills of corn either."

Editorial Comment

Monday evening, July 14, will be held the annual meeting of School District No. 7 of the township of Tecumseh and it behooves every father and mother and every taxpayer to be in attendance, as officers will be elected and other important matters transacted.

Parents should be especially interested in what the Tecumseh schools are complishing and what they hope to attain, for upon the progress made by the pupils in their childhood days depends the success of their future.

One member of the board of education is to be elected, the term of Hon. Fred B. Wood having expired. So far as is known there is no one in the field desiring to succeed the retiring member. Reports of the past year's work will be read, estimates will be presented of the needs for the coming school term and the board will make recommendations. All of these matters call for a large attendance of the voters in the district.

Another matter to be considered is whether Tecumseh desires to adopt the provisions relating to classification of school districts provided under a law passed in 1917, and which requires each district to vote on the question. A peculiar phase of this law is that even though places the size of Tecumseh do adopt the provisions of the new law the local schools would still operate under the laws which now govern them, and if the vote on the proposition was negative the same conditions would prevail. Tecumseh would automatically fall into the fourth class under the new law, having a population of less than 12,000, and at present would secure no advantages in favoring the new act. It is explained by local attorneys, however, that if Tecumseh should vote favorably on the proposition that some future legislature might give school districts of the fourth class some of the benefits secured by those in higher classes, and that while an affirmative vote might not bring any immediate results, good may come of it in after years. Some action must be taken, the new law demanding this.

It will be apparent that these various matters call for the attendance at the annual school meeting of all who are eligible to be present. The meeting will be held in the Public Library and will begin at 8 p. m.

Having had a powerful influence in bringing about two momentous achievements, President Woodrow Wilson has returned to the United States and is now prepared to give his attention to home questions, of which there are also a number of great importance.

The president went to Europe with the determination of forming a League of Nations and to restore peace to the world, and before he started back across the Atlantic to take up home affairs he accomplished both his high purposes, though not without considerable opposition and harassment. Though there may be disturbances of the world peace at intervals and the path of the League of Nations may not be strewn with roses, both apire to higher and better things and deserve the full, unswerving support of all creeds, classes and factions. While the League of Nations pact may have some minor faults yet it calls for the endorsement of the United States senate, at least until something better can be evolved, and those who bluntly stand in the way of its execution obstruct progress and retard the world in its struggle for advancement along ideal lines.

Great good has been accomplished overseas by our president and it is the fervent hope of all Americans that the same spirit guide him in finding a solution to the many perplexing problems which now confront this country.

The Chamber of Commerce of Adrian, since its recent re-orgainization, has taken on some "pep" and is preparing to do something for the old county seat town. The latest movement is to procure more houses — homes that will be fit to live in—homes to house comfortably the families of laboring men, especially skilled mechanics.

Tecumseh needs more homes. Just now it is impossible to rent a desirable house or even an apartment. Despite this demand there are actually places standing idle, depreciating in value for want of care that occupancy would give because the owners will not rent their property. Several houses that would make desirable homes are thus standing idle and gradually deteriorating in value through non-use. There are also several places going to waste that would make excellent living apartments. Look at the old Coller place, corner of Chicago and Pearl streets, standing idle month after month in one of the finest locations for apartments in Tecumseh. The Vendoma hotel is another place that could be remodeled into apartments to house several families, and then we have three vacant school houses that could be converted into residences. Why should all this property go to waste?

Tecumseh is a live city, but to keep in the ranks of progressive cities it must provide homes for people that desire to take up their residence here. No person or community can stand still and progress. Standing still means retrogration; to progress we must advance.

Will Tecumseh join the nationwide movement to procure more homes so people who wish to locate in our beautiful city will not pass us by?

Again Tecumseh faces a water famine and unless rains come soon and plenty to replenish the wells supplying, the municipal water works system residents who did not take advantage of the street oiling may be compelled to eat dust in larger and more constant quantities. Already the village council has ordered restrictions in the use of water, and unless relief comes, sprinkling privileges may be denied entirely. Of course, the wells go dry during the dry season when the dust is the deepest and auto tourists stir it up most thoroughly. Residents along oiled thoroughfares will not be affected as far as their street frontage. They can use the restricted water privilege to keep their lawns green.

The Herald has been asked by numerous residents if Tecumseh will do any more street oiling. Answer was made that it is up to the residents to petition the council. There is no doubt but what the city dads would be willing to purchase an oiling wagon if enough petitions were presented.

It took only nine minutes to decide on July 4 who is the better man—Willard or Dempsey. This fight for the heavy weight championship is an apt illustration that better men are born each year. In any branch of work it behooves us not to get the idea that no one can fill our place. Nine minutes or less may convince at any time of our error or over confidence.

TIPTON

Letter From Soldier.

This letter regarding the duty which Private, First Class, J. Wade VanValkenburg is doing will be of interst, he having graduated from the Tecumseh high school in 1918 and also was employed in the Webster-Anderson dry goods store and in John Nylan's shoe store. The letter is as follows:

Brest, France, June 12, 1919.

Dear Ones at Home:

Just a short letter tonight to let you know how I am getting along. Well, I arrived in Brest last night from St. Nazaire. It has changed so here that I would not know the place. The place where we lived in dog tents last fall is now " buildings. They have the buildings all painted up and everything looks fine. We are staying in large tents, with six men to a tent. They have floors in, also now they have spring bunks in them so everything is fine. This would not be a very bad place to be stationed now. They also feed fine here, casual kitchens even put out good meals.

However, we will not be here very long, as we are to go to Schleswig-Holstein along about June 20. This place is in a narrow neck of land now owned by Germany, formerly by Denmark. The people seem to want to go back under Danish rule so they are to take a popular vote on it. The allies are afraid that the Germans will rush lots of voters here so as to carry the election. We are going there to keep order. Just how big a job we have on our hands is unknown, but we are going prepared for the worst.

We are the only full company from the Thirteenth regiment that is going. Just why we were picked is unknown to us. The rest are from the Eleventh regiment and other marine outfits over here. I think that we were very lucky to be chosen to go to this place. I will have a chance to see some more country, and much different experience. I understand that there are no soldiers there now, so we ought to have a good thing out of it.

I understand that England is to send her marines too, also I think that we will be under English officers, that is an English officer will be in command of the expedition. We will probably go from here on battleships around through the English Channel. Just how long we will be at this place will depend on conditions there, probably the Thirteenth regiment will be home before we are. But we ought not to be gone over two or three months.

However, I have given up all hopes of being able to get back to school this fall. But perhaps it is just as well. I expect that the mail service will be very bad so probably after I leave here it will be some time before I can get any more letters to you. But I will write pretty often so that when they do get through to you, you will have a good bunch of them. You know the boats won't come to this place as often as they do to France. But don't ever worry about me for I will be having a good time seeing just that much more to tell you about when I get home. I probably will be able to write a few more letters before we leave, also I hope that I get some more before we leave, because it probably will be a long time before I get any letters from home. When I do get a nice bunch of them I will read them in the order that they were written and it will be like a continued story.

We certainly have fine captain now. He gets us everything that he can and does all he can to make us comfortable. I think that I will have it on Joe S and the rest of the boys in many ways when I get home anyway.

I guess this is all the news, so will close. Lots of love,

Wade.

Water Should Be Used Sparingly

TOWN WELLS ARE LOW AND CONSERVATION IS NECESSARY.

Council Enforces Sprinkling Restrictions; Hitching Place and Full-Time Fireman Also Discussed.

A shortage of water is threatened in Tecumseh, it was reported at the meeting of the village council Monday evening, and sprinkling restrictions have been put into effect in the hope of preventing a crisis. Other important matters to come before the council was the problem of providing hitching places for the farmers when they come to town and hiring a full-time fireman to drive the auto fire-fighting apparatus. No action was taken in regard to these two matters, they to be taken up at the next meeting.

There were a large number of bills presented, all being acted upon favorably and ordred paid.

The building and grounds committee, to which was referred the matter of securing a suitable place for establishing a village hitching station, reported that two possible sites had been investigated but neither had been accepted. During the discusion at some time planed to provide a place in Tecumseh where farmers could safely hitch their teams and where no charges would be made. It was suggested that in view of the fact that the business men were willing to stand at least part of the expense of establishing such a place that it would be advisable that the council committee consult with the Commerce Club and see if the hitching place could not be conducted jointly by the village council and the business men's association. It was decided to follow this course, and the committee is to report its findings at the next session of the council.

Several of the councilmen were of the opinion that Tecumseh has become large enough to need a full-time fireman, whose duty it would be to keep the automobile fire truck in condition and to be on hand at all times to drive the vehicle to all fires. It was stated that such an employe is needed and that he would have time to do other little jobs, such as care for the village flag, take charge of the clock attached to the ornamental street lighting system and look after other little details which might develop from time to time. The truck driver would make his home at the fire station and be ready for duty at all times. There was much discussion of this important matter and the committee reported it had already made some progress in securing a suitable man for the progress in securing a suitable man for the place. As several details are yet to be worked out, the committee was continued with instructions to report at the next meeting.

The committee having the water works plant under its jurisliction reported the wells are very low and that a water famine was threatened unless steps were taken to prevent such a serious condition. It was ordered that restrictions be placed on sprinkling for the time being at least and the hours when water may be used for this purpose have been set at from 6 to 8 a. m. and from 5 to 8 p. m. The people are warned to observe these regulations strictly if they would assist in keeping Tecumseh from facing a critical situation.

Several cases needing the attention of the health officer were called to his attention and prompt action is to be taken.

Notice of Annual School Meeting.

The annual Meeting of School District No. 7 of the Township of Tecumseh, for the election of School District Officers and for the transaction of such other business as may lawfully come before it, will be held at Public Library, on Monday the 14th day of July, 1919, at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Dated this 30th day of June, 1919.

C. F. Patterson, Director.

o

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at the annual meeting of School District Number 7, Township of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, to be held on the 14th day of July, 1919 at 8 o'clock p. m. at the Public Library, there will be submitted to the electors present the question of whether or not this District shall adopt the provisions relating to classification of school districts provided under Act No. 166, Public Acts, 1917, as required by said Act.

July 5th, 1919.
Joseph H. Smith, President.
C. F. Patterson, Secretary.
Chas. Burridge,
E. D. Brown.
Fred B. Wood.
Board of Education.

Note—(The Act above referred to provides for reclassification of all school districts having a population of 500 or more and less than 75,000.

Such districts are divided in two classes; districts having a population of 12,000 or more and less than 75,000, shall be a school district of the third class. If the provisions of the law are adopted by the district the districts coming within this class are governed by and operated under laws very different from those controlling school districts generally.

But districts adopting the law and having a population of 500 or more and less than 12,000 shall be a school district of the fourth class. All districts adopting the provisions of the law and by population falling into this fourth class, are governed by and operated under the same general laws of the state under which they are now operating and by which they are now governed.

This being the law, the adoption of the provisions of this act will make no change whatever in the law governing the district, but the question will be submitted as the Act referred to requires that the question be acted upon by all districts of population between 500 and 75,000, not later than the coming annual meeting.) 7-10

The coal shortage of the winter of 1917-1918 is still fresh in our minds. It is hard to believe now the war is over that the same thing can happen in 1919-1920, but this is the warning that comes from the Government. The quantity of soft coal mined this year is far below the amount needed to keep up the country's supply. The reasons are shortage of labor and cars, and there is no reason to expect any improvement in the situation.

Take the advice of the Government and

A post of the American Legion is to be formed at Tecumseh the evening of Friday, July 18, and all soldiers, sailors and marines from this vicinity who participated in any way in the world war are invited to join the organization. The meeting will be held in Grange hall in Tecumseh and will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Miss Mildred Frayer is home from attending the deaf and dumb school in Flint. It is wonderful the progress the little lady has made, in just one year, in articulating. Before coming home she had her tonsils and adenoids removed and this also assists her much in her work. Her friends are doubly pleased over the result as it promises to soon be an easy matter to converse with her.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bradley, formerly our editors of the Britton Messenger, have decided to change their abiding place, as we understand they have purchased a home in Morenci. He will continue his job printing and enter more extensively in fancy poultry raising as he will have much more room than here. They expect to leave for their new home sometime this month.

Britton was well represented on the Fourth at Wampler's lake. Those who owned cottages were there with friends, a number went to attend the M. P. church picnic and others went to see the "sights." A pleasing feature of the occasion was the races in which Britton came of victorious, as is quite often the case. Wilber Clark took the lead in carrying off first honors in the foot races, hurdle jumping, broad jump and swimming contest, while other contestants from here carried off several of the other prizes. In the evening others motored up to see the fireworks and attend the dancing party.

Have a Heart For Red Cross

There is still great want and suffering in the countries of our Allies and in the over-run countries of eastern Europe, and here in our own country we still have many wounded soldiers to take care of, many of whom are so disabled that they must be re-educated; many families of soldiers to help and much aid to be given to returned soldiers in getting their many problems straightened out.

Lenawee's Red Cross Home Service has done, and is doing, an immense amount of good work for the soldiers and their families. If you don't believe it, ask the boys.

Strength

WOMEN NEED STRENGTH to meet the stress of life during these troublous times. Worry, anxiety or sorrow undermine strength and health. To be strong and well, all the organs of the body must perform the functions assigned to them by nature.

Foley Kidney Pills

help weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder to normal and healthy action, so that the system is freed from waste and poisonous matter that causes backache, pains in side, sore muscles, stiff joints, lumbago, rheumatism, puffiness under eyes and kindred symptoms.

Mrs. J. D. Miller, Syracuse, N.Y., writes: "For many years, off and on, I suffered from kidney trouble and rheumatism. I had a severe backache and felt miserable, and I got to a place where I had to do something. I bought Foley Kidney Pills and after taking two bottles I can say my backache is gone, and where I used to lie awake nights with rheumatic pains, I now sleep in comfort and enjoy a good night's rest. Foley Kidney Pills did wonderful things for me, and I recommend them."

Biliousness

WHEN you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. There is nothing better.

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs.

This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the weaknesses and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil is inclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 5 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a small swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. Go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand, in sealed packages.

SAYS COMMUNITY WELFARE SOCIETY IS NEEDED IN TECUMSEH

there has been far less, so the speaker has been informed. As to houses of ill repute, so far as investigation proves, there is no public house of this sort in town.

9. Play grounds.

10. Sunday closing. We have laws commanding the closing of business places and shows on Sunday, but we do not enforce them.

Other needs as mentioned were the curfew law, more hitching places and less foul language on the streets.

The community services this season have been both a success and failure. People have been attracted to church who are not in the habit of attending, hence religion has been popularized in some degree. Yet no definite community movement has been produced, nor the attendance there should have been. In those points the services have been a failure.

The very thing hoped for has not been accomplished—the elimination of jealousy between the churches. There is no more friendly feeling now than six months ago. "We also failed in getting the patronage of all churches." I am not sure whether they should be continuel next fall."

The "community church" problem appears to be idealistic—a great ideal which, should we realize we would be no better off. Many of our people are a better church people than christians, hence the idea is absolutely impossible. Such a church could have no creed and would be isolated, with no attachment to other churches would soon die.

Tecumseh is below the average in number of trained minds. If there lived and worked here the college trained folk of the last ten years it would be a different place. But we have to bear the curse of all small towns. Our young folks after they are educated live elsewhere.

Another thing all the towns hereabouts need is outside blood. With two more generations of intermarrying there will be either no children or a brainless community.

The one great need of our town is loyalty, both to the town and country. Out of the 1,000 tax payers of this community, meaning 2,000 people, there were but 1,309 bond buyers in the fourth loan. Then on the fifth loan, the Victory loan, there were but 500 buyers, and but 500 subscribers to the Patriotic League. In another thing are we behind nearly every wayside station in this end of the state. On neither of our stations is there a "Welcome Home, Boys," We show no loyalty to laws that are not in force or obeyed. What little anarchists we are!

The following from Abraham Lincoln's speeches was quoted: "Let reverence for the laws be breathed by every American mother to the lisping babe that prattles on her lap; let it be taught in the schools, let it be writen in primers, spelling books and almanacs; let it be preached from the pulpits, let it become the political religion of the nation, and let the old and young, the rich and the poor, the grave and the gay, of all sexes and tongues and colors and conditions, sacrifice unceasingly upon its altars."

Some will be saying, "Please Mr. Preacher, proclaim something practical to improve these conditions."

1. Let's have a Community Welfare organization. We have now no voice to cry, but such an organization made up of representatives from the different churches and societies of the town would be heard. Then again we have no arm to strike. Such an organization would have that arm.

2. We need a real democratic form of town government. We can't pass a law for our town by a majority vote.

Better than a community church, we need community financial support of our present churches. Many who are only grammar school students are better paid in our shops than our ministry who are college men. The churches are for the benefit of the community and should be so supported by all in the community.

"All in all I personally think Tecumseh's is average, but is far from ideal. The Christ still yearns for Tecumseh as he did for Jerusalem in days gone by.

The chief musical number of the evening was by the Temple Quartet and was probably their last appearance as such an organiztion, as Floyd Juckette is moving out of town. Their number was delightful and heartily encored, to which they responded with their old favorite "The Little Brown church in the Glen."

Next Sunday night the Community service will be held in the Baptist church. Afterward the ministry will decide whether to continue these services.

"Meats in Storage"

Every working day of the year 75,000,000 pounds of meat are required to supply home and export needs—and only 10 per cent of this is exported.

These facts must be kept in mind when considering the U. S. Bureau of Markets report that on June 1, 1919, there were 1,348,000,000 pounds of meats in cold storage. If the meat in storage was placed on the market it would only be 20 days' supply.

This meat is not artificially withheld from trade channels to maintain or advance prices.

Meats in storage consist of—65 per cent (approximately) hams, bacon, etc., in process of curing. It takes 30 to 90 days in pickle or salt to complete the process.

10 per cent is frozen pork that is to be cured later in the year.

6 per cent is lard. This is only four-fifths of a pound per capita, and much of it will have to go to supply European needs.

19 per cent is frozen beef and lamb, part of which is owned by the Government and was intended chiefly for over-seas shipment. If this were all diverted to domestic trade channels, it would be only 1½ lbs. per capita—a 3 days' supply.

100%

From this it will be seen that "meats in storage" represent merely unfinished goods in process of curing and the working supply necessary to assure the consumer a steady flow of finished product.
